DAILY NEBRASKAN SPORTS

At the dropping of the Nebraska sports curtain at the conclusion of the Nebraska-Minnesota dual track meet this week-end comes the time to make a few predictions in order that this column won't be right all the time.

Starting with Cornhusker football—Nebraska will repeat as Big Six champions, but will be hard pressed to beat of even tie Minnesota on the Gopher field next fall. As for Pittsburgh, the Panthers will drop their first game to Nebraska in many years on Cornhusker sod this fall. Indiana, like Chicago, will prove little more than a big name.

In the way of basketball Coach Browne's charges are slated to lose two games in the Big Six, one to Kansas and another, on some bad night, to Kansas State or even Iowa State as they did this year. For their road trip encounters the Huskers are expected to do better than last year by winning more than they lose.

Baseball, it appears, will be just another accident looking for a place to happen. There was no reserve pitching staff this year and therefore there will be no pitchers next, unless, by chance, some offspring of the Dean family turns up in Lincoln. As for the infield the hopes of Coach Knight are more than high. There were plenty of freshmen out all season showing good form and a desire to get a chance to play. But, alas, no twirlers.

Track will be the usual spanking good success it has been this year. Losing only about thirteen points from this year's championship squad Coach "Pa" Schulte need not be troubled as his frosh outfit can more than fill their shoes. Give "Pa" a good high jumper and he'll "Wahoo" all night.

Going outside the realm of college athletics we might glance at the sporting world from our wind and dust swept position here in the middle-west.

Bold Venture, which at one time promised to become the champion of the two-year olds, pulled a tendon after a brisk workout yesterday and will be withdrawn from the Belmont stake race which was to prove once and for all which of the three, Brevity, Granville, or Bold Venture was the prize bang-tail of the year. Don't put too much money on it but Granville will romp away with the race with Red Rain probably finishing ahead of Brevity.

From racing to boxing is a short jump when they both take place in New York, but to get to the point it's about the coming Louis-Schmeling brawl of this June. Louis will win by a technical k. o. when the fight is a bit more than half over. The only thing that will keep Schmeling up long enough to see the beginning of the seventh round will be his ability to back-peddle from the bombing Detroit.

The University of California or the U. of Washington will row away with the Poughkeepsie Regatta this summer as their performance so far this year shows. The only possible competition will come from the Navy and that will be weak.

America with Owens are sure to take the century dash at the Olympics, out will lose the quarter-mile either to a runner from Oxford or Cambridge. Cunningham will win the mile with Ben Eastman making a showing in the 850. Sam Francis, shot putter, will not go to the Olympics as he wouldn't be back in time for fall football practice and his best bid for All-American honors will be made this year starting right at the first of the year.

Here's another prediction that is more than likely to come true. Before the great fall sport of football starts there will be the usual crop of coaches that will raise the cry that such and such a coach from such and such a school is trying to get that all state quarter-back from Podunk High that the first coach thought he had sewed up in the bag before school ever let out.

There's one born every minute.

Eighteen Months' Work Rewarded for Muscatine Women

AMES, Ia., May 26.—Driving to rehearsals from 16 to 44 miles weekly for 1-2 years is bringing a reward to members of the Muscatine county farm women's chorus.

Seventeen members, Mrs. L. A. Crull, director and Miss Mildred Gottbrecht, accompanist, will leave Muscatine tomorrow in a specially chartered bus for Washington, D. C. They have been invited to open the third triennial conference of Associated Country Women of the World Monday. Miss Carrie Holland, home demonstration agent, and Mrs. Ellsworth Richardson, state chairman of the farm bureau women's committee, will accompany the chorus.

Rural women from 40 counties will attend the conference, the first of its kind to be held in the United States. The chorus will remain in Washington until the close of the conference, June 6, and will make several other appearances on the convention program.

The chorus, comprised of 25 farm women, most of whom have had no previous voice training, was organized in December, 1934. The organization was an outgrowth of women's quartet contests sponsored annually by the state farm bureau federation.

Among sponsors who are helping finance the trip are various business organizations of Iowa, Muscatine Farm bureau and interested individuals.

SCHULTE SMILES OVER NEBRASKA'S BIG SIX SHOWING

(Continued From Page 1.) urday. Since he swore off smoking, "Pa" Schulte hasn't taken a single drag off any form of nicotine, but he has substituted a formidable remedy for his nervousness—chewin' gum.

"Pa" Schulte has the chewing gum fever. He chews thru several packs a day and hands out to his Scarlet and Cream athletes innumerable sticks of chicle. Packages of gum bulge in all his pockets, but as a track session goes by, "Pa" Schulte passes the gum with amazing celerity.

This year marks Coach "Pa" Schulte's nineteenth year of service to Nebraska athletics. All thru these years, Coach Schulte has aided the Huskers considerably in football, because Coach Schulte once was a famous footballer when the sport was in its earliest stage.

Despite the loss of the traditional cigar, Coach "Pa" Schulte remains as one of the few colorful figures in America's sport realm. Everyone who works with or under him chimes in saying, "Henry F. Schulte, Nebraska's grand old man of athletics!"

RADIO CITY SYMPHONY GIVES MASTERS WORKS

Broadcast of Noted Moderns Slated for Cycle of June Sundays.

A festival of modern music will be presented by the Radio City Music Hall Symphony during broadcasts over National Broadcasting company networks on three consecutive Sundays in the month of June.

To encourage young American composers, and also to familiarize radio listeners with the master modernists, representative works of four great composers, Stravinsky, Debussy, De Falla and Ravel, will be performed by the symphony orchestra during the festival weeks.

The modern cycle will begin on Sunday, June 7, with a program devoted to the works of Debussy. Sunday, June 14, the program will include the compositions of Stravinsky and De Falla, and Sunday, June 21, the cycle will conclude with an all-Ravel broadcast. Each program will be heard over the NBC-Blue network from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., EST (10:30 to 11:30 a. m., CST).

In addition to the 75 piece symphony several soloists will contribute to the programs, among them Viola Philo, dramatic soprano, and Edwina Eustis, contralto. Both artists are familiar to audiences of the "Music Hall on the Air." Miss Philo is also well-known for her performances in the Music Hall stage spectacles, while Miss Eustis is a former contralto of the Philadelphia and the Russian opera companies.

The programs will originate in the special studio located atop the Radio City Music Hall, seven stories above the stage.

COLLEGE WORLD

Believe it or not, but the reason for Napoleon's retreat from Moscow caused a class in history at Tulane to leave the room and seven members to drop the course. We're not sure the reason given is the real one, but a student said the reason was that the czar said to him: "I don't like to Russia but you really Moscow."

Little Audrey went with her mother to a seance. She had her fortune told and then asked the fortune teller to laugh. He looked surprised, but little Audrey's mother paid him, so he laughed. Little Audrey suddenly struck him. "Little Audrey!" her mother exclaimed. "Why did you do that?" But little Audrey laughed and laughed, for she had always wanted to strike a happy medium.

—for Digestion's Sake—Smoke Camels

They stimulate digestion in a pleasant, natural way... increase alkalinity

The human digestion is a marvelous but delicate mechanism. It responds adversely to the hurry and mental strain so common to our busy lives today. It is definitely encouraged by smoking Camels. Scientific studies show how Camels aid digestion. Sensitive machines of science have measured the increase in digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—that follows the enjoyment of Camel's costlier tobaccos. For a cheery "lift"—for digestion's sake—for their finer tobaccos, enjoy Camels.

AT IT DAY AND NIGHT. Lectures all day—long hours of study at night—keep a man going at a fast pace mentally. How welcome Camels are with their "lift" in energy and aid to digestion.

PARIS IN LOS ANGELES! So the world of fashion and of Hollywood calls the charming, palm-studded Garden Room of Victor Hugo's in Beverly Hills. "They have made Camels the outstanding favorite here." Camels never frazzle your nerves or tire your taste.
