

FROSH MANGLED, HELD SCORELESS IN VARSITY TILT

Continued Offensive Play Nets First Outfit 66 Counters.

In a full afternoon of scrimmage the varsity squad, playing almost entirely an offensive game, amassed 66 points while an unorganized but game frosh squad scored no points Saturday.

"There was little football opportunity," stated Coach D. X. Bibb as he headed for the dressing room. "We haven't divided the squad yet and therefore had a great variety of men on the field.

Lowell English, varsity guard candidate, retired from the contest with what was believed to be a cracked rib. X-ray pictures were to be taken to determine the extent of the injury.

Y M SPONSORS TALKS BY MAN FROM CHINA

Dean George Osborn Makes Appearance on Campus Sunday Morning.

Dean George Osborn of the Wesley Middle school at Wuchang, China, will appear on the campus Sunday for a series of addresses under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A.

His Sunday addresses will be delivered to the college student class of the Warren Methodist church at 9:45 a. m., at Camp Strader in Crete to the Hi-Y training conference on Sunday afternoon, and at 8 p. m. to the league of the St. Paul Methodist church at 6:30 p. m.

Monday morning at 10 a. m. he will address the student body at Wesleyan university. He will be present at the Y rooms of the Temple building from 4 to 6 p. m. that afternoon for open discussions. Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. he will speak to the Lincoln Hi-Y at the Hi-Y building.

CHILDREN'S THEATER STAGES PUPPET SHOW

Juvenile Visitors Cheer Renowned Marionette Demonstration.

Greeted enthusiastically by several hundred juvenile spectators, the adventures of Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn were re-enacted Saturday morning for Lincoln children by C. Ray Smith's famous Alvert Street Marionettes of California. Sponsored by the Lincoln Junior League, the program was the first of a series of five plays to be presented this season, the remaining four to be given by the University Players.

GEOGRAPHERS GATHER FOR FIRST STEAK FRY

Graduate students and members of the staff of the geography department held their initial picnic and steak fry at Roberts Park Saturday afternoon.

STUDENT CHEERING SECTION ENLARGED

An enlarged student cheering section of approximately 4,100 throats will sit in the Cornhusker stadium this fall to cheer the Biblemen onward in their quest for victory.

Nebraska students will occupy sections D to K with the card sections being F, G, H, which makes an increase of one section over previous years. Innocents are in charge again this year, and new cheerleaders, selected by them, will make their initial appearance at the frosh-arsity tilt next Saturday, Sept. 26.

COLORFUL SUITS ARRAY UNI BAND AT FROSH GAME

Receipts of Contest Pay For Scarlet-White ROTC Uniforms.

New uniforms for Nebraska's one hundred piece ROTC band have arrived and will be issued to be worn for the first time at Saturday's frosh-arsity football game, total proceeds of which will go to help pay for the new outfits.

Although no definite report on the progress of game ticket sales will be available before Tuesday, when salesmen will meet with Major S. W. Myers who is in charge of the drive, six thousand advance sale tickets have been printed in anticipation of a large crowd.

Bandmen should present a striking appearance when massed on the field in their new uniforms which cost some thirty-five hundred dollars. Musicians' outfits consist of white coats with scarlet braid and scarlet pants with a vertical white stripe on either leg. The band captain's uniform is a reversal of the color scheme of the musicians' with scarlet coat and white trousers with scarlet stripe. The drum major's outfit is similar to that of the band captain with the addition of gold epaulets and trimmings. Uniforms (Continued on Page 2).

YELL KING TRYOUTS MOVED TO TUESDAY

Innocents Postpone Date For Selection of Cheer Leaders.

Cheer leader tryouts, originally scheduled for Monday, Sept. 21, have been postponed until Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22, Innocent Bob Shellenberg announced today. Tryouts will begin promptly at 3:30 p. m. in the stadium. Candidates must be of sophomore standing and have athletic eligibility. Head cheerleader Whitey Reed will instruct the pep leader aspirants in the fine art of cheer rousing. As previously arranged, Innocent Shellenberg, Sam Francis, and George Pipa will be judges.

950 WOMEN COMPLETE REGISTRATION FOR GYM

Figures Show Coeds Favor Tennis, Swimming as Pastime Sports.

Over 950 university women were assigned their physical education classes, according to Miss Leone Alway, faculty member of the department. Tennis registration is the largest with 270, swimming follows with 80, and the remainder are taking modern dancing, tap, archery, or recreational sports.

MUSICAL CONVOCATION GIVEN WEDNESDAY

First Program of Series Features Fine Arts String Quartet.

First of a series of musical convocations will be given Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Temple theater. Program will be given by the Fine Arts string quartet and will include selections from Brahms and Schubert. The quartet is composed of Eunice Bingham, first violin; Marjorie Smith, second violin; Margaret Baker, viola; Marylouise Baker, cello, and Ernest Harris son, accompanist.

SCHOOL AWARDS MUSIC STUDENTS 35 SCHOLARSHIPS

Kirkpatrick Tells Winners Of Piano, Violin Voice, Cello.

Announcement of the winners of partial scholarships in the university School of Music was made Saturday by Director Howard D. Kirkpatrick. Qualifying in the applied music test which stressed talent and need were 35 students representing three states.

Partial piano scholarships were granted to 16 applicants: William Gant, Lincoln; Margaret Baker, Lincoln; Fredrick Thomas, Lincoln; Alice Terrill, Lincoln; Jane Hopkins, Whiting, Ia.; Vance Lehniger, Fullerton; Vee Louise Marshall, Arlington; Ruth Brockaw, Mead; Janet Olson, Palmyra; Mildred Platz, David City; Ruth M. Freiss, Lincoln; Merlent Tatro, Odell; Elsie Mansfield, Ong; Mrs. Terla Robertson, Lincoln, and Erma Schacht, Cook.

Thirteen qualified for voice scholarship including Richard Blessing, Elmwood; Lila Mae Jackson, Beatrice; Geraldine Krause, Lincoln; Helene Rasmussen, Fremont; Martha Magee, Columbus; Ruth Jayne Murray, Dunbar; Lillian L. Dannatt, Alsworth; Val Zetterman, Ong; Mrs. Yerdia Robertson, Lincoln; Jean Spencer, Lincoln; Vernon T. Hanneman, Lincoln; Warren Templeton, Lincoln; and Harriet Harper, Edgar.

Three violin students, Carolyn Kennedy, Sidney; David Fowler, Fremont and Margaret Porter, Fremont, Ia., attained partial scholarships and Minor D. Plumb, Irving, Kas.; Frances Spencer, Lincoln; and Marylouise Baker, Lincoln were awarded scholarships for study in cello.

BOB SHELLENBERG ELECTED AS HEAD OF KOSMET KLUB

Martin, Kennedy to Serve As Assistants for Ensuing Term.

Bob Shellenberg, senior in Arts and Sciences, will serve as president of Kosmet Klub for this coming year. The Klub recently elected Ross Martin, senior in business administration, as business manager, and Roy Kennedy, also a senior in business administration, as secretary-treasurer. All three are Innocents.

CROOKS FEATURED IN CONCERT SEASON AS SALES DRIVE BEGINS

Greater Lincoln Music Course Offers Seven Musical Attractions.

Drive for the sale of student tickets for the Greater Lincoln music course will begin Monday, Sept. 21. This course consists of seven concerts to be given during the year, four of which are directed by Richard Crooks and feature famous artists. The other three will be concerts given by the Lincoln orchestra under the direction of Leo Kucinski. Programs will be given in St. Paul church and at the Liberty theatre.

BAND RECEIVES NEW UNIFORMS

Work on the 1936 Kosmet Klub fall revue, to be held sometime before Christmas, will get under way a week from Tuesday, when the first meeting will be held. Workers for membership into the club will also apply that week.

HOME EC ASSOCIATION TO ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Miss Buxman Invites All New Ag Students to Attend Affair.

Invitation is extended all new home economics students to attend the home economics association tea this Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the home economics parlors on the ag campus. Faculty members in the department have been extended special invitations to be present.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Stanley Whitson left Sunday for Storrs, Connecticut to accept a fellowship in dairy production at the agricultural college there. He will receive his Masters Degree there in a year. He graduated from the Agricultural college last spring as a dairy major. He is a member of Gamma Sigma Delta, agriculture honor society.

"I'VE SEEN YOUR LIKES IN INDIA," JOSHI SAYS

Exchange Professor Reminds American Students That Civilization Was Not Begun by Colonies' War of Rebellion.

BY BARBARA ROSEWATER.

On returning to the university after an absence of ten years, Prof. Shamras Joshi of the University of Bombay, confessed that the most surprising thing to him about Nebraska students is their complete resemblance to students in India. Alike in degree of noise, study, lack of study, and general habits was the professor's summary of the similarity.

"If there is one message that I would give to American students today," Prof. Joshi stated, "I would remind them that the history of civilization did not begin with the war for American independence." Prof. Joshi, who used to teach comparative religion at Nebraska as an exchange professor from the University of Bombay, is a Brahmin, a high caste Hindu, born of Christian convert parents, and raised in a Moslem province. He received his education at the Universities of Bombay, Oxford and Columbia, and for twelve years taught at Dartmouth. His present address is International House, University of Chicago. In short he is the original man-who-has-been-here.

—From the Lincoln Journal. Prof. Shamras Joshi, exchange professor from the University of Bombay, is a Brahmin, a high caste Hindu, born of Christian convert parents, and raised in a Moslem province. He received his education at the Universities of Bombay, Oxford and Columbia, and for twelve years taught at Dartmouth. His present address is International House, University of Chicago. In short he is the original man-who-has-been-here.

REGISTRAR SETS DROP, ADD DEADLINE TUES. EVENING

Students wishing to drop and add courses must do so sometime before Tuesday evening, registrar Florence McGahey announced Saturday. The assignment committee will meet in Grant Memorial hall both Monday and Tuesday to accommodate students wishing to make changes in registration. The deadline on graduate registration has been set at Oct. 3.

FUNK GETS FINAL APPROVAL ON APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Definite word was received Saturday informing staff members of the Daily Nebraskan that their application for membership in the Collegiate Digest association had been granted and that the first copy would be sent immediately. This addition to the regular material of the campus publication will enlarge the Sunday edition to approximately 16 pages, business manager Bob Funk, estimated, on receiving word of the grant.

INNOCENTS SHIFT DATE FOR PEP KING TRYOUTS

Candidates to Be Coached At Practice Sessions Before Decision.

Tryouts for cheerleader will be held next Tuesday, at 3:30 o'clock rather than Monday, according to Bob Shellenberg, chairman of the Innocent yell king committee. Several sessions will be held during which instruction will be given with the final decision probably to come at the end of this week.

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

New Director 'Impressed' By Quality of Early Try-Outs.

First rehearsal of the university glee club under the direction of W. G. Tempel will be held Monday at 5 o'clock in room 219 Morrill hall. William Gant was named accompanist of the group.

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

Thirty-six prospective journalists signed up for freshman reporter berths on the Daily Nebraskan at a news writing class held Saturday morning. Members of the staff gave elementary instruction in the structure and style of the news story as well as to explain the functions and departments of the student daily.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

Average Number of Sales Higher Than Former Years—Hayes.

Approximately 1,100 copies of the N book were sold by noon Saturday. C. D. Hayes, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. The greater portion of the sales were made to the freshmen at the Temple and at Ellen Smith hall.

FRESHMAN LECTURE

Freshman lecture students must present seat assignment tickets at first meeting of class, Monday, 5:00 p. m. or Tuesday, 8:00 a. m. Any one not already supplied may obtain the necessary assignment ticket at Freshman Lecture office, Former Museum, Room 103, on Monday at 11:00 a. m. or from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m.

TASSELS EXTEND PLAYERS TICKET SALES CAMPAIGN

Pep Society Expects to Hang Up Record as Drive Continues.

The Tassel drive to sell University Players tickets will be continued until five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22, according to an announcement made by Margaret Phillippe, president of Tassels, at a meeting of the group Saturday. The six weeks, previously scheduled to end Saturday, Sept. 19, has so far been the most successful in the history of the Tassel organization.

NEWLY UNIFORMED CORNHUSKER BAND TO DRILL TUESDAY

Instrumentation Finished in Junior Division, Quick States.

Instrumentation in the junior band, Nebraska's new military musical unit on the campus this year, has been almost completed according to reports from senior band director, W. T. Quick, and director of the junior band, Charles Ledwith.

HOME EC ASSOCIATION TO ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Miss Buxman Invites All New Ag Students to Attend Affair.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Stanley Whitson left Sunday for Storrs, Connecticut to accept a fellowship in dairy production at the agricultural college there. He will receive his Masters Degree there in a year. He graduated from the Agricultural college last spring as a dairy major. He is a member of Gamma Sigma Delta, agriculture honor society.

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

New Director 'Impressed' By Quality of Early Try-Outs.

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FRESHMAN LECTURE MEETING SET FOR TUESDAY EVENING

Addresses, Introduction of Officers to Feature Program.

All unaffiliated men on the campus are requested to attend the barb mass meeting to be held in Social Sciences auditorium Tuesday night, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p. m., according to Wilbur Beesley, president of the barb interclub council.

Principal speakers of the evening will be Prof. E. W. Lantz, and Harold Petz. Professor Lantz will give a brief talk of the history and purpose of the interclub council, while Mr. Petz will outline the athletic activities for the coming year and also explain the function of the new point system which is to be inaugurated this year.

NEWLY UNIFORMED CORNHUSKER BAND TO DRILL TUESDAY

Instrumentation Finished in Junior Division, Quick States.

Instrumentation in the junior band, Nebraska's new military musical unit on the campus this year, has been almost completed according to reports from senior band director, W. T. Quick, and director of the junior band, Charles Ledwith.

HOME EC ASSOCIATION TO ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Miss Buxman Invites All New Ag Students to Attend Affair.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Stanley Whitson left Sunday for Storrs, Connecticut to accept a fellowship in dairy production at the agricultural college there. He will receive his Masters Degree there in a year. He graduated from the Agricultural college last spring as a dairy major. He is a member of Gamma Sigma Delta, agriculture honor society.

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

New Director 'Impressed' By Quality of Early Try-Outs.

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

1500 Freshmen Take Entrance Vows Thursday

Upwards of 1500 freshmen will be formally initiated into the university on next Thursday, Sept. 24, at 11 a. m., official announcement from the office of the dean of student affairs stated yesterday. Freshmen classes will be dismissed at 11 o'clock in order that the entire class of 1940 may attend the ceremonies in the coliseum.

This annual convocation at which the neophytes coming to the university for the first time officially become full-fledged collegians is conducted by Innocents, men's senior honorary. Part of the program is also provided and directed by Mortar Boards, women's honorary.

Arrangements incomplete. According to Truman Oberndorf, Innocent heading the convocation committee, only skeleton arrangements have as yet been made for the big freshmen assembly. Campus satellites who have already been contacted concerning the affair are Chancellor E. A. Burnett, T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs, and Amanda Heppner, dean of women.

TASSELS EXTEND PLAYERS TICKET SALES CAMPAIGN

Pep Society Expects to Hang Up Record as Drive Continues.

The Tassel drive to sell University Players tickets will be continued until five o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 22, according to an announcement made by Margaret Phillippe, president of Tassels, at a meeting of the group Saturday. The six weeks, previously scheduled to end Saturday, Sept. 19, has so far been the most successful in the history of the Tassel organization.

NEWLY UNIFORMED CORNHUSKER BAND TO DRILL TUESDAY

Instrumentation Finished in Junior Division, Quick States.

Instrumentation in the junior band, Nebraska's new military musical unit on the campus this year, has been almost completed according to reports from senior band director, W. T. Quick, and director of the junior band, Charles Ledwith.

HOME EC ASSOCIATION TO ENTERTAIN AT TEA

Miss Buxman Invites All New Ag Students to Attend Affair.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

Stanley Whitson left Sunday for Storrs, Connecticut to accept a fellowship in dairy production at the agricultural college there. He will receive his Masters Degree there in a year. He graduated from the Agricultural college last spring as a dairy major. He is a member of Gamma Sigma Delta, agriculture honor society.

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

New Director 'Impressed' By Quality of Early Try-Outs.

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.

WHITSON TAKES FELLOWSHIP WITH CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

TEMPLE CALLS INITIAL GLEE CLUB REHEARSAL

PROSPECTIVE JOURNALISTS TO RECEIVE INSTRUCTION IN NEWS WRITING.

FROSH BUY 1,100 COPIES OF CAMPUS HANDY BOOK

AVERAGE NUMBER OF SALES HIGHER THAN FORMER YEARS—HAYES.