AROUND LEFT END With Morrie Lipp

Of the forty-two Cornhusker football candidates reporting for the initial grid drill Thursday, only six on the squad were not "native sons" of this state. The "foreigners" were two from Kansas, and one each from Illinois, Iowa and Pennsylvania.

From elsewhere than Nebraska came William Anderson of Plainville, Kas.; Jack Hutcherson of Wellington, Kas.; Fred Shirey of chances this fall is, of course, Dana J. Bible, whose title is director of athletics and head coach. Three excellent assistant coaches are found in Henry F. Schulte, W. H. Browne and Roy "Link" Lyman. Former All-American Ed Weir is freshman coach, assisted by Harold G. Peltz, intramural head, and Johnny Williams, student frosh coach and former Husker. Another All-American, Lawrence Ely, is "E" team coach. Trainer A. G. Cornell and Dr. E. N. Deppen care for the bumps and bruises that ultimately come to the hard playing Cornhuskers.

Graduation cut into the Husker ranks and deprived Nebraska fans of the pleasure of seeing ten veterans in action this year. Bob Jensen, back, Henry "Chief" Bauer, quarterback, Ralph Eldridge, back, Jimmy Heldt, tackle, Harold Holmbeck, tackle, Johnny Williams, guard, Ladas Hutka, guard, Jerry LaNoie, back, Paul Morrison, center, and Bernie Schierer, end.

Thursday's grid session was devoted mostly to photographers and press interviews. In the morning the Huskers looked over several reels of football movies while Coach D. X. Bible did the explaining. White cameras clicked and whirred. Cornhuskers posed for two hours. A calisthenics drill, led by Coach Browne, topped off Thursday's drill.

Will they do it again? Nebraska won the Big Six valley championship in 1925, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1933 and 1935—every year with two exceptions since the injection of the conference.

stadium last Thursday, is confident the Huskers will do it again, except one man whose doubting has become a Cornhusker tradition—D. X. Bible.

Bob Morris, red-headed sophomore from North Platte, was the only Husker who failed to report for the initial drill last Thursday. He showed up well last fall as a blocking back on the frosh squad.

Floyd Bottorff, halfback for the Huskers, has issued new grid pants made of a meshy material that might be a little more elusive to the ever-clutching fingers of the Cornhusker opponents. We surely hope so.

Don Weimer, senior football manager, issued a call yesterday for sophomores who might be interested in working as football managers this fall. There are vacancies for several men. Those interested in working should see Weimer at the varsity dressing room in the stadium Monday.

We have our punsters in the Husker grid squad too. Ken McGinnis, tackle prospect from Ord, asked someone or other at practice Friday if he'd ever been in Ord. The customary razzing about small towns ensued. Lil' Jack Ellis, husky tackle, topped the quipping by remarking: "Ord? That's what they get iron out of, isn't it?"

Michigan's collector of internal revenue has tied up the University of Michigan's football funds because he says they haven't paid $22,000 in taxes on general admissions.

Rogers Deering, farm machinery fortune heir, has bequeathed 7 million dollars to Northwestern university.

FROSH GRIDDERS TO START INITIAL DRILLS SEPT. 17

Coach Weir Meets Team After Completion of Registration.

Frosh Coach Ed Weir will not meet with his freshman team until Sept. 17 when registration and preliminaries are completed. It was revealed Saturday.

Outstanding among the freshman crop are Jim Mather of Arapahoe, Russell Bradford of Mitchell, Adna Dobson of Lincoln, Bill Pfeiff of Lincoln, Bill Jackson of Edgar, Bob Kahler of Grand Island and Ruby Becker of Schuyler. These men should bolster up the frosh squad considerably.

Bradford established a new pentathlon mark last spring in the state high school contest. Mather is a champion broad jumper and an all-around athlete. Pfeiff and Dobson are well-known as two fine grid performers. Becker, who towers to 6 feet 4 inches and tips the beam at 245 pounds, may prove to be the answer to the prayers of the football and track coaches.

DEPARTMENTS GIVE PSYCHOLOGY TESTS TO EARLY ARRIVALS

Others to Have Opportunity for Examination Some Time This Week.

To date a group of 830 new students with the rank of freshman or sophomore have taken the required psychology examinations for entrance to the university. Tests have been given since the first of the month, and while the first ten days were originally slated for this work, those who have not taken the exams will be given an opportunity to do so Tuesday and Wednesday.

Only first and second year students attending the university for the first time are required to take the examinations. The majority of new students complete this requirement in their high schools.

Fashions with a Future!

You don't need a fortune teller to predict that the new Fall fashions swing high ... and the sky's the limit to their smartness! High style smiles on tunics ... peplums ... dresses that flare from the waist and slim your hips. High crowned toppers come forward to show off your curls ... and are definite forerunners of the directoire silhouette. Fur trimmed coats in tunic and semi-princess lines cast smart shadows. And how high are fur collars? The higher to flatter you, my dear! Sporty knits take their bow and show new interest in hairy mixtures ... plaid and check designs ... and they borrow peplums to dress them up. But that's only half the story! Come to (GOLD'S) and see the entire fashion picture!
