LEVIN NAMES NEW CO-DIRECTORS OF STUDENT FORUMS

Bernstein Resigns as Head Of Board; Schroeder, MacMahon Elected.

Dave Bernstein, recently elected co-chairman of the Junior-Senior prom committee, resigned as head of the Student Council forums committee at a regular meeting of the council held in University hall yesterday afternoon. Leo MacMahon and Al Schroeder were appointed to serve as co-chairmen of the body for the remainder of the semester.

"I have found it very difficult to satisfactorily perform the duties of the committee, because I was attempting to carry too many activities," Bernstein explained. "I think it would be best for me to resign since I do not feel that I can do justice to the amount of work the position requires."

Levin Hopes for Forums.
Arnold Levin, council president, who appointed the new co-chairmen, declared that he believes "the forums committee really demands two men to serve at its head if it is to function to its best advantage." He expressed the sincere hope that in the future the committee would take advantage of as many as possible of the plentiful opportunities which are offered for interesting and educational forums.

Three student council members were elected to serve on the University Honors Convocations committee, which will plan the program. (Continued on Page 4.)

STATE TEACHERS GET INCREASE IN SALARIES

Trend Points to Higher Wages, Prof. Moritz Shows in Report.

Increase in salaries for school teachers over the state is the trend according to a report compiled by Prof. R. D. Moritz, director of the university teachers placement bureau. Most educators who have retained the positions they held last year have received substantial raises, the report reads, but those who have changed are continuing on the 1936 salary level.

Following is the table based upon the salaries reported to the bureau, which indicates the trend:

| | Lowest Salary | Highest Salary |
|------------------------------------|---------------|----------------|
| College men | $ 950 | $2,000 |
| College women | 1,050 | 2,100 |
| Superintendents | 800 | 2,000 |
| High school men | 675 | 1,900 |
| High school women | 540 | 1,900 |
| Junior high school | 500 | 1,700 |
| Grades (kindergarten to 6th, inc.) | 425 | 1,700 |
| Rural | 300 | 700 |

COEDS TO GO ON PARADE AT 'DRESS-UP' PARTY TONIGHT

Nebraska's Toots, Casper, Maggie, Jiggs to Appear At Annual A.W.S. Costume Affair in Grant Memorial Hall This Evening.

Featuring the presentation of prizes to the girls wearing the prettiest, the most unusual, and the funniest costumes, the 1937 Cornhusker Costume party open to all university women will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in Grant Memorial hall. Theme for the annual "dress-up" party comic strip personalities, and those attending the event will wear costumes representing their favorite "funny paper" hero or heroine.

A special program, presenting Jane Winnett as mistress of ceremonies, has been planned as entertainment for the evening. Opened by the traditional grand march, the program will include: A skit, given by members of Alpha Chi Omega; a piano duet,

Dr. Pfeiffer to Retire After 34 Years on N. U. Faculty; Condemns Professor's Reputation Building

Rare reminiscences as well as several incisive indictments of the educational set-up came out of an interview yesterday with Dr. Laura B. Pfeiffer who has been recently granted a leave of absence from the university for the second semester, and who will retire from the faculty August 1 after 34 years of teaching in the history department.

"I feel that the outlook of the younger faculty members is necessarily, and somewhat unhappily, different than it was in the days of Bessey, Hastings, Fossler, Fling and E. H. Barbour, who is still a member of the staff," declared Miss Pfeiffer when asked for observations on the changes that have come over Nebraska university during her work here as a student, graduate, instructor and assistant professor.

That professors and those aspiring to that economic and academic status spend much of their time in research and writing that is not contributive to better teaching. (Continued on Page 4.)

MAPLE FANS TO SING NEW VICTORY MARCH AT IOWA STATE TILT

Innocents Sponsor Recently Introduced Piece by Chenoweth, Ayres.

In order to instill the composition deeper into the student consciousness, Nebraska's new victory song, "Hail to the Team," will be played by the varsity band Saturday night at the Iowa State basketball contest. Students, especially Corn Cobs and Tassels, are requested to memorize the words so that the entire crowd can co-operate in singing them at that time.

Ohio Governor Doffs Shorts in Interests Of Initiation Stunt

Ohio's governor, Martin L. Davey, was not called upon to give the shirt off his back, but he was requested to give up a pair of shorts.

As an initiation stunt, Charles A. Fernald, Ohio state university senior, was ordered by his Delta Kappa Epsilon brothers, to obtain an autographed pair of Governor Davey's shorts.

Fernald telephoned to find out the governor's size; then he bought a pair, called at the executive's offices, and proposed a swap.

Governor Davey consented, went into a side office, and a few minutes later, presented Fernald with the autographed shorts.

SCABBARD AND BLADE INITIATES FIVE CADETS

English, Teeple, Reardon, Green, Milham Taken Into Honorary.

Five cadet officers were initiated yesterday into Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, at a meeting of the organization in Nebraska hall. The new members are Cadet Major Lowell English, Cadet Captains Bob Teeple, Don Reardon, Lawrence Green and Forrest Milham. A smoker for new pledges will be given at the beginning of the second semester, but at present the plans are indefinite.

BULLOCK SEES HEAVY APPLICATION DEMAND

Grads Desiring Interviews Must Sign Placement Blanks at Once.

With many firms already seeking graduates from the Arts and Sciences and Business Administration colleges, there is an inkling that a good demand for more applicants will be received during the next semester, stated Prof. Bullock of the commercial department. The Bizad instructor has sent many letters to firms concerning jobs for business administration students.

Like last year, there is an especially heavy demand for accountants. Recently several Lincoln firms expressed their desire to have interviews with graduates of the two named colleges.

Seniors interested in securing positions are urged to fill out placement blanks at once. These may be obtained in Prof. Bullock's office, Social Science, Room 305. Several blanks should be filled out to be sent to firms which are not sending representatives, and also applications should be given to visiting agents interested in securing graduates.

DAIRYLAND CAFETERIA PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Varsity Dairy Club Boasts Biggest Financial Gain Since Organization.

Dairyland Cafeteria, sponsored annually by the Varsity Dairy club, during the week in which Organized Agriculture is in session, closed its doors Saturday boasting the greatest financial success in its existence. The cafeteria is operated each year during the week in which the visiting farmers are convening on the agricultural campus.

Arell Wasson, manager of the cafeteria this year, announced that in view of the great demand and success of the eating house this year, plans are already being made for a cafeteria which will enable them to accommodate more visitors in coming years.

The next regular meeting of the Dairy Club has been postponed until Tuesday, Feb. 2, at which time officers will be nominated for the coming year.

OMAHA PROFESSOR TO SPEAK TUESDAY TO PHI BETA KAPPA

Dr. V. R. West Will Discuss 'Mark Twain' at Next Society Meeting.

Speaker at the regular meeting of Phi Beta Kappa, Tuesday, Jan. 19, will be Dr. V. Royce West of the University of Omaha whose topic will be "Mark Twain." The meeting is at the University club and will start at 6:15.

Dr. West has just returned from a year as exchange professor in which capacity he lectured on the subject of Mark Twain at Heidelberg university in Germany.

With Dr. Louise Pound presiding at the meeting, Miss Mariel Jones, prominent Lincoln pianist, will offer several solos for part of the program. It is expected that members of Phi Beta Kappa will invite a number of guests for Dr. West is well known to Lincoln people.

PAINTING EXHIBIT DISPLAYS LEADING PICTURES OF 1936

Twelve pictures by living American artists are being shown on the third floor of Morrill hall during January. This is the second of four groups which comprise the 48 representative paintings for the year 1936 as chosen by a jury of distinguished art critics.

The exhibitions have been arranged by Living Art Inc., New York City, a newly conceived organization which plans to bring to public attention the most significant work being done by contemporary painters, and also provide artists with economic stability.

AUDIENCE FAVORS PLAYER'S HEROINE WITH 'NOT GUILTY'

Jurors Exhibit Soft-Heartedness in Decision to Free Lovely Karen Andre from Murder Charge In 'The Night of January 16.'

"Not guilty," said the jury Monday night, thereby freeing the lovely Karen Andre, accused of murdering a world-famous financier. Miss Andre's troubles did not end with this decision, however, for Tuesday night she returned to the Temple theatre once again in the current University Players' production to face a different set of 120 good men and true.

"Not guilty," said the jury Tuesday night, and Miss Andre dramatically received her freedom once more.

"Not guilty," said the jury Wednesday night. But this luck cannot continue, Thursday night the defendant will face a different group in the jury box, and again Friday and Saturday she will be tried before other juries. One of

54 CLASSES FULL AS REGISTRATION NEARS FINAL DAY

Enrollment Work Passes Half-Way Mark, Says Dr. Congdon.

University assignment committee reported 54 sections definitely closed to further enrollment at the end of the third day of registration. Dr. A. O. Congdon, chairman of the committee, estimated that over half the total work of enrollment is already completed.

First count of filled classes was made earlier this year than ever before because of the unusually heavy registration in the opening days. "We were forced to compile the list of closed sections at this early date because of the rush that has been made," Dr. Congdon explained. "A copy of the list will be in the hands of every advisor Thursday morning in order to lessen the trouble with re-registration because of overfilled classes."

Condon Predicts Lull.

Summarizing the enrollment activity, Congdon said he anticipated a lull to begin this afternoon since such a large part of the work has already been completed. He declared that the entire procedure had been reversed this year in that the enrollment rush ordinarily begins in the middle of the week. "Students usually fiddle around during the opening days of registration, and there is not much activity until Wednesday or Thursday," Congdon remarked. "Under those circumstances, the last day of registration, Friday, is the (Continued on Page 2.)

BARBS PLAN PRE-EXAM MIXER FOR JANUARY 15

Unaffiliated Students to Attend Hour Dance Friday Night.

Helping the barbs to make merry before the finals, the Barb AWS League is planning an hour dance to be held Friday night, Jan. 15 from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, in the Armory. The hour dance is free, as were the previous "meeting dances" for barb students.

"The hour dances have been so well received by unaffiliated students that we are planning additional dances for the coming semester," stated Carol Clark, publicity chairman of the Barb AWS.

Sponsored for all the unaffiliated students on the city and ag campuses, the hour dance on Friday will be the last affair of its kind before the semester ends. Music of the best dance orchestras will be provided by a recording system.
