HIKERS' RULES HELP TO MAKE GREAT AMERICAN SPORT SAFE

"No smoking or drinking—report in to the chaperon no later than 8 o'clock—quiet and lights out by ten."

Not girls' dormitory regulations but new standards of conduct approved for (not necessarily by) hikers!

Here's the idea: Various farmhouses, lodges and cabins are designated as "hostels." Hikers who carry a pass issued by the American Youth Hostel association...

The man and his wife who have consented to operate their farm home or lodge as a hostel are called hostel parents. This, coupled with the rules quoted in the first paragraph, make for a decidedly honey atmosphere.

In her article, "Gypsying by Way of American Youth Hostels," Miss Lee urges the instruction of safety rules to all those who propose to join this hiking movement.

WHAT'S DOING TUESDAY

Kappa Sigma alliance, 1 o'clock luncheon, Country club. THURSDAY, Zeta Tau Alpha, Mother's club meeting, 2:30 o'clock, chapter house.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae, bridge luncheon, 1 o'clock, University club. Pi Kappa Alpha dinner, 6:30 o'clock, Lincoln hotel.

will honor the senior members of the active chapter at luncheon and bridge Saturday afternoon at the University club.

OF interest in university circles is the announcement made recently of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Gretchen Fee to William H. Thomas of Omaha.

MOTHER'S club of Kappa Delta will meet for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Elwell and Mrs. C. F. Lyman.

LAMBDA Chi Alpha announces the pledging of Roy Skelton of Otoe, Neb.

BEWILDERED little Jean Kent, Kappa Kappa Gamma, is decidedly in a "stew" about which one of her suitors has been sending her that weekly bouquet of a dozen roses.

NOW that John K. C. Chalmers is 21 years old he is beginning to take his dating more seriously it seems. But the question is, will he ever be able to decide which one is his heart's desire.

Around Washington

By ARNOLD SERWER (Associated Collegiate Press Correspondent)

A week before the Washington bookshellers advertised it, Congressman Maury Maverick had "Patriotism Prepaid," first opus of Lewis J. Gorin, Commander of the Veterans of Future Wars, on his office desk.

Now the G. O. P. national committee has hired Bruce Barton to direct the party's ballyhoo, to offset the democrat's publicity act, Charley Michelson. We wish both sides would stress ballyhoo less and wit more, in the interests of a more colorful campaign.

The willingness of some economists to lend their names to a blanket recommendation of a party's principles must be a source of embarrassment to their fellow economists. They feel, probably, the same way about it as the average doctor would feel if he saw an advertisement for liver pills, that bore the testimonial of an outstanding specialist.

To celebrate the founding date of the fraternity and also to plan for formation of an alumni chapter, about 75 former members of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalistic fraternity, banqueted here last Saturday.

HEARD ON THE CAMPUS

Some students on the campus have a yen for pinning pet monickers before people's real names. Rita Smoothie Alger seems particularly smooth to have a passion for nicknames.

APPROPRIATE and timely was the engagement announcement of Bonnie Spanggaard and Merton Kuhn at the Farm House Sweetheart dinner Friday night.

NEW officers of Delta Tau Delta are Bob Eby, president; Edwin George, vice president; Paul Amen, recording secretary, and Marvin Sullivan, corresponding secretary.

MISSIS Harriet Nesladek, Alpha Omicron Pi and Marion Smith, Delta Gamma, former university students, spent the weekend in Lincoln.

MORE candy and cigars these days! This time it was Joyce Liebenorfer at the Gamma Phi Beta house and Hutton Howe who announced in traditional fashion that they only have eyes for each other.

BOB Harmon passed the cigars at the ATO house Monday evening, announcing his engagement to June Anderson, who is a Theta attending Southern Methodist.

DELTA Theta Phi, men's law fraternity, elected Richard J. Kelly as its president for the next term. The meeting was held Saturday night at the Cornhusker hotel.

COLLEGE WORLD

Brown university writer, in an essay describing a physical examination:

"He rolled up his arm to the elbow, ripping off the button."

"Marji" is a young waitress near the campus, we understand. Very pretty and all that. For weeks she dated with no one, despite the organized competition among the very best fraternities on the campus.

The middle aged janitor in one of the halls at Princeton knows all about the Veterans of Future Wars now. For a joke, he wore one of the pins of the order. Then he went to a movie in New Brunswick. When he came out of the theater whom should he encounter but a whole gang of tough looking ex-service men, members of the real VFW.

For a time it was an interesting situation, but a passing taxi was the means of escape for the janitor.

It is not known if the janitor collected the taxi fare from the Princeton VFW expense fund.

PROF. WALKER HAILS JOURNALISM MEET AS REMARKABLE SUCCESS

First Sectional Meeting of Joint Organizations Well Attended.

"A very successful meeting," was Professor Gayle C. Walker's comment on the midwest section meeting of the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism and the American Association of Teachers of Journalism, which he attended at St. Charles, Ill., this week-end.

Professor Walker served as chairman of a sectional meeting on the law of libel. The discussion group brought out a marked need for the revision or restatement of the law of libel in each of the various states represented.

The convention was attended by 14 institutions representing the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, and Nebraska. Of the American Association of Teachers of Journalism, Nebraska is one member out of 31, all of which are class institutions.

PRESIDENT'S SON SURRENDERS JERSEY TO FORMER HUSKER IN NAVY-HARVARD ROWING DUEL

John Erickson, formerly of the University of Nebraska, and now a student in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, rose into the sporting limelight of the nation, Saturday as he fell heir to the jersey of John Roosevelt, president Roosevelt's collegiate son, when the Navy's boat crew defeated Harvard rowers in the annual Charles river meet at Cambridge, Mass.

Rowing Tradition.

As is customary in such meets the losing teams must surrender their jerseys to the victor, with each man donating his sweater to the rival in the same position. It was because of the fact that both Erickson and Roosevelt row in the sixth position that the son of the city engineer of Lincoln was so honored with the shirt of the president's athletic son.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PRAISED BY AUDIENCE

University Concert Reveals Notable Talent in Student Group.

Lincoln audience found in the concert of the Little Symphony orchestra of the University one of the outstanding musical events on the season's program. A large crowd attended the concert Sunday evening at St. Paul church, when the orchestra, under the baton of Raymond R. Reed, played five selections.

Mrs. Lenore Burkett Van Kirk, presenting solo numbers on the program, displayed unusual talent and her pleasing soprano voice added much to the quality of the program. She sang the aria, "Tacea la Notte Placida" from "Il Traviatore," and O'Hara's "Where Heaven Is."

The orchestra provided the background for Prof. Carl F. Steckelberg's rendition of Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor for Violin." It accompanied him when he played "Zigeunerweisen" by Sarasate.

Great ability was displayed by the small but well-trained orchestra when it played the Concerto and also in the presentation of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony." Included among the other selections played by the symphony were "Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart; "Dance of the Comedians" from "The Bartered Bride," by Smetana; "Because" by Jarnefel, and "Bacchanal" from "The Seasons" by Glazounov.

ERMA SCHACHT GIVES ORGAN RECITAL TODAY

Student With Miss Edith Ross to Play Program of Music.

Erma C. Schacht will present an organ recital Tuesday afternoon in room 105 of the school of music. Miss Schacht is a junior, and studies with Edith Burlingame Ross. The program will include Beethoven's "Third Sonata" with allegro con spirito, intermezzo, andante, and andante maestoso, allegro brillante movements. This will be followed by "Toccata and Fugue in C Major" by Bach, with toccato and adagio movements, and two "Fugues" by Bach.

MRS. GERTRUDE HICKS DIES SUDDENLY

Funeral for Mother of Professor Set for Tuesday at Hodgman

Mrs. Gertrude Hicks, mother of Prof. Clifford M. Hicks, of the business administration department, died at her daughter's home in Lincoln, Sunday morning. Mrs. Hicks had been a semi-invalid over the past 20 years, confined to her home, but it is said that death came suddenly.

Mrs. Hicks was an early Nebraska resident, having settled in the state in 1855 in Webster Co. from which place the family moved to Lincoln in 1900. The family home for the past 36 years has been at 1637 G st.

The funeral has been set for 2:30 p. m., Tuesday, at Hodgman's mortuary. The pallbearers will be Dr. C. E. Ladd, Dr. E. N. Deppen, Howard Hadley, E. G. Clark, Judge E. B. Chappell, and Prof. Ray Thaiman.

MORGAN DENIES IDEA DIONNE QUINTS MAY BECOME OLD MAIDS

Psychologist Believes Such Statements Without Foundation.

EVANSTON, Ill., May 16.—Predictions that the Dionne quintuplets may grow to be old maids, who in the meantime will be verti-ble "heartbreakers"—all because they haven't any little boy friends—are without scientific foundation, according to Dr. John B. Morgan of the Northwestern University psychology department.

His view was a contradiction of statements attributed to Dr. Donald A. Laird, director of the Coigate University psychological laboratory, who was quoted as saying that the policy of separating the quintuplets from other children will make them tend to make them many haters.

"The quintuplets are too young to be affected one way or another," Dr. Morgan said. "Their future attitudes toward the opposite sex will be molded by a great many factors during their childhood and adolescence."

Dr. Morgan challenged the Coigate psychologist's statement that premature birth tended to make children better looking, as also without scientific foundation.

On this point, Dr. Laird reportedly said that they were born prematurely, and it is a general rule for those born while very small to be better looking—the typical doll faced persons.

"For that matter, small babies are usually better looking than large babies, which is one reason why women are better looking than men. The quintuplets are likely to be particularly good looking young women who will leave a lot of broken hearts in their trail."

Dr. Laird made his observations before a seminar in advanced psychology. He later said the remarks were intended to "wake up the boys, but were none the less sincere."

LIBRARIAN TAKES CASE TO OUTSTATE CITIZEN FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

campus. Only about forty-five percent of the books which belong on the city campus can be shelved in the present library structure; the remaining fifty-five percent are stored in basements, professors' offices, seminar rooms, and departmental libraries, many of which are not open to free access because of lack of money to properly supervise their use.

One Central Librarian. "The agricultural college library, one of the finest of its kind west of the Allegheny mountains, is housed in three inadequate and crowded rooms in Agricultural hall, from which students are actually turned away because of the small seating capacity."

Pointing out that "comparatively few people in Nebraska can afford to give enough money to build a library," he called for small contributions to the Foundation from several hundred citizens, which could be built up into a workable fund.

He concludes with the request: "Remember the University library and help build it up, both in equipment and in contents, by establishing thru the University of Nebraska Foundation a library building and a library endowment fund. No gift can be too small to be of use, and none can be too large."

Additional Names Added List of Coed Counsellors

Following girls elected to serve as coed Counsellors next year were not included in Friday's paper:

Eleanor Hesseimer, Carol Clark, Ariene Williams, Jane Eltinger, Kathleen Bunce, Helen Ann Howe, Jerry Easdale, Jane Hutton, Doris Von Bergren, Betty Williams, Enid Friets, Evelyn Coe, Gwendolyn Beynon, Maydena Whitnah and Elizabeth Harris.
