JANUARY EDITION AWGWAN ON SALE SOON—NICHOLAS

Humor Magazine to Appear At Early Date in Social Science Hall.

EXPECT SALES INCREASE

New Issue Esquire Take-Off; Johnson's Article Is Month's Find.

Copies of the January number of the Awgwan, campus humor monthly, will go on sale soon at booths in Social Science hall, according to Jack Nicholas, circulation manager of the magazine.

An entire alteration of the publication's style will take place in the first issue of 1935, Alice Beckman, editor, announced. "Although the actual makeup of the issue will not be revealed until distribution, we have planned a take-off on Esquire, the popular men's magazine, as the theme for January."

Maurice Johnson contributes the "find" story of the month, which is titled "Accepted." Alan Parker, a new member of the cartooning staff, joins Bob Pierce in contributing comic art for the issue. Articles written by Weldon Kees and Dwight Perkins will appear, and a novel department written by Duncan Sowlas and an anonymous writer known as "XYZ" are included.

The cover design, which is also a surprise feature, was drawn by Harley Case. "That Right Hand," a sports story, was written for the issue by Howard Dobson, and "A Child Surveys" is contributed by Meredith George.

"I'm sure that our interpretation of Esquire will be just as acceptable as the real magazine, which has proven to be extremely popular. We expect sales to exceed those of the December issue, which were higher than all previous sales for the year," Miss Beckman added.

HOME EC BOARD HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Group to Choose Four From Ten Nominees for Positions.

POLLS OPEN FROM 9 TO 5

Home economics board holds its annual election for officers Thursday from 9 to 5 in the Home Economics building. Ten women have been nominated to fill the posts of the retiring officers.

The board governs the various activities of the home economics department. It assists in planning the objectives for the year and works in cooperation with the Ag club. The Ag mixers and the bi-weekly teas held on Thursdays are part of the board's program. Officers of the group are also officers of the Home Economics club.

Ardeith Van Housen, retiring president, leaves soon for the Merrill Palmer home economics school, where she will study the subject further.

The nominees for president are Elsie Goth and Viola Johnson and for vice-president, Mary Dorrill and Ruth Carsten. The new treasurer will be elected from among the nominees, Truma McClellan, Frances Schmidt, and Eleanor McFadden; the secretary from Naomi Richmond, Genevieve Bennett, and Marjorie Francis.

ADVANCED STUDENTS TO PRESENT MUSICAL

VanKirk, "Hallelujah" and "Flutes of Spring" by Hummel and Blaine, respectively; John Erickson, piano, Eunice Bingham, 1st violin, Marjorie Smith, 2nd violin, Margaret Baker, viola, and Mary Louise Baker, cello. "Quintett, C minor, Op. 1" by Dohnanyi.

STUDENT COUNCIL TO CONVENE JAN. 16 AT 4

Fischer Requests Every Member Be Present in Important Session.

Plans for the selection of the Junior-Senior Prom committee will be formulated at an important student council meeting to be held on Wednesday at 4 p. m. in University hall.

The functioning of the committee, which manages one of the social season's biggest affairs, will be discussed, and dates will be set for the filing of applications. Altho the custom has been for the membership of the committee to consist of six men and six women, including the junior class president, it is rumored that the organization of this year's group will be radically changed.

Jack Fischer, president of the council, emphasized the fact that all members must be present at this meeting as important committee reports will be given and significant business will be taken care of.

'ENCHANTED APRIL' TICKETS GO ON SALE WEDNESDAY MORNING

Karl Arndt Plays Lead Role in English Comedy to Be Given Jan. 22.

Tickets for the faculty play, "The Enchanted April," which will be presented at the Temple theater Jan. 22 and 23, go on sale Wednesday morning, according to a statement made by Mrs. Lane Lancaster, chairman of the ticket committee of the Faculty Women's club, which, with the American Association of University Women, is sponsoring the production.

Karl Arndt, associate professor of economics, will play the leading role of the dreamy young artist in the English comedy.

Mrs. Rose Arbutnot, the neglected and lonely wife of a writer of very popular historical romances will be portrayed by Miss Frances McChesny, who was outstanding in University Players work while in the university and is now dramatic coach at Lincoln high school.

The role of Lady Caroline Dester will be played by Mrs. Lester Orfield, who studied dramatics in New York City with Mrs. Francis Duff, teacher of Miriam Hopkins and Helen Hayes. She played in the Broadway presentation of "White Eagle," and has had parts in plays produced in Detroit, Toronto, and Newark.

Mr. S. W. Alford, superintendent of the serum plant, will take the part of Mellersh Wilkins, The Mellersh Wilkins Solicitor. Other actors in the drama include Mrs. Samuel Avery, who will portray the role of Mrs. William Fisher; Miss Barbara Spoerry, who will take the part of Francesca; Mrs. Norman Hill, who will play the dutiful wife of Mellersh Wilkins; Mrs. Letta Wilkins; Mr. Harry Kurtz, Domenico; Mr. Gustave Fuchs, Ferdinand Arundel; and Mrs. Kanute Broady, the clerk.

Y.M. FORUM TO MEET WEDNESDAY EVENING

Walton Will Lead Discussion On Mental Hygiene And Religion.

Dr. W. E. Walton, professor of psychology, will lead the Y. M. C. A. Forum meeting Wednesday evening at the Temple in a discussion of "Mental Hygiene and Religion." Dr. Walton will deal with his subject in a two-fold manner, first by the consideration of religion as a help to people in solving their mental problems, and secondly, in the light that it only aggravates mental difficulties, as he believes it does in a number of cases.

"Religion is a hindrance instead of a help only when it is carried to the point of fanaticism or insanity," stated Dr. Walton. He believes that the prevalent opinion among untrained people is that psychology and religion are at cross purposes is entirely false. He will devote part of his talk to explaining the harmony between the two.

RICHARD HUFNAGLE SPEAKER AT UTICA

Richard Hufnagle, university photographer, gave an illustrated talk on "Beauty Spots of Nebraska," at a combination meeting of the Seward and Utica commercial clubs. The talk was illustrated by natural color photographs made by Mr. Hufnagle in the various parts of the state. A number of pictures of the state capital were included. The talk was given at Utica.

Juniors and Seniors Must Return Proofs

Junior and senior students who have had their pictures taken for the Cornhusker must return the proofs to Rinehart-Marsden's immediately if they are to be included in their respective sections. Frank Crabill, Editor.

NATIONAL BANDS CONSIDERED FOR MID-YEAR FROLIC

Sigma Delta Chi Announces Famed Orchestras Being Contacted.

PARTY SET FOR FEB. 2

Informal Affair Comes After Final Examination Period.

Arrangements for a nationally famous orchestra to play for the Mid-Year Frolic in the Coliseum on Saturday, February 2, are rapidly nearing completion, according to an announcement issued Tuesday by members of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity which is sponsoring the event. A number of prominent orchestras will be in this territory at that time, they said, but would not divulge the names of the bands being considered.

Coming midway between the semesters and after the strenuous final examination period, the informal Frolic comes as an intermission in the winter program of formal parties. This is the second year it being held, the journalists deciding to continue the event after its successful reception last year.

"Sigma Delta Chi feels that there is a real need for an outstanding informal social function in the midst of the formal season," Bruce Nicoll, president of the club, said. "We believe that the Mid-Year Frolic will give every student a chance to enjoy a good party, dance to a good orchestra, and yet not have to pay an exorbitant price."

Tickets will be priced at $1.00 plus tax and will probably go on sale next week, it was learned.

EDITOR ANNOUNCES GREEK SECTIONS OF YEARBOOK CLOSING

Junior, Senior Panels in Classified Section Made Up.

Panels in the fraternity and sorority sections of the Cornhusker are rapidly being closed, according to Frank Crabill, editor of the annual, and any houses wishing to have their pictures taken must do so immediately. Junior and senior panels in the classified section are entirely closed, but any member of the two classes who still desires to be included in the yearbook will have his picture placed in an unclassified group at the back of each section.

Group pictures are being taken this week and organizations that have contracted for space must make their payments to the Cornhusker office, it was announced. Crabill also stated that the pictures of the campus queen candidates which have been selected by the various organizations on the campus will be sent to McClelland Barclay, the judge, sometime this week.

The development of plans for new and improved features in the 1935 edition of the Cornhusker, going forward rapidly, Crabill said. There will be a larger and more varied feature section which will include pictures of parties, individuals, rallies, and similar subjects of interest, according to present plans of the editorial staff. In addition, the first part of the book will contain a section devoted to kaleidoscopic views of the campus taken from the collection of Dwight Kirsch, head of the fine arts department.

BIZAD COLLEGE ADDS COURSE IN SOCIALISM

Dean J. E. LeRossignol to Instruct Class; Offers Three Hours Credit.

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the College of Business Administration Tuesday pointed out that the Bizad college is offering a new course the second semester which has not been offered in the past several years. The new course is a study of socialism, its origin, development, and social significance, of individualism and anarchism. Utopian socialism, theories of Karl Marx, and a study of the strength and weakness of the present economic order.

The new course in socialism, which will be given by Mr. LeRossignol, is a three hour course offered at 10 a. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

DR. JONES TELLS ABOUT DREAMERS AT CONVOCATION

Prominent Detroit Minister Speaks Tuesday at Temple.

LISTS THE VISIONARIES

Richard Middlekauff, Lenore Van Kirk Appear on Program.

Telling of the achievements of great dreamers of the past, Dr. Edgar DeWitt Jones, prominent pastor and religious authority from Detroit, called on the college students of today to dream of a warless world. Dr. Jones was the featured speaker at a special university convocation, sponsored by the Religious Welfare council, at the Temple theater, Tuesday morning.

"It is a wonderful thing to be possessed and obsessed with a worldly dream," stated Dr. Jones, "and I hope all college students will vision their way into self mastery." The great liberators and statesmen of the world, St. Paul, who thru his years of hardships never lost sight of the heavenly vision, Thomas Jefferson, working toward human liberation of mind, body and social state, and inscribing on the University of Virginia, "you shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free," Abraham Lincoln, who in times of strife and internal disruption, kept before the country the ideals of a sovereign nation, Susan B. Anthony, chiefly instrumental in freeing women from their legal bondage, all had before them the vision of a great impersonal dream for mankind.

Dr. Jones concluded his speech with a plea to college and high school students. (Continued on Page 2.)

STUDENTS ASKED TO FINISH REGISTRATION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

Enrollment Progresses in Two Colleges, Lags in Others.

Altho in two colleges of the University enrollment was progressing at a satisfactory rate late Tuesday afternoon, it was lagging behind in others, and deans of the various colleges on the campus issued an appeal for students to enroll as early as possible to avoid the last minute of rush and confusion, which they stated will occur if their advice is not heeded.

Enrollment figures were not available Tuesday afternoon, but registration was reported to be coming slowly at the College of Agriculture and Teachers college, and only an average number of students had registered in the Bizad, Engineering and Arts and Science colleges.

Registering in the dentistry and law colleges is a comparatively simple matter, so statements of registering were not available, altho Deans H. H. Foster and G. A. Grubb of law and dentistry colleges respectively, joined with the other deans in asking that students complete enrollment as soon as possible.

"None of the colleges would venture a prediction as to whether an increase or decrease in enrollment appeared probable for next semester."

A.I.E.E. SCHEDULES 2 MEETINGS THIS WEEK

J. H. Robinson, Chicago, Will Show Film; R. B. Bonney Thursday Speaker.

The film, "Behind the Pyramids," will be presented by J. A. Robinson of the National Carbon company of Chicago to members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in a meeting at 7:15 o'clock this evening in M. E. 206, according to Prof. F. W. Norris, sponsor of the society.

Mr. Robinson also will give a discussion of carbon brushes, and will relate the various problems that arise in the attempt to fit brushes to different types of machinery, Prof. Norris related.

On the following evening, Thursday Jan. 17, the society will again meet and will be addressed by R. B. Bonney of Denver.

Tanksterettes Discuss Year's Activities Tonight

Programs for the year's activities will be the main topic of discussion at the regular meeting of Tanksterettes, honorary women's swimming club at 5 o'clock today according to Beth Taylor, president of the organization. Following the business meeting, a practice period will be held.

SCABBARD AND BLADE HAS SMOKER MONDAY

Col. C. J. Frankforter and Prof. K. Pfeiler Address R.O.T.C. Cadets.

Scabbard and Blade, national honorary advanced drill organization, entertained at a rush smoker at the Delta Tau Delta house Monday evening. Cadet Colonel Charles Galloway presided over the meeting.

Col. J. Frankforter, of the chemistry department and a reserve colonel in the army, gave a brief address on American ideas of military training. In his remarks he condemned the statements in the propaganda which is being circulated about the campus.

Prof. K. Pfeiler of the German department made a short talk relating some of his experiences as a German soldier during the late war. He also expressed his thoughts to the gathering on his conception of American citizenship.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL, A.W.S. LEAGUE PLAN 2ND ALL-BARB PARTY

Melody Makers to Play for Dance Friday Evening in Grant Memorial.

Barb students in the university will dance in the Armory Friday evening from 8:30 until 11:30 to the music of the Melody Makers at the second all-barb party of the school year. The first event was held in Grant Memorial on Nov. 2 and proved such a tremendous success that unaffiliated leaders on the campus are looking for an unusually large attendance this weekend.

"A varsity party was originally scheduled for this same weekend," John Stover, president of the Barb Interclub council which is cooperating with the Barb A. W. S. league in sponsoring the affair, said. "Circumstances, however, necessitated the cancellation of the varsity party and as a result we have substituted the all barb affair at this time in order to prevent any break in the schedule as announced at the beginning of the semester."

"We particularly wish to express our gratitude to the social dancing class," Stover commented, "as the event was made possible only thru their surrender of the time and place where the party is to be held."

Evelyn Diamond, president of Barb A. W. S., John Stover, Bill Newcomer, Adolph Cinfel and Bob Harrison are jointly responsible for the arrangements.

Chaperons for the party include Prof. and Mrs. M. G. Gaba, Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Brenke, and Prof. and Mrs. S. M. Corey. A slight admission charge of 10 cents for women and 15 cents for men will be made, it was announced. Refreshments will be available after the performance.

Just preceding the party, Wilson Hall is conducting an hour dance from 7:30 until 8:30 o'clock in Wilson hall.

REV. GIBSON SPEAKS AT VESPER SERVICES

'A Handful of Stars' Subject Of St. Louis Pastor's Talk Tuesday.

Basing his speech on the conflict between the outer world and the inner soul, Rev. George M. Gibson, of St. Louis, threw out "A Handful of Stars" to the Y. W. members who heard his talk at the vesper service in Ellen Smith hall, 5 o'clock Tuesday.

Presenting a "handful of stars," which together, Rev. Gibson professed, would make the brilliant light of an abundant life, he spoke on the stars of freedom, truth, and love. Freedom he exemplified as the modern tendency toward democratic consciousness; truth, as the present scientific mood; and love, as the "law of life." He pointed out that alone these three characteristics were not only useless, but often harmful. Together, he heartily recommended them for constant use in daily living.

Laura McAllister presided over the meeting, and the vesper choir presented the devotional music. The speaker, pastor of the Webster Groves Congregational church, is a visitor in Lincoln for the annual ministers' convocation where he is also giving several addresses.

Erosion Survey Director Confers With Dr. Condra

R. L. Von Treba, director of the federal survey erosion project at Albion, Neb., called on Dr. G. E. Condra of the conservatory and survey division to discuss some of the problems connected with erosion control activities in Nebraska.

Plans for future vocational speakers during the second semester are being made by those in charge of the group. Alaire Barkes, sponsor, Jane Barbour, president, and Mary Gavis, secretary, form the committee in charge of arranging the programs.

YWCA MEMBERS ELECT OFFICERS AT POLLS TODAY

Lorraine Hitchcock, Gladys Klopp Vie for Office Of President.

VOTING STARTS 9, 10:45

Nominees for Vice-President Are Evelyn Diamond, Alaire Barkes.

Ellen Smith Hall, on the city campus, and the Home Economics building, on Ag campus, will buzz with activity Wednesday from 9 to 5, when Y. W. C. A. members will vote for a new president, secretary and treasurer. Voting lists were made out Tuesday, and girls are asked to bring identification cards. Polls at the Home Economics building are open from 10:45 to 2:15.

Candidates for president are Lorraine Hitchcock and Gladys Klopp, both active Y. W. members. Alaire Barkes and Evelyn Diamond are running for vice president of the organization, and Corinne Clafin and Phyllis Jean Humphrey are nominees for secretary. Barbara DePutron and Jeanne Palmer will run for treasurer, while Margaret Deeds and Jean Nelson are candidates for Ag president.

Nominees for the several offices were presented at the vesper services Tuesday at Ellen Smith and at the Home Ec building. The candidates were selected by the Y. W. C. A. committee on nominations headed by Elaine Fontein, present Y. W. president. They were selected on the basis of a nine point standard which included sincere friendliness with every type of girl, purpose, intelligence, leadership, energy, fearlessness, varied interests, religious appreciation, and knowledge of the Y. W. C. A. and the student Christian movement.

According to the by-laws of the Y. W. C. A. constitution, the candidates are required to have at least a university scholastic average. (Continued on Page 4.)

DEBATE SQUAD TRAINS FOR MEET ON JAN. 24

Radio Station to Broadcast Contest With Drake University.

TOPIC ARMS, MUNITIONS

The newest additions to the varsity debate squad, selected in tryouts Jan. 10, are digging away preparing themselves for their first intercollegiate debate with Drake university, in Lincoln, Jan. 24. The debate will be broadcast over one of the Lincoln radio stations.

Members of the team are: Eugene Foster, John C. Landis, Charles W. Steadman, and John Stover. The proposition to be used: Resolved, that the nations should agree to prevent international shipment of arms and munitions, has aroused a great deal of interest. The debate coach stated, and a state wide reception is expected.

The second encounter for the newly selected team will be in the Rocky Mountain region tournament to be held in Denver, Feb. 5-7.

The affirmative team on the agricultural adjustment proposition is now making a tour in Kansas, meeting the Kansas state team before interested audiences in small towns. Jan. 14 they met at Burlington, Kas.; Jan. 15 at Iola, Kas.; and on Jan. 17, they will be in Garnett and Fort Scott. Because of the vital nature of the proposition, the team is making a great deal of favor, the debate office declared.

A.W.S. FRESHMEN TO HEAR MISS C. L. CRAIG

Speaker to Discuss Library Work as a Profession Wednesday at 5.

Miss Clara L. Craig, reference librarian at the university library, will speak before the freshman A. W. S. group, Wednesday at 3 o'clock, at Ellen Smith hall. She will be the second of the vocational speakers to appear before the freshman gathering.

Speaking on the subject, "Library Work as a Profession," Miss Craig will discuss the opportunities in library work to be done. A special emphasis will be placed on the new situation created in the profession by present day influences, Miss Craig said. day influences. Plans for future vocational speakers during the second semester are being made by those in charge of the group. Alaire Barkes, sponsor, Jane Barbour, president, and Mary Gavis, secretary, form the committee in charge of arranging the programs.
