

CAMPUS OBSERVES IVY DAY

Colleges Hold Open House Tonight

TECHNICAL GROUPS SPONSOR DISPLAYS

Engineer, Pharmacy, Geology, Architecture Students To Start Demonstrations of Scholastic Activities at 7 O'clock.

ENGINEERS TO SHOW MODEL IRRIGATION PLAN

Pharmacy Students Will Show Manufacture of Cold Cream, Preparations of Tinctures, Fluids; Visitors May Take Color Vision Tests.

Scholastic activities of technical students will be displayed to the public this evening as demonstrations by engineering, pharmacy, geology and architectural students are presented in conjunction with Ivy and College days, Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3.

Commencing at 7 o'clock this evening, open house activities will take place in the M. E., A. M. and E. E. engineering buildings, Brace laboratory, chemistry hall, Morrill hall, campus studio, pharmacy hall and old power house north of E. E. In the old power house, the ag engineers will exhibit the only official tractor testing equipment in the United States and one of the largest tractor displays to appear in the Midwest.

With many industrial chemical processes and chemical oddities, the chemical engineers will present their display in the chemistry building. Col. C. J. Frankforter will give a demonstration of thermite, which will consist of the conversion of chemical energy into heat energy. In a very striking and realistic demonstration, a miniature volcano will be produced

LAW STUDENTS WILL ATTEND COLLEGE DAY CELEBRATION FRIDAY

Classes Dismissed for Order Of Coif Initiation, Ball Games, Banquet.

Lawyers will have their day Friday when Dean H. H. Foster's proteges make merry at their second annual ball games preceding their banquet at 6:30 o'clock in the Hotel Cornhusker.

After the adjournment of classes at 11 o'clock in the morning of law day, the prospective barristers of 10th street will assemble to attend to their only serious business on the program, initiation of four senior laws into the Order of the Coif, national honorary legal society whose members are elected by vote of the faculty of law school.

Concluding the day's ceremonies will be the annual dinner in the evening at which Harvey M. Johnson, well known Omaha attorney and graduate of the law school in 1919, will speak. For many years he has been secretary of the Ne-

Hart Jenks Plays Lead in 'Julius Caesar'

Katharine Throp McDonald and Hart Jenks have the leading roles in 'Julius Caesar' to be presented this week by the University Players. Mr. Jenks, a former member of the group, is the guest star and Mrs. McDonald has a series of interesting characteristics to her credit during her three years association with the Players.

DRIVE FOR BOOK STORE, STUDENT UNION EXTENDED

Committee Chairmen Reveal Petition Campaign to Continue Week.

4,000 SIGNATURES GOAL

Letters Written Requesting PWA Information and Future Steps.

An intensive petition campaign will be continued next week for the Student Union and University book store propositions, it was announced Wednesday afternoon by Jack Fischer and Virginia Selleck, chairmen of the committees behind the respective movements. A goal of 4,000 signatures has been set to be affixed to the petition.

The student union and university book store executive committees will have a meeting Friday afternoon to complete definite organization for these campaigns. Corrine Clafin of the union committee and Lorraine Hitchcock of the book store committee are formulating a plan for their groups.

A series of feature articles on the student unions throughout the United States will be published in the Daily Nebraskan next week.

AG STUDENTS TO REVEAL IDENTITY OF QUEEN TODAY

Goddess of Agriculture Will Be Named at Prefair Dance.

PESTER AND BAND PLAY

All Members of Holdrege Campus Participate in History Pageant.

Excitement was at a high pitch Wednesday on the ag campus, in anticipation of the presentation of the Goddess of Agriculture, at the prefair dance Thursday night, and as 400 students made final plans for the pageant, "American Panorama," to be given for the first time Friday at 8 p. m. in the improved amphitheater.

Mel Pester and his band, will play for the dance, exclusively for ag students, who will be dressed in aprons and overalls. The affair will be held from 7 to 9 in the Student Activities building.

Every student on the Holdrege (Continued on Page 2.)

250 ATTEND Y.M., Y.W. ICE CREAM SOCIAL ON LIBRARY LAWN MAY 1

Tables Lighted by Japanese Lanterns at First Such Campus Affair.

Approximately 250 university students attended the Y. M., Y. W. ice cream social held Wednesday night on the library lawn.

Tables, spread sparsely over the grounds, were faintly illuminated by Japanese lanterns suspended overhead. Music was provided by radio. It was the first such affair ever attempted by any university group.

Guests were served ice cream and cake by members of the Y. W. social staff, who played the part of waitresses. They were Evelyn Diamond, Nora DeCory, Dorcas Crawford, Dorothy Beers, Iris Knox, Hazel Baer, Lillian Seibold, Eleanor Bell, Edna Lee, Alice Terrill, and Ruth Longstreet.

Prof. and Mrs. O. W. Reinmuth and Miss Bernice Miller chaperoned the affair.

Definite committees working on arrangements were Nora DeCory, grounds; Eleanor Bell, orchestra; Hazel Baer and Lillian Seibold, supplies; and Dorcas Crawford, Dorothy Beers, and Iris Knox, refreshments.

Clark Will Be Available For Consultation Monday

Dr. John D. Clark, who will resume his work as professor of economics next September, will spend next Monday in his office in Social Sciences annex, 106, and will be available for consultation with students with respect to courses that he will offer next semester.

STUDENT COUNCIL POSTS

- Student Council. Four seniors-at-large, two men and two women. Two junior men and three junior women from Arts and Science college. Two junior men from Engineering college. One junior man and one junior woman from Business Administration college. One junior man and one junior woman from College of Agriculture. One junior man and three junior women from Teachers college. One junior man from Pharmacy college. One junior man from Dentistry college. One junior man from Law college. Two junior women-at-large. One man or woman from Graduate college. Publication Board. One sophomore member. One junior member. One senior member.

Gamma Alpha Chi to Hold Special Meeting Sunday

Gamma Alpha Chi, national honorary advertising sorority, will hold a special meeting at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. At this time members will set a date for the initiation of recent pledges and will also decide when they will elect officers for the coming year.

SCIENCE COUNCIL TO START ANNUAL CONCLAVE MAY 5

Will Meet With Geography, Mathematical, Dietic Associations.

Representatives from every college in the state will be present at the forty-fifth annual meeting of the Nebraska Academy of Sciences Friday and Saturday at the university, M. P. Brunig, secretary of the organization, announced Wednesday.

Programs in all branches of scientific study to be offered to the visiting scholars and teachers are open to the public.

This year's convention is being held jointly with the Nebraska Section of the Mathematical Association of America, the Nebraska Council of Geography Teachers, Nebraska Science Teachers association and the Nebraska Dietic association, all of whom will sponsor special sectional meetings for the particular phases of science.

Included in these sciences are biochemistry-nutrition, biology, chemistry, earth science, geogra-

(Continued on Page 3.)

MORTAR BOARDS TO GIVE LUNCH, DINNER

Senior Honorary Entertains New Members, Queen, Attendants.

As a part of the Ivy day festivities, the Mortar Board will entertain the May Queen, and her attendants, at a noon luncheon at the University club, and newly masked members, their mothers and the mothers of the present board by a pre-initiation banquet at 6:30 this evening at the University club.

A number of the honorary members from the faculty are also expected to attend the banquet. Both affairs will be very informal stated Violet Cross, president of the organization, Wednesday. A committee of Louise Hossack and Marjorie Smith is in charge of the arrangements.

The new members will be initiated at breakfast at 7 o'clock Friday morning at the Cornhusker hotel.

HONORARIES MAKE SELECTIONS TODAY

Crowning of May Queen Headlines Morning Activities; Masking Mortar Boards and Tapping Innocents Features of Afternoon Affairs.

MARVIN SCHMIDT TO GIVE IVY DAY ORATION

Fraternalities, Sororities Compete in Singing Contest For Loving Cups; Jack Pace, Dan Easterday to Receive, Plant Traditional Ivy.

With the presentation of the May queen headlining the morning's activities, and masking of new Mortar Boards and Innocents occupying the spotlight in the afternoon, Nebraska students will celebrate Ivy day today.

Fraternalities will begin the traditional festivities at 9 o'clock when they compete for the silver loving cup offered by the Kosmet Klub for best group singing. Tom Davies, in charge of the singing contest, stated that all fraternalities must be at the Ivy day playground by 8:45 in order to begin sharply at 9 o'clock.

The competition will be judged by Lee H. Ager, Mrs. E. N. Van Horne, and Lyle DeMoss. Winner of last year's contest and present holder of the cup is Sigma Phi Epsilon. Groups taking part in the contest are Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Chi Phi.

Sing Day Oration Follows. Following the contest, Marvin Schmidt, law student, will give the Ivy day oration entitled "Life in the Forties." After this members of Mortar Board followed by two pages will go to the throne to await the May Queen's coming.

Senior women led by four outstanding members of their class, will approach carrying the ivy chain. They will be followed by two freshmen, two sophomores, and two juniors from each sorority.

Following the entrance of the (Continued on Page 2.)

JENKS, SUMPTION STAR IN PLAYERS' LAST PRODUCTION

Dramatists Open in 'Julius Caesar' Wednesday At Temple.

By Meredith Overpeck. Playing "Julius Caesar," Shakespeare's celebrated drama of ancient Rome, before a large audience in the Temple theater, the University Players opened the season's final play on Wednesday evening, May 1. The production, which starred Hart Jenks and Harold Sumption, was under the general supervision of Miss H. Alice Howells, and directed by Hart Jenks, famous Shakespearean star.

It was announced yesterday by Charles Steadman, Players' Business Manager, that the reduced prices which have been publicized for the run of this performance apply only to university students.

In the title role of "Julius Caesar," Harold Sumption dominated the play, up until the time of the character's death. Following his assassination, the center of interest swings to the conflict between the forces of "Mark An-

(Continued on Page 3.)

ENGINEERS' WEEK TO START WITH EXHIBITS IN BUILDING TONIGHT

Convocation, Field Day and Banquet Scheduled for Friday.

Traditional engineer's week activities will start at 7 o'clock this evening with the presenting of exhibits and demonstrations at the open house in all the engineering buildings. Following on Friday, the engineer's convocation, field day and banquet will take place.

On the open house program are the liquid air demonstration at the M. E. building, the model grade crossing eliminator at the M. A. building, the thermite welding process at Brace laboratory, the Rube Goldberg inventions at the Chemistry building, demonstration on casting of metals at the M. E. foundry, the light beam and block light transmission at Brace laboratory, electrical transmission east of the E. E. building, model modern house at the campus studio and the unidirectional counter at the E. E. building. All seven engineering departments, agricultural, mechanical, electrical, architectural, chemical, civil and applied mechanics, will take part in the program.

At the engineering convocation at 11 o'clock Friday morning in the Temple, Erik Floor, chief engineer of the Loup river power and irrigation project at Columbus, will speak on the project of which he is in charge. He will use illus-

(Continued on Page 2.)

PERSHING RIFLES WILL ATTEND IOWA CONTEST

19 Members to Leave Friday For Corn State Drill Competition.

Nineteen members of Pershing Rifles, crack drill unit of the university, will travel to Iowa City, Ia., Friday to take part in the drill meet to be staged by the regimental headquarters of the second regiment at Iowa university, according to plans announced Wednesday.

The nineteen members making the trip will form four squads for the drill, and part of the expenses for the journey to the Hawkeye campus will be paid by the Nebraska R. O. T. C. unit.

The Pershing Riflemen making the trip are Woolf, Watson, Turner, Laser, Alexander, Lemon, Howe, Elmore, Place, Jarmin, Fulsh, Smith, Stein, Pavy, Eager, Drew, Nurnberger, Campbell, and Riley.

Little Gods Galley

TOM DAVIES, KOSMET KLUB PRESIDENT.

By Sarah Louise Meyer. Although he violently objects to being damned with loud praise (you know, every gal prays and prays for them eyes and hair) and "let's skip it's" about himself, Thomas Mockett Davies, of Utica and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, has a friend or two who will tell you freely that he's pretty much on the acceptable side.

The little habit of snapping his jaws together at everything at all personal perhaps is a carry-over from the spirit of the alligator in the shadow of whose skin he executes the affairs of the Kosmet Klub. Then too, the Phi Delta Phi pride is "taking up law," which somehow hushes one—we hear. But Blackstone and alligator skins aside, we're sure that in spite of a reticence to talk Tom has nothing to hide.

Concerning careers legal, however, "Divies" waxes enthusiastic. In a not at all "irrelevant, inconsequential, and beside the point" manner. Although hoping to be a corporation lawyer someday, he would prefer independence in a general practice to apprenticeship in a large established firm. He plans to celebrate his graduation from the university's law school, which is "particularly good," with an expedition through the English courts and Parliament buildings. Then he'll enhance the legal (Continued on Page 2.)

Courtesy Riehart-Marsden.