K-AGS EDGE HUSKERS IN DUAL

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

SCHOONER GIVES FIRST BIOGRAPHY OF GOV. COCHRAN

Goes Popular in Late Winter Issue.

OFFERS NEW FEATURES good money out of it.

Short Story Hit for New Edition.

ing art. Along with fiction, poems and articles the present issue also includes three new feature departments entitled Midwesterners, Bibliana, and Crossroads.

With this edition of the university's literary publication catering Several Tuition Prizes for to the student taste in magazine literature, Herbert Behlen, business manager, announces that Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising sorority, has definitely undertaken to back the sales and subscription drive. He also stated that the Corn Cobs, men's pep club, may decide to take a hand ships remain open for the second in the campaign after the busi- semester. These awards will go to ness meeting of that organization students who are citizens of the on Wednesday night.

Has Cochran's Biography.

In the new Midwesterners sec tion, which will feature short biographies of prominent men of this section of the country, Saar Erickson's article on the life of Governor Cochran is the first entry Mr. Erickson is courthouse report er for the Lincoln Star. The new department entitled Bibliana is a concise book review by the university librarian, Gilbert Doane, and the section Crossroads will contain select reprints from other popular magazines

Dwight Perkins, university arts and science junior, has called his humor hit in this issue, "A. W Vodding vs. the Claus Co." story is written in the form of a series of letters from Vodding to the Santa Claus corporation. Originally, Vodding, jr., aged 7, had implored Santa in a tender epistle for a dozen Russian soldiers. Fantastic as it may seem, the Claus company complies by sending twelve live Russians. Henceforward, Father Vodding has one embarrassment after another on account of the three squads of wine

Kelm Writes Short Story.

Karlton Kelm, Iowa writer and of fiction writers. His contribution is a short story, "Brother." Another short entitled "Mop to K. C." was written by L. C. Eisley, leading Nebraska poet. Fiction contributors from the university are Frances G. Morley, instructor in the school of music, whose story (Continued on Page 2.)

Y.M. HOST TO LINCOLN URBAN GROUP SUNDAY

Deputation Team Presents International Thought Program.

Presenting the international thought program, which has been popularly received thruout the state during the last several months, the Y. M. C. A. deputation team comprised of Charles Hulac, Lee Inouye and William Glenn, will the Lincoln Urban League at 3:15 Sunday afternoon, Feb. 17. The League is a social service organization among negroes conducted by themselves for the purpose of promoting social mindedness and social welfare.

Charles Hulac, Y. M. president. conducts this program and opens with a general inclusive talk on the causes and possible course of international misunderstandings. Lee Inouye, a Japanese student, deals with the more specific topic of the national relations and current opinions of the people in the United States and Japan. William Glenn provides the music of the Gosil beavers, ancestors of the Laurence Plank of the Omaha forts of the medical department program by vocalizing on negro spirituals and other songs.

This deputation team, featuring programs emphasizing the promo-tion of international thought and other themes, has made numerous appearances in Nebraska commun- Henry Reider and Frank Bell for es recently, and Charles Hulac the Morrill collection, stated that this group, working willingly and constantly during last semester, has been responsible for one of the important and per- in Scottsbluff county. Dr. E. H. "Program Resources;" and Miss will soon be able to rejoin the manent influences that the Y exe- Barbour, curator of the museum. Ruth Pratt discussed the recrea- affairs of the university. Approxi-

Ingeborg Oesterlin Continues Story Impressions Gained During Holiday Car Trip Thru South United States

By LORRAINE CAMPBELL.

Editor's note: This is the third in a series of excerpts from the diary of Miss Ingeborg Oesterlin. German exchange student, who recently toured the southern part of the United States with two other German exchange students. The contents of the diary have been reproduced in the original English to indicate the novelty of expression and word arrangement.

Dec. 25-We started from Savannah and saw the first Nebraska Literary Magazine orange and grapefruit forests. The air was so wet, we had always to sweep the windshield. We arrived in the afternoon in St. Augustine and there we visited the Fountain of Youth and were told the story of Ponce De Leon and his quest, Now everyone drinks from this fountain of o youth and we think they make a the shadow sides of life. The people are more carefree.

the Fountain of Youth.

of the air.

wondered again about the warm,

warm wind and the wet warmness

We stopped at New Smyrna and noticed that we were just laughing and in such a good humor like little children, and we blamed it on

Dec. 26-This morning it was beautiful weather and we were so much eager to see Miami. We drove a long time along the broad,

Indian river which is separated from the ocean by a tiny ribbon of land. On either side of the highway were palms and strange trees;

(Continued on Page 2.)

ASKS INCREASING

INHERITANCE TAX

Charter Day Speaker States

Views on Redistribution

Of Country's Wealth.

George W. Norris, Nebraska's

a means of redistributing the country's wealth, in his address to approximately 5,000 people, gathered in the colliseum Friday morning to celebrate the sixty-sixth charter degrees of doctor of laws was con ferred upon Norris and upon two other famous Nebraskans, James W. Crabtree and Samuel Avery.

Beside the principal celebration held on this campus, many others of a similar nature were held by 500 Billionaires in 1929.

"From 1925 to 1929 the secre-

accumulation of wealth

1929, congress levied a somewhat

(Continued on Page 2.)

STATE'S GIRL RESERVE

LEADERS END SESSION

First Nebraska Conference

Closes Saturday After

Meeting Two Days.

Girl Reserve leaders of the states closed a two-day conference at the city Y. W. C. A. Saturday afternoon. This was the first state meeting of leaders of girls' organizations to be held in Nebraska.

The meeting was also attended by iniversity women interested in the Girl Reserve project.

Miss Grace McLain of Omaha

the Community." Mr. Bir

the Community." Mr. Richard Dawson, pastor of the Vine Con-

Frances Drake discussed the phil-

'Practice in Program Building."

The devotional services were sixteen Nebraska towns, ollowing the address, honorary day of the school.

SENATOR NORRIS

There are several very old buildings, and especially the fort of St. tona—the stars shining and we Perkins Writes Humorous Augustine, but we weren't so impressed because we are from a country of old architecture. Lincoln's state capitol is much more interesting. Going popular in its late winter issue, The Prairie Schooner, to be placed on news stands on Tuesday, Feb. 19, contains the We came to Daytona Beach and To avoid a toll bridge, we took only biography to date of Ne- this was already in the evening, braska's new governor, Roy L and the lights were shining in the Cochran, and its first humor story, water. Here, more strongly, we which Editor L. C. Wimberly rates felt that the further south you go, as a masterpiece in the blues chas- the greater is the impression of

> NOYES SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS STILL OPEN

Second Semester Unclaimed.

Announcement has been made by university officials that several LaVerne Noyes tuition scholar-United States, and who served in the World war with honorable discharge, or are descended by blood from such a person. From the estate of the late LaVerne Noyes tuition in part or full is paid for such deserving students, that they may get university training.

MEET HERE MARCH 8

Fifty Delegates Expected to Attend: Minnesota Dean Conference Speaker.

Representatives of colleges and universities in Nebraska will meet for their second annual educational dollars, net income." Norris stated. conference at the university Friday, March 8. About fifty deleguzzling, Russian gibbering six- gates from the various schools are of all the wheat and all the cotton pected to attend.

Dr. J. B. Johnston, dean of the more than two million wheat and expected to attend.

college of arts and sciences at editor of the Dubuque Dial, literary periodical, heads this issue's address both the afternoon and one believe that a free country evening sessions. During the eve- can continue to exist under such ning Rowland Haynes, state unequal and unfair conditions?"
emergency relief administrator, "From 1925 to 1929 the secr will discuss the national and state tary of the treasury reported that policies and procedures involved in the bulk of taxes paid by a few the administration of student relief and employment.

Dean F. E. Henzlik of the teachers college presides at the Friday afternoon session, which an argument against the taxation begins at 2 o'clock with a welcome address by Chancellor E. A. Bur-nett of the university. This will be followed by a round table conference on college entrance problems, led by Dr. S. M. Corey of the university teachers college. At 3:15 Friday afternoon Dr. Johnston speaks on "The General College. On the evening program, Chancellor Burnett is toastmaster for the 6:30 dinner; and Dr. Johnston presents an address at 7:30 on "The New Demand for Liberal Education." Mr. Haynes discusses conference. Dean F. E. Henzlik is chairman of the planning committee for the day. Dr. C. H. Oldfather, dean of the college of arts and sciences at the University of Nebraska; and Robert P. Crawford, assistant to the chancellor at the university are the other members of the student relief to complete the

UNIVERSITY SETS UP NEW FOSSIL MOUNTS

committee.

Stout and Schultz Prepare Exhibits for Uni Museum.

beavers, bison, and horse have been modern animal, was found near Unitarian church spoke on "We was given by the infirmary staff Bridgeport in Morrill county; the Enter a New World," and Miss Saturday night. modern animal, was found near other was discovered in Wyoming. They have been prepared by Thompson M. Stout and C. Bertrand Schultz, and mounted by

PROM COMMITTEE SEEKS BEST PLAN OF PRESENTATION

Members to Meet Wednesday For Consideration of Ideas Submitted.

CONTEST CLOSES FEB. 25

Entrants Must Keep Expense Below $35: Simplicity Desired Quality.

First plans submitted in the Prom girl presentation contest will be considered at a meeting of the Prom committee to be held Wednesday afternoon at 4:45 in room eight of University hall, according to an announcement made Saturday by Virginia Selleck, co-chairman of the committee. Definite selection of the or chestra to play for the affair will not be made before the end of this week, Miss Selleck stated.

Unofficial reports indicate that filings for Prom girl exceed the quota for the last few years by several applicants. "We believe the increased number of filings to be a direct result of the recent Mortar Board action against political combines, and are pleased with the interest being shown in the contest," declared Co-chairman Irving Hill.

Filings End Wednesday, Three days remain for candidates to register their intention to participate in the Prom girl race at the student activities office, as filings close at 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 20. Any

(Continued on Page 2.)

nationally known senior senator, advocated a progressive inherit-ance tax under national control as NEBRASKA ENGINEERS CONVENE FOR ANNUAL SESSION FEBRUARY 23

John P. Hogan, New York, Main Speaker at Fifth Yearly Conference.

alumni groups in principal cities of the United States, as well as in Engineers from over the state Nebraska Engineers' Roundup in "In 1929, about five hundred per-Lincoln on Saturday, Feb. 23, at seons had more than one billion the Cornhusker Hotel, according to an announcement by Prof. C. P. "This was practically the same as Colbert of the applied mechanics the gross aggregate market value department, secretary to the organization.

Appearing at the evening s ban-quet, John Phillip Hogan of New cotton farmers, in 1930." He con-York City will be main speaker of the day, Prof. Colbert stated. A graduate of Harvard and Lawrence Scientific school, Mr. Hogan is a member of the engineering firm of Parsons, Klapp, Brincker hoff, and Douglas of New York He has had a wide experipeople increased until three-tenths ence in water supply and water of one percent of the population paid 98.6 percent of the income power development, particularly for the city of New York which tax of individuals. He used it as has extended since 1906 to the present. His address will be on of wealth; to my mind it is, inome topic of general engineering stead, a striking illustration of the interest Roy L. Cochran, governor of Neinto the hands of a few. After braska, is another distinguished speaker on the evening's program, Prof. Colbert said. Governor Cochran is an engineering graduate of the university and formerly was a state engineer.

The morning and afternoon ses sions will be devoted to the Sutherland project, the Columbus project, and the P. W. A., and on these programs will be the engineers who are thoroughly acquainted with the projects. The Round-Up is not entirely devoted to the men, Prof. Colbert added, as a local ladies committee has planned entertainment for the women. It will include luncheon (Continued on Page 2.)

CASES OF MEASLES FEWER ON CAMPUS

Reports From Infirmary Say But One Student In Confinement.

The measles are subsiding! Definite assurance that the epidemic which has raged on the university New fossil mounts of primitive gregational church, was among campus, cutting into students' eavers, bison, and horse have been those who spoke Saturday. His good times and classes with equal

At that time but one unfortunate osophy and program of the Y. W. was confined indoors, and he had C. A. Dr. O. H. Werner discussed the entire building to himself after was confined indoors, and he had enjoying the company of several scores classmates who were afflict-Reider and Bell have also finished mounting a fossil buffalo, charge of the handcraft and hobcuted during his term as head of has set up a slab mounting of the tional and social aspects in planthat organization.

| Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient horse. | Chinese from the west, were realfossil head of an ancient

BIG SISTER SPONSOR ENTERTAINS BOARD

Miss Clark Gives Sunday Night Supper for Members.

Miss L. M. Clark, Big Sister Board sponsor and English in-structor, is entertaining the mem-bers of the Big Sister board at a Sunday night supper at her home 511 So, 14th st., Sunday night, Feb 17. She will be assisted during the evening by Miss Shirley Hatt.

Members of the Big Sister board. who will attend the supper, are Arlene Bors, Elizabeth Moomaw Rowena Swenson, Marjorie Filley Maxine Packwood, Breta Peterson Barbara DePutron, Marjorie Smith, Lorraine Hitchcock, and Doris Riisness

FINAL YEAR BOOK DRIVE FOR SALES STARTS MONDAY

Business Staff Sets March 8 As Last Date to Buy Cornhuskers.

Final sales drive for the Cornhusker, offering students their last opportunity to purchase a 1935 yearbook, will be launched Monday. Feb. 18, and will continue until March 2, according to Maynard Miller, business manager of the publication.

Orders may be placed at the Cornhusker office in the basement of University hall any afternoon from 1 until 5 o'clock. Price of the book is $4, or $4.25 when paid in installments with $2 down. "This will be the last chance for students to obtain a copy of the only record of their school's activities in 1935," declared Miller. "And the price " less than that of the past several years," he pointed out.

Millers Display Pictures A display of the twenty-nine beauty queen candidates will be in Miller & Paine's corner window on Monday, Feb. 18. Six of the candidates have been selected by McClelland Barclay, noted American artist, to be revealed on the publication date of the book.

scheduled to close at 5 o'clock on Saturday. Feb. 23. Proofs for photographs in the panels which Here is the essence of what will closed yesterday must be returned will gather at their fifth annual at the first of this week, according to Crabill.

UNIVERSITY REGENTS HOLD MEETING FRIDAY

Group Approves Granting of Brief Absence Leaves to Professors.

Regents of the university conmatters pertaining to administration of the school Friday after-

Among those things approved at the meeting was a brief leave of absence for Prof. H. C. Filley. chairman of the department of rural economics, and Prof. H. J. Gramlich, chairman of the department of animal husbandry.

without pay from Jan. 1 to Feb. 23 to assist the National Grain Dealers association in making a mar-(Continued on Page 3.)

WILDCATS UPSET SCARLET 54 TO 49

All Square Until Final Event on Program Clinches Meet For Invading Scantyclads From Manhattan; Relay Decides Victor of Sub-Stadium Engagement,

KNAPPENBERGER OUTSTANDING FOR VISITORS

Kansas State Records Eight First Places to Four on Part Of Nebraska Cindermen; O'Reilly Sets Stadium Rerod in Mile Run as He Bests Funk.

With the count squared at 491/2 all and the mile relay remaining on the program, Kansas State put a relay quartet on the field which ran the legs off Nebraska's four baton carriers to cop the event and allow the Wildcats to leave the track under the east stadium Saturday afternoon with a 5412 to 4912 Ovictory over Coach Henry F.

FRANKFORTER MAKES | Schulte's cinder team. Chalking up eight first places SPEECH AT HASTINGS and a new stadium record, the Kansas State tracksters showed

Prof. C. J. Frankforter of the the Scarlet Scantvolads, with four chemistry department will go to first and a draw for top honors in Hastings on Monday, Feb. 18, the high jump, the way out the where he will address a joint meet-ing of the Chamber of Commerce back door to their first defeat of the season, and the American Legion on the subject of R.O.T.C. and C.M.T.C. training. On Friday, Feb. 22, he will appear before the Kiwanis club and the American Legion at Auburn and will discuss the same Funk in a brilliant finish to write topic. Prof. Frankforter is a colonel in the organized reserves. 27 seconds. Funk started out

ARTISTS GIVE THREE OPERA SELECTIONS IN COLISEUM MARCH 12

Chicago Company Presents Parts of 'Tannhauser', 'Tosca', 'Faust'.

When the Chicago Grand Opera most of the way but finally lost presents its special all-star per- out in the finish. formance at the university coliseum the evening of March 12, music lovers will be regaled with the heart of three of the greatest Nine fraternity and six sorority operas yet written-all modern sections were closed Saturday by works, in the sense of having been Editor Carbill, and panels for Al- composed by men who lived within pha Sigma Phi, Delta Sigma the easy memory of many thou-Lambda, Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa sands of American opera goers, to Alpha, and Phi Gamma Delta are wit. Richard Wagner, Charles be given. Tannhauser in German,

Act I of "Tannhauser," in German. This act nicludes the great Venusberg scene, wherein Wagner told the legend of the fall of the minstrel knight, Tannhauser, and his surrender to the guilty love proffered by the pagan goddess, Venus, Included in the glorious music of Act I is the celebrated Bacchanale, wherein Ruth Page's Chicago Opera ballet will take part. Coe Glade will be Venus and Myron Duncan will be Tannhauser.

Tosca Given in Italian.

Act II of "Tosca," in Italian. This is the dominant act of Puccini's most popular opera, even as cerned themselves with routine it has always been the dominant act of Sardou's "La Tosca," famous French play on which the opera was founded. In this act occurs the well-known aria, "Vissi d'arte," the outstanding number for soprano in the score. The act concerns Tosca's enforced rendezvous with Scarpia, chief of police of Rome, in the historic Farnese Palace, and her struggle with him Professor Filley requested leave to obtain the pardon of her lover, hald prisoner by Cavaradossi, Scarpia, who tortures his victim so that his cries are heard by Tosca (Continued on Page 2.)

De Basil's Spectacular Presentation Thrills Audience in Packed Coliseum

By Meredith Overpeck.

Thursday evening a Lincoln audience enjoyed the first Lincoln performance of Col. W. de Basil's superb Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo at the coliseum. The throng of citizens who attended the spectacle marveled at the brilliant performance of the renowned company.

Rhythmical swaying, fairy-like the bailet. Costumed in white Krause, costumes, a background of green coolie coats bats and the familiar The little that the costumes are considered to the cost of the foliage and fountains of the ro-mantic reverie, "Les Sylphides" was reminiscent of Corot's filmy painting, "Dance of the Nymphs. in seven parts, four Danced waltzes, two mazurkas, and a prelude, four soloists. Danilova, Baronova, Petroff and Riabouchinska did the group of dances to the background of twenty graceful artists of the ballet. Chopin's immortal music, played by Antal Dorati's orchestra, intensified the daintiness of the gauzy ballet costumes, garland head wreaths and butterfly wings.

Present "Union Pacific."

Vivid in a kaleidoscopic manmodern American ballet in one act Irishmen from the east and the coolie coats, hats, and the familiar que, the Chinese workmen were in excellent contrast to the rough and ready Irishmen, who in red checkered lumberjacks, red whiskers, wigs, and black workmen's caps, were a burly group. Jasinsky and Petroff as the Irish and Chinese surveyors, danced solo numbers. Both were in love with Baronova, the Lady-Gay of a nearby barroom. Dressed in a bustled, much ruffled yellow creation of the 1870's, this saucy flirt represented a typical "painted woman" of the streets. Her blue stockings, flamboyant chapeau, and quaint lace gloves were worn in a provocative fashion. After showing each fac-"Union Pacific," the ultra- tion at work on the road, the third scene was the interior of the barand four scenes, revealed the col- room west of Promontory Point orful past during the building of where the two lines converged. In found near the base of Signal Butte bies; Mrs. Roy Green spoke on culture, is recovering rapidly and the great railway. The two fac- this den of vice were gamblers, tions which built the road, the gaudy women of the streets in Irishmen from the east and the flaming attire, the workmen of

(Continued on Page 3.)

Prof. Lester B. Orfield of the university college of law is the au-thor of a book review of "Five Hundred Delinquent Women" by Prof. Sheldon Glueck and Eleanor Glueck. The review appears in the February issue of the Tennesses Law Review.

800 VIEW CHILDREN'S THEATER PRODUCTION

Mile Run Best.

of the afternoon, provided the best time of the meet, O'Rielly taking the classic from Husker Gler

a new stadium record of 4 minutes strong and led the Kansan until the last quarter lap, fading at the turn as O'Reilly went past and hit the tape in a whirlwind climax.

time, exceptionally around a seven lap track with hairpin turns, was one tenth of a second under the clocking set up

O'Reilly, the star middle distance runner on the wildcats squad, also led the field all the way in the 880 yard classic, finishing in 2:01.3 without serious opposition. Roberts, Nebraska, and Dill, Kansas State, waged a battle all their own for second hon-ors. Roberts headed the Kansan

Knappenberger Staters' Ace.

whole show for the 'Staters, tak-ing both the hurdle events, but finishing second to Speed Jacobsen.

Husker speedster from Trenton,

Mo., in the straightaway over the same route. The fleet-footed Nebraskan showed the way every step of the race and finished several yards ahead of Knappen-berger to get credit for a 6.3 time over the sixty yards. Knappen-berger took the 60-yard highs from

(Continued on Page 3.)

Knappenberger was almost the on the stadium oval last year by

The mile run, the first contest

Ann Seacrest, Bob Ager Play Leading Roles in 'The Tinkling Laugh.'

PRESENT TWO SHOWS

A total of approximately 800 persons attended the morning and afternoon performances, Saturday in the Temple theater, of the children's theater production, "The Tinkling Laugh," written by Mrs. Wesley Patrick McDonald and presented by members of the university dramatics department and of the children's dramatics classes. The play, a dramatic fairy tale in which Ann Seacrest, who played the part of the Princess Symbalene of the Tinkling Laugh, and Bob Ager, who played the part of Jack, had the leading roles, was enthusiastically received by the audience, a great part of which was composed of children.

Miss Pauline Gellatly directed the play, under the supervision of Miss H. Alice Howell, director of the University Players. Don Friedly was in charge of settings and Charles W. Steadman, student manager of the University Players was another member of the staff in charge of the play. Costumes were designed by Rosemary

The Junior League committee in charge of the production included Mrs. Frank Reeve, general chairman; Mrs. W. P. McDonald, ticket chairman; Mrs. Giles Henkle, publicity and usher chairman; Mrs. Ernest Walt, property chairman, and Miss Margaret Ames and Mrs. George Haecker, assistants to property chairman.

Act one took place in a room in the palace and the three scenes in the second act were in the valley of dawn, the forest, and the house

Prof. Lester B. Orfield Publishes Book Review