BIG SIX HOOP TITLE OPEN SHOT FOR ALL

One Game Played-Three Teams Selected as Potential Champs Not Counting Iowa State, Defending Conference Basketball Crown.

MIZZOU SURPRISES WITH WIN OVER SOONERS

Kansas Regarded Class of League Because of Early Season Performances; Cornhuskers Dark Horse of Impending Campaign.

It's a funny thing, this Big Six conference.

Even the most casual observer of the present basketball campaign in the combelt league cannot fail to conclude that someone, or something, is just a wee bit screw-loose, Only one game played in the entire conference season, and already three rear duct.

at Lawrence.

game, 37-34.

step or two behind, and Missouri and Kansas State comprise the

The "woodpile nigger" which Coach Allen was attributed as hid-ing had to have a background someplace, and it was easily found laboratory. The scoring mechan-ism led by Ray Ebling is almost equally strong on defense, and Iowa State's irresistible basket spree against Vanderbilt may find an immovable force in Kansas

when the two meet Saturday night

Missouri, not accorded much of a threat a week ago, assumes dan-upset. The Tigers, considered at a serious handicap by the loss of their center have found a ready substitute, led Oklahoma 19-13 at the half, smothered an ineffectual last-period rally, and took the Huskers Hopeful.

do not less than enter the wars with an even slate, and in event of a win over Denver tonight will have a record of 5 victories in 8 starts. With 4 veterans leading the way, Coach Browne's rejuvenating process in the Cornhusker camp gives gives promise this year of going out in earnest for a conferseemed as far removed from Hus-

ENDS TRIUMPHANT

(Continued from Page 1).

ker hopes as the moon.

CATHEDRAL CHOIR

crown that has previously

EASTERN SOJOURN

different schools have been se-O-lected as the definite champions of the 1936 maples kingdom. That's leaving out Iowa State, last year's winner, and it's always dangerous a neck-and-neck battle all of the leave out l way. All paradoxical prognostia-tions aside, early nonconference to leave out last year's winner. Which accounts for all the teams but two. And when it's all over, judging from past Big Six history, these two will probably have tossed a coin for the top braska and Oklahoma follow a berth and everybody will wonder why the best team won.

Big. Six Standings.

					opp
	W		pct	pts	pts
Missouri.	. 1	0	1000	37	34
Oklahoma		1	.000	34	37
Nebraska	0	0	.000	0	0
Iowa Sta		0	.000	0	0
Kansas	. 0	0	.000	0	0
Kan. Sta	te 0	0	.000	0	0
Games		This	Week.

Tuesday: Nebraska vs. Denver at Denver; Kansas vs. Kansas State at Manhattan.

Thursday: Oklahoma U. vs. Oklahoma A. & M. at Still-

Friday: Missouri vs. Nebraska at Lincoln. Saturday: Missouri vs. Kansas State at Manhattan; Kansas vs. Iowa State at Lawrence. Just a week ago, Oklahoma was being figured to take the confer-ence into camp without drawing a Along came Phog deep breath. Allen, Kansas University suzerain, with the surprising, but not un-pleasing, news that Nebraska was the team to lick for the thronesitting booth. Cornhuskers had been nourishing a hope like that in private, but for anyone to come out in broad daylight was something out of the ordinary, inasmuch as Coach Harold Browne's improvement of Husker basketball hadn't been popularly supposed to have reached the top of the conference just yet. Mizzou Surprises.

The suspicion was just beginning to take form that maybe Dr. Allen might be deriving a good deal of benefit from having his Kansas Jayhawks under-rated, when along came something that put matters on an entirely different basis. Missouri, who hadn't been viewed with any more alarm braska Alumni association were the conference season.

with misgivings, not only because ing comments from eastern critics of Coach Allen's prediction which makes them feel that the venture gives the palm to Nebraska, but is fully justified," the choir's dibecause the Jayhawks have given rector added. aren't just exactly sure what thing of the cultural side of the quently keeping tab on both, just in case. Iowa State was champion last year. That takes care life at the university of the last year at the pivot post, and Thornbrough are veterans of everyone but Kansas State. composed almost entirely of uni-Well, maybe something will turn versity students. up for the Wildcats in a week or Huskers Start Friday. At all events, the Big Six court ture.

BE KANSAS. Take a Lot to

K-State Students Only to Pack Gym When Season

MANHATTAN, Kas., Jan. 6 .-

The reason is that Kansas State college, with the greatest enrolment in its history, has issued more than 3,200 "student activity" tickets which were paid for by students at the time they enrolled, Frank L. Myers, assistant to the director of athletics, has added new furrows to his brow during the holidays but he can't figure out a way of placing more than 3,200 seats in Nichols gymnasium and have room left to play years the athletics staff and colege officials have every reason to believe most of those 3,200 stu-dent tickets will be used by the holders. The result is that President F. D. Farrell maists that no reserved seats or general admit-tance tickets be sold in advance. The athletic staff agrees with in the powerful offensive machine being built up in the Jayhawk laboratory. The scoring mechanthe president and as a result is being forced daily to turn down orders, accompanied by cash, from and reflected credit on the Husk-out of town and local fans who ers. Santa Clara did it 61-48, want to buy tickets. And turning down cash is a hard thing to do perticularly for a man with an eye to business such as Myera who has seen some lean years in

K-State's athletics history. The same situation is likely to arise at each of the other four home games on the Wildcats' 10game schedule of Big Six confer-

As for Nebraska, just returned from its coast trek this week, can SIX MAPLE SCHEDULES

Home Floor.

MANHATTAN, Kas., Jan. 6 .major factor in the Big Six conference basketball race the eyes of conference foes and fans will turn

"The fact that the members and starts has continued to get first one victory in the conference competition, is astride the percentages and may be the dark horse of the maples race. Kansas is viewed with them many flatter
"The fact that the members and starts has continued to get first call and will open against the Jayhawkers here Tuesday night. Made ing the conference percentages, that it's up to Kansas and Neteam, the starting five includes Wayne Thornbrough, Lakin and championship. If you're cr about shortcomings you'll go wards; Captain Lee Railsback, out and bet on Iowa State. good early-season performances. Attracting widespread attention Langdon, and Charles Schierl-Nebraska is also something of a in the east partly because the black sheep because the dopesters music of the choir shows some-Groves, Atchison, All-Big Six centhis year the Wildcats have scored 111 points to 271 for their opponents, winning six and losing two. Lady Luck grinned right out loud. Anyway, Missouri is laughing from the top of the ladder. She's Plans for a Lincoln appearance at the coliseum are underway and will be announced in the near future.

During a mid-December excursion won one conference game. Oklainto Colorado Coach Frank Root's homa brings up the rear. She's team lost to Greeley State 40 to 30, won from the same team 30 conference herein is scatered inrado college on successive nights. The scores were 51 to 48 and 51 Cornhusker Greek Athletes Victories over Washburn col-lege of Topeka 58 to 38 and 29 to 28 and a 39 to 25 win over the University of Missouri completed the non-conference victory list for Coach Frank Root's team. The other loss was a 38 to 23 triumph for the Kansas Jayhawkers in Kansas City, Mo.

PRE-MEDS TO HEAR LINCOLN PHYSICIAN

Dr. A. L. Smith Speaker For Nu-Medic Banquet Wednesday.

meeting at the Annex cafe Wed- a black widow. Medicine.'

Eleven members are urged to attend as there is to be the election of new officers. This meeting is opn to members only. Theta Nu, honorary pre-medical fraternity, wil shold their semi-annual tapping of the members. ping of new members.

A "clip," or flying block from behind on the football field is sufficient grounds for assault and battery charges, a Pennsylvania judge has ruled.

Members of the Southern Methodist frosh team planned to ride to the Rose Bowl game in two chartered box cars. Railroad officials demurred.

Gasolene Heating Oil 61/2c Gallon 14th

The current Big Six basketball survey seems to be Kansas U. riding high. But it may take con-siderable quantities of the right stuff to shove Nebraska into a

The Cornhuskers are at the moment one up and one to go on Although a record crowd is ex-pected when Kansas State meets wins in seven starts. Kansas re-

Nebraska's losses on the way to and on the Pacific Coast realized Few expected to see the team go thru every game on the long end, but even substantial facts cannot submerge hopes. Numbers were disappointed at three losses, but they were anticipated by the ma-

The Worm Turns. Brigham Young played a seri-ous little mockery of turn-about on their home court to give the Nebraskans their first unwanted little gift from Santa Claus. Alibis, if in order, were the potent strug-gle with Wyoming the previous evening. It wasn't until the hard-riding Cowboys tired of chasing Cornhuskers on foot in the fourth With every indication pointing triumphed. And considering that the best basketball team in B. Y. U. gave in at Nebraska a overtime session that Nebraska B. Y. U. gave in at Nebraska a couple of weeks previous by quite some margin, things were still under the Scarlet banner while the ever-championship-seeking alumni warbled "Happy Days

> Santa Clara and Stanford put the skids under the midwestern invaders, and sent them over the bumps twice. Both were highscoring games, fast, well played, Stanford 41-39. The lead changed hands something like sixteen times against the Indians, which might have been equal to two blindfolded addicts going nutsy over contract

Are Here Again."

No Alibis. But there are no alibis from Nebraskaland. And there needn't Four out of seven on that trip is much better than Nebraska has done in years on any single extended basket sojourn. The big hope and prayer is that it all isn't a dream, and that Nebraska will be able to strut thru a few members of the conference tribe without being dumped too many times But to get back where we started, which, I believe, was some-where in the vicinity of Kansas being undefeated and in top spot for conference honors, it would be an upset if Cornhuskers conquered Jays. It would be more than an Two Kansas Quintets Clash Tonight on Wildcats' upset—probably a Roman holiday right here in staid old Lincoln.

The dope bucket says such things as Nebraska victory over the Jayhawks will remain in the realm of mystery about which all wonder but few dare to fathom. In other words, "it just ain't so." Although Kansas State has not There might be a possibility, but been mentioned prominently as a not if Dr. Forrest C. Allen's big guns keep harmonizing. Straightest Shooting.

Those pieces of heavy artillery toward Manhattan Tuesday night have barged thru everything unless they have permission from the conference schools open they've run up against so far, even the authorities. tho they were extended consider by the rest of the conference than very cordial to the group, according to the Dionne quintuplets would be ing to its director. "Their particular interest was in the Lindau and the first of ten conference continuation of the drawn of the drawn tests for the William of the Wil where with a surprise victory over coin Cathedral, one of the dreams of the choir, "In fact, Rosborough which will be played at home. Championship with the rest of K. U. a round robin which will be played at home. Forthwith. Oklahoma is now accontinued, "it was the idea of the corded a place in the lower half of the betting. Missouri, with the cathedral that appealed most of the betting. Missouri, with the conference victories in the conference of the strongly to most easterners."

Championship with Kansas State, U. S. C., and Missouri. Which has carried Kansas State to six might mean almost anything or non-conference victories in the conference victories braska for the M. V. I. A. A. championship. If you're critical about shortcomings you'll go right

Why? Because the Cyclones are the little, lost, leftout of it Windsor, Colo., guards, and Frank youngsters who are feeling mighty hurt and very, very willing to do something about it. They might steal Kansas' and Nebraska's nicely mowed hay. That would be mowing while the sun shone and to 18 and then went to Colorado termittently and indifferently be-Springs where they defeated Colo- tween. They haven't played any games,

> Student Saves Girl From Poison Spider At Risk of Own Life

LOS ANGELES—The heroism of a Duke university medical student, now attached to the children's hospital in Los Angeles, this week was acclaimd after he had saved a little girl from the poison-ous bite of a black widow spider at the risk of his own life. The student attache is Louis Wayland, who was walking thru a ward of the hospital where the girl Wednesday.

is a patient when he saw the spider slowly walking up the Nu-Meds hold their monthly child's back and recognized it as

However, he did not say a word to alarm the child, but simply reached his hand out and casually took the spider off. It bit him. Still saying nothing, Wayland walked quietly to the surgical room and slashing his finger with a scalpel, sucked a quantity of blood from the wound. This week he was recovering from the bite, which for a time made him violently ill. The little girl will not be told, hospital offi-cials said.

SANITONE PLUS OUR EXPERT CARE CLEANS

THAN EVER BEFORE

CLOTHES CLEANER

Modern Cleaners Soukup & Westover Call F2377 for Bervice

EIGHT MEETS ON TAP FOR HUSKER MATMEN DURING 1936 SEASON

Three Bouts at Home: Team Opens Schedule Jan. 18 At Minneapolis.

Wrestling schedule for the 1936 campaign has been completed, it the worst fears of Cornhuskerland, was announced Monday by Coach Jerry Adams, eight meets being carded for the regular season with three others open to those wrestlers who qualify.

> Kansas University, and Iowa university, all but the latter being Huskers will barely have time too Big Six conference opponents.

The outstanding contests on the schedule include the opening encounter with Minnesota at Minneapolis on Jan. 18, Kansas State at Manhattan, another Big Six opponent, and Iowa State College at Ames, which is also a Big Six dual meet. The season will wind up with the Big Six conference meet to be held at Norman, Oklahoma, March Next is the National Collegiate championships, which will staged at Washington Lee College, at Lexington, and finally the Olympic tryouts to be held April 16-17-18, with the site still undecided. These meets will, of course, be open only to those wrestlers who qualify for them during the regular Hopes for the Nebraska team were brightened a great deal with the news that Dick Shafer, Nebraska high school champion in the 118 pound division, who was ineligible the first semester, will be eligible for competition during the second semester, which opens soon after the start of the wrestling campaign.

The complete wrestling schedule for 1936 is as follows: Jan. 18-Minnesota at Minneapolis. 20-Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls, Iowa. 31-Missouri at Lincom.

Feb. 7-Kansas University at Lincoln 14-Kansas State at Manhattan.

22- Iowa University at Lincoln. 28-Iowa State College Ames, Iowa.

29-Cornell College at Mount Vernon, Iowa. Mar. 6-7—Big Six meet at Norman, Oklahoma.

20-21-National Collegiate championships at Washington and Lee Lexington, Va.
Apr. 16-17-18—Olympic outs, place undecided.

Students at William and Mary college cannot engage in flying

BROWNEMEN FACE DENVER U. TONIGHT

Huskers Complete Pacific Coast Basketball Jaunt Needing Victory to Break Even in Series; Average 45 Points Per Game.

WYOMING FALLS VICTIM IN LAST MINUTE

Brigham Young Spoils Cornhusker Win Streak; Santa Clara, Stanford Triumph in California; Hank Whitaker Counts to Down Utah.

Climaxing a six-game barnstorming tour to the Pacific Three of these meets will be coast, Coach Harold Browne's Nebraska basket team stops in staged on the home mat at the Denver this evening, bidding farewell to cross country advencoliseum. These include Missouri, ture in an engagement with the Denver U net swishers. Returning to Lincoln sometime Wednesday afternoon, the nomadic > fore formally opening the Big Six campaign Friday evening against Nebraska Nonconference Results. Nebraska 53, Brigham Young Nebraska 41, Minnesota 24. Nebraska 46, Wyoming 42.

Brigham Young 46, Nebraska Nebraska 48, Utah 47. Santa Clara 61, Nebraska 48. Stanford 42, Nebraska 39.

With a record of four victories in seven starts and a point-getting quota of 45 tallies per game, the Brownemen will still need a victory over Denver to break even on the coast trip. After feasting on easy prey in Brigham Young and Minnesota, the touring courtmen made two frantic last minute baskets count against Wyoming university for a 46-42 win on the first leg of the journey.

B. Y. U. Retaliates.

But Brigham Young was no partner to such smooth sailing proceedings the following day and soothed her first licking with a 46-39 vengeance. The Husker were trailing 20-22 at the half and when they managed to wor into the lead in the second period the Cougars came from behind t spoil everything-even the lacks daisical, limpid manner in which most of the game had wobbled.

Hank Whitaker brought the Scarlet colors, trailing in the dust for the first time in the season, back to the heights again in the next battle, heaving a sensational basket from the middle of the floor to pull a 48-47 victory out of the Utah salt flats. Hank's grunt basket.

ALL MAKES TYPEWRITERS Easy Payments Bloom Typewriter Exch. 225 So. 13

catch up on the sleep lost on their strenuous battle-strewn jaunt be-

The next two games found Nebraska either just a little too unaccustomed to tropicality, unfamiliar with the coast rules, or lacking in rest between games, for Santa Clara administered a 61-48 licking, and Stanford dealt an-other hand in the same suit, 42-39. Inability to control the play because of the coast abolition of the tipoff had the Huskers at a loss in both contests, although the lead changed in the Stanford struggle sixteen times, almost with every Parsons High Score.

The scoring lead in the Nebraska basket camp reposes at present in the extremely capable and accurate hands of Bob Parsons, sophomore guard and brother of last year's "Bud." However, it isn't any too certain a margin by any means, for his 73 points for the season are feeling the breath Whitaker's 65 and George Wahlquist's 62.

A summary of the scoring quo-

넭	tations.	1000	7.0
31	fg	ft	1	DIS
	Parsons	13	17	73
IJ	Whitaker 28	9	12	65
u	Wahlquist 24	14	14	62
d	Baker 9	7	2	25
a	Ebaugh 8	7	12	45.55
	Widman 7	÷	14	21
N		ż	- 6	-18
N	2	- 7	9	-11
H	Amen	- 6	- 4	- 6
20	Hale 2	- 2		5
ä	Dohrmann 2	- 3	- 12
8	Nelson 1	_3	0	15
i	Totals	66	82	314
٦	Themin average access and a contract of the co	13/10

You can get your

B6961 333 North 12

Auction

Coming Soon

Details will be published Jan. 19th

Watch for this important Notice

Daily Nebraska

How's about it, fraternities? Let's go bowling! If you've ever harbored an opinion that strikes, spares, 300's, and other such enviable attributes of alley angling are things reserved for tired business men and people who like their recreation in as mild doses as possible, you're all wet. In fact, you're practically going down for the third time, for Cornhusker ficient representation. The financial arrangement from the hind the suggestion to make bowl-

Tenpins Come Into Own With

pretty generally accepted that fraternity boys like their recreation with plenty of pep in it.
The suggestion, which has the whole-hearted approval of the intramural office as soon as the Greeks express definite desire for the kegling sport, was wholeheartedly approved by the athletic managers of nearly every fraternity in a recent poll of opinion. A meeting of the fraternity athletic directors will be held this ing an intramural sport. And it's week to pass formal action on the Intramural Office Approves.

Harold Petz, intramural director, promises that once a united request has been made, there will be little dificulty encountered in the intramural office. Petz disclosed that his office would be glad to welcome the sport on the same basis as soccer or water polo, aft-seemed prevalent that enough "It's a fine sport, the finances are competitive enthusiasm could be reasonable, and we're decidedly raised to produce a tolerably pro- 'in.'"

The financial arrangement, considered the greatest obstacle to the plan, came through with flying colors. Practically every manager consulted expressed satisfaction with the proposal of 25 cents for two lines of competition. There appeared to be different degrees of contentment—from "it's alright, I suppose" through "o.k., go ahead," to "fine, perfectly satisahead," to "fine, perfectly satis-factory."—but not a dissenting tor Arthur L. Smith as main voice was raised against the eco-speaker. His topic will be "Social voice was raised against the economic aspect. We're In the Money. Representative of replies to the straw vote of opinion are the expression of these athletic bigwigs, selected at random: Dick Smith, Acacia: "It's a swell idea." Dick Laverty, Farm House: "Sounds o. k. We're in favor of it." Ray Bloszies, Lambda Chi Alpha: "Like to see it, We've a number of fellows interested." Paul Rapp, Pi Kappa Alpha: "Add it. Financial arrangement is fine."

er an absence of several years, but that the whole matter rests on whether the Greek houses are willing to undergo the financial technical) with "We're all in favor of it, Keep it up." Henry Nearly every athletic chief, questioned as to whether his array of sporting talent included anyone versed in the ways of pin-pulverizing, responded affirms bowlers several years ago, gave tively. Although not all of the houses research a pollubod form. houses possessed a polished team thusiastic support received. "We're of big league bowlers, the opinion entirely for it," Meyers answered.

IT MIGHT OVERFLOW OF MAPLE FANS AT MANHATTAN But It'll Take a L Conquer Nebraska.

Gets Under Way.

the University of Kansas Jay-hawkers here Tuesday night, Jan. Nebraska's losse 7 in the opening Big Six conference game of the season for the two teams there will be no advance sale of tickets. In fact In fact tickets may be unobtainable at basketball.

gerous proportions for Nebraska this Friday in view of the Sooner ence contests.

The situation will only tend to emphasize a long existing need for a new gymnasium and house at the state's second largest educational institution.