

CAMPUSOCIETY

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY TO BEGIN to plan for the three large parties which are to be given on the campus this weekend besides the numerous house parties.

FARM HOUSE will hold the first party of the year at the Cornhusker hotel this evening, at 9 o'clock.

ZETA BETA TAU has incorporated several novel ideas into the plans for the Fall Frolic which it is holding at the Cornhusker hotel Saturday evening at nine o'clock.

ANOTHER PLACE to celebrate Armistice day and the Pitt-Nebraska game will be the Varsity party in the Coliseum at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

SPEAKING of house parties—there will be a mere twelve on the campus Saturday night which calls for quite a bit of running around and suggests that everyone will have themselves an hilarious time.

AT THE Gamma Phi Beta party the decorations will be red and white, Nebraska colors to you, and the chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. George M. Darlington, and the housemother, Helen McFarland, the social chairman, has made the arrangements.

ROBERTA SMITH has made the plans for the Theta party that will be held from 8:30 until 12 o'clock at the chapter house.

PI BETA PHI is also entertaining Saturday evening at a party at the chapter house from 8:30 until 11:30 o'clock.

PHI OMEGA PI will entertain Saturday night at a party at the chapter house at which Professor and Mrs. O. E. Sperry and Louise Munshaw will chaperone.

AND ANOTHER party being given is the one that Franklin Vandenberg, the social chairman of

PAGING THE SMART COED

Harpers says that the chic coed has a priceless opportunity this season to dress with flattering individuality. For true smartness the wearing of subtle colors is advised with a new rich dark green and a winey brown leading the color parade.

Plaid of all sizes and descriptions are very popular with Nebraska coeds for street wear. Eleanor Neale, Alpha Phi, sports a brown and rust plaid wool outfit which has attracted a great deal of attention on the campus.

With the approach of the Military Ball formal are coming into their own. Many of them have short fitted jackets and some of the most attractive we've seen have slits up the skirt either in back or at the sides, allowing for greater freedom in dancing.

Taller-than-average girls who have puzzled over the evening slipper problem will be delighted with the very low-heeled formal sandals being shown this season.

It's a Townsend photograph that satisfies.—Adv.

Members Discuss Possibility Bringing Speakers to University Campus.

A discussion of the possibility of bringing more speakers to the campus led to no decision at the Council of Religious Welfare luncheon Thursday at the Grand Hotel.

Dean O. J. Ferguson presided at the meeting, at which approximately thirty-five members of the faculty, religious workers and student groups were present.

Miss Miller discussed the way to organize student counselling on university campuses, and stated that the present day trend was away from curriculum centered universities, with emphasis on the needs of students.

With two outstanding parties at the Cornhusker this week end there will undoubtedly be some very, very stunning outfits which I shall be able to tell you about next week.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

SOCIOLOGY IS THE SCIENCE OF SOCIETY—PLATO AND ARISTOTLE PARTICULARLY. WERE THE FATHERS OF THIS SCIENCE— ETC., ETC., ETC.

THERE IS A DEFINITE TREND IN SOCIETY TOWARD A BETTER SMOKING TOBACCO AND THE REASON IS... "NO-BITE" PRINCE ALBERT!

Political Factions Present Platforms

PROGRESSIVES.

The progressive Party submits the following platform to the student body of the university.

1. The Progressive party stands for honesty in student government. We feel that unquestionable honesty is particularly important in the conduct of campus elections. Student government can never function at maximum efficiency nor can it have the support and trust of the student body as long as there is suspicion, distrust or actual malfeasance in the conduct of elections.

2. The Progressive party promises that any candidate elected under our banner shall be held strictly accountable to the party and to his duties.

3. The Progressive party deprecates the incessant political maneuvering and "wire pulling" practiced by the aspirants to the senior end of the Mortar Board in this respect. We pledge ourselves to support all methods of reorganization of student government which will tend to minimize this very cogent evil.

4. The progressive party deprecates many of the blind and ante-dated restrictions which govern campus social life. We pledge ourselves to an active campaign for the liberalization of those restrictions. We favor mixed swimming, a more reasonable closing for the sorority and organized houses, and the continuance of progress in the social life of the campus.

5. The Progressive party demands virility and true representation on the part of student officers. We advocate more potent and stringent methods of recall for cases of laxity in office.

6. The advancement of any proposals as may, during the coming year, be adjudged as to the benefit of the best interest of the student body.

In the foregoing planks the Progressive party has taken an open, clear cut stand on the controversial issues before the student body. The slogan of our party is "Progress Not Politics!"

The Progressive party was created to restore honesty to student government and to bring about the abolition of the evils and undercover maneuvering which always accompanies the planning of politics. With these purposes in mind we have drawn up our platform for the coming election. With confidence we submit it to the student body.

FACTIONS SQUARE OFF FOR BATTLE AT POLLS NOV. 13

By the Observer.

Outwardly calm but underneath the surface seething with unrest, campus political circles were awaiting anxiously the closing of the filing for election this afternoon and the announcement of candidates for junior and senior president, honorary colonel, and Nebraska Sweetheart.

Political factions hurled counter charges of theft of planks of their respective political platforms at each other, as first guns of the campaign spoke. Progressives labelled the book exchange of the Green Toga platform as a deliberate theft of a Progressive idea.

They also declared that Green Toga censure of the varsity party plan was unfounded for the present Progressive student council but applied to last year's Green Toga groups.

Green Toga leaders promptly responded with the reply that the Progressive platform was founded entirely on general principles, set forth after a Progressive man had seen the Green Toga platform, and that the Progressive platform was a copy of the Toga tenets with changed wording.

Both factions had selected their candidates and awaited only their formal announcement to launch their active campaigns.

Speculation was rife among women students as Nebraska Sweetheart and honorary colonel are being elected in the same election for the first time. Coupled with the Mortar Board resolution to erase alliances and politics from women's groups, and with the course and strength of the recently formed Barb A. W. S. League a matter of conjecture, more uncertainty existed regarding probable candidates than in many years.

Indications were that Tuesday's vote may be record-breaking for fall elections as successful candidates will undoubtedly be first in line in most instances for succession to senior honoraries.

Plank Number 1. We believe that the present duties of the senior class are not sufficient to require an election to that office, and we pledge ourselves to work for the establishment of a senior class organization the chief function of which shall be to supervise and conduct a Senior week prior to commencement which shall serve to instill class spirit in the hearts of the graduating seniors.

Plank Number 2. The fact that the bookstores have by short practices made the cost of owning books prohibitive leads us to the conclusion that the present Student Council, Innocents, Mortar Boards, and other student governing or executive bodies which were formed to further the interests of the students have been lax in not ridding the second hand book racket and we pledge ourselves to organize the proper entity to prevent further exorbitant expenditures for books and supplies.

Plank Number 3. We reiterate our previous stand in holding that for the first time the swimming pool which the students paid for to be gained, supervised joint recreation swimming periods for both men and women be initiated.

Plank Number 4. We condemn the action of the present Student Council which by an unjust usurpation of power has attempted to deprive the Barbs of their traditional right to hold an "old conduct Varsity parties and pledge ourselves to preserve this right.

Plank Number 5. We feel that the University parties have lost their former attraction due to the arbitrary low maximum orchestra rate fixed by the faculty and pledge ourselves to do in our power to remedy the unhappy situation.
