

THE MERRY-GO-ROUND

CLIMB ON
Home economics teachers for freshmen girls, 3 to 5 o'clock Sunday, in the home economics parlors on ag campus.
All university church night, Friday.

WE GET A SOCK IN THE EYE
Freshman girls stole a march on campus fashion moguls when cheerily to school Thursday they wore ankle socks over ultra thin hose. Top fashion magazines advocate anklets for coed wear and what a help these little fellows will be when the wind starts whistling between Teachers college and "Soak." If the fad gets a good start, followers of the pigskin had better watch their wardrobes, because football socks will probably be the next leap ahead.

SUPER SALESWOMEN IN TICKET MIX.
Tassels applied such tremendous vim and vigor to their university ticket sales drive, that it resulted in a near financial crisis for one professor. Approached by one enthusiastic young lady, he bought several tickets and gave her a check in payment. Arriving at home that evening he found that his wife had bought the same tickets from another scarlet and cream saleswoman. The affair was satisfactorily straightened out after numerous phone calls and explanations but it proved that the Tassels were really on the job—doing double duty!

GIRLS INVITED TO HOME EC TEA.
New students enrolled in the home economics department will be entertained this afternoon at a tea from 3 until 5 o'clock in the home economics parlors on ag campus. Special invitations have been issued to members of the faculty. Pastel colors and flowers will be used in carrying out decorations and table appointments for the tea. Marjory Tye is general chairman in charge of arrangements for the affair and assisting her are Althea Barada, Filnor McFadden, and Elsie Buxman.

TWINS INVADE UNIVERSITY HALL.
We thought that we were seeing double but it turned out to be the Steuteville twins, Mary and Fern, from South Sioux City. Alike as two new shoes for the same foot, they told their story in a duet. Blue eyed and blonde they nodded affirmation of the fact that they measured out weighed the same, always dressed alike and both played the piano. Here a slight disagreement between the two ensued. Mary insisted that Fern played better than she did, but after a huddle they decided that the difference was not noticeable. The usual twin question about date switching sent them into gales of laughter. "We've tried it," said they, "but it never worked out satisfactorily."

FRESHMEN ATTEND FACULTY RECEPTION.
Friday evening Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett stood at the head of the receiving line of the faculty reception, greeting University of Nebraska freshmen. Members of Mortar Board and Innocents, senior honoraries for men and women, assisted at the affair, held in Morrill hall. Refreshments were served.

WE SWING INTO BLIND DATE SEASON
Now that the smoke has cleared away and Nebraska freshmen have come through the first week of "Dragging Blind" as the West Point cadets so subtly put it, fraternity men have decided that the plan not only has plenty of future but is good for a couple of hearty chuckles from any angle. The old gags about "smooth dancer" and "personality plus" are still making the rounds and as the odds are a good five-to-one that she really will be a "stop and stare" the grooks are setting sail into uncharted waters. With some surprising results: Pi Phi, told that boy is short, feels reasonably sure that her five feet will be just right, finds to dismay that when he said short he was thinking of a yardstick. Boy finds he has two dates in same house, but not until both descend the stairs at once! The boy being swell Joe takes both... and likes it! And there are the continued stories (to be concluded next month) with that well worn Nebraska line doing double and triple duty in the search for brand new talent. Second week may bring disillusion or that grand and glorious feeling when you find out HE meant that famous last word, "I'll call you soon!"

mild ripe tobacco

... nobody ever made a good cigarette without it

Mild... Chesterfield tobacco is mild... not strong, not harsh, not bitter... but pleasing to the taste.

Ripe... Chesterfield tobacco is ripe... ripe like a big juicy apple hanging on the tree... full of good flavor.

The mild ripe Turkish tobacco used for Chesterfield Cigarettes adds a pleasing aroma and taste.
