

CAMPUSOCIETY

THE ONE TIME OF THE YEAR that's marked in red for those who like their pictures displayed here and there, and the one that's marked in black for the more modest souls, is the end of the six weeks when the Cornhusker calls the deadline for junior and senior sections. A mad rush for the beauty shops, and department stores, and finally last minute appointments at Rinehart Marsden all to have one's shining visage looking from the pages of the year book.

This season, just to have something new and different on a rather bored campus, we suggest minute caricatures of each person drawn by some artist with a sense of humor. The results might not be so awe inspiring, but at least they'd inject a bit of fun into an otherwise dry pastime.

SEEN ON the campus: Irving Hill being paged in "Sosh" library—Four Theta actives looking foot-sore and weary after freshman skip night—Dorothy Green and some gal, in one of those hats that covers the whole side of the face, meandering up and down the board walk—Velma remarking that there were people she'd like to stick pins in—Bill Boehner having a bit of breakfast at 10:30 (morning)—Peggy Kennedy and some blonde man walking around—A Mrs. Moller making coy gestures at Professor Bouwsma—Carl Mutschulat calling for a deck of cards when the instructor announced that he would read a story—and obnoxious freshmen bouncing here and there in the Rag office.

CAN IT BE true, that bit of a whisper that buzzes that Jean Willis has Bob Morris' pin. If so, the Thetas have candy coming right soon now, and the S. A. E.'s, cigars.

SIGMA NU pledge officers for the coming year are Jack Scott, Ogallala, president; Hammond McNish, Sidney, vice president; Ed Steeves, Jackson, high secretary; Harold DeVoe, Ogallala, treasurer; and Bob Reichstadt, Omaha, sergeant-at-arms.

ONCE THAT we can talk about an arrow without mentioning Phi Beta Phi, and we'll make the most of opportunity. Kappa Sig pledge Eddie Collins, one of the brothers tells us, used to pose for Arrow Shirt ads in the old home town of Denver, Humm!

TUESDAY afternoon the chapters' club met at the Beta Theta Pi house for a business meeting. Mrs. J. S. Pierce was hostess for the affair and assisting her were Mrs. Cora Bentley, Mrs. J. W. Bishop, Mrs. Madeline Baer, Mrs. Margaret Rea and Mrs. E. M. Marshall.

IT MUST have been the effect of Kappa Sig rush week, for altho Gergetta Kimsy and Dick Spradling had been trotting around together pretty steadily during the summer, fall brought new ideas. Dickie hasn't even gotten his pin back yet, in spite of the pushing of the brethren, and rumor has it that he's running hither and yon with Mary Louise Turpitt, Pi Phi pledge. In fact, he hasn't seen Gergetta since the end of last summer.

SUNDAY the active chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha entertained the alumnae and parents of the chapter at a tea at the new house at 1645 G street. At the tea table during the first hour was Mrs. Harlan, housemother, Ruth Hutchinson presided for the second hour. A musical program was presented by Winifred McCall and Dorothy Davis.

UNUSUAL news is the best news. A little anonymous contribution in the box confirmed that some Theta has some Phi Psi's pin. How different!

ANNOUNCED recently was the marriage of Eleanor Gerken and Daniel Richardson of Madison which took place Oct. 5. Mrs. Richardson is a former student here. The couple will live in Omaha.

SEPTEMBER twenty-fourth Mary Rose Giangrosso of Omaha was married to Haldane Clemons of Chicago. Miss Giangrosso is a former student of the university and has been teaching at the University of Wisconsin. The couple will live in Chicago.

ALUMNAE of Sigma Kappa met for a dessert supper at the home of Miss Luvicy Hill and Miss Gertrude Beers Tuesday. After the supper a business meeting was held and the remainder of the evening was spent with bridge. Twenty members attended the meeting.

NINE members of the Zeta Tau Alpha chapter on this campus will be guests of the Kansas State group over the weekend. The girls are Elizabeth Orth, Leila Johnson, Dorothy Davis, Geraldine Hunt, Gertrude Fountain, Alysae Wilke, Ruth Hutchinson, Stella Linhart and Ruth Hunt.

to the election committee headed by Elizabeth Bushee. Council members will man the polls in shifts through the day.

Schedules Lighter. "Tuesday has been selected as the best day for elections," Hill explained. "Because class schedules are usually lighter on that day. With the election on Tuesday, all students should have sufficient leisure to attend the polls."

The student council has been granted control of all student elections thru its constitution. Prof. E. W. Lantz and Miss Anderson are sponsors of the governing body. The counting of the ballots is under the supervision of Mr. Lantz.

Protests of the election and of unfair practices used before the election are submitted to the council judiciary committee whose chairman is Sanchez Kilburn.

"All in all, this system represents full democracy and complete self-government," Hill added.

HIGHWAYS LEAD TO KANSAS AS DATE OF GAME APPROACHES

Nebraskans Plan to Move To Aggietown En Masse.

MANHATTAN, Kas., Oct. 14.—All highways lead to Manhattan as the gridiron spotlight in this section for the coming weekend is trained on the Cornhusker-Wildcat homecoming game Saturday afternoon, Oct. 19. If there be a Nebraskan who has not heard of it, it might be added that his state also plans to move to Aggietown en masse.

Outcome of other games this season will go by the boards on this occasion. The Cornhuskers and Wildcats have an argument all to themselves that must be settled. It runs back to last Thanksgiving day in Lincoln when the Kansans snatched a Big Six football championship from Messrs. Bible, Cardwell, Bauer and others, after those mighty Norsemen had practically shucked it out and cribbed it.

Interest in the homecoming event seems not to have lessened because of the 3-0 loss of the Wildcats to Fort Hays. If anything, Frank Myers, head keeper of tickets, reports seat sales have been better since the Hays game. Many old grads writing in for reservations explain their belief that the Wildcats will be wider for the rest of this season, thanks to Jim Yeager's Tiger poison. Even Mike Ahearn, director of Wildcat athletics, had to stay at home from the Marquette game to take care of an overabundance of work on homecoming, and anybody knows how much Mike would have enjoyed traveling to Milwaukee.

A major factor in bringing the old grads back is the anticipated touchdown derby between Maurice (Touchdown) Elder and Lloyd (Touchdown) Cardwell. Alumni admit they expect to see some swell touchdown parades when those two aces get up steam. Barring injury, they should be in tip-top shape. Elder was kept out of the Hays game and the Marquette game because of a leg bruise acquired in the Duquesne game, but with a three weeks' rest he is expected to be in trim for the Huskers.

This Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

The funniest campus incident we have heard this fall happened during the registration period at the University of Minnesota (Minneapolis).

Mr. Asher Christensen, a professor, was strolling past two long lines of freshmen. One line consisted of freshmen who planned and were registering for pre-medical courses. The other line was filled with those about to enter pre-business courses.

A small voice from the end of the "pre-medical line" piped a call to Mr. Christensen.

"Hi, mister," the frosh said, "which is the longest line?"

The professor considered. "I would say your line is about 25 feet longer," Christensen answered.

"Okay," the boy said, stepping out of the queue, "I'm a business man already." And he registered for pre-business!

Today we have very sad news for proprietors of restaurants near college camp. It is beginning to look as if eating is a considerable aid to study.

Mrs. M. H. Elliott and W. C. Treat, Harvard university psychologists, have been experimenting with rats and have attained results that indicate the animals respond with a conditioned reflex, the most elemental manifestation of learning, twice as quickly when they are starved as when they have food in their stomachs. Even a tiny bit of food cut down their aptitude considerably.

Somewhat different studies on the same subject have recently been made at Colgate university where Prof. Donald A. Laird tested groups of brain workers after light and heavy lunches. After light meals they were 8.6 percent faster in learning and made 23.3 percent fewer errors. The idea being that a big meal draws too much blood to the stomach and produces temporary "brain anemia."

New profession: Columbia university has a regular "waker-upper." For a consideration paid in advance, he makes the rounds, shaking out sleepers in time for class. Height of the university's social season is also peak time for his income.

Before leaving the question of psychological tests, we might inform you that a professor claims to have proved that most people do their best work immediately after a change of the weather—heat after cold, or rain after sunshine.

books have been printed in England and in India. Nearly a million copies of his books and pamphlets have been sold.

Ranked First. "Living Creatively" was ranked first out of 436 volumes listed by religious workers with students in a national survey by the Hazen Foundation to discover the religious books most helpful to college students. "Individualism and Socialism" was recommended by the Book-of-the-Month club. "War: Its Causes, Consequences and Cure" was published serially in Young India by Mahatma Gandhi.

S. A. E. FOOTBALLERS BEAT PHI PSI'S 12 TO 0

Acacia Develops as Threat To Sig Alph Hopes for '35 Championship.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 1934 champions, defeated Phi Kappa Psi 12 to 0 in the headlining touch football game yesterday afternoon. Leacox tallied both scores for the winners who seem to be on their way to another interfraternity touch football championship.

Alpha Tau Omega took 13 points and left Theta Xi with a nice goose egg in another of the close games. Delta Tau Delta eked out a 1 to 0 victory over Sigma Nu. A grim and determined Sigma Alpha Mu team tried its best to hold the Phi Delta Theta aggregation, but the Phi Deltas won out, 19 to 0.

Tuesday afternoon's games were marred by forfeiture and cancellation. Lambda Chi Alpha won by forfeit from Delta Sigma Lambda and the Delta Upsilon-Chi Phi game was cancelled. Acacia's team ran riot against Phi Sigma Kappa and won easily 30 to 0. Acacia is expected to threaten Sig Alph's possibilities of duplicating their last year's achievement of winning first place.

MINOR ASKS NEBRASKA SWIMMERS TO REPORT

Freshman Workouts to Start Friday Afternoon in Coliseum.

Initial call for candidates for the 1935-36 Cornhusker swimming team is being made today by Coach Jack Minor. All men who desire places on the Scarlet and Cream swim squad will report at the coliseum Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Freshman workouts will commence Friday afternoon, at 5 o'clock.

Coach Minor anticipates a goodly squad of splashers to turn out for the early practices. With six veterans from last year's Big Six championship team on hand, another strong team appears in the offing.

Daily workouts will be the order of things for all who report this week; when the squad is pared later on, 38 or 40 men, including both varsity and frosh, will be handled under Coach Minor's tutelage.

KAGGIES DEFEND GOAL UNCROSSED SINCE '33

Huskers Last to Score on Kansas State at Ahearn Field.

MANHATTAN, Kas., Oct. 15.—Kansas State's football team will trot onto Ahearn field with a big assignment here Oct. 19 when the Nebraska Huskers invade the camp of the Big Six champions.

In addition to defending the title the Wildcats will be defending a goal line which has not been crossed for a touchdown since the Cornhuskers paid a visit and went home with a 9-0 verdict just two years ago.

Last year Kansas State scored 75 points at home in defeating and holding scoreless the Hays, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa State elevens. The only blemish on the home record in two years was the field goal off Reissig's toe which gave Fort Hays a 3-0 victory Oct. 5.

Local Boy Makes Good!

Robert Taylor, Nebraska's own star, will be seen in the leading role of "Broadway Melody of 1936" at the Stuart Theatre Saturday. Taylor is being groomed for great roles by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer who consider him their greatest find since Clark Gable. Others to be seen with him in "Broadway Melody of 1936" are Jack Benny, Eleanor Powell, Una Merkel, Sid Silvers, June Knight and a host of stage, and radio stars.

SKETCHES by Ed Steeves

The fact that Jerry LaNoue is usually tackled where he was rather than where he is, is the thing that rates him as one of the better performers on the Nebraska gridiron. Aside from his slippery torso, however, Jerry presents a character more like college fiction.

One of the oddities about this chap is the manner in which he hurdles his scholastic barriers. An explanation of this is neither in order nor possible for the process is done with a minimum amount of effort.

No one ever laughs when he sits down to play. His fingers poised on the keyboard are equal in deftness to his legs on Saturday's field of action. To make it more inimitable, he sings, sings in the frat house. When one can do this and come forth undaunted it is a criterion of superb vocal ability.

Many are still massaging their skulls in search of an explanation to the Wisner whizzes dazzling exhibit of football against the Vikings last week. Everyone is familiar with the manner in which he transformed his scarlet jersey into a blazing streak running persistently go forward.

The inspiration was triplets. First, he was trying to redeem himself for what he terms "a rotten showing" in the Windy City game; secondly the notorious fracturing of his collar bone occurred last year just preceding the Minnesota fracas; and lastly is the most worthy of them all, lovable old Doc McLean. "To think of old Doc," explained Jerry. Whatever the leading light, all hats, from Stetsons to freshman caps, were raised Saturday afternoon by one motive, LaNoue.

No, girls. Like all the other Husker huskies, he is not hampered by any feminine bonds. He has survived two score of years without such connections and stated his intentions of many more.

After acquisition of his diploma he may turn his athletic career into shekels by coaching.

Jerry initiated his said career at a tender age when he was the pinnacle of the Wisner high school athletic department in both basketball and football. Following his graduation, Wisner was as helpless as the professional beggar without his tin cup.

Chills oscillated most rapidly in Jerry's spine, not when he scored the solitary touchdown of the Gopher go, as most people think, but rather when he ran Roscoe out of bounds as the Minnesota ramrod returned the opening kickoff for what could easily have been a score.

OHIO COLLEGE ASKS BURNETT TO ATTEND OFFICIAL CEREMONY

University to Inaugurate Dr. James as Twelfth President.

ATHENS, O.—Announcement of Nov. 15 as the date for the inauguration of Dr. Herman Gerlach James as the twelfth president of Ohio university has been made by the board of trustees and the faculty of the university in invitations sent out from here today.

The inauguration committee, headed by Dr. Edwin Watts Chubb, dean of the college of arts and sciences, has prepared an elaborate program for the day. Approximately 500 invitations have been extended to presidents of colleges throughout the nation; the constitutional officers of the state of Ohio; and presidents of learned educational societies.

Harry Woodburn Chase, chancellor of New York university, will deliver the principal address of the inaugural occasion, while the Detroit Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Victor Kolar, will conclude the program with an evening concert.

Dr. James comes to Ohio university from the campus of the University of South Dakota, where he had been president since 1929. He succeeds the late Dr. Elmer Burnett Bryan here in a line of distinguished presidents of this the oldest university in the northwest territory. Former presidents of Ohio university include William Holmes McGuffey, author of the famous Readers, and William Henry Scott, a one-time president of Ohio State university and at present Ohio university's oldest living graduate.

Included among the college executives invited to the Ohio university campus is President E. A. Burnett of the University of Nebraska.
