

Society

A September wedding is being planned by Miss Corrine Clafflin, of Omaha, whose engagement to William Potter, Chi Phi, of Lincoln, was announced recently. The marriage will take place Sept. 7 at 8:15 p. m. at Westminster church. DeMaris Hilliard will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Daesta Deeter, junior at the university, and Marjorie Smith, from Omaha university. Jack Potter, brother of the groom, will be the best man.

Mr. Potter has been attending Omaha medical school, where he is a Phi Rho. At present he is interning at the Nebraska state hospital here, and will continue his studies in Omaha in the fall. Miss Clafflin will be graduated from the university in August.

New officers of the Delta Upsilon alumni association are Joe Iverson, president, and Gordon Ayers, secretary-treasurer. The election was held at a luncheon meeting last week at the University club.

Two Nebraska graduates, Miss Dorothy Walker and Charles Harlamert were married May 10 at Kilgore. Mr. Harlamert was a Theta Chi here.

Miss Dorothy Mahoney of Palmyra and Donald Williams of Lincoln were married last Wednesday in Palmyra. Both attended the university, where Mrs. Williams was a member of Theta Phi Alpha and Mr. Williams was affiliated with Sigma Phi Sigma.

Miss Mabel Walker is going to Syracuse this weekend.

Miss Margaret Lovejoy will finish her work at summer school this weekend and will leave for her home at Boseman, Mont., after a short tour in Nebraska.

Miss Evelyn Teeters spent last weekend at her home in Tecumseh.

And last weekend Miss Ruth Green was at her home in Fairbury, and Miss Mary Gilmore went to Ashland, where she lives.

Misses Caroline and Ruth Berkel of David City spent last weekend at their home, where they attended a celebration for the dedication of a new postoffice.

Miss Nellie Andrews was called home last weekend to Auburn because of illness in the family.

Miss Estelle Jacobsen of Minden spent last weekend at home, and Miss Dorothy Hetherington went to her home in Beatrice.

Three summer school students who spent last weekend at their home in Crete were the Misses Sylvia Korbel, Irene Schultz and Frances Beer.

Miss Viola Crouch went to Auburn over the weekend and then spent Sunday in Omaha.

Miss Dorothy McEvoy went to her home in Missouri Valley last weekend, and Miss Alene Selk went to Plymouth, where she lives.

Two students who live in Omaha went home for the last weekend. They are Misses Dorothy Saxton and Agnes Muenster.

Miss Helen Farley spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Plattsmouth.

Miss Lucille Berger entertained Miss Harriet Heumann at her home in Omaha over the weekend.

Home for Saturday and Sunday in Council Bluffs was Miss Helen McCoy and Miss Heral Hedcock spent the weekend at her home in Nora.

Miss Dorothy Taylor spent two days last week at her home in Valparaiso.

An announcement party was held last weekend by Miss Helen Marvin of Greenwood, who announced her engagement to Lee Knolle of York. Twelve attended the affair, which was held in Greenwood. Both are attending the summer

Movie Directory

STUART—

"GINGER" with Jane Withers and O. P. Heggie.

LINCOLN—

"FRONT PAGE WOMAN" with Bette Davis and George Brent.

ORPHEUM—

"UNDER THE PAMPAS MOON" and "TRANSCIENT LADY."

COLONIAL—

"LADIES LOVE DANCER."

LIBERTY—

Will Rogers in "LIFE BEGINS AT 40."

SUN—

"COUNTY CHAIRMAN" and "NUT FARM."

hear Cab Galloway were Miss Eunice Johnson and Miss Lucille Kaufman. Miss Kaufman remained there over the weekend.

Miss Harriet McCullough, from Central City, went home over Saturday and Sunday last week.

Misses Lota and Edith Mussaley spent last weekend at their home in Meadow Grove, and Miss Florence Benthley was at her home in Greenwood.

Prof. and Mrs. E. M. Lackey will leave Saturday for a trip to Seattle, Alaska, and San Diego where they will view the exposition. In Seattle they will visit Mr. Lackey's sister and on Aug. 3 will sail for Scagway, Alaska.

Steckelberg Gives Recital.

Carl Frederic Steckelberg, professor of violin, presented a radio program Tuesday afternoon at 1:30. Mrs. Steckelberg accompanied at the piano.

An exhausted doe, on Cape Cod, was revived with a shot of gin. Brother Elks take notice.—Omaha World-Herald.

STUDENTS OF VIOLIN APPEAR IN RECITAL AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Sixteen Pupils of Ethel Owen Give Program Thursday.

Students studying violin this summer with Ethel Owen will appear in a recital Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Recital Hall of the school of music. Those playing are: James Worcester, John Frerichs, Herbert McCulla, Franklin Logan, Alice May Booth, Bertha Walters, Everett Heiser, Regina Reber, Hazel Fricke, Beverly Stout, Evelyn Stark, Mary Ellen McFarland, Phyllis Lyness, Mar-

Rent a car for any trip at any hour. You'll be surprised how good, how cheap and how easy to rent. Call or drop in.

We are just adding 1935 Chevrolets to our line.

Motor Out Company
1120 P St. Phone B6819

garet Fowler, Mary Ellen Beachey, and Carol Capek.

Dean George Young Pays Visit to Campus Recently

Dean George Young of the college of engineering and architecture at Cornell university, spent a day here recently as the guest of Prof. Linus Burr Smith. Dean Young stopped here on his way west and was conducted on a short tour of the city.

Try One of Our Lovely Summer Specials

Machineless Oil Permanents $4.39

Many Others

All Lines of Beauty Culture Reasonable

Gladys Parker
Beaute Salon

1229 N. Upstairs Phone B2355

session of the university. Miss Marvin has attended the university for two years, and Mr. Knolle is a graduate of York college. No definite date has as yet been set for the wedding.

Miss Doris Evans will leave this weekend for Seward.

Leaving for home after the six weeks session are Misses Edna Brock, Farnam, and Clara Rhodeholst, Columbus.

Miss Frances Smith visited in Council Bluffs last weekend. And Miss Jane Hughes spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Janson.

Miss Frances Smith, Ahleen Nel-Ahleen Nelson will leave this weekend for their homes in Burwell. Also going home is Miss Dorothy Davis who lives in Crete.

Visiting out of town over the week end are Miss Evena Lee, who will go to Wahoo, and Miss Ruth Reams, who will be in Seward.

Visiting relatives in Omaha last Saturday and Sunday were Misses Geraldine Hall and Iris Creps. Miss Cecilia Kelly was in North Bend, visiting her brother.

Miss Mildred Santon was at her home in Palmer over the weekend.

Ten attended a picnic at Seward last Sunday, when the group took lunch and spent the afternoon boat riding. Those who attended were Misses Miriam Hinman, Dorothea Roberts, Magdalene Roberts, Vera Rigdon, Nora Helfrich, Virginia Gleydstein, Evelyn Bopolensky, Jean Gley, Mary Hart and Mrs. Peterson.

Miss Stella Linhart spent last weekend at Wilber.

Going to their homes in Wauwata this weekend are Miss Meredith Brown and Miss Ruth Sturtevant.

July 16, sixteen girls of Paige Hall entertained at a theater party. Those attending the affair were the Misses Glenna Wagner, Ann Banton, Marlea and Marcella Elftman, Vivian Warner, Mrytel Anderson, Esther Mattson, Lela and Lucille Pursel, Eva Griffin, Irene Fenstermacher, Helen Kapplam, Lillian Gamesberger, Alice and Martha Marrow and Dorothy Jacobson.

Visiting friends in Louisville last weekend was Miss Louise McCloshey. And Miss Sally Ehlers spent Saturday and Sunday in Dorchester with friends.

In Omaha last Friday night to

GOLD & CO.

Be First in New Fall Dresses

Styles so New, Paris and New York are just beginning to wear them!

Open your favorite fashion magazine... read all about the new dresses. Then come in and see these if you want something smart. Glistening satins with important sleeves. Rich silk crepes that drape beautifully... every new influence!

12⁵⁰
to 22⁵⁰

Ready-to-Wear Section—GOLD'S—Third Floor

SANITONE

The New Beauty Treatment for your garments. Gets all of the soil and revives the colors. Send your garment cleaning to

MODERN CLEANERS

Soukup & Westover
Call B2377 For Service

BALLROOM DANCING LEARN NOW

Special Rate This Week Only

Borner Sisters

1536 "P" St.

B6103