26 ENTER FIELD FOR POSTS ON AG COLLEGE CAMPUS

Keen Competition Doped to Center Around Offices in Coll-Agri-Fun.

POLLS TO OPEN AT 9

Six Men and Women File For Positions on Fair Board.

The Ag college spring election, postponed last week for lack of filings, opens this morning with no dearth of candidates. Vernon Filley, ag executive board president, said Monday that filings for most offices were unusually heavy and that competition for positions would be with a total of twenty-six in the field.

The polls open at 9 a. m. and will remain open for voting until 5 p. m. Filley said Monday he hoped every student in the college would remember to bring his identification card when he came to the campus Tuesday, and that he expected to see an unusually heavy vote.

Keenest competition in the Tuesday election was doped to center around the Coll-Agri-Fun offices and men's positions on the 1934-35 senior Farmers' Fair board. On the Coll-Agri-Fun committee nine women filed. Three, Filley said, were ineligible. Two women will be elected Tuesday from the remaining six.

CORNHUSKER OFFICE TO CLOSE THURSDAY

250 Copies of Annual Still Uncalled For Miller Announces.

With the closing of the Cornhusker offices for the year, no more copies of the yearbook will be available at the office after Thursday, according to Maynard Miller, assistant business manager. There are still 250 copies to be distributed, and if they are not obtained by Thursday, a special appointment must be made with a member of the business staff.

Tuesday afternoon, most of the fraternity and sorority copies of the book with names printed in gold on the cover will be available. The remainder of these will arrive Wednesday morning.

Over 750 copies of the yearbook have been distributed already, according to Bob Thiel, business manager, and all remaining copies are on hand at the office.

TODAY'S NEWS Briefly Reviewed

Accidents, including air crashes, train wrecks and fire took their toll thru the nation over the weekend with an especially large number of fatalities recorded in Nebraska. Orrin O. Jones, Litchfield, pilot and James V. Meade, of Oak Ridge, N. J. flying student, went to their death Sunday morning when the plane Jones was piloting crashed to earth near the airport, crushing both men. Witnesses said the plane had been stunting.

Two Grand Island youths perished early Monday morning when the oil truck they were driving turned over a mile and a half south of Clay Center and burst into flames. The dead youths were Bob Sautter, 18, and Jack Lewis, 20. It was not known whether the boys were killed instantly or burned to death since the bodies were burned beyond recognition. Identification was made through owners of the oil truck.

While thousands of workmen searched the smoking remains of Chicago's gas fire, one body, believed to be that of a workman, was found, and fears were expressed that others would be discovered later. Work was made more difficult because of the charred carcasses of hundreds of livestock which had perished. There was some looting as men who lost their jobs converged on partially ruined stores which had been damaged by the blaze.

Nebraska will receive $33,690 out of three million dollars allotted to the states for co-operation with the federal government in the operation of a United States employment service providing the state proportionate amount with an appropriation equal to it. State Director Connel said the federal re-employment service will be the appropriation cannot be made until the legislature meets in January. The money is for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935.

ROTC STUDENTS END WORK WITH ANNUAL COMPET WEDNESDAY

Pick Best Company, Platoon, Individual Wednesday in Final Drill.

Selection of the best company, platoon, and individual in drill competition will be made at the fortieth annual R. O. T. C. competition, to be held at 1:30 on Wednesday, May 23, on the mall in front of the Coliseum.

The principal award, the Omaha cup, will be presented to the company most proficient in company drill. Forty minutes is allotted to each company for inspection of company drill, manual of arms, physical drill, inspection of ranks, and extended order drill, which will be conducted by the commanding officers of the company. Non-commissioned officers will lead platoon drills, and the Lincoln theater cup will be awarded to the winner of this competition. Extended order drill will be held on the drill field north of the stadium. Four cadets selected from each company will assemble for individual compet, immediately after company and platoon competition. A fifteen dollar prize, given by the American Legion auxiliary, will be awarded the best basic student, and a twenty-five dollar prize, offered by the D. A. R. will be presented to the most proficient advanced student.

Award Bars.

In addition to the Omaha cup, blue bars will be awarded to individuals in the winning company. Red bars will be awarded to the company winning second place, and yellow bars to third. Medals will be presented to the commanding officers of both the winning company and winning platoon. Preparations are being made by the department for a record crowd, according to Colonel Oury. Since Wednesday is "Lincoln Day," bus and railroad fares to Lincoln are reduced, and a much larger crowd than former years is expected. Six tents instead of the usual two will be set up, and more bleachers will be added. Lemonade will be served to both competitors and visitors between events.

W. A. A. GIVES MISS LEE CHARGE CABIN PLANS

Group Reveals Schedule Remaining Athletic Contests.

Final arrangements for construction of the W. A. A. cabin have been placed in charge of Miss Mabel Lee, chairman of the physical education department for women.

Schedules for the remainder of athletic events were also announced Monday. The final match in the archery tourney will be shot Friday between Kappa Delta and Delta Gamma, while Raymond Hall and Delta Gamma closed the baseball competition Monday afternoon.

In the closing games of Deck Tennis Alpha Omicron Pi will meet Phi Omega Pi, Chi Omega will play Alpha Phi, and Alpha Chi Omega will go against Alpha Delta Theta. According to the announcement eight teams are matched in the first round of the badminton tournament.

REV. AITKEN TO TALK AT SIGMA DELTA CHI DINNER

Sigma Delta Chi members will meet Wednesday for a 6 o'clock dinner at the Cornhusker hotel. Rev. Walter Aitken, St. Paul M. E. church will address the fraternity, speaking of famous authors, with special reference to those from Nebraska. Wednesday's dinner will be the last meeting of the journalism organization.

L. C. WIMBERLY AUTHOR OF MAGAZINE ARTICLE

Prof. L. C. Wimberly, Prairie Schooner editor, has written an article, "Hard Times Singing," which is to appear in the June issue of American Mercury. Dr. Wimberly speaks of the absence of songs during the last few years, since the period of economic stress began. He sketches some songs of former hard times, written in Nebraska.

FINALE OF 'FRESH MUSIC' CONCERTS SET FOR TONIGHT

Composition by Kirkpatrick Will Be Played for First Time.

GIVE BACH SELECTION

Sunday, Monday Programs Presented by String Quartet.

Dr. Howard Kirkpatrick, director of school of music, composed the new song, "The Singers," which will be presented for the first time to an audience tonight by the Choral Union in Grant Memorial hall at 8:15 under the direction of Dr. Kirkpatrick.

The grand finale of the three spring concerts of "fresh" music will be one of the humorous compositions by Johann Sebastian Bach who is better known for his choral work of a serious or religious character.

The libretto by Picander is made up of banding, more or less homely, between the country folk and those who try to impress by introduction of new style courtly manners. Many folk airs are employed.

Other musical numbers to be presented are: The Heavens Resound by Beethoven; He Watching Over Israel, from "Elijah," by Mendelssohn; and Steal Away, arranged by Fisher.

THE PEASANT CANTATA.

By Johann Sebastian Bach. (1685-1750.)

Introduction. Chorus—Good neighbors all. Recit.—Come, Kitty. Chorus—Spring comes laughing. Recit.—Our master we all respect. Aria—Of the factor you had best beware. Recit.—Enough of him. Aria—Happy the land. Recit.—Our master thinks of old and young. Chorus—Good cause have we. Recit.—An now I ask you all. Aria—Pity for me seem a lot. Recit.—One moment, please. Aria—Of flowers the fairest. Recit.—Think goodness that is over. Chorus—If fortune had made me the master. Recit.—And I were the lady so fair. Chorus—Hej derry, down derry. Recit.—Perhaps you're right. Aria—And now, I think. Recit.—And now, I think we've had enough. Chorus—And now 'tis time to go. Recit.—Lead on, I follow. Chorus—Now let us to the bagpipe's sound. Ardent Pierce at the piano.

Cathedral Choir To Offer Annual Program May 25

Great Cathedral choir will present an unusual group of selections from Russian, Roman and German church music in their annual concert Friday evening, May 25, at 8:15 o'clock, at Irving junior high school. John M. Rosborough will conduct. Miss Vivian Cowgill, harpist, will appear on the program.

"The choir has made more progress this year than ever before with a repertoire that demands musicianship," said Mr. Rosborough. "This was due in part to an evening grade of understanding from the choir personnel."

Discriminating musicians have recognized this as one of America's foremost musical organizations and of its fifty-four members, nearly all are university students. "The east has nothing like it," stated William Ames Fisher, president of Fisher Music Publishing Company, and past president of National Music Teachers' association. "The Middle West has taken the lead in a capella singing."

Tryouts for next year's choir are being received during May.

The newly elected officers and cabinet are: Wilma C. Bute, Lincoln, president; Helen G. Caulk, Lincoln, vice president; Ruth B. Mitchell, recording secretary; Belle L. Graves, Lincoln, treasurer; Valida G. Davis, Lincoln, chaplain; Helen K. Forbuzer, Elkhorn, corresponding secretary; and Florence E. West, Eagle, historian.

Chairmen of standing committees are: Mildred Williams, program chairman; Ruth Hornbuckle, membership; Margaret Ritsness, social; Carlene Phillippe, Christian service; Mary Porter, invitations; Jane Forney, publicity; Alice King, art; Dorothea De Kay, music; Marian Flak, properties; Lillian Seibold, stenography, and Mary Reed, intramural. Both officers and committee chairmen are elected for one year.

Installation of officers was held at a dinner banquet May 17 at the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was the senior farewell dinner and seniors were presented with a gift at that time. Immediately following the dinner meeting, formal initiation of new members was held under direction of the new cabinet.

Vacancies in Two Residence Halls Are Announced

Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women in charge of housing university women, Monday announced vacancies in Howard and Wilson Halls. These two houses which were established on a co-operative basis are under the supervision of the office of the Dean of Women.

Five girls who now reside in Howard Hall will be graduated this spring and these places will be filled by either junior or senior women. Wilson Hall residents must be freshmen and sophomore women and Miss Piper announces that there will be a few vacancies there, too.

Women who are selected for residence in these two halls must have good scholastic records and character and must have shown a need to live economically. Dean Amanda Heppner and Miss Piper are in charge of choosing members of these co-operative houses.

Miss Piper requests that students interested in living in either of these residence halls make application to her before the close of school this spring.

BASH PERKINS IS NEW YWCA VICE-PRESIDENT

Cabinet Names Delegates to Estes Park Meeting In June.

NAME FROSH LEADERS

Bash Perkins, Arnold, was elected vice president of the Y. W. C. A. by the Y. W. cabinet in their last meeting of the year, 5 o'clock Monday afternoon in Ellen Smith Hall. Miss Perkins will replace Violet Cross, who resigned. Official delegates to the Estes conference, new freshman commission leaders and chairman, and a new cabinet member were also decided upon at the meeting.

Elaine Fontein, Mary Edith Hendricks, Helen Lutz, Phyllis Jean Humphrey, and Bash Perkins are the official voting delegates to the Rocky Mountain council meeting of the Y. W. C. A., which will be held during the Estes conference, June 8 to 18 in Estes Park, Colo. At this time, the by-laws of the National Student Council of the Y. W. C. A. will be revised and voted upon. Barbara Lutz of Manhattan, Kas. is chairman of the regional council and Miss Stella Scurlock, Kansas City, is the advisor. One delegate is allowed for every 100 Y. W. members.

Adele Tombrink was elected to chairmanship of the membership staff in place of Louise Hosack.

Elaine Fontein, president of the Y. W., will be the chairman of the freshman commission leaders' group and will sponsor the freshman cabinet. New freshman commission leaders are Faith Arnold, Anne Pickett, Lois Rathburn, Marjorie Smith, Florence Buxman at Ag, and Violet Cross.
