Busts Loose" They are still telling tales about the University Players' jaunt to Grand Island with "Three Men on a Horse" and Ray Ramsay. On the way home their bus broke down and they were delayed until another could be sent out from Lincoln to resque them. Consequently it was about 5 in the morning when the weary troup at last arrived back at the Temple.

And there, Job-like in truth, was Walter Stroud. He had waited all that time just to take Gina Amos home.

the remark that when that throng pours out of the auditorium, "Hell certainly busts loose!" And it was to its foundations.

that reigns when the band is ever that the idea began to take that swarms the coliseum maples dent Hoover formed the Young San post-basketball games. There is Francisco Bay commission which the quaking that results when classes are dismissed in U hall, or the racket from a Rag staff in full swing. There are the choked the noontide exodus.

creature in group or mob forma-tion, Below the surface behavior to Yerba Buena island across to patterns assert themselves. What Oakland. by the words we saw painted in struction Finance Corporation contest is under the sponsorship speed to purchase bonds of Delta Signa Physical actions are a speed to purchase bonds are a the objective observer sees in such suede jacket in the Drug: "LIFE IN THE RAW."

All this heavy thawing necessitates virtual navigation of the campus scene. As one little blonde so aptly put it, "You really need boats to get around." Which calls to mind Pat Jensen's worriment for the flood victims. At the very height of the rampant water, when all public utilities were temporarily out of commission, she ex-pressed great concern: "Just think, you can't even take a bath!

We hate to pull repeaters, but happy talent for always having things happen to them or about Dr. Wimberly's classes furnish more than their share of the quips and quotable quotes for the sparkling tongued boys and girls. Only yesterday Helen (Continued on Page 2.)

FRESHMAN HONORARY SEES PUPPET EXHIBIT

Miss Meyer Tells Alpha to beed the deadline. Miss Cherny Lambda Delta's of New Hobby.

Constructing a head for a marionette several years ago proved to be the beginning of a fascinating hobby for Marguerite Meyer, junior in Teacher's college, who spoke before the meeting of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary, in Ellen Smith hall yesterday.

"Sing Lo, the doll, had to have a body, then clothes, and finally theater and companions," said Miss Meyer. "My hobby just Exhibiting three marionettes which she has constructed, Miss Meyer described the manner in which they are made and the materials which are used in making the various types of dolls. She then outlined the history of the marionette theater from its beginning in the days of early Egyptian history to the present day I like making marionettes," said Miss Meyer, "because almost every type of handicraft from woodcarying to work with electricity is included in it.

Following the talk by Miss Meyer, Virginia Tookey, sopho-more in Teacher's college, played "Witches Dance" by McDowell on the piano,

Y. M., Y. W. TO SPONSOR ALL UNIVERSITY RETREAT

Students of Both Campuses to Attend Affair at

Hi-Y Building.

Students from both city and ag campuses will attend the All University Retreat to be held by the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. at 5:30 at which Mrs. Clara Schwieso, state penitentiary to the Hall of fident that their university friends regional secretary, will be the Records. speaker and guest of honor, can still be made at the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. offices.

will act as mistress of cerenetha Hinthorn, and Bob Roland, had on the lives and careers of ing. games, a fireside discussion, and ish her life, a sing will follow the supper.

Prom Girl Aspirants

Must File by Feb. 17

All senior girls who wish to file for 1937 Junior Senior

Prom Girl, must do so before Wednesday, Feb. 17, at 5 o'clock in the Student Activities office in the collseum.

Eligibility rules specify that prospective Prom Girl candidates must have senior standing in the university and have completed 27 hours in the two preceding semesters.

David Bernstein, co-chairman of the Junior Senior Prom committee, urges that all girls interested in the honor file immediately, thereby facilitat-

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1937. VOL. XXXVI-NO. 85.

PRICE 5 CENTS

Ball Opens Ak-Sar-Ben Tonight

ENGINEERS VIEW FILM OF FRISCO BRIDGE ERECTION of Construction at Meeting Thursday.

Realization of the dream of a after 50 years of planning was told by E. B. Slason of the American Steel and Wire company before an to the statistics class! bridge across San Francisco bay As we were bracing ourself all engineering convocation held against a trembling pillar in the last night in Social Science audi-Temple Wednesday when the con- torium. Mr. Slason in addition to vocation was letting out, we his lecture presented 50 minutes shocked a pious lad by venturing of sound motion pictures to the group which also included members of the Lincoln Engineers club.

Opening with an historical sketch the truth; the building was rocked of the bridge, Mr. Slason explained how the first serious agitation for And so we thought of notable such a structure began back in mass confusions about the university. There is the pandemonium 1868. It was not until 1929, howwarming up, the thundering herd specific form. At that time Presicorridors of Sosh in the height of mission and make a survey of the most feasible location for the Man is a noticeably less rational bridge. A site was chosen running for Best Dressed Girl. Style Show.

R. F. C. Finances Structure.

$61,400,000 to finance the structure," explained Mr. Slason, "Contracts were let in February, and in (Continued on Page 2.)

TO ENTER FOLLIES SKITS BY 5 TODAY

Candidates for the Best Dressed nees for the style show must be Smith hall by 5 o'clock this afternoon if they are to be considered for entrants in the 1937 Coed Follies production. Betty Cherny, the chairman of the presentation reiterated today.

In addition to reminding houses emphasized the necessity that skit plans must be based on a five minute limit and that the names of persons in charge of the various acts must be included with the skit synopsis. The only restriction on style show nominations, according to the chairman is that each house will be limited to six representa-

Selection as to the skits which will appear in the follies, scheduled (Continued on Page 2.)

MU PHI'S SCHEDULE TEA FOR SATURDAY to Appear on Musical tea Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, show pictures of the southwest. at Ellen Smith hall from 3 to 5. tine motif will be used in deco-

Math Students Try Problems on New Calculator

Will the new mechanical calculator at the math building throw any instructors out of their jobs; The machine is on approval still, and its price is nearly as high as the list of its achievements. It has over a hundred buttons to push, making it add, subtract, Slason Reviews Progress take roots. Electrically run, it represents the latest ideas in mental labor-saving devices, performing the most difficult of the fundamental operations in less than five reconds. It is as simple as a typewriter,

WHITE GIVES LAST DEBATE CONTEST

Asks Registration of All Participants by End of Next Week.

Ordering that all fraternity and non-fraternity groups desirous of entering the annual intramural debate contest must register their intentions within the next week, a second call has been issued to all bate fraternity, and the winning groups will be presented with inscribed silver gavels. "We must have an expression of opinion by interested groups within the next week in order to draw up a tentative schedule," Prof. H. A. White, debate coach, announced. "Representatives of all groups must register in Andrews hall, Discuss Labor Disputes.

The subject for this year's in-tramural debate will be "Resolved, that there should be compulsorary arbitration of labor disputes." Althe there is a great amount of material on the Entry to Include Nominees the subject does not involve an elaborate study of statistical information. The question was chosen because it is one of the most timely subjects of controversy. Notices are being sent to all fraternity houses and to all non-fra-Girl, skit summaries, and nomi- ternity groups which are not members of Delta Sigma Rho. Special filled by organized women's houses notices will be given to other at Mrs. Westover's desk in Ellen groups if their name is registered at Coach White's office. Emphasizing the fact that any group interested can organize and sponsor a team, Dr. White stated that as long as the group has a name, it (Continued on Page 4.)

KIRSCH TO LECTURE AT MANHATTAN MEETINGS

University Art Professor to Give Two Lectures on Color Today.

at Manhattan, Kas., where the State Agricultural college is Ruth Sibley, Jane Hopkins observing Farm and Home week G. and will use the Nebraska sand-Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary mu-sical sorority, will honor all women music students at a musical orful World" with which he will

Hopkins, pianist, will present the about loans from the Nelson Meprogram. Patronesses of the so-rority will be guests. The valen-coming Nebraska Art association exhibit. Mr. Kirsch will return

PLAYERS TO OPEN MONDAY IN NEW PLAY LOST HORIZONS

Twelve Different

Scenes.

versity Players will present their the production will be the way that subitious and absorbing February it is kept moving by fast shiftproduction, "Lost Horizons," in 12 ing unusual and brief settings. The action moves from a cottage in En- work of the players since their ders, Ariz., to Montreal, from a presentations last season and the today in the Hi-Y building, 22nd Limited en route to New York to season before of "Cyrano" and and J streets.

Reservations for the occasion the prison gates of the Arizona experimental, the players feel control of the Pall of tident that their university friends comedy, farce, and drama, the country of the playnd Y. M. C. A. offices.

Rowens Swenson, co-chairman is the thrilling and imaginative ers, written by John Hayden, is continuity of the story, are the propriate Valentine token for the work of Charles Rogers and memof whom are in charge of each pleasing the feminine heart Opening Monday night, the Uni- set. The secret of the success of > Altho this is the most ambitious and patrons will find "Lost Hori- QUENTLY, mid much competi-

of the Rocky Mountain region. dramatization of the influence that not to be confused with "Lost tion. one girl, Janet Evans, played by Horizon" the motion picture in 4. YOU'RE GOING STEADY: Frances Boldman Ber- Vera May Peterson, would have which Ronald Colman is now play- Pin hanging never loses its glammembers of the committee in other persons generally by merely this difference in order that their question, here's your chance. announced that a program of only possessed the courage to fin- fusion when they find the play in you consider yourself to be the formal and informat, and students Sture Richard Decker, Marie Kocharge of arrangements, have circumstantial action, if she had audiences may experience no cona modern American setting in adequate Valentine and let it pass will have pienty of time to attend touc. Orrin Marcy, Edward Fitz- W. T. Grant company, who will The many scenes and the shift- stead of in Tibet.

Nebraskans to View Picture of 'Europe in 1937' in Charter Day Speech of Britain's Sir Willert

Anglo-Saxon Diplomat, Journalist, Educator to Give Timely Observations on Present Situation in Major European Nations.

Educator, diplomat, author, journalist, and statesman all embodied in the person of an English nobleman will visit the university Monday in honor of its birthday, and will present a verbal portrayal of modern Europe as seen through the eye of a native Anglo-Saxon, Experienced as an official in the English government, Sir Arthur

Willert comes to Nebraska prepared to give Charter day at tendants an accurate picture of "Europe 1937," at the official opening of festivities in the university coll-seum at 10:15 Monday morning. With a background, that boasts of commendable service as United States correspondent for London's argest newspaper. foreign official, and Continued on Page 2

> Sir Arthur Willert, who will give the Charter day address at the all-university convocation Febru-

PALLADIANS TO SEE Editors Call Reporters Meeting for Saturday REVIEW OF FAMOUS Reporters for the Daily Nebraskan are asked to meet in the editorial offices at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. HISTORICAL LOVERS At the meeting, the managing editors will make criticisms and comments on the stories and beat coverage during the past All those interested in reporting on the Nebraskan are This Evening.

Anthony and Cleopatra will be

Jeanette Osborn and Elaine Holcomb. Adelaide Laux and Elinor

Romeo and Juliet, Princess Lundy will be Henry VIII to Jean Mer vin, Faith Medler, Wyona Keim.

Evelvn Carlson, his six wives.

(Continued on Page 2.)

A. W. S. COMMITTEE PLANS

Board Members Will Revise

Wording, Content of Activity Chart.

a few minor changes in the con-

The types of changes contemplated include mainly an en-system to eliminate misunderstanding in interpretation. A few largement of the headings of the tent of the system will be con-

POINT SYSTEM CHANGES

Leavitt, Bringing the Famous lovers of history will to be held Friday evening, Feb. 12. Marian Staley is in charge of the program.

Seven Offices at Stake in Pharmaceutical Club Election.

asked to be present.

Pharmaceutical club members will elect officers today in the annual midyear elections, at 10:39 o'clock this morning in Pharmacy Held at mid-year only, these elections insure the beginning of fall sessions of the club without the confusion of electing new officers. To be elected are three officers and four class presidents.

Under provisions of the new club constitution, adopted last year, officers are nominated from the floor, and no office is allowed to go uncontested. Unhampered class requirements, officers may be under or upper classmen. including freshmen. Officers and the four class presidents make up the governing council, a new Prof. Dwight Kirsch of the fine class representative being searts department will lecture to- lected for each class president who also becomes an officer. Outging officers are: William observing Farm and Home week G. Clayton, president; Evelyn sidered by a special committee of Mr. Kirsch's morning lecture will Hoyle, secretary; and Robert H. the A. W. S. board at the meet-"Seeing Color Around You" Chambers, temporary treasurer, ing of the board today. Chambers took over the office of Dr. J. B. Burt, club adviser.

REPORTER GIVES VALENTINE TIPS TO CAMPUS MEN

By Eva Jane Sinclair.

For those lost souls found among the male populous of this campus harboring bewilderment Stage Setting Will Feature ings which are designed so that campus harboring bewildern they will not interfere with the and befuddlement as to the favored one, we catalogue our tested and approved method of

YOU'VE DATED HER ONCE your heart is still spinning; it with FLOWERS, an individualistic bouquet for all her envying sisters to admire YOU'VE DATED HER SEV-ERAL TIMES, and find yourself liking the idea better each time: Make it a choice box of CHOCO-LATES to gain her favor. 3. YOU DATE HER FRE-

After a successful season of zons' interesting in theme and ex- tion: Show her you've the technique of being different and send

> The players wish to stress or if you haven't popped the physicians annually. 5. YOU'RE ENGAGED - and so ing the progress of plans for presentation of the winning candidates. Announcement of the candidates will be made Thursday, Feb. 18, in the Daily Nebraskan.

LATIN TESTS FOR G. E. BARBER PRIZE SLATED SATURDAY

Students to File for Classical Honor.

Examinations for the Grove E.

thousand dollars be deposited and cattle, horses, sheep and hogs. Women Members to Take Charge of Program

That the interest from the amount should be used as an award to some student of the Classics department each year. Varying from year to year, the prize will amount that the interest from the amount should be used as an award to some student of the Classics department each year. Varying from year to year, the prize will amount that the interest from the amount should be used as an award to some student of the Classics department each year. Varying from year to year, the prize will amount the should be used as an award to some student of the Classics department each year. Varying from year to year, the prize will amount year.

(Continued on Page 2.)

pass in review before the members of the Palladian Literary Society at the annual girl's program WILL HONOR ALUMNI

Ackerman will take the part of to Speak at Banquet Tonight. Beatrice Ekblad, Ruth Green, and Lutheran students and alumni Priscilla and John Alden will be will gather at the Trinity church played by Edith Filley and Gerthis evening for a Lutheran banmances up to modern times. Beth quet sponsored by the Lutheran university girls' club of that demonination. Scheduled to begin at 6:30 o'clock, the banquet will be attended by a group of 80. Attorney LeRoy Stohman, prin-pal speaker of the evening, will e introduced by Rev. H. Erck, Lutheran student secretary, who will act as toastmaster. The program will be composed of numbers presented by the Lutheran students' quartet and readings by Miss Lilian Lindahl, Walter Mey Waldemar Mueller, Roland Revision of the wording of the Muller, and Martin Erck make point system for women in activi- up the personnel of the quarter ties on the Nebraska campus and Following the program the group will join in community singing and social games.

> University Glee Club Will Sing for Junior Chamber Convention

ca Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, show pictures of the southwest. Conducted on a ment basis, additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 Ellen Smith half from 3 to 5. From Manhattan, Mr. Kirsch elections have so far been free additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 1 additions to some of the pointings der the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the pointing der the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the pointing der the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the pointing der the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the direction of William Tember 2 additions to some of the direction of Willi University Men's Glee club, un-The committee on revision in- of Commerce building. Delegates Iowa and Wisconsin (which com-cludes Jean Walt, chairman, Dor- from Minnesota, Iowa, North and prise the corps area) would othy Bentz. Betty Cherny, and South Dakota, and Nebraska will appear for drill here. The regi-Helen Pascoe. They will be be present for the midwinter re-mental drill was held in Iowa assisted by Barbara DePutron gional conference of the Junior president of the A. W. S. board. Chamber of Commerce

DANCE SO OTHERS MAY WALK. SLOGAN OF PRESIDENT'S BALL

for Charity Party February 15. University students will be given their oportunity to co-operate in the fight against infantile paralysis when the President's Birthday ball is held at the Lincoln hotel on Feb. 15. Because of the widespread influenza epidemic in Lin- cally, while the remaining 30 cents coln on Jan. 30, birthday of President Roosevelt, the ball was postponed until next Monday evening. The slogan for the occasion is "Dance so others may walk.

Statistics show that this disease disease is really a serious menace. In Ne. University students may purbraska alone, there are 7,500 crip- chase their tickets on the campus 306, this afternoon from 1 to 3 dance music. Dancing will be both dig. Howard the ball after the basketball game, gerald, and Mildred Miller,

Two Orchestras to Play The Jungblath-Beck orchestra will play in the main ballroom, and another orchestra will furnish the music in the Venetian room. Cards will be played in the garden room and an elaborate program of vandeville acts has been arranged.

The price of admission is one dollar per couple. Seventy cents of that dollar is retained in Lincoln as a fund to fight the disease logoes to President Roosevelt, who personally presents the aggregate sum to the Warm Springs foundation in Georgia, the nation's largest hospital for the victims of the pled children, and from 250 to 750 from members of the special ticket | p. new cases come to the attention of committee, headed by Ernest Arnold. Members of this committee in-Two orchestras will provide the clude June Waggoner, Paul Bstan-

SHOWING, BIDDING CONTESTS OFFER UNIQUE PROGRAM

Paul Moorhead to Furnish Music for Ag Party Friday Night.

All the color the nation's largest stock shows will be reflected on the Holdrege street campus as ag college goes on parade with its an-nual Junior Ak-Sar-Ben being staged Friday and Saturday, From the opening Friday night ball to the colorful finale offered by the Saturday night stock show, the ag festivity promises to break all precedent as the largest edition of the yearly affair.

Paul Moorhead and his twelve piece band will greet one of the largest crowds ever to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben Ball as the show gets under way Friday night. The or-chestra which was imported from Omaha, comes as realization of the hopes of members of the board to Dr. Forbes Asks Interested dopes of members of the board to sign a hand of statewide recognition. Publicity Manager Earl Hedlund adjudged the orchestra. "a first rate band," and urged all the students of ag college as well as the downtown campus to "reserve Friday night for the Ball." Tickets may be obtained at the door for 60 cents a couple

Stock Show Saturday.

Heading the schedule for the sec-Barber Classical prize, given by Heading the schedule for the section the late Grove E. Barber of the ond day of the ag college show, the Latin department, will be held in annual stock showmanship contest Andrews hall Saturday morning at offers one of the few opportunities 10 o'clock. All students eligible for Lincolnites and students to and interested in the award should see Prof. G. A. Forbes of the Classics department before Satur- tion is expected to be unsually keen and committeemen in charge The prize was awarded by Bar- of the show, promise an unusual ber in his will. Formerly head of and different evening of entertain-the Latin department. Dr. Barber ment. Showing will be conducted stated in his last will that two in both dairy and beef classes of on lots of animals from the ring-"I direct that three-fourths of sides, as Auctioneer Ralph Fortna cries the sale. The lots will incluclasses of dairy and beef cattle arof sheep, horses and hogs. Lica contestant will record his final bid on a ballot, sold at the beginning of the contest for 10 cents, and at the end of the competition all ballots will be taken up.

After the winners of each class have been ascertained there will be ribbons awarded for the three high Stohlman, Lincoln Attorney, places Cash prizes will be awarded the high ten. Judging will be based on the value set on the lots by the judges prior to the show. Outside patrons may enter the competition free of charge but will not be eligibble for the cash prizes being offered to winners

PERSHING RIFLES MAY HOLD APRIL DRILL HERE

DeVoss of Iowa City Arrives to Discuss Possible Parade Locale.

Lieutenant Colonel James T. De Voss of the second regiment of Pershing rifles will arrive in Lincoin at 10:45 o'clock this morning to inspect the possibility of having the regimental drill on the Nebraska campus. Coming directly from the regimental headquarters in Iowa City, Lt. Col. DeVoss will remain in Lincoln until Saturday night

If conditions favor it, the regimental drill was held in Iowa City last year, and will take place this year about the middle part of April.

Lt.-Col. DeVoss will be entertained by national officers of Pershing rifles at the Lincoln hotel this evening. At 5 o'clock this afternoon he will inspect the local regiment.

BIZAD SENIORS, GRADS TO RECEIVE JOB INTERVIEWS

G. E. and W. T. Grant Agents to Examine Applicants Here Next Week

Biz-ad seniors and graduates who are interested in securing positions with the General Electric or the W. T. Grant company may now make an appointment for interviews with one of their representatives. The appointment can be made by going to Prof. T. T. Bullock's room in Social Science

Interviews will be conducted by M. L. Frederick, of the General Electric company who will be here on Monday or Tuesday, Feb. 15 or 16, and K. B. Weeman, of the