CAMPUS GAPS and GOWNS by the Stylists

SMITH DAVIS MAY BE AN ARDENT PACIFIST, BUT HE and the Military Department have one idea in common.

The cloud of dust that hung over the coliseum during the Ball may have been a mystery to the dancers...

Just a psychological experiment explained one little freshman when she divulged to the sisters that the ring she was wearing was her own.

The perfect accessories for winter coats, and a gift every girl will appreciate, are the tubular crepe scarves in white, and all colors with fringed ends...

Eyebrows were lifted, and many oh's and ah's were heard when Siddy Smith and Vergil Yelkin were seen at the Military Ball "dancing with somebody else."

Camellias and violets would have done nicely and Ruth Rapley was thrilled to get such a corsage from the Sigma Nu, Bill Taylor.

ever, legislation of some sort in the interest of agriculture is an absolute necessity. Farm Rate Must Maintain. Down to recent years our economic system has been kept in balance thru a constant exchange of food stuffs and raw materials...

Of course we may grant all this readily enough and still wonder why agriculture requires new and special aid. There are three reasons: First, agricultural industries cannot, unaided, adjust themselves as can most other industries to new conditions.

sound economic development. But when props are already placed most firmly under two thirds of our economic system common sense dictates that the other third be raised to a corresponding level.

Whether the legislation should be temporary or permanent in character cannot be determined as yet. If the farmer's home and foreign market expand rapidly and his technique of production remains about stationary, aid will not be needed at all times.

Whether the legislation should be temporary or permanent in character cannot be determined as yet. If the farmer's home and foreign market expand rapidly and his technique of production remains about stationary, aid will not be needed at all times.

Production is continued willy nilly. Again the manufacturer is apt to either produce an individualized product or act in harmony with all others in his industry. Generally these others are comparatively few in number. Jones and Smith, manufacturers, find, as a result, that their action serves to check the fall in price.

Finally, we should furnish some sort of prop to agriculture to balance the two great props given other industries, (1) the tariff and (2) lax enforcement of the anti-trust laws.
