

CYCLONE TRACK SQUAD PREPARES FOR STATE FRAY

Iowa State Cindermen Are Vastly Improved This Spring.

AMES, Ia., May 22.—The Iowa State college track team, returning from Lincoln, Neb., and the Big Six meet, was busy today practicing for the next two meets. The Cyclones, who have shown a high degree of improvement this spring, meet Grinnell and Coe in a triangular meet on State field Saturday, and then participate in the state meet at Cedar Falls, June 1.

Iowa State, doped to place well in the cellar in the Big Six meet, where it finished in the indoor championships, surprised everyone by clinching fourth place, and lacking only a few points to beating Nebraska out of third place. The illness of Wayne Lyon, Des Moines, star pole vaulter, who finished in a first place tie at last year's conference meet, and the failure of Lawrence Costigan, Buffalo Center, who in past meets has garnered points in the three weight events, the broad jump and the sprints, to qualify in any of the individual events, robbed the State crew of a third place position. Lyon, who at present is confined in the infirmary, is expected to be back in competition this Saturday.

Lawrence Minsky, El Monte, Calif., sophomore find in the javelin, gave the Cyclones their only first place when he won the spear throwing contest with a mark of over 185 feet.

Every man who made the trip to Lincoln, with one exception, scored points either in the individual or on the relay teams.

Sooners Set New Conference Record With Five Team Championships.

Kansas State followed in second place with 301-2 points, while Nebraska nosed out Iowa State 341-2 351-2 for third. Kansas had 401-2, and Missouri's luckless Tigers trailed the field with 491-2.

DIAMONDMEN MEET IOWA STATE TODAY

Postponement to Be Played Off on the Mundy Diamond.

Nebraska's doubleheader baseball mix with Iowa State, originally scheduled to be played Wednesday after a postponement from Monday and Tuesday, will be run off this afternoon at the mundy diamond—provided Jupiter Pluvius doesn't throw another monkey wrench into the works.

The first of the two seven inning games will begin at 2 p. m., with the second following immediately thereafter. Batteries for Nebraska will be Joyce or Carstens and Pohlman in the first, and Spurlock and Pohlman in the second, while Iowa State will depend on Holmes in the opener and Smaha in the follow-up encounter.

Down the Straightaway

With the Nebraska high school and Big Six conference track high lights already out of season and stored away on the shelf for another year, cinder interests still focuses on Memorial stadium and the hair-raising thrills its nation wide assemblage of cinder aces brings to Lincoln this summer. Coming to the Cornhusker cinder capitol July 3 and 4 in a blazing riot of outstanding track and field athletes will be the National A. A. U. championships, pedigree event of the cinder world. In addition to the already crowded roster of top notchers assured by the character of the meet itself, will be a further incentive for the "super" performers in the fact that the Olympics are due next year and that three teams for foreign trips will be selected on the basis of their performances here.

Memorial stadium is already priming itself for the meet, Henry Schulte and the Husker coaching staff starting preparations for dressing the Nebraska battleship out in its best for the affair. Changes must be made in the distance markings along side of the track, due to the fact that the meet will be conducted on the meter basis. Twelve different running events will demand the complete reconstruction of the marking system. In addition, facilities must be arranged for two events comparatively unknown to the Big Six—the hop-step-and-jump and hammer throw.

Meanwhile five Schultemen look forward to the last competitive preliminary to the A. A. U. finale. Every year the National Collegiate Athletic association invites outstanding track athletes who have fulfilled certain performance standards to compete in its annual track and field carnival. The Husker quintet which has been recommended by Pa Schulte to participate in the meet comprises Glenn Funk, Fred Chambers, Lloyd Cardwell, Sherman Cosgrove, and Harold "Speed" Jacobsen. Speed, Trenton, Mo., speedster who navigated the 100 in 9.8 seconds recently, suffered a broken blood vessel in the Big Six conference meet but should have sufficient time to get in shape before the meet is staged June 21 and 22 at Berkeley, Calif.

Fred Chambers, Minatare, is another of the Schulte injury jinxes that should be able to shake off the burden of a season-long affliction and get into condition. Fred snapped out a 197 feet throw in the javelin at the first of the season, but has been unable to equal it because of a persistent shoulder sprain. Pa thinks that if the Minatare spearman ever gets out in front of the injury he'll be getting more than 200 feet consistently.

Glenn Funk, Central City, will have only one race after the N. C. A. A. under Nebraska colors. Funk's 4:24 in the mile earned him the recommendation in his special distance race. Sherm Cosgrove, Lincoln, probably missed entering by the narrow margin of one jump, when he cleared 13 feet 4 inches on his second try in the Big Six pole vault championships last week. His best performance had been a 13 to 2 vault in practice. Lloyd Cardwell's time of 24.3 seconds in the 220 yard low hurdles was the basis for his entry in that event.

Okahoma's team in the Collegiate lists Bart Ward, Loyett Burk, Floyd Lochner, and Herman Nelson. Husker freshman will compete Thursday afternoon in the annual Big Six telegraphic meet. The competition, originally dated for the first of last week, was put off until Friday and Saturday of after the Big Six conference championships, but was postponed again till Wednesday because of rain. It was set for Thursday when another shower drenched the track yesterday. Nebraska and Iowa State baseball teams are running a close parallel in the double-header baseball contest scheduled Thursday afternoon at Mundy diamond, having changed the date three times.

"THEY DON'T GET YOUR WIND" NY ATHLETES SAY

LOU GEHRIG has played in more than 1500 consecutive big league games. Such an athletic achievement takes "wind"—healthy nerves—"condition." Lou says: "For steady smoking I pick Camels. They're so mild they never get my 'wind' or my nerves."

So mild, athletes smoke as many as they please—and that's real mildness!

Of course you want mildness in a cigarette. And the athletes—to whom "wind," healthy nerves, "condition" are vitally important—insist on mildness.

Lou Gehrig, baseball's "Iron Man," says: "Camels are so mild they never get my 'wind.'" George Barker, intercollegiate cross-country champion, says: "Camels are so mild, they don't cut my 'wind' in any way." Bobby Walthour, Jr., star of the six-day bike grinds, says: "I've got to have 'wind' in bike racing. For my cigarette I long ago chose Camels."

Tommy Armour, speaking for the golf stars, Bruce Barnes for tennis, and Betty Bailey for the aquatic sports—all agree: "Camels don't get your 'wind.'"

What this mildness means to you!... It means you can smoke as many Camels as you please. Athletes say Camel's costlier tobaccos never disturb your nerves—never tire your taste—never get your "wind."

GOOD NEWS! It's good news to hear that Camel's costlier tobaccos are so mild you can smoke all you please. Athletes say Camels never get your "wind."

An artist friend sends us this—

Gentlemen:

Here's a rough idea of how I looked before I got acquainted with Arrow Sanforized-Shrunk shirts. Look at that flossy shirt—the collar has gone haywire, the cuffs have an attack of wanderlust, the bosom has buckled so much I was ashamed to show it. No wonder I was having glamour trouble!

Things are different now. Arrow shirts have come into my life. The collars fit perfectly, the sleeves are in my correct size, and remain that way, and the tailoring looks like a custom job. Life for myself, my friends, and my mirror, is certainly less irksome since I adopted Arrows—thanks to Cluett, Peabody & Co.

Sincerely,
F. G. COOPER

SO MILD YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT!
