SIX VETERANS REPORT FOR WRESTLING SQUAD

Coach Adams Anticipates Successful Season For Matmen.

With six returning lettermen and a host of promising candidates, Coach Jerry Adams is looking forward to a successful season for his Husker wrestling squad.

Altho the formal practice is not scheduled to start until after Thanksgiving, most of the men are working out daily to round into shape ahead of time. Workouts are being held from 9 a. m. until noon every day and at 1 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Included in the list of letter winners available for this year's team is Adam Green of Lincoln, a 145 pounder who is showing rapid improvement. Russell Cummings of Cheney is back for another try in the 126 pound class. Banno Funken, former Omaha South star and a 175 pound grappler, Wally DeBrown of Lincoln, a heavyweight, John Bishop who wrestles at 135 pounds, and Jack Thomas, a Lincoln product in the 145 pound division, all won letters last season, and are looking for their peak achievements this year.

"Dutch" Simons, former national interscholastic A. A. U. champion, is a leading threat among the newcomers. Bauder, Brandt, Tomich, Schricker, Nordstrom and Mechem, numeral winners of last season freshmen will bolster the squad, while Plummer, Gray, Focht, Yost, Swanson, Lown, Mallon, Schweiger, Smith, Mattson, Oebser, Franks, Cahoon, Ellis, Thompson, Chase and Bornemier are expected to make strong bids for a varsity berth, in their first year of competition.

The complete schedule will not be released for a month, but Coach Adams indicated that the Husker matmen may go outside conference circles for matches, as well as participating in the Big Six.

NO CONCESSIONS MADE HAWKEYES

(Continued from Page 1.) that Nebraska will need all defensive power possible Saturday with Iowa sending such men as dusky Oze Simmons, Dick Crayne, and Russ Fisher in search of victory. The Fort Worth Negro who can return punts, catch passes, run sensationally, and do everything else on the gridiron, seems slated to give the Huskers a long afternoon.

Coach Solem fears overconfidence among his Hawkeys, however, and has been fighting that feeling all week.

"This Nebraska team is going to be mighty tough," he told his squad. "They are going to outweigh you in the line and anybody who knows Nebraska knows that that team always has plenty of tricks up its sleeve."

The Iowa squad, thirty-three strong, leaves Thursday for Lincoln. The Iowa backfield outweighs the Husker backs by about ten pounds per man, altho Nebraska holds a general per man advantage of 181 1-2 to 180.

SPORTSING

By LLOYD HENDRICKS

The sign in the Nebraska dressing room for this weekend reads, "Iowa, a wonderful chance for a comeback." Nebraska needs just such an opportunity as Iowa affords. By a victory over Iowa they can still rate among the strongest teams in the nation.

Beat Iowa is the slogan on every side. Beat Iowa and then for Oklahoma, but that is getting pretty far into the future.

The writer does not think that Minnesota will walk away with the game when they meet Iowa. It is likely to be a very similar score to the one in the Nebraska game, but Iowa has more than a good chance to win the Big Ten tussle.

This week Pitt Panthers meet Southern California. The game will be played in Pittsburgh. Smarting from a 13 to 0 defeat at the hands of Washington State the Trojans have been accused by the Daily Trojan, school newspaper, of having "gone Hollywood"—in simpler words turned "sissy."

The editorial commenting upon the Trojan play said that a "team of Hollywood-struck boys who once knew how to play football, but having been persuaded that they are already All Americans, now only go thru the motions."

Pitt has been concentrating on a line. They want a strong line. A line that can withstand the plunging of Bobby Grayson.

When one man on the Iowa team takes the field he will have the satisfaction of knowing that his football shoes were made to order. Fleet Oze Simmons, Iowa's great Negro halfback needs more pointed cleats so he will not slip when he turns.

The new cleats were sharply tapered so that they will dig into the sod and hold.

Young Buddy Baer, brother to the great one, engaged in his first professional bout Wednesday night with Max Brown, a third-rate heavy from Oklahoma and scored a technical knockout in one round. Starting a right hand smash from his side, the 247 pound Baer felled Brown for the count of nine. Another flurry of rights and Brown was staggering. Referee Duffy interfered before the bout could progress further and held up Bud's hand.

We are reminded of the time Bud fought Max a few exhibition rounds before a crowd in Omaha. The younger Baer certainly looked fast, but maybe it was because his older brother was giving the kid a chance to show off.

S.A.E., Farm House, A.G.R., Sig Ep Keep Positions In Touch Football.

Thursday was a good day for leaders in intramural touch football in league II and IV as only one leader was tumbled from the top in a day marked by snappy running and bullet like passing.

The S. A. E. pigskin throwers and Farm House pellet tossers remained undefeated in the standings of league II. The S. A. E. snowed under the D. S. L. by the score of 22 to 0, while Farm House kept pace with a 1 to 0 victory over the Chi Phi. The Lambda Chi Alpha-D. U. tussle was postponed until Friday afternoon.

Alpha Gamma Rho and Sigma Phi Epsilon paced the field in league IV by trimming their opponents in good order. The Sig Eps passed and ran their way to a 15 to 0 win over Sigma Chi, while the A. G. R. snatched a close one from the Kappa Sig by the score of 6 to 0. Sigma Alpha Mu won by a forfeit over the Phi Gams.

Intramurals Will Receive Publicity In Out-State Papers

A new phase of publicity for university intramural athletics, whereby intramural activities of students will be published in their home town papers, is being developed by Harold Petz, intramural director, it was learned Thursday.

Any exceptional performance, comical situation, or unusual happening will be written and mailed to the local papers of the student's home town. The system, still in its formative stage, is expected to be in full swing within a week or two, it was stated.

Petz expressed his belief that the proposed plan would do much to increase out-state people's interest in the university's activities.
