church, Dr. Paul Calhoun, the pastor, will preach on the subject "There is a place for you in this large world," and Dr. Wilhelm K. Pfeiler, professor of Germanic languages at the university, will lead the forum discussion at the 6:30 student meeting.

Rev. Alexander M. Allen of Columbia, South America, will be the guest speaker at the morning service in the Second Presbyterian church. Arrangements have been made for the students at the Second church to attend a young people's retreat at Crete, Neb.

The Westminster church will open its program at a Sunday evening fellowship. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock followed by a vesper service at which Dr. Paul Johnson will be assisted by Robert B. Henry and Dr. Charles H. Patterson.

At the First Plymouth Congregational, the university choir will make its first appearance. "God, the Father" will be the morning tonic of Rev. R. A. McConnell.

Vesper services at the Vine Congregational will be held at 5 o'clock. Jerry and Dan Williams, who were representatives at the youth conference in Geneva, Switzerland, will report on the convention.

"The religion of doing something about it" will be the Sunday morning subject of Rev. R. E. Hunt, at the First Christian church.

At the University Episcopal, Rev. L. W. McMillin will speak on "Education." Rev. W. G. Rembolt will give special recognition to young people by his sermon "Essentials of an education" at the First Evangelical church.

Most of the 10 Lutheran churches are giving suitable observance to university people. At the St. James church, Rev. R. E. Rangelier will talk on "The Apostles Creed."

Miss Rowen Ellis will lead the Sunday school at the First Baptist on "The immortal discussion." In the church service the special student choir will sing several numbers before the morning sermon by Dr. R. E. Sturdevant. Between 6 and 8 o'clock in the evening the young people will meet for a social time and discussion which will be led by Roger Williams.

At the morning service of the Second Baptist church Rev. Max Burke will address his congregation on "The most important thing in the world—character." A

TAFT'S SON TO SPEAK IN LINCOLN THIS WEEK

Student of Government to Talk at Public Meeting Wednesday.

Charles P. Taft, 38 year old son of the late William Howard Taft and a recognized student of American government, will speak at a public meeting at 8 o'clock at the Lincoln hotel ballroom on Wednesday evening, September 30. Sponsors have invited any interested students to attend.

Although the subject of Mr. Taft's speech will be announced later, it will deal mainly with certain phases of the merit system as it affects our civil service in our national government.

Mr. Taft, while an undergraduate at Yale university, was a football tackle, basketball captain, a president of his chapter in Phi Beta Kappa, prominent in Y. M. C. A. activities, and the winner of the Francis Gordon Brown award for "good scholarship and high manhood." During the World war Mr. Taft enlisted as a buck private in the army and returned from France as a first lieutenant. He then finished his law course at Yale in 1921 and stayed on through the football season as a line coach. Mr. Taft was the speaker at a Public Affairs Luncheon at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce several years ago.

Dr. Mabel Strong of the English faculty had an article printed in the September issue of the periodical Word entitled "Misunderstood Words."
