

Louis Panico To Play For Military Ball

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

"Be campus conscious"

"Read the Nebraskan"

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXIV—NO. 49.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1934

PRICE 5 CENTS.

'NEBRASKA DAY' IS SET FOR SATURDAY

Lincoln Merchants Declare Celebration for University Homecoming Activities; Governor-Elect Cochran To Be Presented to Crowd at Football Game.

BRYAN AND SUCCESSOR GUESTS GRID CONTEST

Fraternities and Sororities Decorate for Annual Event; Missouri Will Give Bell to Nebraska in Traditional Ceremonies Between Halves Big Six Clash.

Formal presentation of Governor-elect Roy Cochran to thousands of Nebraskans assembled in the Memorial stadium at 1:45 next Saturday for the Nebraska-Missouri grid classic has been planned as a feature of "Nebraska Day," sponsored by Lincoln business men to celebrate the university Homecoming.

Immediately after the presentation, Nebraska's yell kings will lead the crowd in cheers for the governor-elect and Governor Bryan, who will be in decorated box seats as guests of the university. The two executives will supervise the presentation of the Victory bell, symbol of rivalry between the two schools, which Missouri will give to Nebraska during the half for their victory last year.

Plans to send the coin-flipping ceremony in the governor's box were outlined Wednesday by C. W. Swanson, chairman of the general "Nebraska Day" committee. The two football captains will make the toss for goal direction in front of the governor's box, accompanied by short talks over the public address system.

A midweek game will be played between Father Flanagan's school of Omaha, and Rev. Faulkner's team of Lincoln in the stadium at 12:30. Father Flanagan's boys' band will accompany their team here.

Members of the Shrine patrol of Southeast Temple, Lincoln, will drill between halves of the football game, according to A. Q. Schimmel, member of the "Nebraska Day" committee. The Shrine group from Omaha has been invited to participate, Schimmel added.

Fraternity and sorority houses will be arrayed with homecoming decorations for the first time in three years. Twelve sororities and ten fraternities plan to exhibit school and fraternity colors to honor visiting alumni. No prize competition will be held this year, according to Owen Johnson, president of the Innocents society, which conducted contests in the pre-depression period.

Old "N" Men Honored. Club men who earned their letter before 1900 will be guests of honor of the present university "N" Club at a noon luncheon in the coliseum. Members will meet at the coliseum at 11:30. A special table will seat the guests of honor, fifteen of whom plan to attend. At 12:45, the group will go to the "N" Club rooms upstairs for an initiation, which will be followed by a reunion. They will then attend the game in a body. Over eighty letter men who played for Nebraska between 1900 and 1930 have made reservations for the affair. Fred Chambers is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Franklin Meier and Harry Kuklin.

A downtown parade will be held in the downtown district at one o'clock. The university R. O. T. C. band and the Beatrice high school band will take part, followed by the Nebraska marchers and their wives in automobiles to the game. As guests of the university, Walter Gardner and H. S. Prosser, committeemen in charge of visiting majors, report that many

(Continued on Page 4.)

MUSIC STUDENTS GIVE THIRD WEEKLY RECITAL

Eight Present Performance At Temple Theater Thursday.

Students of the music department will present the third of a series of weekly recitals at the Temple theater Thursday afternoon, November 22, at 4 o'clock.

The eight students who will perform along with their selections and instructors are as follows: Steven Barwick, student with Genevieve Wilson, "Sonata Pathetique" by Beethoven; Mildred Platz, student with Marquette Klinker, "The Girl with the Flaxen Hair" and "The Sunken Cathedral" by Debussy; Violet Vaughn, student with Herbert Schmidt, "Vienna Carnival Scenes," Op. 28, Allegro movement, by Schumann; Ruth Fries, student with Frances Morley, "Sonata," Op. 10, No. 2, Allegro movement, by Beethoven; Helen Hewitt, student with Mary Hall Thomas, "My Love's An Arrow" by Graves and "The Wind Speaks" by Grant-Schafer; Alice Terril, student with Ruth Dreyer, "The Maiden's Wish" by Liszt; William Gant, student with LeRoy Earnest Harrison, "Fountain of Acqua Paola" by Griffes; and Vance Leininger, student with Mr. Schmidt, "Partita, C minor" and "Sinfonia" by Bach.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR CORNHUSKER COSTUME PARTY

Annual Affair Will Be Held In Grant Memorial Hall This Evening.

GRAND MARCH FEATURE

Judges to Select Funniest, Prettiest, and Most Original Dresses.

Plans for the annual Cornhusker costume party scheduled to be held in the Armory Thursday evening are completed, according to Violet Cross, general chairman in charge of all arrangements for the affair. This party sponsored by the A. W. S. board is an event which is to be attended by all university women.

One of the outstanding features of the evening will be the grand march in which the guests will parade in front of the reviewing stand to the music of Lyle DeMoss and his seven piece dance orchestra so that the judges may select the most original, the prettiest, and the funniest costumes. The judges will be Miss Lulu Runge, Miss Mable Lee, and Miss Elsie Ford Piper.

Sarah Louise Meyer will preside during the evening as mistress of ceremonies and will introduce the various people who will take part in the entertainment. Those in the skit are: Eleanor Compton, Marjorie Bannister, Carol Ludwig, and Helen Elizabeth Lawrence.

Carrie Bell Raymond Hall's quartette, which is composed of Grace Kratke, Margaret Philippe, Josephine Olson, and Lorraine Campbell will present two songs. They will be "Stars Fell on Alabama" and "Needle in the Haystack." Lois Rathburn will appear in a waltz dance presentation and

(Continued on Page 4.)

SOCIAL WORK MAJORS HOLD LUNCHEON MEET

Forty-Five Attend Monthly Affair at Grand Hotel Tuesday Noon.

Forty-five social work majors met at the Grand hotel Tuesday noon for their monthly luncheon. Speakers were Helen Eastman, executive secretary of the Social Welfare society, and Elaine Fontein, Miss Eastman, who spoke on "Personal Qualifications Required for Social Workers," is a former Nebraska student, graduating in 1928, and having spent the past eight years in Cleveland, Ohio, on the staff of the Associated Charities. While at Nebraska, Miss Eastman was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was a member of Mortar Board.

Miss Fontein described a Polish settlement in Nebraska in which she worked this past summer while engaged in county relief work under the FERA.

Elizabeth Harris was in charge of the luncheon, being November chairman. Bash Perkins, December chairman, will be in charge of the tea to be given Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Williams.

The purpose of the organization, as stated by Mr. Williams, professor of sociology and sponsor of the group, is to develop the capacity of students to meet people not of their social strata, and to give them a professional attitude toward their work. The group is not organized along conventional lines, the sponsor explained, because too formal an organization makes for less efficiency in operating, with too much stress on procedure and not enough on the actual work in hand.

(Continued on Page 4.)

FRESHMAN CABINET HOLDS FIRST MEET

Body Decides Commission Topics at Friday Gathering.

Freshman Cabinet will hold its first meeting Friday, Nov. 23, at 3 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. The cabinet will decide on topics to be discussed at the freshman commission meetings.

Members of the cabinet are Agnese Novacek, Iva Miller, Winifred Nelson, Mildred Holland, Eleanor Kelley, Virginia McAdams, Marie Katouc, Rosalyn Lasinsky, Barbara Jeary, Mary Ann Martin, Doris Burnett, Helen Nolte, Betty Cherny, Kathryn Wingquest, Marion Rist, Alice Black, Mary Stewart, and Jane Pennington.

GROUPS POLISH SKITS FOR DRESS REHEARSAL

Kosmet Klub to Hold Final Practice Friday at Marigold.

The rush of last-minute preparation already in full swing, the various groups who will give skits in the Kosmet Klub's annual Fall Review, scheduled at the Stuart theater Saturday morning were hard at work Wednesday polishing their acts for the final dress rehearsal to be held at the Marigold ballroom at 5 p. m. Friday.

Tom Davies, Kosmet Klub president, announced that with the exception of a few minor details everything was "all set" for the event, one of the features of the Homecoming Day program, and also announced the program for the show.

Twelve acts are listed in the program, and by Wednesday afternoon the title of the final dress rehearsal to be held at the Marigold ballroom at 5 p. m. Friday.

The skits to be presented are as follows: Pi Beta Phi: "Now and Then." Kappa Alpha Theta-Sigma Alpha Epsilon: "Back to Back." Alpha Sigma Phi-Chi Omega: "Contest." Phi Alpha Chi Omega: "The Music Store." Carrie Belle Raymond Hall: "Interlude." Kappa Kappa Gamma-Alpha Tau Omega: "The Ode to the Hero." Phi Beta Kappa: "Crack Squad." Gamma Phi Beta: "Silly Anthology." Alpha Phi: "The College Days." Beta Theta Pi: "Lip Skit." Delta Gamma-Delta Upsilon: "S. S. Delta."

Ray Ramsay, secretary of the Nebraska Alumni association, prime minister of the Kosmet Klub, will serve as master of ceremonies for the review, while Bertha Haussener is queen of the Klub. Tom Davies is king, and Fred Nicklas has been selected as prize.

Elaborate plans for presentation (Continued on Page 2.)

Fordyce Speaks At Meeting of AWS Freshmen

"Almost everything depends upon your choice," said Dr. Charles Fordyce, speaking on the subject of vocations before the freshmen A. W. S. group Wednesday night. "Some people choose their occupations, however," he added, "Most of them just drift in to some line of work." It is to this fact that he contributed the dissatisfaction of 50 percent of the people with the work in which they are engaged.

Dr. Fordyce pointed out that since the world war the doors of the vocational world have opened up to young women until at the present time 4 percent of the women are employed in gainful occupations. "Young women now have the same problem to face that young men do," he said, "that of choosing a vocation."

In his laboratory Dr. Fordyce is constantly solving vocational problems for young people, and it was through twenty years of experience that he spoke to the young women at the meeting. He advised them that before choosing a life occupation they make a careful study of themselves, of all occupations, and which seems to fit in best with their abilities and likes. "The best question to ask yourself," he said, "is: What have I always wanted to do? And the main thing to guard against is an occupation for which you aren't fitted." Mr. Fordyce gave specific illustrations of people who were in the wrong in their choice of vocation. He also gave the girls a list of references to aid in further study on the choice of a vocation. He closed by saying that he regarded "the ability to make a perfect home the finest of the fine arts, and the ability to prepare a meal which would administer to the soul as well as to the body the greatest of all woman's accomplishments."

Jane Barbour, Freshman A. W. S. president, presided over the meeting. She announced that there would be no meeting next week because of the Thanksgiving vacation. At the next meeting, Dec. 5, at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith, Arlene Bors, president of the Big Sister board, will speak to the group on the work of the Big Sister organization on the campus.

AG SCHOLARSHIP MASS MEETING HELD THURSDAY

Annual Honors Convocation Scheduled for Eleven O'clock Today.

H. E. BRADFORD PRESIDES

Dr. Rebecca Gibbons to Talk On 'Furniture for The Mind.'

Announcement of scholastic attainments of students in the ag college will be made at 11 o'clock this morning at the annual fall honors convocation to be held in the Student Activities building.

Those who are to be given membership in Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity, and in Phi Epsilon Omicron and Omicron Mu, home economics sororities, will be named. In addition, the ten men and ten women ranking highest in last year's freshman class will be introduced. The highest of the ten men will be given a medal by Alpha Zeta, and the highest of the ten women will receive the Omicron Nu cup.

The convocation will be presided over by H. E. Bradford, professor of vocational education, and the main speech will be delivered by Dr. Rebecca Gibbons, head of the food and nutrition department. The subject of Dr. Gibbons' speech is "Furniture for The Mind."

Marion Jack of York was honored as the high freshman student last year, while Viola Johnson of Mead, was winner of the Omicron Nu cup.

Leadership in scholastic standings are taken into consideration in electing the members to the honorary societies, it was stated.

GAMMA ALPHA CHI TO START DUAL CAMPAIGN

Advertising Sorority Begins Work on Schooner and Awgwan.

Gamma Alpha Chi, honorary advertising sorority, starts a dual campaign this week with a drive to sell subscriptions for the Prairie Schooner, Nebraska literary magazine, and to solicit advertising for the Awgwan, campus humor publication.

According to Virginia Selleck, president of the organization, two committees have been named which will commence work early next week. Eleanor Pleak is chairman of the committee in charge of Prairie Schooner subscriptions, which is composed of Alene Mumma, Dorothy Sandrock, Laura Scher, Josephine Ferguson, Eula Mae Hastie, Mary Ellen Long, and Ylean Riesland.

Catherine Stoddart has been selected chairman of the committee in charge of Awgwan advertising, which is composed of De Maries Hilliard, Rowena Miller, Eunice Camp, Patricia Vetter, Ruth Anderson, Esther Compton, and Frances Moore.

The Prairie Schooner committee will meet at 5 o'clock Monday at Ellen Smith hall, and the Awgwan committee will meet at 4 o'clock Friday in the Awgwan offices to confer with Bruce Nicoll, business manager of the publication.

BALLOONS TO BE SOLD AT HOMECOMING GAME

Tassels Continue Nebraska Tradition at Tiger Tilt Saturday.

Carrying on a tradition begun several years ago, Tassels, girls' pep organization, will sell homecoming balloons to spectators at the Missouri game Saturday. When Nebraska makes her first touchdown against Missouri, rooters will let go of balloons which will be carried far from the field.

In urging support of the enterprise, Louise Hossack, Tassels president, stated, "Balloons sold will be purchased early, as we expect a Nebraska touchdown in the first few minutes of play."

Approximately 2,600 balloons were sold last year, and the sales this year are expected to far exceed those of previous years. Eleanor Neale, chairman, Margaret Philipps, Irma Bauer, and Theodora Lohrmann, comprise the committee in charge of the affair. Tassels are to meet at 12:45 Saturday afternoon at Chemistry hall to make preparations for the selling of the balloons. Any Tassel who can help between 10 and 12 o'clock Saturday morning is asked to report at Chemistry hall.

PARTY OPENER OF FORMAL SEASON

Leader Considered One of Finest Trumpet Players With Dance Band in Country; Featured for Many Years With Isham Jones.

DIRECTOR COMPOSER OF WELL KNOWN SONGS

Presentation of Honorary Colonel to Be High Spot Of Event December 7; Spectators to View Proceedings From Balcony.

Louis Panico and his famous radio artists will play for the Military Ball, annual event opening the formal season, which will be held in the coliseum Dec. 7, according to the statement made Wednesday by Charles Steadman, publicity chairman for the ball.

JOURNALISTS TO HOLD BUSINESS MEET TODAY

Sigma Delta Chi Judges News Stories in High School Contest.

Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, is scheduled to hold an important business meeting at 4 o'clock Thursday in the Awgwan offices in U hall, according to an announcement by officers of the organization. Also at that time the group will have its picture for the Cornhusker taken, it was stated.

Assisting in the conduction of the Nebraska High School Press Association convention here this Friday and Saturday, Sigma Delta Chi will judge news stories written by the high school students in the newswriting contest. A committee to represent the organization in judging the contest will be appointed, Bruce Micall, president, stated.

Initial plans for the presentation of Sigma Delta Chi's annual news story and feature awards will also be made, Micall said. These awards are given to those writing the best news story and feature article in last semester's issues of the Daily Nebraskan.

"All members are especially urged to be present at this meeting," the president declared, "because many important business matters will be considered. It is also necessary that the group meet promptly at 4 o'clock since the Cornhusker picture will be taken at that time."

DR. LASCH SPEAKS TO SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB

Former Instructor Talks At Luncheon Meet Thursday.

Dr. Zora Schupp Lasch, of the Omaha Child Welfare association, will speak at the luncheon meeting of the Social Service club Thursday at 12:05 o'clock at the University club, according to A. E. Wolf, member of the organization.

Dr. Lasch, who was formerly an instructor in the psychology department of the university, will talk on "Psychology and Child Problems." This is the second of a series of lectures or discussions on psychological problems.

Dr. A. L. Weatherly, president of the club, will preside at the luncheon. Dr. J. M. Reinhardt of the sociology department is vice president of the organization.

Any members of the faculty or students who wish to attend the affair may make reservations with Mr. Wolf before 11 o'clock this morning by calling B1251.

THANKSGIVING PARTY BEING PLANNED BY YW

Program Includes Games, Dancing at Affair Friday Night.

Games and dancing are planned for the Thanksgiving party of the Y. W. C. A. social staff, which will be held in the armory Friday evening, Nov. 22, at 8 o'clock.

Iris Knox is chairman of the entertainment committee, and she will be assisted by Evelyn Peterson, Olive Seibald, Vida Markham, Richard Larson, and Elliott McDermott. Evelyn Diamond is general chairman for the party. Other committees will be headed by Eleanor Ball, decorations; Edna Lee, posters; Nora DeCorey, music; Loretta Jacques, chaperons; and Dorothy Beers and Ruth Longstreet, refreshments. Chaperons at the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lindgren and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cory.

Electrical Engineers Inspect Lincoln Hotel

American Institute of Electrical Engineers conducted an inspection tour of equipment at the Lincoln hotel Wednesday evening. The group looked over the heating, electrical, and refrigerating systems of the building.

PSYCHOLOGY CLASS TO VISIT BUSINESS FIRMS

Students Study Industrial Plants in Omaha on Trip Thursday.

Members of the business psychology class, numbering about thirty-five, left Thursday morning for Omaha where they will spend the day visiting several of the industrial plants studying personnel and psychological problems of industry. Dr. W. E. Walton, instructor of business psychology, accompanied the group.

The plans of four business concerns will be visited, the main visiting being that of the Swift Packing company in South Omaha. The other businesses to be visited are the Skinner Macaroni company, Haskins Soap company, and the P. F. Peterson Baking company.

The trip, considered by Dr. Walton as one of the important features of the course, is thought by psychologists to be one of the important ways of studying psychology, particularly industrial psychology, in that students see industrial conditions as they actually exist and can thus view employment problems that arise from a more practical standpoint.

PRIZES AWARDED AT 'KID PARTY' TUESDAY

Misses Smith, Marcy, and Williams Capture Honors.

Sue Smith captured the prize for the cleverest costume, La Vern Marcy for the prettiest, and Enid Williams for the most unusual at the "Kid Party" sponsored by the Elementary Education club Tuesday evening in Ellen Smith hall.

Judges for the costumes were Miss Sue Burford and Miss Adeline Howland from Bancroft school. Jean Huse, president of the organization, presided over the party as toastmistress, while a special program was presented in charge of Elizabeth Shearer.

Home Economic Seniors Give Tea November 22

The senior girls in the Home Economics department will be hostesses at a tea to be given Thursday, November 22, from 3:15 to 5:15. All home economics girls are invited and urged to attend.