

NEBRASKA CAMPUS SOCIAL WHIRL

SEEN ON THE CAMPUS.

There's quite a "doggy" situation afoot these days at the Pi Phi house. It seems that some kind soul donated the girls six very small and very cute Collie pups which were received with great joy. The question of keeping such a goodly number of canines in one house has arisen, however, and all are anxiously awaiting the verdict from the higher-ups. If the answer is "yes," all will be well; if it's "no," they'll be in the market for homes for the little rascals. If you'd like such an animal, just call B-7545.

The eternal triangle fades clear out of existence in the face of the new situation with Mary Lien, Gamma Phi Beta, and Dick Doty, Bob Riddle, Jim Hoesburg, and Bob Gannon, all Beta freshmen. Mary goes picknicking with Jim, takes in the Kosmet show with Dick, dates Bob Riddle every now and then (that is when he isn't driving his bus) and goes to the Triad with Bob Gannon. It would appear that they are all just one big happy family.

Never let it be said that woman depends on man to get around. Five enterprising, sweet young things had a plenty good hen picnic the other day. Gail Evans, Joan Ridour, Rosamond Wigton, Libbets Hendricks, and Jeanne Rowe, not a bit disturbed by the fact that their respective escorts were out of town, had themselves a time, and all of them swear it was the most fun they had had in years.

It seems that all is not as it should be with Jane Eldridge—Jack Friedebach combination these days. The new young Romeo of our popular D. G. Miss seems to have "opened his mouth and put his foot in it" with rather surprising consequences. At any rate we were most surprised to see her with "the old D. G. flame" Saturday night, only a few hours after making definite plans for the evening with the aforementioned Jack.

This Kosmet Klub stardom seems to have its advantages, at least with one of the more prominent young A. T. O.'s who is allowed to retain his masculinity "in spite of it all." At any rate a certain young lady who had been breathlessly watching the play all Monday night was heard to remark to the lucky lad after the performance: "Oh, Donnie, I love you so!"

DELTA Sigma Lambda announces the pledging of Waldo Deck of Lincoln.

ALUMNAE of Mu Phi Epsilon met for luncheon at the home of Mrs. Herman Decker with assisting hostesses Alina Tullis and Miss Ruth Haberly. Spring flowers centered the tables and appointments were in pastel colors. Following the business meeting, Mrs. H. J. Phillips presented a group of vocal selections accompanied by Miss Josephine Smaha. Guests were Miss Marian Dunlevy, Miss Lois Lefferdink, Miss Ardith Pierce, and Miss Ruth Randall.

GAMMA Phi Beta announces the recent pledging of Henrietta Wilson of Lincoln.

TWENTY members of Sigma Nu Mother's club went to Omaha Tuesday afternoon where they will be entertained at a luncheon given by the Omaha club. The affair, which is an annual event will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Reichstadt.

RECENTLY announced was the pledging of Delta Delta Delta of Barbara Golden of Palmer, Nebraska.

LINCOLN members of the D. U. mothers club were luncheon hostesses to the Omaha mothers Monday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Ankeny was in charge of arrangements, and the table decorations were carried out in the fraternity colors with yellow jonquils centering the table. Following the luncheon and short business meeting the group was entertained by Mrs. Guy C. Harris, who reviewed "Old Jules" by Marie Sanchez.

THE Kappa Kappa Gamma house party which was scheduled to take place this Saturday night has been postponed for a few weeks. The definite date has not yet been decided on.

FRANCES Ireland and Harold F. Hoppe, whose engagement and approaching marriage was recently announced, have set Wednesday morning as the time for their wedding.

Review. Dr. Van Roven also has a book review on "The Poor Agricultural Whites of the South" which appears in the same number.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In the course of a twelve-month, innumerable conventions come to Washington. For the past three years this town has been host to more conventions than probably any other American city. Originally Washington was often chosen because of its points of interest. Now with attention focused on the capital more than ever, convention committees often pick Washington so that delegates can in their spare time sit in on the deliberations of congress or visit the various administrations during a period when national history is being made in the capital more rapidly than ever before.

The Shriners came in the past year, the American Society of Experimental Biologists, and the American Association of Bankers, just to mention a very few of dozens of such conclaves held here. This week the joint unemployed council under the leadership of the Workers Alliance will be here to demand a larger public works program than the WPA, to pay prevailing wages. Some convention goers, like the Shriners, come merely to have a good time away from home. Others like the Workers Alliance and the United Mine Workers are held here principally to let congress and the administration know of the organization's strength, the nature of their demands, and the temper of their membership.

With the anniversary of our entry into the World war in 1917 just past, it seems odd to recall that there is still a vestige left of one of the wartime agencies. About 70 people are still employed by the office of the United States alien property custodian. This bureau, created to administer estates and property of enemy citizens during the war, still lingers on 17 years after the Armistice. There are still claims to be paid out of these properties, therefore the necessity for still maintaining a skeleton staff. The NRA's lingering-on qualities seem pitiful compared to this ability of the custodian's office to hang around after the brawl is over.

The local units of the Veterans of Future Wars demanded that they be allowed a place in the Army Day parade here, along with marchers from "other veterans' organizations." Officials in charge indignantly refused. The movement, first introduced here about two weeks ago, is already popular with Washington's collegians. The only campus here sure to be barren ground for the idea is the Army War College, the war department's institution of higher learning for officers. Employing the same publicity sense they did in asking for part in the recent parade the local chapters might

CUDDLY CANINES CAPTIVATE CAMPUS.

To be quite the tops these days, it seems that you must own at least one pet. Barbara Rosewater at the Alpha Xi Delta house proudly boasts of two new dogs—we don't know why two, but at least they keep each other company. Henry "Shotgun" Remington houses a parrot and a monkey, while Glorine Wiig at the Gamma Phi Beta house has a canary which vocalizes, so we understand, in the wee hours of the morning (much to the sisters' regret). "Duke," the Beta pooch, still disappoints the brothers by playing dead when asked which he'd rather be, a dead dog or a Beta. Even with this goodly array of beasts we'll still award the prize to the Pi Phi's with their six specimens of canine beauty. And Bill Clayton still prefers his camera!

ALPHA Chi Omega announces the pledging of Dorothy Green of Lincoln.

RECENTLY announced is the engagement and approaching marriage of Dorothy Foster of Union to J. Dan Houston of Nebraska City. Doctor Houston is a graduate of the university.

ZETA Tau Alphas will entertain Friday night with a dinner dance at the Lincoln hotel. Chaperons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Dale Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton and Mrs. Guerna Harlan.

CANDY and cigars occupied the spotlight at the Alpha Chi Omega and A. T. O. houses Monday night, the occasion being the announcement of the engagement of Virginia Smith to Jim Erb.

BARB students of the university will be entertained at the annual all-barb banquet Friday evening at Ellen Smith hall. At that time a review of barb organization work done during the past year will be presented, also awards to winners of intramural activities. In addition, members of Howard and Wilson hall will present the skit which they gave at the Coed Follies. Dorothy Beers, president of the Barbs, A. W. S. league, and "Bill Newcomer, president of the L. A. B. Interclub council, are acting as co-chairmen in charge of general arrangements for the banquet.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Betty Wahlquist of Hastings to Roger W. Tracy of Cleveland, O., which will take place Saturday in Hastings. Miss Wahlquist is a graduate of the university and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was chosen May queen in her senior year and is a member of Mortar Board.

publicly request Secretary Dern's permission to proselyte on the war college campus. This department, having offered this suggestion for what it is worth, withdraws from the scene to await developments, cheerful in the knowledge that if the notion is taken up we shall be guilty of inciting to riot.

WASHINGTON theater audiences, during showings of news reels in which political personages including presidential aspirants are featured, never respond with applause in the way visitors expect. They applaud all political figures feebly, giving Roosevelt only slightly more applause than they give Hoover or Landon. Smith draws a few scattered handclaps. Talmage draws complete silence. Borah and Knox have yet to flash before local audiences on the screen.

Probably the reason for the restrained applause for Roosevelt, here where political appointees abound, is that each man sitting in a theater fears that if he applauds loudly his neighbor will suspect he has a bread and butter motive for his pro-Roosevelt palm smackings, and not a sincere admiration for the president.

PROFESSORS CITE STUDENT BONERS

Washington University Exam Answers Droll.

By College News Service.
ST. LOUIS, April 21.—Professors going over examination papers at Washington university this week reported some of the "boners" made by their students. Some of the definitions and answers were as follows:

- Einstein—German for "one glass."
- Vodka—A Russian political body.
- Dynamo—A dynamite fuse.
- Emperor Jones—A medieval ballad.
- Cataleptic—A helper in chemistry.
- Filibuster—A war for financial benefits.
- Vandals—People from Vandalia.
- Borah—A character from the Bible.
- Heligoland—A slang name for Germany.
- Aida—A river in Russia. Here are the correct answer: Einstein—A German physicist and mathematician now teaching in the United States.
- Vodka—An intoxicating drink used in Russia.
- Dynamo—A machine producing electricity.
- Emperor Jones—A modern play by Eugene O'Neill.
- Cataleptic—Pertaining to muscular rigidity.
- Filibuster—An attempt to delay the passage of legislation by holding the floor to prevent a vote.
- Vandals—A tribe of barbarians in the Middle Ages.
- Borah—The United States senator.
- Heligoland—A German island in the North Sea, used as a U-boat base during the World war.
- Aida—An Italian opera.

PROFESSOR UNEARTH'S EINSTEIN FORERUNNER

Poe's Prose Poem 'Eureka' Related to Theory of Matter.

BURLINGTON, Vt. (ACP). Einstein's latest theory, that gravitation and electricity combine to form solid matter, a development of his theory of electrical bridges between shells of space, has been related to Edgar Allan Poe's prose poem "Eureka" by Prof. Julian I. Lindsay of the University of Vermont.

Poe's work defined gravitation as attraction, which he calls the principle of the body, and electricity as repulsion of the principle of the soul. No other principles exist, says Poe. All are referable to one or the other of these two, which stand for the material and the spiritual principles of the universe.

Poe's Explanation.
"Discarding now the two equivocal terms" and to quote from "Eureka"—"let us adopt the more definite expression, 'attraction' and 'repulsion.' The former is the body, the latter the soul; the one is the material, the other the spiritual principle of the universe. No other principles exist. All phenomena are referable to one, or to the other, or to both combined.

"So rigorously is this the case, so thoroughly demonstrable is it that attraction and repulsion are the sole properties through which we perceive the universe—in other words, by which Matter is manifested to Mind—that, for all merely argumentative purposes, we are fully justified in assuming that matter exists only as attention and repulsion—that attraction and repulsion are matter; there being no conceivable case in which we may not employ the term 'Matter' and the terms 'Attraction' and 'Repulsion' taken together, as equivalent and, therefore, convertible, expressions in logic."

BROADCAST BREVITIES

GRETE Stueckgold, operatic soprano; Fritz Lieber, famous Shakespearean actor, and Fred Keating, master magician, will be Crosby's guests during the weekly Music Hall program tonight at 9 over WOV.

MISS Stueckgold, making a return engagement to the Music Hall, will sing a popular number as well as an operatic selection. Fred Keating, one of the country's best magicians, will be interviewed by Crosby and plans to disclose several of the intricate secrets behind the tricks with which he mystifies theater audiences.

BOB Burns, the pride and joy of Van Buren, Ark., will relate further tales of life in the hill country. Crosby will sing the latest hit songs and Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra will offer the latest orchestrations of the new "swing" arrangements.

RYAN Field, Hugh Conrad and Bob Trout, the same trio which painted an exclusive radio picture of the Kentucky derby for CBS listeners last year, again will describe the colorful event in an exclusive broadcast over the nationwide Columbia network on Saturday, May 2, from 4:15 to 5 p. m. This will mark the second consecutive year the derby has been broadcast exclusively over the CBS network.

FIELD, Trout and Conrad will be stationed at strategic points at historic Churchill Downs and will blend their microphone comments to give listeners not only an accurate description of the race but of all the incidental color and thrills. The three will be assisted by Pete Monroe, well known announcer at WHAS, Columbia's Louisville affiliate.

AN all time linguistic high in radio will be heard all over the world during the heavyweight bout between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling in June, when NBC broadcasts a blow-by-blow description of the fight in English, German, Spanish and several other foreign languages.

THE English description, by a famed NBC sports announcer, will be heard over the combined coast to coast NBC Blue and Red networks of 96 stations and also over associated short wave stations. Shortwave stations will also carry the broadcast to many foreign countries and outposts. This is one of the few times that popular request has almost demanded a fight or program be rebroadcast in so many different languages.

THE 43rd running of the four mile Maryland club cup race, over one of the most hazardous and difficult courses in the world for amateur riders, will be described by Clem McCarthy.

Now! Never before such hotness, fun, such drama, such delicious romance.

LITTLE Jackie Heller, who keeps the studio engineers busy lowering microphones for him, will return to Chicago Wednesday, April 22, to do his singing from the midwestern metropolis for several weeks while making stage appearances there.

The tiny tenor will be heard from Chicago this afternoon and each Wednesday and Saturday thereafter over KOL at 4 p. m. After April 26, the program will be broadcast at 3 p. m. Having completed work on his first movie in Hollywood, Heller will begin an engagement at the Oriental theater, Chicago, April 24.

NOTES TO YOU: It is not generally known that frog voiced Poley McClintock, noted for his rasping renditions of novelty choruses with Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians, has a fine first tenor voice. Poley switches to the opposite range and sings tenor in the serious glee club numbers during the weekly Waring broadcasts over CBS. . . Alec Templeton, Jack Hylton's blind pianist heard over NBC in the Continental Revue, made his first public appearance when he was five years old at a children's concert in Newport, Monmouth, England, at which the mayor of the town was an honored guest. . . Before they got that way on the radio, Phil Ducey was a night clerk in a hotel. . . Wilfred Glenn, one of the Revelers, was a salmon fisher in Alaska. . . Lewis James, another Reveler, was a civil engineer. . . Bill Hay, announcer for Amos 'n' Andy, was a vocal teacher. . . Jack Benny, NBC headliner, is never seen without a cigar and hopes some day to find a nickel smoke he really likes.

NOVEL MARRIAGE TERMS AGREED TO
Pittsburgh Students Go Back to Colleges.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (ACP). Two students have been married here under the terms of a unique agreement which permits them to go back to college without facing the necessity of maintaining a home.

ELLEN Jane Wakefield, 18, and Donald D. Hyland, also 18, separated after the ceremony in St. Paul's cathedral that made them man and wife, Mrs. Hyland to return to the Maryland college for women and the groom to go back to his classes at Duquesne university.

Their parents made the marriage possible so that the students could be pledged to one another without ending their college careers.

The bride will learn to cook, she says, so as to be ready to start housekeeping after graduation.

CANADIANS PROPOSE SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

OTTAWA, Ont., Apr. 21.—A proposal to establish national scholarships to provide university education for 1000 poor Canadian boys and girls is being considered by the Canadian parliament.

A. E. Corrigan of Ottawa, who is sponsoring the plan, points out, in support of his plea for the education of the rising generation, that more than 90 percent of the political leaders in Canada were produced from less than one percent of those who attended universities.

Corrigan proposes that 1000 national scholarships, valued at $400 each, be awarded by the Canadian government. The scholars would be chosen for their mental and intellectual gifts, character and temperament. He hopes to obtain the support of 23 universities in this scheme.
