Mu Phi Epsilon Heads Grade Report

MUSIC GROUP SETS NEW HIGH AVERAGE

Sigma Kappa Wins Scholarship Ranking in Social Sororities From Zeta Tau Alpha; Phi Omega Pi Places Third.

ALL STUDENT, FRATERNITY AVERAGES LOWER

Dean's Report Discloses Howard Hall First in 'Other Organized Groups', Sigma Gamma Epsilon Highest Professional.

Dislodging Howard Hall from its perennial position at the top of the university scholastic rating, Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, moved into first place and set a new high average by ranking in the plus seven category, according to the first semester scholarship report issued Monday by Dean Thompson.

General classifications were stable, the all-sorority group maintaining the time-honored first rank, followed by all women, non-sorority, all students, non-fraternity, all men, and all fraternity. A new low was set by the last group in the fraternity section, necessitating the addition of a minus six column to the report.

First among social sororities was Sigma Kappa, taking the lead away from Zeta Tau Alpha, which was relegated to second place. Phi Omega Pi, Alpha Phi, and Alpha Omicron Pi ranked next in order among social sororities.

Little Gods Galley

ARLENE BORS, 1935 PROM GIRL.

She sat on a table, because she likes to sit on tables, as she related the story of her life, or rather, as she answered questions pertaining to it. Arlene Bors topped off her active college career by being prom girl this year, much to her surprise, she stated.

And even if it had ended otherwise, it would still have been one of the more outstanding careers on the campus. In her senior year she served as president of the Big Sister Board, as well as being an active Mortar Board member. For two years she was a member of the Y. W. cabinet, and a member of Tassel. She also held a position on the Junior-Senior Prom committee.

But activities have not interfered with her scholarship. Taking a liberal course in home economics she has been elected to two home ec honoraries, Phi Epsilon Omicron, and Omicron Nu.

Nebraska Law Bulletin to Appear Latter Part Of Week.

Entitled "Aircraft Operators' Liability for Property Damage and Injury to Passengers," the main article will be a discussion of liability of airway pilots in Nebraska. It is one of the few studies made on this subject, according to Prof. Lester B. Orfield, faculty editor in charge of the magazine.

In the Bar Association section will appear an article on "The Frazier-Lemke Law" by R. O. Williams, prominent Lincoln attorney. This law deals with the problem of financing farmers who are near bankruptcy.

Five longer student notes and nine recent case discussions have been written by the board of student editors for the law school division. Professor Orfield has also contributed recent case discussions on the loss of citizenship by American minors and on the time allowed to take criminal appeals in Nebraska. Gang Fight Enues As Factions Clash On Eve of Election

Terminating political activity on the eve of election, a free-for-all riot broke out last night when the Green Toga and Progressive factions clashed on the corner of 16th and S streets, resulting in property damage around $100 and several cracked skulls.

Hostility first flared up when students participating in the Green Toga rally, which began about 9 o'clock, plastered the walls and windows of the Sigma Nu house with rotten eggs.

Beginning their rally at 10:30, the Progressive forces had finished their rounds of sorority houses when they reached the 16th street corner, shortly before midnight. There they met the Green Toga campaigners, massed and waiting on the Theta lawn.

Invectives were hurled, a shout went up, and missiles ranging from mudballs to rocks started flying into both ranks. Ingenious Green Toga connected a hose at the side of the Theta house, and sprayed it into the melee.

The front soon extended onto the lawn of Alpha Omicron Pi and Alpha Phi, as the battlers settled down for a general siege. Two Green Toga rioters, knocked unconscious by the flying debris, were carried into the Phi Psi house for attention. Apple reinforcements soon strengthened Progressive provisions, and a renewed attack drove the Green Toga forces back of the Gamma Phi Beta house, as activity finally subsided.

Greatest damage was done to the Kappa Alpha Theta lawn, which was completely torn up by the rioters. No arrangements have been made to settle for the damage, according to reports received early this morning.
