

Potpourri On Biffer Jones

By Ed Steeves.

Working from the bottom upward, Nebraska began dusting off her hands last year when she collected on 7,700 paid admissions at the Nebraska Kansas cage mix. This makes a hollow sound, like a pebble in a barrel, when compared to the 23,000 admissions per game at the tournament of Peiping, China, in 1931.

More on the Biffer includes a few personal meditations which, of course, could be sold at no price and traded for no commodity.

Wednesday the Lincoln Journal ran an item stating that Senator Brady of Atkinson intended to investigate the salary of Coach Jones. In the next edition it carried a contradiction of the same statement. Yesterday it was learned, however, that the legislature did intend to investigate the new coach's monetary income.

In the eyes of many it seems logical that the shrunken Nebraska assembly should delve into an inventory of Jones' coming coin purse, but to others it does not.

The athletic department of the University of Nebraska to date has spent its own money at its own discretion and yearly has swelled its bank account. Why, if they are all good boys over in the coliseum and roll their own hoops, why can't they roll gold ones if they buy them with their own shekels?

Carl Hubbell, big league pitcher, names the coming Biff as one of his favorite buddies of the golf links. Hubbell plays with the better swat-and-kuss kings and thus "Jonesy" should be good enough perhaps to give the Husker fairwaymen a boost from the coaching angle.

From the angle of the Nebraska R. O. T. C. quarters, Jones is a wearer of the halos. They like his army record, especially his high grades garnered at the West Point military academy. None of the present members of the Husker drill masters have ever had the hand shaking pleasure of the Biffer, but all with whom this correspondent conversed we printed with anxiety. It almost seemed as if they were coiled and ready to spring on Lawrence McCenny the day he arrives in quest of his return to army life and their department. It should give the men in khaki a boost in prestige if by chance Jones, the most discussed Husker today, would join their number.

Another factor that one army man mentioned was that Jones

WRESTLERS LEAVE FOR GOPHER MEET

Return of Yost to Lineup Brightens Husker Outlook.

Carl Yost is definitely back into the lineup of the Husker wrestling team which will leave this evening for Minnesota where an attempt will be made to check the Golden Gophers. During the early part of the week it was doubtful that Yost would be in a condition to make the trip. Although the team came out of the Iowa State tussle without a single injury, Yost developed a stiff neck after Tuesday's practice.

The Gopher grapplers will be seeking their fifth win in a row when they meet a lively band of Huskers Saturday night on the Minnesota mat as the attraction of the Ohio State-Minnesota cage session. The Nebraska men will be trying to avenge the sound beating they took from the Norsemen last season, and to garner the first win of the year. In the first meet of the season the Adamen came out on the short end of the score with Kansas State and then, last Saturday they battled a strong Iowa State aggregation to a tie on a "regulation" mat.

Gophers Beat Iowa State Teachers Iowa State Teachers bowed to the mighty Gophers last Saturday by a score of 20½ to 9½. This was the first time that the Minnesotans had met such stubborn opposition, but when the dust cleared away the Gophers counted wins in five of eight matches and a draw in another.

The tentative lineup for the Husker-Gopher match:

Minnesota—Wt. Nebraska—M. Knight
McQuinn 118 M. Knight 121
Zabel 127 Luke 127
Rojars 147 Sauer 147
McConnell 155 Adams 155
S. Hanson 163 Flashick 163
Whitaker 173 Simons 173

Plus this deficiency in beef for the Scarlet, Jones will find that the conference next year will live up to its name the Big SIX more than it has for the past few years.

Again, we repeat: Dana X. Bible is a diplomat, and of course, a gentleman.

At Bible's new home, the U. of Texas, basketball ranks just as high as football. It was there that the record was established for individual scoring—Jack Gray, in 1935, completed his career with well over 1,000 points.

TRI-COLOR TRACKMEN PICK PERSONNEL FOR INITIAL ENGAGEMENT

Calnon, Hejkal and Short Exhibit Good Form in Thursday Tests.

With the Husker track camp still in a hubbub state, tri-color aspirants are running hither and yon in an attempt to round into shape for the first color meet, Feb. 6, under the east stadium. Mentor Pa Schulte is keenly looking toward the approach of this contest, as it will serve as a mirror reflecting fodder for his 1935 varsity team.

Jack Calnon, a 440 yard runner, sprinted that event in 57.2, a very good pre-season clocking, while his colleague, Mito Hejkal, stepped it off in 58 seconds. Robert Short, who spent his frosh year at Southern California university, pole vaulted 11 feet 4 inches. Bob Kahler, Jim Mather and Bill Pfeiff, captains of the Red, Green and Orange teams, respectively, have been showing up especially well in their special events.

The personnel of the various tri-color squads is rapidly nearing completion, and after Saturday's tryouts the makeup of the teams should be complete. Bob Kahler heads the Red outfit and has Ashburn, Grubaugh, Jones and Scott as his supporting cast; Jim Mather is the Green captain with McIlravy, Short, Hejkal, Chaim and Erwin as his subalterns; and Bill Pfeiff is helmsman of the Orange clique and has Gilbert, Calnon, Michaels, Ott and Evans under his supervision.

JAYHAWKS CALL OFF NEBRASKA SWIM MEET

Kansas Committee Cancels Meet Slated by Coach "Phog" Allen.

The committee that has taken over Dr. Forrest C. "Phog" Allen's work as athletic director at Kansas university countermanded a statement of the Jayhawk official Thursday, when the dual swimming meet between Nebraska and Kansas was canceled.

Coach Jack Minor's splashers were scheduled to swim against the Jayhawkers Friday. Earlier in the week Dr. Allen, who still signs his letters as "athletic director," wrote to Coach Minor indicating that the slated meets with K. U. would go thru as previously arranged.

A missive yesterday from the Kansas swim coach, acting under the direction of the committee, called off the aquatic duel which had been drawn up many months ago.
