

CAMPUSOCIETY

IN SPITE OF THE SUDDEN APPEAR- ance of marriage licenses, candy pass-ings and whatnot, and a basketball game, the campus here and there are falling back on the days of childhood and the games of yore. Frantic hittings and slapp-ings going on in the "Moon" and "Uni" can mean only one thing, that good ol' pastime of Slap, and fateful racking of brains, that heartrending thing called Monopoly. And of course the verra fine standby of bridge still reigns, and solitaire runs it a close second. In fact it looks as though the student mind is reverting to a lower type. Maybe it's the semester, and perhaps it's the cold weather, but excellent slogan, "Let nothing interfere with my pleasure" still holds true in a good many cases.

SEEN on the campus: Mae Thacker worrying about a bridge game that should have happened last Sunday night—Bill Green rushing to his 10 o'clock at 9—One popular rushee and her faithful sixty million sorority followers lunching at the Pastry shop—Jay Campbell demurely submitting to treatment by Mark Baldwin for a frozen ear—Bob Hillyer still looking for more victims who will listen to his "which witch is which" story—Raymond Gavin, Phi Psi alum tooting around on a little red sled—Elizabeth Hedge still using Barney Drummond's "smooth" yellow roadster—Mary Klimsey going about with Bill Caldwell—Ernestine Taylor adding "local color" to the business offices of the women's gymnasium by "offering" to assist—Harry Epperson demonstrating his remarkable bowling prowess to a group of admiring coeds—Kenny Favey at the basketball game with Margaret Straub—Bob Funk vainly trying to hide from the visiting sister of one of Nebraska's more prominent journalists—Cornhusker executives playing poker in the back office.

RUMOR has it that something in the nature of a double wedding may have taken place recently.
We have been expecting the Hammer-Kratky affair to amount to something but the Ernst-Brown angle was something of a surprise. At any rate the marriage licenses were officially issued, and we suspect that the Phi Psi and Kappa Sig's were rather surprised at the culmination of these blossoming romances.

THE Delta Gamma's knew that Mary K. Johnson had Sig Alph Jim Davies' pin, but were growing weary of the long wait for their favorite after dinner sweets.
Monday night their hopes were realized, and, needless to say, the Sig Alphas enjoyed their cigars also.

ANNOUNCED recently was the engagement and approaching marriage of Zoraida Alexander, former Delta Gamma from Grand Island, and Bruce Teeter, Alpha Tau Omega. The wedding will be held Saturday, Feb. 8.

JAMES Erb, following the example of his older brother, Carl, was recently elected president of Alpha Tau Omega. Glen Mace was chosen vice president.

OBSERVING the founding of Kappa Theta sorority in 1870 at De Pauw university, ninety active and alumnae met for luncheon at the Blackstone hotel Saturday. Thirty-one guests were present from Lincoln; among them Elizabeth Shearer, president of the Nebraska university chapter, who presided.

SIGMA Nu announces the pledging of Adna Dobson, former athlete of Lincoln high school, and

MARRIED recently were Miriam Hirschfeld of North Platte and Alex Gross of Denver. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride. Mrs. Gross is a graduate of Colorado Women's college in Denver, and has attended the university for a year.

'Tickling The Bones,' Is Real Thing At N. U.

Henry Reider of the museum staff of the University of Nebraska boasts one of the earliest musical instruments in his recently completed "bonaphone" shown above. Made from the rib bones of prehistoric rhinoceroses which once roamed through Nebraska, the instrument surprises everyone with its mellow tone. Reider is able to run the scale for two octaves, including the sharps and flats. His services as an entertainer are already in demand. The bones were found near Alsworth and those used in the instrument were scraps left after several skeletons had been mounted. After each bone was selected for its pitch, shellacking was necessary as a preserver. Reider even made his own mallets, all the work being done during his spare time. —From The Sunday Journal and Star.

WARNER WINS $600 DAIRY SCHOLARSHIP

A $600 scholarship for research in dairy manufacture was recently awarded to James N. Warner of Morrill, Neb., a senior in the agricultural college. The scholarship was awarded for ability in judging dairy products and for ability in research by the American Dairy Science association and the Dairy and Ice Cream Machinery and Supplies association, and the presentation was made by W.
W. Burr, dean of the Ag college.
Mr. Warner stated that he will use the money in pursuing graduate study in dairy manufacture in some university other than Nebraska.

should be written out and material should be organized, with an approximate list of expenses stated.

A prize of $15 has been offered to the originator of the winning scheme of presentation. Entries will be judged by a committee composed of Kady B. Faulkner, Prof. F. Dwight Kirsch, and Prof.
Raymond H. Williams, members of the art department faculty.
"Several plans have been submitted already," stated Mr. Levin, "and we are expecting that a great many more will be handed in before the deadline. We feel that with a wider scope from which to choose, we will be able to select a truly artistic and colorful presentation scheme."

The idea should include a role for both the junior and senior class presidents and should not exceed $35 in cost. Last year's plan, which was submitted by Bill Flax, arts and science senior, featured silhouettes of all the candidates for prom girl, with the winner appearing from behind her own picture at the appointed time.

4,900 STUDENTS
START TO CLASS
THIS SEMESTER

dents will delay computation of a final university enrollment total.

Expects Increase in Total.

It is expected that enrollment figures for resident students will reach 5,900 when the last count is taken. Last year there were but 5,463 including the medical and graduate schools, and stragglers.
Total enrollment of 6,228 for the first semester of this year topped the previous year's figures by approximately 500, but second semester registration is always somewhat lighter than that of the first term, it was explained. This disparity is caused principally by mid-year graduation depleting the ranks, financial difficulties, and the hurdle of the scholastic bars.

"Music will be furnished by one of the largest bands ever chartered for a university function, and even the most lavish expectations could not overestimate the merit of Frankie Masters and his band," Joe Roth, chairman of the committee in charge of orchestra predicted.
Masters will journey to Lincoln directly from Chicago to play for the ball.

"By providing one of the best orchestras in the country and by offering the ball for the same price as much lesser parties have cost we hope to give everyone in the university a true taste of metropolitan night life. I feel that the pending ball is undoubtedly the most liberal offer ever presented to socially inclined Nebraska students," Ralph Eldridge, chairman of the committee on committees announced.

Frankie Masters and his orchestra are strictly a collegiate array and their appearance in the coliseum Saturday night will mark the return of two of the members to their Alma Mater. Abe Hill and bonist respectively both are graduates of the university. Frankie Masters himself attended the University of Indiana where he was a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity. Dick Kissinger and Don Woodville likewise are members of the Hoosier State University.

Jack "Scat" Powell, featured vocalist was once a member of the Oklahoma University football squad but quit his gridiron career to join Masters while yet a sophomore. He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.
Another of the band achieved national prominence as a pigskin toter by virtue of his rank as an All-American, while playing for the University of Michigan. He was affiliated with the Sigma Nu house.

Due to this exceptionally large representation from college groups it might be expected that the band will anticipate the true interests of a group of university socialites, and provide the best entertainment we have had in years, committee members stated.
