VOL. XXXV-NO. 28.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1935

PRICE 5 CENTS

RALLY TONIGHT-SOONERS NEXT

HUSKER BACKERS GATHER FOR PEP DEMONSTRATION

Band, Tassels, Corn Cobs to Lead Cheering Students To Stadium Rally.

PLAN DINNER SPEECHES

Leaders Urge Participation In Meeting to Rouse Pep for Game.

Front ranks of flaming torches will lead student supporters of Nebraska's football team when they rally to the cause of a conference victory Friday night. Enthusiasts will assemble in front of the Temple theater at seven o'clock, parade down sorority row to the stadium, then hear Coach Browne and Game Captain Harold Holmbeck give short speeches.

Dinner Speeches.

during the dinner hour to reawaken lagging student interest in their chief athletic activity. Pep organizations will meet at the corner of Sixteenth and R streets at 6 o'clock to organize their campaign. They will march, accompanied by the band, with the ralliers to the sta-Barbara Bible, young daughter of the Husker mentor, and honorary member of Tassels, will be presented to the rally crowd will be presented to the rally crowd by Elizabeth Shearer, president of the Tassels. A public address system Constance Clinchard.

Campbell, Margaret Deeds, Ruth mittees from the two honoraries, will be played by the university band before the Nebraska-Oklathe Tassels. A public address system is being installed in the sta-

Tassels will do their part, and it is up to the rest of the campus to show Oklahoma that 'Sink the Sooners' is more than a catchy slogan," declared Jane Walcott, Tassel member heading the house to force," stated their president, Ted planned for any who desire it, Bradley. "Let's have the rest of the student body fall in line to are requested to be dressed in show the boys that a little tough aprons or gingham dresses and luck isn't going to alter our support for the rest of the year."

DEANS OF WOMEN TO MEET IN ELLEN SMITH

Nebraska State Association Holds Annual Meeting Today.

Nebraska's deans of women will gather in Ellen Smith hall today to attend the annual meeting of dents and their dates and is unthe Nebraska State Association of der the general chairmanship of Deans of Women and Girls. Sessions in the morning and afternoon and a luncheon at noon are included in the day's program.

Registration will take place at 10:00 a. m. in Ellen Smith hall with a busines meeting of the organization following. Mrs. Inice M. Dunning, dean of women at Peru State Teachers college, will preside as president. Miss Bernic Halbert. dean of women at Ne-Wesleyan university, is secretary.

A panel of appraisal on "The Place of the Dean of Women and Girls in the Educational Program and in the Community," will be presented at the morning session. Mrs. Rene E. H. Stevens of Omaha Municipal university will be the leader. Participants will be Daisy Spickard of Fremont high school Mary McNamara of Omaha Bension high, Jessie Towne of Omaha Central high, Grace Tear of Peru State Teachers college, Bernice Halbert of Nebraska Wesleyan, Mrs. Ruth E. Elliot of Kearney State Teachers college and Amanda Heppner of the university.

At noon luncheon will be served at the University club with Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women at the university, in charge. Miss Gladys Shamp, state director of the National Youth administration, will be the speaker.

The afternoon meeting will com-ence at 2 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. Dr. L. H. Harris of Omaha Municipal university will be a principal speaker on the "Youth and the World Community Today." Ada S. Westover, assistant to the dean of women in the university will discuss "Self Help for the College Girl."

- In sectional meetings at the con-clave, Dr. Elizabeth Williamson, assistant university women, will be in charge of the deans of colleges and universities division and Mrs. Mabel Thompson, assistant principal of Jackson high school and wife of Dean T. J. Thompson, is chairman of the deans of high schools division.

Campus Prepares to Honor Dads JONES BOYS BEAR

FORWARD NEBRASKA

Forward with the scarlet; forward with the cream. Fight on to victory. See our colors gleam. We're all from Nebraska! We're all for the team. Fight on, ye Cornhuskers, for the Scarlet and the Cream.

RALLY NEBRASKA Rally Nebraska, Cornhusker State!

Forward, forward to the fray. Rally, sons of the prairie lands, We're going to win today. Smash through for dear old Let never the Scarlet fail! And till the fight is done, And the victory won Let's rally, Nebraska U!

NEBRASKA VICTORY To Nebraska U our loyalty!

By her sons and daughters she shall be Ever lover and honored o'er the land And across the farthest sea.

And the gallant, fighting Cornhuskers, In our hearts great pride will always stir, For we know they lead to Victory, Victory Cornhuskers!

COLLEGE GATHERING CHOSEN IN CONTEST

Formal.

is complete, and presentation plans are in readiness for Friday, Oct. submitted in the contest sponsored 25, at 10:30 p. m. at the Formal by the Innocents and Mortar in the Student Activities building. Boards. These three songs, chosen Senior women who filed for the honor are: Ruth Carston, Janice

The queen and her attendant, homa game. from that campus.

"Corn Cobs will be out in full other entertainment is being friend.

overalls, and boys are urged to obtain their traditional favors at Dean W. W. Burr's office before Friday, Oct. 25 at 5 o'clock. Chairman Ward Bauder of the ticket committee reports that there is more interest among the students this year than there has been in past years and that there are only a few tickets now available.

Chaperons for the affair include Prof. and Mrs. L. K. Crowe and Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Loeffel. Faculty members who have been invited are Dean and Mrs. W. W. Burr, Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Gramlich, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Keim, Prof. and Mrs. F. E. Mussehl, Prof. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and Prof. and Mrs. H. C. Filley.

The affair is open to all ag stu-Ogden Riddle, with Janice Campbell as co-chairman. Elsie Buxman (Continued on Page 3.)

FINE ARTS SENIOR WINS CHANCE FOR FILM TEST

Elizabeth Betzer Captures First Place in M. G. M. Sponsored Contest.

Elizabeth Betzer, senior in the College of Fine Arts, and Mildred Drummond, junior in Teachers college, won the opportunity for a screen test at the Stuart theater Friday evening under the M. G. M.

director. Miss Betzer is majoring in dramatics and played the lead in the University Players play, "Dark Towers," last spring. She is a member of the Collegiate players, an honorary fraternity. Miss Drummond is also majoring in dramatics and is a member of Chi Omega. She has worked for three seasons on the road for Max Fac-Others who won the personality tests entitling them to a chance for movie stardom on the stage at Stuart theater Friday Varena Kelleher, Virginia Butler, Richard Harding, Jackie Herman and Joan Kukas, the last three for possible contracts in the Our the evening. All Lutheran students Gang Comedies.

NEBRASKA BAND TO PLAY THREE SONGS

Saturday.

Excitement and guessing will "Rally Nebraska," "Nebraska run high on ag campus, now that Victory" and "Forward Nebraska" filing for Farmer's Formal Queen are the three Cornhusker songs selected as best out of thirty-five by Eddie Jungbluth and Wilbur Chenoweth, with the aid of com-

voting do not have to be ag stu- the Innocent committee in charge. dents, but they must be with a girl "Names will be kept unknown be- present. cause we want students to select Mel Pester and his orchestra the song for its own merit instead for those who wish to dance, while written by their own particular Songs Appear.

The songs appear in this issue of The Daily Nebraskan and it is hoped that all students will co-operate in learning the words to them before Saturday.

"We hope that every student on the campus will take an interest in this contest and help us to choose the song which is most suitable for our Husker anthem," stated Virginia Selleck, member of Mortar Board.

paper and every student should vote for the song which he thinks is best and deposit the ballot in one of the boxes in the Daily Nebraskan office in the basement of University hall or at the Nebraskan office in Social Science. Bal-

Tunes Considered.

Tunes were considered more three songs and were selected for their orginality and because they promised to be tunes which will mediately.

"There were many good songs, but we feel that these are the three best which were submitted," Miss Selleck stated. "We wish to express our appreciation to everyone who took an interest in this contest and submitted their ideas. We hope that the song which the Cornhuskers choose for their anthem will become known all over the nation. We have tried to find something which will ably portray the true Nebraska spirit," said Elizabeth Bushee, a member of the Mortar Board committee.

Acknowledgement was made the assistance given by Billie Quick, band director, in presenting these songs at the Nebraska-Oklahoma game.

Lutheran Students to Hear Dr. Joseph Alexis

Dr. Joseph Alexis will address the Lutheran Student Fellowship club at its opening meeting to be held at 8:30 Friday evening in room 203 Temple.

A fellowship and social hour will conclude the meeting. Rav. and Mrs. Rangeler and Prof. and Mrs. being children who are taking tests Weitkamp will be chaperones for

Song Practice

All members of Mortar Board, Innocents, Corn Cobs, and Tassels must be present at a meeting scheduled for three o'clock today in the southwest room in the basement of Teachers College.

The combined groups will practice the three songs chosen by the Mortar Board and Innocents societies as best out of the thirtyfive tunes submitted in the contest sponsored by the senior honoraries. The organizations will lead the singing of the new songs at the Husker-Sooner tilt in order that students may select the one

Members of the four organizations are urged to be present.

INNOCENTS GROUP EXPECTS NUMBER PARENTS ATTEND

Noon Luncheon at Chamber Of Commerce Opens Day's Affair.

PACE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Oklahoma - Husker Footbali Tussle Features Event.

Honored guests at the traditional Dad's day activities on the university campus Saturday, fathers of a large number of Nebraska students are ex-pected in Lincoln tomorrow to at-tend the annual Dad's Day luncheon and the Oklahoma-Nebraska House to house canvass among fraternities and sororities will be staged by Corn Cobs and Tassels

Six Women Seek Place of Honor at Farmer's

Students Asked Vote on Tunes After Game

Big Six grid battle. Innocents, sension men's honorary society, report all program arrangements have all program arrangements have been completed with everything in readiness for the arrival of the Approximately 350 will be pres ent at the banquet held in the Chamber of Commerce building at noon Saturday, it was pointed out.

I. E. O. Pace, prominent Lincoln attorney, will be principal speaker on the program, Irving Hill, Innocent and president of the student council," will welcome the fathers to the university campus.

Chancellor E. A. Burnett will be in the receiving line and will present a short talk at the luncheon. Governor Roy L. Cochran has dium to insure good reception of all the speeches.

Sink the Sooners.

The queen and a the affair before 10 p. m. Men stated by Irwin Ryan, member of the composers of the songs will not be amounced until after the game Saturday," it was stated by Irwin Ryan, member of the other dignitaries some of the other dignitaries. some of the other dignitaries

Following the banquet, the dads will go to Memorial stadium where have been secured to provide music of voting for the one which was they will witness the important (Continued on Page 4)

CANDIDATES SHOULD FILE FOR NEBRASKA SWEETHEART TODAY

Ballots will appear in Sunday's Pierce Receives Ideas for Novel Presentation Ceremony.

Friday is the final day for filings for Nebraska Sweetheart, and lots will be received until Monday anyone desiring to enter the race at 5 o'clock and the final decision for this position must have regiswill be announced in Wednesday's tered in the student activities office in the coliseum before 5 o'clock tonight.

The chosen Sweetheart, who will be elected by the male members of than words in the selection of the the student body on Oct. 29, will be presented at the annual Kosmet Klub Fall Revue, which is scheduled for Saturday morning, Nov. catch the fancy of everyone im- 23. Bob Pierce is now receiving ideas submitted for some sort of a novel presentation ceremony. "We want something both effective and simple," Pierce declared. presentation of the Sweetheart is the high spot of the show and it should be made to fit its importance.

Tickets for the revue will go sale next Thursday, and all the Klub workers will be given a plentiful supply, it was announced Thursday by Bill Garlow, Klub member in charge of ticket sales. With the plentiful number of skits entered, it is expected that this year's show will be one of the best ever presented.

All organizations who have filed manuscripts with the Kosmet Klub should be hard at work on perfecting their skits, Clayton Schwenk, president of the Kosmet Klub, warned. Preliminary judging comes next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and in view of the fact that so many of the acts entered must be eliminated, Schwenk intimated that the skits selected will be of outstanding character.

OELTJEN ADDRESSES ENGINEERS INSTITUTE

Vice Chairman of Society Discusses Columbus Project. W. C. Oeltjen will address members of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers on the Loup River Engineering Project at a meeting, 7:30 o'clock, Tuesday evening, Oct. 29 in E. E. 104. The speaker, vice chairman of the society, will discuss the location and construction of the Co-lumbus project from a point of view of interest to electrical engi

Nebraska Finds New Hero--Polar Explorer Byrd

By George Pipal.

On the eve of his forty-seventh birthday, Rear Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd visited Lincoln yes-terday to describe his Antarctic adventures to a crowd of 4,700 at the university coliseum.

"Give my regards to the stu-dents," was his message to collegians, and it should carry some weight in view of his educational record. First training at Virginia Military academy. Next came the University of Virginia, where he was a member of Kappa Alpha. southern order. "Do they have a chapter here?" was his first query when discussion turned to fraterni-ties. His last alma mater was the

ADMIRAL BYRD.

as graduated into service. (Continued on Page 4.)

BAND FOR DADS' DAY AFFAIR TO FEATURE NETWORK SOLOISTS

Floor for Coliseum Party Saturday.

Two network featured soloists, ten-piece band, and Wayne Stuts, late from a six month's engagement at Michigan's Cocoanut Grove will furnish an evening's entertainment at the Dad's Day varsity party, to be held Saturday night in the coliseum.

Marion Davis, jazz and blues soloist heard over eastern networks last year, will star on choruses and join the men's trio to compose an mail in radio broadcasting, is the

Own Amplifiers. The orchestra's own Selmer DeLuxe amplifying system will carry the music to every corner of the ballroom, according to Party Chairman James Marvin. Lighting effects will be slightly altered to make it easy on the dancers eyes, while retaining the novelty of changing colored lights. Other recent engagements of the band have been at the Raymer ballroom in Boston, Club Bohemia in Detroit, the Hollywood Cafe at Lansing, Summit Inn in Baltimore. Kennywood Park in Pittsburgh, and the Ponce De Leon club in Dayton, Ohio. Their repetoire includes duos, trios, ensemble singing, four soloists, and novelty arrangements of the latest musical Criticism of the dance floor for all previous parties has resulted in discarding the old wax system. All old wax and varnish were cleaned off with gasoline last week, and borax spangles will be used for all coming parties. According to Marvin, this is the best type of floor, but could not be applied until varnish was removed for the coming basketball season, Faculty chaperons, announced yesterday, are Proof. and Mrs. Lane Lancaster, Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Swayzee, and Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Sellers. Other Barb council members working on the party committee are Lenore Teal, Doris Weaver, Gretchen Budd, Bill Newcomer, and Leroy Hansen.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI SENDS MEN TO DISTRICT MEET

Spangler, Gallup Head Group Attending Lawrence Conclave.

Several members of the active chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional commerce fraternity, will attend the district conclave to be held Sunday and Monday at Lawrence, Kas. Prof. Clifford M. Spangler, sponsor, and Frank Gallup, president, will head the delegation

The program will consist of addresses from business men, and informal discussions concerning business problems. National President Harry Silke of Los Angeles, Calif., will be the main speaker of the conclave.

Seven schools from this district will send representatives to the Lawrence meeting. Similar con-claves are being held throughout the country by the chapters of the fraternity, which are held every three years.

Observatory to Hold Open House on Friday Open night will be held at university observatory on Friday, Oct. 25 at 8 o'clock. It is staged for the public and students who are interested. C. F. Rust is in charge of the observatory of the university.

TED SHAWN TROUP TO APPEAR ON TEACHERS CONVENTION PROGRAM

New Amplifiers, Novelties, Men Dancers Scheduled for Program at Session Tonight.

> Outstanding on Friday's program of the Nebraska State Teachers convention is Ted Shawn and his men dancers presented thru courtesy of the Lincoln chamber of commerce at the final session to be held this evening in the coliseum at 8 o'clock.

cation of Yale, will discuss "Classunusual quartette. Art Dailey, Democracy." "Cheated," will be is pointing toward the conference tenor who also won his first fan the topic of Pres. W. P. Dearing crown with unwavering determinaof Oakland City college of Oak- tion. With one of the strongest sional group meetings. Burnett Speaks. Chancellor E. A. Burnett of the university formally welcomed district one of the Nebraska School Teachers convention at its opening session Thursday morning. According to a report from the Teachers' headquarters, over 3,500 had registered by noon yesterday comprised of Lancaster and twelve surrounding counties. Speaking on "Problems of Youth in an Industrial World." Dr. W. E. Warner of Ohio State university. declared that youth is mainly concerned with education that will be useful in a highly complex industrial world. "Usefulness is the test of the kind of education that will make democracy endure," he said.

for the convention of District 1,

Dr. W. R. McConnell, professor of geography in the school of education at Miami university, Ox-(Continued on Page 3.)

MISS CALEY FILLS 170 FUND FESTIVAL POSTS

Work Toward $1,200 Goal Of Contributions to Begin Oct. 30.

About 170 appointments to positions for the annual Fall Fund Festival of the Y. W. C. A. have been made by Gayle Caley, chairman of the Finance Staff, and actual work will begin Wednesday, Oct. 30.

Each class has one executive as sisted by at least four captains and 35 workers, who vie with each other in attempting to obtain the most gift contributions and Y. W. memberships. The goal has been set at $1,200 by the Y. W. treasurer, Barbara DePutron.

Meetings of the class executives with captains and workers are being held Friday Oct. 25, and Monday, Oct. 28, to educate these groups on the purposes of hte Y. W. and to acquaint them with the budget as well as to get the consensus of opinion on the outlined program. Workers will be instructed on how to interview girls and how to fill out membership cards. Committee's for the organization of the Fund Festival are: Dinner for everyone working on the drive, Jean Doty, chairman; Louise Magee and Betty Van Horn. Waitresses: Gretchen Budd. Program, Henrietta York, chairman; Betty Cherney, Georgianna Lehr. Publicity: Eleanor Clizbe, Posters: Eieen Honnold, chairman; Doris Weaver, and staff. Lists: Katherine Winquist, chairman; Jean Marvin, and Eleanor Kelly. Supplies: Evelyn Capron, chairman; Benjamin, Margaret Hendricks, Louise Dickson, Alice Soukup and Martha Resler, Management of the blackboard showing daily results: Ardis Graybiel, and Ruth Hill. Publications: Maxine Durand and Martha Morrow.

HUSKERS THREAT IN CRUCIAL GAME

Oklahoma Mentor's Plans Under Cover: Bible Fears Passes.

BAUER LISTED STARTER

'Chief' Still Out of Heavy Duty With Lame Ankle; Southerners Heavy.

Cornhusker football has come-back. The only thing remaining for it now is to see and conquer. It will get an opportunity this Saturday to do just that, and team to be seen and conquered, venture the opinion that, however easy it may be to observe, conquering is going to be a pretty tough job. But the Cornhuskers, with the most important battle of the conference schedule on tap, promising as it does to hold the title crown in its final score, have thrown the past to the winds, stormed the heights of enthusiasm, and started the regime of conquest on its way again. After an engagement with Kan-sas State last week end which showed definitely the effects of a steam rollering from a still-great Minnesota team, the Huskers got under way Thursday afternoon in the last workout before Oklahoma comes to town with the tigerish drive which characterized them early in the season.

Jones Team Strong. At the morning session Dr. They'll need every bit of that Clyde M. Hill, department of edu-They'll need every bit of that room Procedure and Education for coln Saturday a combination which male soloist. He was frequently heard over WFAM, WLS, WOWO.
WTRC, and other eastern stations. The afternoon will again be taken up by sectional and divi- ale, Jones is figuring on making the Big Six sit up and take notice in his first year within its ranks. The "Biffer" will undoubtedly assail the Husker fortress with a powerful passing attack reserved especially for Dana Bible and his Lads in Red. After concentrating on aerial maneuvers early in the season, Jones kept it inside the hangar in the first four games, (Continued on Page 3.)

7,000 N STAMPS SOLD IN FOUR DAYS OF DRIVE

Miss Cherny Hopes to Reach Goal of 20,000 Before Homecoming.

Results of the report meeting for N stamp saleswomen held Thursday at 4 o'clock showed a total of 7,000 stamps sold during the first four days of the drive. Betty Cherny, drive chairman, expressed the opinion that the goal of 20,000 sales would be reached or exceeded before the Homecoming game, High sophomore teams during the first four days were the Carrie Belle Raymond team, composed of Martha Morrow and Jane Pennington, with 800 stamp sales; and the Sigma Delta Tau's, Muriel Krast, and Esther Stein, 705 sales. Freshman saleswomen at the top of the list include Fleetwood, who sold 715 stamps. Bessie May Adams, with 610, and Barbara Selleck, with 600. Ten new saleswomen reported at the meeting Thursday afternoon. They represented the fresh-man A. W. S. group, Among them were Dorothy Card, Virginia Fleetwood, Rebecca Oldfather, Rosalie Volgamore, Janet Hoebet, Wilma Comstock, Dorothy Iverson, Norma Burr, Mary Ellen Cowgill and Nona Jane Moore.

In announcing the next report meeting, scheduled Tuesday from 4 to 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith, Betty Cherny emphasized the fact that all girls working on the drive were expected to be present. At this meeting the freshman girls who have been canvassing the sororities and faculty members will be assigned to fraternities.

Dads' Day Tickets on Sale Until 12 O'clock Students wishing to obtain Dad's Day luncheon tickets at the last minute may do so, according to Dick Schmidt, president of Innocents, sponsoring society.

Since many parents are undecided about attending the game and other activities of the day, provisions have been made to furnish late arrivals with accommodations. Until noon, tickets may be purchased at the chamber of commerce banquet hall, where the luncheon will be held.