VOL. XXXVI-NO. 42.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1936.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

Husker Guns Set for Panther Kill; Torches Fire School Spirit Tonight

BONFIRE FEATURES RALLY AS CAMPUS PEP HITS NEW HIGH

Bible, Francis, Swanson, Frankforter to Address Ralliers: Coaches Ask Students Refrain from Spontaneous Outbreaks.

Smouldering since the sting of last year's defeat at the hands of the Panthers, that famous Cornhusker spirit is scheduled to burst into flame in all its vociferousness this evening, as members of the student body form for a rousing torchlight parade to be climaxed by the traditional Big Game bonfire rally

State Sheriffs to Patrol

Main Highways Saturday

Nine state deputy sheriffs will patrol all main highways leading to Lincoln Saturday before and after the Nebraska-Pittsburgh football game, according to State

Mr. Flake said that as a result

TRIP PITT-

FOR BIG SIX MEET

Nebraska at K. U.

of arrangements for the meet, invitations have been sent to over in the round-table discussions.

Dinner Opens Conference.

morning at various halls and meeting places on the campus. Roundjects as publications, student government, campus politics, student

(Continued on Page 3.)

TRIP PITT-

TO END FOUNDERS

DAY WITH DINNER

COMMERCE CLUB

Kansas university.

Sheriff William Flake.

in the arena behind the coliseum, O Organized and led by campus pep organizations, the rallying group will move off from the corner of 12th and R streets at 6:45 and will proceed up sorority row, and on to the mall behind the coliseum where they will see Coach Dana Bible throw the torch lighting the bonfire, and hear talks by members of the student body, the team, and faculty.

The evening demonstration will of strict patrolling of the high-be the only official rally of the day ways on other football Saturdays and students are asked to refrain there have been no accidents this from any displays of spirit thruout the morning or afternoon, but that such demonstrations be postponed for the following week when a letdown as a result of the tough assignment they have before the Committee Asks Co-operation.

Jane Walcott, Tassel member of the student rally committee, counselled the students of the university "to add your fire to the bonfire behind the coliseum tonight, instead of participating in small spontaneous rallies during "Complete co-operation with coach Bible is requested by the Frank Landis Represent Corn Cobs and rally committee. (Continued on Page 4.)

-TRIP PITT-

GILMORE ADVOCATES LIBERAL POLICIES OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

League of Women Voters 80 schools; however, they believe Hear Instructor in Economics.

In an address before members of the League of Women Voters Thursday afternoon at the Alpha last night, the Kansas group were Xi Delta house on "Reciprocal Trade Treaties and World Peace. Dr. E. A. Gilmore, jr., assistant professor of economics, said "It is a said commentary upon the economic literacy of the American people that the crude and patent fallacy that either nations or individuals can sell indefinitely with-out buying, should have been allowed for so long a period to form the basis of our international economic policy

'Under former Secretary of Commerce Hoover, every effort was made to ferret out foreign markets for our goods, but no (Continued on Page 3.)

-TRIP PITT-

KID PARTY DRAWS 160 TEACHERS, STUDENTS

Costumes and Buffet Supper to attend. Attract Educators to Ellen Smith.

Arriving in costumes reminiscent of their own kindergarten days, one hundred and sixty students and faculty members of the elementary education department held a buffet supper and "kid party" in Ellen Smith hall Thursday evening between six and eight usual costumes of the guests, a cats, broken mirrors, the moonO number of selections presented by over one's left shoulder, and so having the number 13 at least once a toy orchestra, and a group of on to all varieties and combination the license plates, there were in the license plates, there were stunts that were prepared by the Education 5 class of Miss Clars Having one of those dry nation-

the elementary education classes, exciting of subjects to those who Jane Van Sickle, chairman, Emd love the uncertain, is to be this: Gillett, Sylvia Corbel and Dorothy nothing ever happens on Friday. Johnson served as the committee the 13th. making arragements for the party. The faculty group was composed of Miss Clara Evans, Miss Hazel Davis, Miss Clara Wilson, and Miss ber is 13, about 13 years ago when Norma Gillett. The faculty of the one of the present inmates of this Bancroft school were also present.

-TRIP PITT-

BURNETT ATTENDS MEET OF LAND-GRANT COLLEGES

Chancellor, Faculty Members Leave Saturday for Houston, Tex.

Chancellor E. A. Burnett of the university will leave Saturday evening for Houston, Tex., where he will attend the annual meeting of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Experiment Stations on Monday, Tuesday and Wednes-

Others attending from Nebraska will be Dean O. J. Ferguson, Dean W. W. Burr, Director W. H. Brokaw, and Miss Margarett Fedde. Thursday and Friday Chancellor Burnett will attend the annual meeting of the Association of State Universities at Austin,

TRIP PITT-

Creighton Professor Talks Before Monthly Meeting at University Club.

Dr. Victor E. Levine of Creighton university, termed by close university associates as a "brilliant speaker and noted authority on the Indians and Eskimos along the coasts of Alaska," will address tional honorary scholastic frater-nity, next Monday evening. His talk will follow a dinner to be held results of a heavy student vote members of Phi Beta Kappa, na-

Misses Bennett, Banjamin, o'clock "Medical Adventures in the Land vulged until the intermission of of the Eskimos." In speaking of the affair which will celebrate an Dr. Levine, Dr. Nels A. Beng said, "He has had intimate contact Three Student Council members, with the Alaskan tribes and has Genevieve Bennett, Frank Landis, especially viewed them with an and Eloise Benjamin, left by train eye for diseases. His experiences yesterday to attend the annual Big have given him a wealth of mate-

Six conference held this year at terial for his talk."

Heads Expeditions. These meetings held by one of Twice the Creighton professor the Big Six schools are attended has headed government expediby student council members from tions to Alaska, penetrating to the most of the universities and col-northermost points. He has spent leges in the midwestern section of much time at Point Barrow, the the country. According to a report outpost of broadcast latitude in from the Kansas group in charge

(Continued on Page 3.) TRIP PITT

MISS PAGE SPEAKS TO that it will be the representatives of the conference schools who will lead and take the most active part PSI CHI NEXT MONDAY Opening the conference officially hosts at an opening dinner and welcoming in the Student Union Welfare Official Discusses building. Group discussions of Psychological Aspects campus problems will begin this of Her Work. tables will be held on such sub-

"Psychological Aspects of the Work of the State Guild Welfare is to be the topic dis-Bureau" cussed at the regular open meeting of Psi Chi, national honorary phychological fraternity on Monday, Nov. 16, at 4:00 in Social Science 224. Miss L. Page of the State Child Welfare Bureau will deliver the address, which all students and faculty members interested in Delta Sigma Pi, professional psychology are invited to hear, commerce fraternity, will climax Mr. George Thornton, assistant its observance of the annual instructor in the psychology de-Founders day with a banquet Sat- partment, is president of Psi Chi urday evening. Dinner will be Mrs. Ada Jorgensen is secretary held at the chapter house at 1527 and Rowena Swenson serves the fraternity as treasurer. M street, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Guest speaker will be G. H. Regular meetings of the honor-Wright, grand secretary-treasurer ary psychology group are held of Chicago, who will discuss brief- every three weeks. Membership of by Chicago, who will discuss the studied by schol-ty, "Principles of Delta Sigma Pi." the group is determined by schol-About 35 members are expected arship and activity in the field and Richard, Harmon Rider Win Warless World."

is restricted by election. -TRIP PITT--TRIP PITT-FRIDAY THE 13TH-NOTHING

By Ed Murray.

Friday the thirteenth is double duty day for the dupes of superstition. Main topics for conversation among the supersti-The evening's program included tious sages are all of the ways Fate uses to frustrate the purthe awarding of three prizes, for poses of man. These prophets of impending doom distribute the cutest, cleverest, and most undither concerning such commonplace things as ladders, black al temperaments, however, our Elected by the combined vote of humble theme on this, the most Thirteens Galore.

Up in Cedar county, whose numillustrious institution was 13 years old, a party of people went on a vacation trip. In the two cars, both exactly 13 people. The cars left for the Black Hills on Friday the 13th This 13 day tour of scenic spots turned out to be the deadest, the drabest, most uneventful trip that can be imagined. Because of the lack of excitement, coincidence, or calamity the party decided that 13 was truly an unlucky number. Pooh, there is nothing about 13 that is unlucky. Johnny Howell, number 13 on the team, is neither luckier nor unluckier than any other player; he has probably been group. (Continued on Page 3.)

BARBS TO REVEAL MISS CORNHUSKER AT HOP SATURDAY

Heavy Student Vote Names 9 o'clock. First Queen of Annual Barb Council Ball.

"Who is Miss Cornhusker?" Amid pomp and ceremony Ne-braska's first "Miss Cornhusker" will be royally coronated before the gay and celebrating dancers at RED PERKINS.

at the University club at six have been tabulated, the name of clock.
Subject of the speech will be, number of votes will not be di-

TRIP PITT-

MEMORIAL SERVICE

HONORS WORLD WAR DEAD AT PITT GAME

Force of 700 to March on Grid Field in Annual Dedication.

An annual memorial service will be dedicated to the World war dead on the stadium field preceding the Pitt game Saturday when organizations representing the cadet and army corps will form to play taps and fire three volleys in salute. University's military staff, varsity band, Tassels, Pershing Rifles, and 400 visiting American Legionnaires will compose the Units will form at 1:30 and march on the field. Colonel Eager and the student staff will lead the parade, followed by the national and post colors. Nebraska's varsity band will follow and the Tassels, girls pep organization, will (Continued on Page 2.)

TRIP PITT-

$15 for Most Original Idea in Contest.

For submitting the most original plan for the presentation of the honorary colonel at the mili-EVER HAPPENS, OR DOES IT? tary ball, Richard and Harmon Rider will receive the fifteen dollars prize money offered by the military department. The mittee, which made its decision Wednesday night, announced that the idea was exceptionally unusual. Honorable mentions for the man, Francis Koehnke, Paul L. Bogen, Charles E. Jolitz, Jeanette Osborne, Gordon Uhri, and

Gideon Wick. Members of the committee are Cadet Col. George Eager, chairman, Cadet Lieut. Col. John Jarmin, Cadet Captain Delford Brummer, Cadet Captain Gordon Hobart, Cadet Captain Jasper H. Knoll, Cadet Captain Robert Mowbray, Cadet 1st Lieut. Jerome H. Berggren, Cadet 1st Lieut. Jack Bosse, and Cadet 1st Lieut. John L. Dworak, Major equine Lewis Cass. Charles E. Speer is advisor of the

-TRIP PITT-

Lincoln's Mayor to Relate Life of His Famous Brother Friday.

Delian-Union members will hear Mayor Charles W. Bryan speak on the life history of his famous brother, the late William Jennings Bryan, at their meeting tonight at guests will engage in a social hour of dancing and games, after which refreshments will be served. The party has a "hard-luck theme, and all of those attending it must come in appropriate costumes.

Chaperons for the evening are Miss Vera Rigdon and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Aakhus.

-TRIP PITT-

ANNOUNCED; PLAY 1936 FALL REVUE

Winners Revealed Following Final Judgings of Last Night.

Fifteen fraternity and sorority skits that will play in the 1936 Kosmet Klub Fall Revue were announced late last night following final judgings of Klub members. Those who are included

Pershing Rifles Ag College Cafeteria Alpha Chi Omega Men's Glee Club Kappa Sigma Sigma Phi Epsilon Delta Delta Delta Kappa Kappa Gamma Kappa Alpha Phi Kappa Psi Beta Theta Pi Alpha Tau Omega-Phi Deita Theta

Carrie Belle Raymond Pi Beta Phi Kappa Delta On Saturday, Nov. 21, these winners will present their skits before a university and Lincoln audi-(Continued on Page 3.)

-TRIP PITT-

RELIGIOUS DELEGATES REPORT ON CONCLAVE

Welfare Council Plans for December Dinner at Noon Luncheon.

Hearing reports of the summer conference at Lakeside, Ohio, and making plans for the December dinner, the Council of Religious Welfare met Thursday noon in the Grand hotel with an exceptionally fine attendance.

With Miss Lulu Runge presiding the council voted to make last AG BOARDING CLUB year's successful December dinner an annual affair, and to send Dr Edward A. Steiner, who will at that time be in Lincoln on a lecture tour, an invitation to speak Heustis. Conference." "Christian Fellowship with the Christian Youth of Moseman and Wayne Domingo. North America," and on the work

-TRIP PITT-

DELIAN-UNION TO HEAR HISTORY OF W. J. BRYAN HUSKERS PROMISE INVADING ELEVEN TOUGH AFTERNOON

After the address, members and Biblemen Greet Nebraskan Reporter with Resolute Predictions of Mighty Battle as Pitt Tours West for Intersectional Headliner.

> When an irresistible force meets an immovable object, something has to give way. And that's about the sum of the pending Pitt-Husker battle royal, Pitt may be the irresistible force and Nebraska may be the immovable object, but the question is whether or not the force can be resisted or the object can be

-TRIP PITT-

SHAPE, LOCATION

Planning Committee Gives Final Report Saturday Morning.

University planning committee will submit its report to the Board of Regents tomorrow morning to aid in the final selection of site and type for the proposed Student Union building. settlement of these important questions are expected at this meeting in order to enable actual construction to begin by January 11, 1937, the date set in the $180. 000 PWA grant officially accepted last week.

Altho the regents will undoubt-edly accept the E-shaped building as planned, the question of the us to inspect the union buildings rolled at Nebraska. at three of our neighboring universities. (Continued on Page 2.)

-TRIP PITT-

NAMES SIX MEN TO INTERCLUB COUNCIL Ag Cafeteria Boarding club

eak. Three students reviewing the organization in the Barb Interclub Lakeside conference were Caro-line Kile, Dick Webb, and Harold ing a meeting Thursday evening. Kile, Dick Webb, and Italian Street Street, and Italian Street St Byrle Shuck and Robert Simof the commission group which mons, council members, discussed studied the subject "Building a the activities and work of the inthe activities and work of the interclub council.

-TRIP PITT-

(Continued on Page 3).

ARNDT, DEIN. STOKE WINNERS IN AWGWAN POPULARITY POLL featured on the program at the meeting of Pi Mu Epsilon, honor-

'Honorary Colonel' Edition of Humor Publication Appears on Stands Today; Features Winners of Derby Contest, Pictures Coeds.

Hailing Professors Karl M. Arndt, Ray Dein and Harold plans that they presented were given to Les Bursik, Melvin Beer-"derby" for faculty members, the campus humor publication announced the results of its popularity pell in the November the Quartic Equation," and Alice issue appearing in the stands today.

Featured in the issue is an ac-0count by Barbara Rosewater of the Colorful career of Prof. Karl an honorary colonel in full re alia. colorful career of Prof. Karl Arndt, the first of the series of notes by Carol Clark occupy a doubiographical sketches recounting Pictures of the six candidates, with the lives of the three winners of ble page, and the air of suspense the "derby." Accompanying the pervading the campus as the hour article is a cartoon depicting Proof the presentation approaches is fessor Arndt in centaur form, as symbolized by a page of figures in befits a derby winner, with the honorary colonel's uniform, chassis sketched in by with faces replaced by question

Honorary colonel candidates occupy the center of attention in the issue, as is indicated by Katherine

By Morris Lipp. -Omoved. After Thursday's short pass and '36 Pasture Improvement Increases Despite Drouth into the Huskers dressing room to see how the Nebraska squad in re-Elvin F. Frolik, university as- acting the proximity of the date sistant extension agronomist, la- of the Pitt game. Dodging and bels the 1936 annual state wide ducking rolls of tape and mopping pasture improvement contest more wet towels that flew thru the successful than the 1935 competisteam filled air, it is the contention despite the searing effect of tion of this reporter that the Corndrouth on grazing lands.

Mr. Frolik points to the fact mind to trip Pitt. huskers are in the right frame of that more than 500 farmers com-pleted their records in the 1936 servations to the entire squad, this reporter, still ducking tape and towels, sought out the eleven strapping Cornhuskers upon whose shoulders falls the task of ending Pitt's winning streak jinx, to find out what the individuals were thinking about Pitt.

It Can Be Done! Says Sam.

Game Capt. Sam Francis was the first in view. "I think Pitt will be the greatest team outside of Minnesota and unless we let ourselves go and play the game as we should, and I think we will, we'll come out right side up."

Lloyd "Wild Hoss" Cardwell, speedy right halfback whose job it (Continued on Page 3.)

-TRIP PITT-

350 ATTEND ANNUAL COUNSELOR BANQUET FOR LITTLE SISTERS

Dinner Honors All Frosh Women; Songs, Yells. Skit on Program.

site for the building is entirely in Approximately 350 Coed Counthe air," Chancellor Edgar A. selors and their little sisters and Burnett declared yesterday. "Cer- sorority mothers and their daughtain changes in the blueprints will ters attended the 1936 Coed Counprobably be made as a result of selors dinner held Wednesday everecommendations of the planning ming at 6 o'clock in the armory committee and also of that of the The dinner honored as its special students who took the trip with guests all freshman women en-

The banquet was scheduled as one of the major events on the Prof. E. F. Schramm has also Coed Counselor program, and in prepared a fine report of his in- keeping with the purpose of the vestigation tour to the new union organization on the campus was held as another means of acquainting freshmen women with upperclass women. As an opener to the entertainment for the affair, Margaret Phillippe, president of Tassels, led the group in singing Nebraska (Continued on Page 2

-TRIP PITT-

SPEAKERS TO DISCUSS SOLVING OF EQUATIONS

Pi Mu Epsilon Meets Nov. 17 in Math Building, Hear Three Speeches.

Talks on the solutions of various mathematical problems will be ary mathematics society, Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. in room 308 in mathematics building.

"The Solution of Equations by Mechanical Means" is the subject of a discussion by Dr. A. L. Candy, professor emeritus of mathematics and former chairman of the mathematics department. William "The Analytical Solutions of Richmond, teachers coilege senior, will talk on "The Solution of the Cubic Equation by Analytical

"Anyone interested in mathematics may attend, and may become associate members of the society, entitling them to the privileges of attending the programs, state Bert Hartzell, president of Pi Mu Epsilon.

All active members are urged to be present for an important business meeting following the pro-Calculated to produce heart gram.

-TRIP PITT-