

Campus CAPS and GOWNS

IT'S A QUESTION OF FITNESS BOTH IN LINE AND TIME that determines the smartness of the college gal. We all know the ethereal southern type with the below-Mason-Dixon line accent (lost in moments of extreme stress) and the lush clinging vine, 'ou great big mans variety. But fortunately, or unfortunately, depending on the way you judge it, the average American girl is best, being herself. Her strong hold is a kind of zest for living, and her greatest forte, a healthy vivacity that rings with sincerity. It's well, then, in cultivating that line every freshman thinks essential, to remember that it shouldn't be all line. Suit those bits of conversation to your personality. Most people are quick to detect insincerity.

Back from the Minnesota game, and still in a bit of dither over the rounds of night life and the wearing effects of the student special, you'll be wanting to send your clothes to Evan's Cleaners for a complete rejuvenation. Call Evan's and ask them to come for that knit suit, or the dejected date gown. You'll be surprised at the difference, before and after.

Rawther sporting, eh what? That lack of jealousy that exists in the Chi Phi house, Ben Gund takes Frances Knuteson here and there of an evening, and Gordon Uhrie takes her moonward during the day. Incidentally, Vera Mae Peterson's former o. a. o., John Brown dates La Knuteson now and then too.

suit with high collar of light-colored fox. Clad in this ensemble, with its tuxedo-front jacket, Miss Eggers headed for Omaha and the Ak-Sar-Ben ball Friday evening.

BURNETT STYLE SHOPPE is showing pretty party dresses, also campus dresses and coats. Student charge accounts welcomed.

When pledges at the A. O. P. house were forced to eat bread and water under the dining tables for their noon meal recently, they immediately went here to dine. They ordered beans, and the joke was on them, for when they came back to the house for the evening meal they found their plates filled with three varieties of the same vegetable.

Now that Louise Magee is spending her time in the company of Beta Phi Ogan, what has become of erstwhile Charles Riley? Another late summer break is rumored.

Mary Jo Henn, Delta Delta Delta pledge, has quite a time with her two Delta Upsilon friends. So far it has worked out quite well, however. On Friday evening she goes in company with Pledge Ralph Tyler, and on Saturday evening she dates another former high school friend, Leonard Dunker.
