

Dawson Hits 23.7; Nears 220 Record

Sprint Time But 2-10 Second Behind Lock's '25 Top Mark.

Highlight of Wednesday's track workouts was Harwin Dawson's 23.7 seconds for the 220-yard dash. Dick Fischer sprinted the same distance in 23.8, one-tenth second slower than the time set by Les Pankonin earlier in the week. Dawson's time was two-tenths second behind the record time of Roland "Gripper" Locke established in 1925. Dawson hails from the same town as Locke, North Platte.

Coach Henry F. Shulte's varsity tracksters donned their Scarlet and Cream uniforms for Wednesday's heavy workout. All men who are slated to participate against the Jayhawkers Saturday, Feb. 22 were given strong workouts to iron out some of the fallings.

Dick Fischer, Valentine speed ace, ran the quarter mile in 56 seconds flat. Chapman finishing in 56.8 seconds and Aitken in 57.8. None of these times seriously threatened the established indoor marks.

Reports from the Jayhawk camp at Lawrence indicate that the team Coach Bill Hargiss will bring to Huskerland Saturday will be composed primarily of sophomores. Coach Hargiss is the man who started Glenn Cunningham out on a great career as a world's champion miler.

Several of the K. U. trackmen have already made outstanding marks in competition. Zadigan is reputed to be one of the midwest's best milers. Bob Ardrey vaulted over 13 feet in high school competition. Foy is a promising hurdler and sprinter, and Charles Pitts can do over 23 feet in the broad jump. Wellhausen is a star performer in the shot put and high jump divisions.

Following is the Jayhawk entry list for Saturday's dual meet:

- 60 yard dash: Foy, Hardacre, Richardson.
- 80 yard low hurdles: Foy, Wiles, Clues.
- 60 yard high hurdles: Foy, Wiles.
- 440 yard dash: Greene, McNow, McCaskill, Trotter.
- 880 yard run: Schroeder, Guise, McCoy.
- Mile run: Zadigan, Fitzgibbon, Chada.
- Shot put: Kankisar, Pitts, Wellhausen.
- Pole vault: Ardrey, Pitts.
- High jump: Shannon, Wellhausen, Ewing.
- Broad jump: Pitts, Clues, Richardson, Ewing.
- Relay: Greene, McNow, Wiles, Schroeder, McCaskill, Trotter.

CLASS B INTRAMURAL CONTESTANTS FINISH FOURTH ROUND PLAY

No Major Upsets in Greek Basketball Games Wednesday.

Intramural basketball athletes competing in the "B" division headed down the home-stretch in league competition as they swept past their fourth round of play Wednesday evening. No major upsets were recorded, the favored quintets in each league coming thru as expected.

Sigma Chi spent a merry evening at the expense of Acacia, the former leaving the floor with a 35-9 verdict and unmarred three game victory string. In the other League I game, Beta Theta Pi squeezed thru with a close 8-6 win over Phi Sigma Kappa.

Sig Eps Take A. G. R.'s. League II found Sigma Phi Epsilon and Alpha Gamma Rho meeting in a crucial test, the Sig Eps tallying in the last minute of play to conquer the A. G. R. five and take undisputed possession of the title in that league. In the other League II game, Zeta Beta Tau took Kappa Sigma into camp in one extra period, 18-16.

Sigma Nu ran its string of victories up to four as it nudged Phi Delta Theta, 13-11, in a close League III encounter. Alpha Tau Omega had little trouble in disposing of Pi Kappa Alpha, the final score reading 14-6. The remaining League III engagement found Sigma Alpha Epsilon bombarding the basket for twenty-one points to offset the nine tallies marked up by Delta Sigma Lambda.

Phi Psi Quint Falls. Phi Kappa Psi fell from the ranks of the undefeated in League IV as it lost to Theta Xi in another hairbreadth game, 8-7. The other contest was nearly as close, Sigma Alpha Mu chalking up a narrow 9-7 win over Beta Sigma Psi.

Delt, Acacia, Phi Gam, A.T.O., Sigma Nu Fives Try for Class A Title.

Playing before more heavily laden bleachers each night, the class A Greeks wove fire to their preliminary rounds Tuesday. Five fraternity quintuplets survived the battles of their respective leagues without a battle scar. Sigma Nu, Acacia, Delta Tau Delta, Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Gamma Delta in coming thru their schedules undefeated proved themselves as five of the best basketball combinations to ever represent Husker fraternities.

Altho the leagues are arranged only according to drawings, there were two especially potent groups this year, leagues one and two. Between the two, most of the better teams of previous campaigns were housed. Acacia in order to win their bracket, had to first dispose of Phi Psi, last year's champ, and Beta Theta Pi, another strong contender. Sigma Nu conquered four opponents, none of whom were setups. The quartet were Alpha Gamma Rho, Chi Phi, Phi Sigma Kappa and Sigma Chi. In league four Alpha Tau Omega was pressed little except for Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Peering into the future, it is hard to select a single winner from this bunch of stalwarts. All will hit a new high in the final in order that they may get a crack at that final game to be played before the Kansas-Nebraska mix.

Acacia's are represented by a well balanced five consisting of Dick Smith and Jack McKenzie of Lincoln, guards; Fred Shirey of Latrobe, Pa., center; Jack Craig of Linde, Wyo., and Marvin Plock of Lincoln, forwards. Scoring has been handled mainly by Craig and Plock. The latter is especially deft with the pellet as he rolls them off of almost every part of his anatomy and from almost any angle. The entire quint is mercury footed and work well together. It is common conjecture that they can hold their own with any of the other finalists.

In league two, Sigma Nu is the tops. In this combination the smoothest style of team play is found. The dominating characteristics of this team which is composed of John Wertz of Chappell, Bob Hisebeck of Kenesaw and Bruce Campbell of Lincoln, forwards; Rod Thomas of Casper, Wyo., center; Everett Munn of Waverly and Ed Steeves of Lincoln, guards, are trick shots, passes and a plenty speedy quick break. No house thus far has been able to halt their goalward march.

Keith Yeme of Ft. Morgan, Colo., and Bob Ray of Lincoln, guards; Phil Naviaux of Lexington, center, and Bill Sawtell of Omaha, Vernor Groves of Fort Morgan, Colo., and Paul Bauman of West Point, forwards, represent Delta Tau Delta, the throne occupant of League three. Groves is high in points and at the same time turns in a swell performance in floor work.

A. T. O. has the potency to give their opposition plenty of bother. Their roster consists of Bob Ramey of Lincoln, center; Ken Pavey and Dick Cullen of Lincoln, forwards, and Alexander Pickens of Grand Island and Glass of Grand Island, guards. Pickens, a former Hastings high flash, has donated his team more counters than any of his teammates while Cullen and Pavey contribute considerably to the action. This five possesses more altitude than most of their competitors, but will have to put in some extra hours to gather in the scraps of the three teams mentioned above.

Phi Gam will pin its championship hopes to the shirts of Minier of Oakland and Petersen of Fremont, guards; Lortcher of Kansas City, Kas., center, and Red Harding of Oakland, Bernie Scherer of Dallas, S. D., Bob Harris of Kansas City, Mo., and Dave Patterson of St. Louis, Mo., forwards. There is no conspicuous height on the Phi Gam clan. It is their mastered team work that nets them their victories.

Drawings for the final brackets will be made in the immediate future so that only two teams will be remaining by the time that the Jay Hawks come to town.

The saying goes that if you give a man enough rope he will hang himself, but give a piano player enough cord, and he'll deafen the audience.

In Lincoln high school milling cage mobs used to shout Hale, Hale, and not meaning the gang's all here. Coming to the front in basketball in his senior year, Leland Hale went to the city in a big way. He topped the scorers of the Missouri Valley conference and rated all state laurels. There were truly few other forwards in the state who could hold the tallow to him.

In university his road to glory has been poorly graded like that of prep school, but with next year, his senior annum, coming up he looks to another prosperous season like that of his high school finale. For the 1936-37 season he may patrol the back courts instead of his former forward territory. During the past few weeks Coach Browne has been conducting special LELAND HALE guard drills for the Journal. The stockily built Link with only next season's quintet in mind.
