SEEN ON THE CAMPUS.

Allan Brinkman's navy blue overcoat with white pin stripe plaid. . . . Two boys sprinting down the middle of 14th st. . . . Jane Sawyer red hatted, a modern version of Robin Hood. . . . Prof. Cochran announcing his next descentence from Paul Reveré. . . . Mary Anna Cooke taking notes busily in the library at noon. . . . Johnny Bottorf and Jimmie Nelson moving into the new Delta Theta house, Mr. Bottorf wearing three hats. . . . Charles Campbell denouncing Edgar Allan Poe. . . . Bob Moose leaving class quietly midway in the hour and forgetting his overcoat, necessitating immediate return. . . . Vera Wekesser and Eleanor Rogers making complimentary remarks about the weather. . . . Campus reaching transition point between trees with leaves and cold looking bare branches. . . . Bill Cochran driving around the Mall with that determined look that signifies on-the-way-home-to-lunch. . . . And general wide awake look on Monday probably showing that it was too cold to sleep in class.

Jane Ettinger Pledges A. O. Pi.

Jane Ettinger is a new pledge of Alpha Omicron Pi instead of Alpha Delta Theta as was stated erroneously in the Daily Nebraskan, Friday, Oct. 30.

Barkes-Shields.

At 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, Oct. 30, Alaire Barkes and Charles Shields were married in Lincoln. Both are graduates of the university where Miss Barkes was May Queen in 1936, president of Mortar Board and a member of Chi Omega. Mr. Shields is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Phi Mu Alumnae To Hold Dessert Supper.

Mrs. Paul Karnes will entertain members of the Phi Mu alumnae organization at a dessert supper at her home tonight. Twenty members are expected to attend the supper and business meeting which will follow. Opal Dillon is in charge of the business meeting.

Alpha Phi to Honor Mrs. Brackett.

Mrs. Brackett, district governor of Alpha Phi, arrived Sunday to spend several days visiting the local chapter. Wednesday evening the alumnae organization will entertain in her honor at dinner at the home of Mrs. O. R. Martin. Committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Larry Becker, Mrs. William W. Carveth, Mrs. Vivian Baker, Eloise Andrews, Mrs. William Dalton, Mrs. Harry Pecha, Mrs. Fritz Van Gossman and Mrs. Jack Zimmer. Members of the pledge class will also be guests at the dinner.

ROOSEVELT, LANDON RELAX TO WATCH AMERICA BALLOT

(Continued from Page 1.) on the same stage. He too, has taken the leading role in the drama, "Republicans and Economy," and he has spoken his lines equally well. Making surprising plans to appear in states considered to be "in the bag" by his competing company, and appearing in those states which his director considers most strategic, Governor Landon has traveled over 20,000 miles with his show. He too, has made his bow to the audience from coast to coast and is now relaxing, somewhat hopefully, in his home at Topeka. Likewise, sometime throughout the day he will journey with his friends to the poll and cast his vote.

Both candidates are confident that they will be the one chosen to play the leading role in the drama named, "The President of the United States in the Next Four Years." Main director, James A. Farley says that his show has been outstanding and that his man will "sweep" the nation's voters to be chosen for the important role. And on the other stage, young, alert, John M. Hamilton, director of the other great drama, predicts a "victory parade" and a "victory tide" for the presentation of his star showman, Rivalry Bryan-Roosevelt Campaign.

It has been a bitter campaign, "glittering generalities" have dominated the words of both participants, and histories must be thumbed back to the election of 1896, when Williams Jennings Bryan and Theodore Roosevelt were so evenly favored and matched, to find anything similar presented. Radio, fast transportation, and keen-witted strategy have marked this campaign to be the most costly in history. Together both companies have spent over $13,000,000 on their shows.

Sigma Alpha Mu Entertains Officer.

James Hammerstein of New York City, field secretary of Sigma Alpha Mu, has been a guest of the chapter on this campus for several days.

presidential candidate whose name ended with "on" that was not elected, might be mentioned by the republicans. First it was Washington, and Jefferson, Madison, Hamilton, Jackson, and Harrison. Will it be Land-on? But the democrats cannot allow this to be a granted fact. "Swopes law of off year election" is their example. With one exception, every election being held in the year ending with "6" has been decided by the betting odds weeks before the election. Betting odds on the present election are about 3 to 1 on Roosevelt. Will these laws hold true in this balloting? The drama has ended. Both sides have admitted that it has been a "great game of politics," a "bitter campaign," and a "strenuous ordeal." Today all will be over. Every one will vote as they have decided probably weeks ago. To the victor, let there be admiration, co-operation and inspiration. Today is the day—the big day.

PATTERSON SPEAKS AT VESPERS TONIGHT

"A Platform for Living" to Be Theme of Address by Guest Speaker. In accordance with the pending election, Dr. Charles H. Patterson of the philosophy department will speak on "A Platform for Living" at the Y. W. C. A. vesper service this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. Admission prices will be 40c and 20c. Frances Marshall, of the vesper staff, is in charge of the devotionals and will also introduce the speaker of the meeting. The vesper choir, under the direction of Margaret Phillippe, will present a special number. Virginia Tooke is in charge of the special music. Michigan State College imported two rams, a Shropshire and a Hampshire, from England this summer. The Hampshire is the most valuable since it was third prize yearling ram at the Royal English show.
