

FRESHMEN INITIATED TODAY

Athletic Ticket Sales Mount

DUCAT CAMPAIGN STEADILY SOARING

Tassels Report Fifty Percent Increase in Faculty Buying as Over Last Year; Large Fraternity and Sorority Orders Secured.

STANFORD BASKETBALL GAME AIDS DRIVE

Sancha Kilbourne High Individual Salesman With Total of Seventy-Four; Ann Bunting, Past President, Backs Effort.

Indicative of the unified support of the athletic ticket this year was the report of a 50 percent increase in faculty ticket sales over last year.

EBENER PLAYS FOR 'WYOMING ROUNDUP' SATURDAY EVENING

Second Varsity Dance Will Be Held in Coliseum September 29.

With the music of Freddie Ebener's orchestra, the "Wyoming Roundup" varsity party in celebration of the Wyoming game, will get under way at 8:30 Saturday evening, Sept. 29, in the Coliseum.

The twelve piece orchestra is well known in this part of the state and will soon open a winter's engagement at the Hotel Fontenelle in Omaha.

AWGWAN SALES FAR EXCEED LAST YEAR'S

Combination Offer of Life and Awgwan Appeals To Students.

According to sales report for the first issue of the Awgwan, monthly humor magazine, subscriptions are far in excess of last year.

AG STUDENTS PLAN FORMAL FOR OCT. 26

Ross Named Manager of Annual 'Overall and Apron' Frolic.

Farmers Formal, annual "overall and apron" frolic of students in the college of agriculture will be held Oct. 26, it was decided at a meeting of all men students of the college Wednesday night.

Ward Bauder of Pauline and Elmer Heyne of Windsor, were elected members of the Ag student executive board, governing body in student activities.

Phi Tau Theta Holds Semester Election

Phi Tau Theta, Methodist men's fraternity, held its weekly meeting Tuesday, September 25, 1934, at which officers for the coming semester were elected.

JOURNALISTS MEET THURSDAY, SEPT. 27

Time for the meeting of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, has been set at 4 p. m. Thursday, September 27, in the Awgwan offices in University hall.

A Word to Our Faculty Friends--

The Daily Nebraskan's special 2 weeks' offer is an exceptional bargain to Faculty members.

Name Building Room Number

COUNCIL PLACES RALLY POWER IN NEW COMMITTEE

Innocents, Tassels and Cobs To Cooperate in Pep Demonstrations.

FULL CONTROL IS ASKED One Member of Governing Body to Work With Joint Group.

Control of student rallies went to a joint committee of Innocents, Corn Cobs and Tassels, it was decided in the student council meeting late yesterday afternoon.

The committee, under the plan adopted by the student governing body, will be composed of two members from each organization, to be selected by each club.

Fred Nicklas, innocent in charge of rallies, suggested the compromise plan as an alternative for the present arrangement, or for complete control by the two pep groups.

Prof. W. E. Lantz, student council advisor, suggested that the plan be placed in the hands of the Cobs, Nicklas stated that in his belief they would be given a chance if the pepsters were able to prove themselves capable.

Prof. W. E. Lantz, student council advisor, suggested that the plan be placed in the hands of the Cobs, Nicklas stated that in his belief they would be given a chance if the pepsters were able to prove themselves capable.

Sokolski, Fay to Give Addresses At Convocations

"Top-notchers" is what the two all-university convocations planned for this semester may be described as being.

The first of these convocations is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 30, and will present to the students of the university Mr. George E. Sokolski, whose subject will be the Russian, Japanese, and Manchurian situation.

Mr. Sokolski, described as a brilliant speaker, has lived in China, where he has been close to the governmental powers for over thirteen years, and has served for some time as the far eastern correspondent for the New York Times.

Mr. Fay, who is one of the best informed Frenchmen of the day on American life, will address students on the topic "Modern European Literature." The speaker is author of a biography of Benjamin Franklin, which is considered by many to be the best written.

WHITE PLANS 1934 FORENSIC SEASON

Annual Frosh Long Cup Debate Is Slated for December 13.

Tentative plans for the 1934 debate season are being formed by the coach, Prof. H. A. White, Early in October, announce men's scheduled debates and a call for try-outs will be issued, Professor White said.

Altho arrangements are not yet completed, it is hoped that Nebraska will meet the Kansas Aggie team this year. The annual freshman debate for the Long cup is definitely slated for the second Thursday in December.

Regional Chairman Says Sophistication Often Adolescent

"Average college sophistication is adolescent," claims Barbara Lantz, regional chairman of the Y. W. C. A. council. "It takes intelligence to be interesting and popular. Most college students shy at religion like a run-away horse."

Miss Lantz was a delegate two years ago to the convention of the World Student Christian Movement in England. She will speak to various Y. W. C. A. groups this week end. Miss Lantz is endeavoring to put new pep in the Y. W. C. A. in her region and trying to make students realize what Y. W. C. A. activities can do for them and mean to them.

VILLNAVE, HUNTER TO STAR IN 'SHINING HOUR'

Drama Sensational Success In London, Broadway, West Coast.

NEW COMERS HAVE ROLES

Veronica Villnave and Armand Hunter, popular young pair who had leading roles in a number of University Players productions last season, have been selected to play the leading roles in "The Shining Hour" by Keith Winter, which will open in the Temple theater on Oct. 8, Director Harold "Pete" Sumption announced Wednesday.

Miss Villnave will take the part of Mariella Linden, while Hunter, star of last year's "Another Language," will appear as David Linden.

Deals With English Farmers. This popular drama, which enjoyed sensational runs in London, on Broadway and on the west coast, deals with what may happen when English folk undertake to obey the high mandate of "noblesse oblige" into the end.

Perkins Appears in Cast. Dwight Perkins, sensational "find" of the Players last season, is also slated for an appearance in the opening production of the year, according to the cast released by Sumption Wednesday.

Arts College Frosh Take Psychological Exam September 29

All freshmen enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences are required to take the psychological examination which will be given in the Social Science auditorium Saturday, Sept. 29.

In order that there will be no waiting all freshmen whose last names begin with any letter from A to M inclusive have been asked to report at 8 o'clock. At 10 o'clock those whose names begin with a letter from N to Z will take the test.

The test, made up of eminent psychology authorities, is for the purpose of acquainting the professors with the talents, abilities, and likes and dislikes of the different students.

Hill Bans Prophecies of European War in Immediate Future as Highly Unlikely Under Financial Status

Despite almost daily reiterations of international economic and diplomatic entanglements, with and in European countries, each eliciting prophecies of a war in the immediate future, Prof. Norman L. Hill of the political science department maintains that an armed conflict on the continent is, for the present at least, practically an impossibility.

The war threat bugaboo, aroused by the Austrian crisis this summer, and kept active by controversy over Russian admission into the League of Nations and Mussolini's recent edict on a military educational program in Italy, has brought to the public mind several things, according to Hill, among them the fact that European nations

MEN'S PEP GROUP OUTLINES PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

Corn Cobs Set October 13 As Tentative Date For Party.

MILLER, NICKLAS SPEAK

Hill and Pester Are Elected To New Joint Rally Committee.

Rallying after their temporary setback, when the athletic department took away sale of athletic programs, Corn Cobs outlined a program of activity for the year at their first official meeting Wednesday night.

To take the place of the program sales as a means of raising funds the pep organization voted in favor of an all student party with Oct. 13 set as a tentative date. "It may prove to be a benefit that we have lost the program sales," declared Irving Hill, president of the Corn Cobs, "for now we will be able to sit in a group at all the games and perhaps help immeasurably in rousing spirit."

Brief talks were given by Maynard Miller and Fred Nicklas as representatives of Innocents, presenting that group's part in the rally program. Intramural Director Harold Petz also appeared, explaining the reason for taking program sales away from the pep organization.

Hill and Eugene Pester were elected as the Corn Cobs' representatives on the joint committee in charge of rallies established Wednesday by the Student Council. Other committees appointed Thursday night were: Orchestra, Dick Decker and Jacques Shoemaker; publicity, Irwin Ryan, Don Shurtleff, and George Pipal; tickets, Lew Halderon, Galen Jones, and Carl Wiggernhorn; sweaters, Evan Smith and Duke Reid.

New pledges announced at the Thursday night meeting were Harry Hammer, Mart Richards, Jack McKinsey, Evan Smith, George Custard, Elmer Scheele, Max Danborn, Clare Wiley, Payley Kent, George Pipal, Paul Kelly, Lewis Cass, Bob Hutton, Duke Reid, Everett Chittendon, Arnold Levine, Bill Calwell, Floyd Baker, Ted Bradley, Dick Reider, and Bill Laser.

Display Exhibits At Activity Tea In Ellen Smith

Freshmen girls may view the complete realm of university women's extra-curricular activities on Oct. 4 when the All Activities tea will be given in Ellen Smith hall. Altho they are primarily for new students, other girls are invited to visit the exhibits in order to gain a more complete knowledge of student affairs.

"Various rooms in the hall have been secured for the information booths," stated Mary Yoder, chairman of the group planning the tea. "Big Sisters will escort their Little Sisters and pledges will be brought by their sorority mothers," she declared, and we hope that all girls will come."

Women's Athletic Association will establish its bureau in the office of Miss Piper, the assistant dean of women; the Associated Women Students in their own room; the Y. W. C. A. in the Y office; Big Sister officers in their own room and representatives from sundry publications in the Panhellenic office.

Several presidents of women's honorary groups will probably be present. A. W. S. will furnish the refreshment; Big Sisters, the program; W. A. A. has charge of the decorations, and the Y. W. C. A. will make and distribute the posters advertising the tea.

CEREMONIES TO BE HELD AT COLISEUM

Frosh Excused From 11 O'clock Classes to Attend Annual Convocation After Meeting Band, Pep Groups in Front of Social Science.

FRANKFORTER TO ADMINISTER HUSKER OATH

Members of Two Senior Honoraries With Faculty University Officials to Conduct Services; Weir to Take Motion Pictures.

Freshman students will be officially initiated into the university Thursday morning, when the annual initiation ceremonies will be staged at the coliseum starting at 11 o'clock.

All freshmen will be excused from 11 o'clock classes so that they may attend the convocation, and all freshman boys will be expected to wear their red caps, all freshman girls their freshman pins.

Immediately after dismissal of 10 o'clock classes the band, Tassels and Corn Cobs together with the freshmen will meet in front of Social Science, from where they will proceed in a body to the coliseum.

A last minute warning to all freshmen to secure their red caps before the convocation was issued Wednesday by Henry Kosman, innocent in charge of the freshman caps.

"The Innocents expect to rigidly enforce the rule requiring freshmen to wear the red caps in the traditional manner this year," said Kosman, "and all of the yearlings are requested to secure their caps as soon as possible."

Freshmen who have not yet secured their caps may do so Thursday morning for a special booth will be maintained in Social Science, according to Kosman. Those who fail to get their caps before Thursday's program will find a booth at the entrance to the coliseum immediately before and after the convocation where they may purchase the caps.

"Freshmen should bear in mind that the cap is a mark of class distinction, one they should be proud to wear during the specified time," Kosman said in announcing the final drive to insure proper headgear for the first-year boys.

"Most of the freshmen already have their caps, and we are conducting the late booths in an effort to make the wearing of the caps as near 100 percent as possible."

Plans for the annual convocation, at which Col. C. J. Frankforter will administer the oath, (Continued on Page 3).

TEA FOR ALL WOMEN STUDENTS THURSDAY

Dean Heppner Plans Musical Program for Affair in Ellen Smith Hall.

The program for the annual tea given by the Dean of Women, Miss Amanda Heppner, for all women students Thursday from 3 to 5 p. m. at Ellen Smith Hall will consist of musical selections by Ethel Owen, violinist and Mrs. Rolla Van Kirk, vocalist, with Karma Venable as accompanist. Ethel Owen will play "Chant" by White, "Schon Rosmarin" by Kreisler, and "Thais" (Meditation) by Massenet.

These will be followed by Mrs. Van Kirk singing "Pacin la Notte Placidia" from "Il Trovatore." "Aria" by Tenaglia, "Canzonetta, Ad Ambrosio" Opus 6, and "Romance" by Wieniawski, will be played by Ethel Owen.

Mrs. Van Kirk will sing "Where Heaven Is" by O'Hara and the Song of the "New Dawn" by O'Hara.

Concluding the program will be "From the Canebrake" by Gardner and "Midnight Bells" by Kreisler played by Ethel Owen.

Dean Heppner will introduce her staff at the tea. They are, Mrs. E. A. Burnett, wife of the chancellor; Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women; Dr. Elizabeth Williamson, social director of Raymond Hall and assistant dean of women; Mrs. Ada Westover, employment secretary, and Miss Bernice Miller, Y. W. C. A. secretary.

Student Directory Nearly Completed

The student directory is nearing its first stage of completion, according to Bob Funk, business manager of the publication. About seven-eighths of the registration cards have been alphabetized, and the fraternity and sorority section is nearly complete.

ONLY 3 Days Left to Buy The Nebraskan for $1

Because of conflict with Y. W. C. A. Vespers, the first meeting of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalistic sorority, has been postponed until Thursday, Sept. 27, at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. A new secretary will be elected to fill the vacancy of Margaret Easterday, who is not in school this year.