Bierman Expects Competition From Huskers

GREEK INTERCLUB GRID PLAY GLIDES PAST FIRST CANTO

Sig Alph, ATO, Sig Ep, Beta, Farm House Win Second Round Tussles.

Still featuring smooth play, the second round of the Greek grid campaign glided along Friday with no defaults and upsets.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon dumped Alpha Sigma Phi's apples with a 13-0 tally. Ludwick and Shanek stood out for the victors and Wagner and Smith for the humbled.

By a lone touchdown the A. T. O. outfit downed a stubborn Sig Chi aggregation 7-0. Pavay luminized for the Alpha Taus and Thomas for the Sig Chi's.

Sig Ep stopped the Beta Sigs dead in their tracks as Elliott and green led a 20-0 attack.

The big billed game of the afternoon starred Galloway of the Farm House whose team tromped the Deltas 13-0. Parsons did the best work for the conquered.

Beta, as usual, came out on the big end deal over Kappa Sig, 8-0. Woolery was hot for the Beta gang as was Miller, Barney and Davis for the G. S. lads.

HANEY WILL SPEAK ON MIZZOU CAMPUS

Engineering Head Goes to Columbia to Address A. S. M. E. Group.

Bound for the University of Missouri campus at Columbia, Prof. Jiles W. Haney, chairman of the department of mechanical engineering, left Lincoln early Friday morning. He was to lead a discussion of student problems of the University of Missouri student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineering, Friday night.

Professor Haney is a delegate from the paternal organization of A. S. M. E. He will try to straighten out any troubles the Missouri branch may have encountered, answer questions, and supply general information. After he finishes his discussion, he will entertain the society by showing them motion pictures that he took this summer of Mexico City and the Pan-American highway.

METHODISTS HEAR DEPUTATION TEAM

"Being Christian" is the topic on which the deputation team of the Wesley Foundation will talk when they take charge of the league services at the Lincoln Heights Methodist church, Sunday evening.

The team, which is sponsored by Rev. Robert Drew, is composed of university students from all of the city Methodist churches. Miss Dorothy Anderson will preside at the service Sunday evening, assisted by Maxine Thomas, Mable Soderholm and Ruth Luers.

Broady Addresses Session To Improve High Schools

"Some steps in improving the small high school" was the subject of Dr. K. O. Broady's address Friday at the 23rd conference on educational administration and supervision at the University of Iowa. Dr. Broady is professor of school administration.

WRITES 'SECRETS' FOR TEAM FROM PRESS BOX

Pessimistic Gopher Coach Talks Little, Notes Much As He Scouts Nebraska 34-0 Victory Over Ames; Calls Scarlet 'Fine Team.'

By MORRIS LIPP.

As incommunicado as the proverbial clam, Bernie Bierman, Minnesota football maestro, sat in the press box during the Ames-Husker tilt coolly surveying the Cornhuskers who will tangle with the Gophers at Minneapolis next Saturday.

Blue eyes twinkling, Bierman remarked after the game that "Nebraska has a swell team," and that "Minnesota is expecting much from them in the line of competition." Beyond that, Bierman wouldn't say much regarding the game.

"Nice afternoon, eh?" "Good afternoon, Bernie," was Coach Bible's greeting when Bierman came down to the dressing room. "Congratulations, D. X., that was a fine game this afternoon," Bierman remarked. "It looks like we'll have a good scrap next Saturday, doesn't it?"

Thus runs the public conversation of two nationally famous grid coaches when they meet. Neither one talks much and virtually nothing is said. But, we add, plenty will be done next Saturday in Minneapolis, proving, therefore, that the coaches' creed is "action speaks from Lincoln Journal louder than words." If there is any doubt to this maxim, consider Bierman's record at Minnesota for the last three years . . . 18 consecutive wins and Nebraska stands in the Gophers' way toward establishing a new record in national grid history.

Secrets Aren't Nice. Bierman personally scouted the Ames-Husker tilt. He writes in that peculiar left-handed manner and just what he wrote to take back to his Gophers is his secret. Smoking one cigarette after another, Bierman hardly spoke to anyone in the press box, but contented himself with jotting down notes on the Huskers.

Coach Bible begins Monday, now that Iowa State is out of the way, with the grid concentration centered on Minnesota. Even tho Bierman appears to be more optimistic about Nebraska's chances of beating the Gophe's than he is confident that his own team will win, next Saturday's game will be one of the nation's headlines.

BASEBALL PRACTICE BEGINS MONDAY FOR ELIGIBLE VARSITY MEN

All Those Not Participating in Fall Sports Are Asked to Report.

A three weeks fall baseball practice for eligible varsity men will start Monday, Oct. 5, at the Ag college diamond where all those not participating in fall sports will be expected to report. Coaches find the outlook for a winning team next spring as excellent.

A strong team is expected next spring with last year's frosh and reserves as a brace in batteries for the varsity's return of 13 letter-men: Paul Amen, first base; Howard Baker, second base; Ivan Borman, shortstop; Eddie George, third base; Clom Sundstrom, utility infielder; Vincent Jacobson, outfielder; Elmer Dohrmann, outfielder; Leonard Hoegemeyer, outfielder of three years ago; Lloyd Wampler, pitcher; Allan Turner, catcher, and Don Flasnick, catcher. In addition Cleve Trimble, an outfielder, may participate.

Reserve Roster Encouraging. Reserves from last year include: Ray Atwood, pitcher; Ray Volk, pitcher; Dale Jensen, pitcher; Don Cunningham, outfielder; Walter Ziegenbein, pitcher; Phil Naviaux, second base; Norman Hillyear, second base, and Floyd Mehan, first base.

Frosh from last year include: Floyd Bond, catcher; Darrell Braun, catcher; Lester Schmadeke, pitcher; Frank Gilna, pitcher; Glen Sheely, third base; Melvin Erickson, second base; Ervina Kline, outfielder, and James Leffler, outfielder.

Johnny Howell and Lowell English are catchers who plan to play next spring. Harris Andrews, pitcher, and Virg Yelkins, infielder, also will make their bid.

The schedule for next spring is not definitely arranged but will include three games with Oklahoma at Lincoln, two with Missouri at Lincoln, two or four with Iowa State, and two with Minnesota. A spring vacation trip south is a possibility.

Dr. J. E. Alexis, chairman of the Germanics department, spoke in Omaha recently before the Spanish club, at the German day celebration and at the Mexican festival. Dr. Alexis addressed them in the respective language of the groups.
