W. C. A. and the Student Christian movement and intelligent leadership.

According to the by-laws of the Y. W. constitution, each candidate must have at least a university scholastic average of eighty, and actively participated in the work of the association in the preceding (Continued on Page 4).

COUNCIL TAKES NEW CAMPUS ACTIVITIES INTO CONSIDERATION

Group Plans Act on Dances, Chaperons, Election Reforms.

New phases of campus activities were adopted by student council at its meeting Wednesday. Problems of subscription dances, election reforms and the difficulty of obtaining chaperons for university parties were all discussed and future action planned.

The council granted requests for subscription dances from two ag campus organizations, Alpha Zeta, men's honorary agricultural fraternity, and the ag engineering group. These two parties were made possible to make the social life more full on the Holdrege campus.

Sanche Kilbourn, chairman of the judiciary committee, told of the complaint from various sources concerning suspected fraud in voting. Miss Kilbourn will head a research committee in attempting to better these conditions.

Nebraska's chaperon problem was brought to the attention of the council by Jack Fischer. Suggestions were made concerning this matter, and plans made to bring it up before the next council meeting. If the tentative program is approved, it will be sent to all social organizations on the campus.

Mary Yoder reported on the National Student Federation convention, and suggested that council members consider becoming a member of the organization, so that Nebraska's governing body will be in a position to exercise more power, when dealing with other schools.

A report on the forum committee was made by Bill Marsh, chairman, followed by a council discussion on broadcasting the next forum on "Militarism and Preparedness." The motion to leave the matter of broadcasting to the discretion of the forum committee was carried.
