

An East Side Twang And a Squeaking Stand

John T. Flynn certainly "packed 'em in" at the convocation in the Temple Thursday morning...

When we remarked to Chancellor Burnett that we hoped some day they might have a meeting hall adequate for such convocation crowds...

But despite such petty conspiracies to distract the minds of listeners, we found the audience highly attentive and appreciative.

The "Indian Summer" of La Parker: "In youth, it was a way I had to do my best to please...

Little by little more and more girls are admitting to attendance at and enjoyment of rassing.

One professional athlete is a postmaster of the art of putting on a swell show. That's what the public pays to see.

"Peeling off their shirts and undershirts in a hearing room in Washington one day, a prime collection of mighty muscled weightlifters offered their prowess and appearance as evidence in proceedings against Robert Collins Hoffman...

"Life," it appears, is setting an example. The weekly picture publication, which is being received everywhere with increasing acclaim, has stimulated interest in pictorial journalism.

The latest statement of renewed interest is that of Warren Novak, student in the Municipal University of Omaha, that he would this week begin publication of a bi-monthly picture magazine, "The Kandid Keyhole."

When "Gateways" Editor Ruth Brehman substituted for the gossip column, "The Keyhole," a column entitled, "Around the Campus," dealing with university matters of a serious nature, Novak decided that some agency must carry on the lighter side of student life.

Dean Ferguson, Haney Serve On Engineering Examining Committee

Dean O. J. Ferguson and Prof. J. W. Haney, of the college of engineering are in South Dakota this week as members on the examination committee of the Engineering Council for Professional Development.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead that he has never dreamed of how Mother Earth must look from way, way up. The airplane topographical shots are always the most betumbed in a geography, as are the photographs of the sur-

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXVI—NO. 95.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1937.

PRICE 5 CENTS

Union Charter Receives Initial Approval

MORTAR BOARDS PLAN SCHOLASTIC TEA FOR SUNDAY

Honorary to Entertain 475 Women Students at Event Feb. 28.

Approximately 475 women students will be guests of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, at their annual scholarship tea to be held Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28, from 3 to 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

As a special feature of the afternoon's program, a scholarship plaque will be awarded to the senior girl in the university who has maintained for three years a record of achievement in scholarship, leadership, and service to the university.

Faculty and honorary members who will be present at the tea as special guests are: Miss Margaret Feddie, Miss Pauline Gellatly, Dr. Edna Schrick, Miss Kate Field, Miss Amanda Heppner, Miss H. Alice Howell, Miss Mabel Hays, Miss Mabel Lee, Miss Florence McGahey, Miss Marguerite McPhee, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, Dr. Elda Walker, Mrs. Hattie Plum Williams, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Ada Westover, Dr. Clare Wilson, Miss Louise Poutind, Miss Eliza Gamble, Miss Lenore Alway, Miss Nellie Eastburn, Miss Matilda Shelby, Miss Frances Drake, Miss Eleanor Miller, Mrs. C. F. Ladd, Miss Olivia Pound and Miss Sarah T. Muir.

BARB AWS TO HOLD HOUR DANCE TONIGHT

Mrs. L. Williams to Offer Dancing Lessons in Armory.

Dancers will again trod the floor of the armory from 7:30 to 8:30 tonight when the barb A.W.S. league holds another in its series of hour dances for all unaffiliated students.

"Hour dances for unaffiliates are so much in demand that the board plans to continue them through the spring," said Adrienne Griffith, social chairman for the barb A. W. S. "We feel that they are worthwhile because of the chance they offer students to meet other students they before saw only on campus sidewalks."

Tonight's lessons offered by Mrs. Williams will merely continue the fundamental steps of ballroom dancing, but will increase in difficulty at each hour dance, until special steps will be introduced.

'LIFE' STIMULATES PUBLIC INTEREST IN NEWS PICTURE

"Life," it appears, is setting an example. The weekly picture publication, which is being received everywhere with increasing acclaim, has stimulated interest in pictorial journalism.

The latest statement of renewed interest is that of Warren Novak, student in the Municipal University of Omaha, that he would this week begin publication of a bi-monthly picture magazine, "The Kandid Keyhole."

When "Gateways" Editor Ruth Brehman substituted for the gossip column, "The Keyhole," a column entitled, "Around the Campus," dealing with university matters of a serious nature, Novak decided that some agency must carry on the lighter side of student life.

Dean Ferguson, Haney Serve On Engineering Examining Committee

Dean O. J. Ferguson and Prof. J. W. Haney, of the college of engineering are in South Dakota this week as members on the examination committee of the Engineering Council for Professional Development.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead that he has never dreamed of how Mother Earth must look from way, way up. The airplane topographical shots are always the most betumbed in a geography, as are the photographs of the sur-

Flynn Questions Federal Borrowing; Asks Reform of Corporate Control

Economist Proposes a High Tax on "Saved Dollar" to Finance Plan.

Exposing inefficiencies in our administrative system of government borrowing and leveling a scathing attack on corporate exploitation which have effected a delusive sham of industrial recovery, John T. Flynn culminated his convocation address Thursday morning by proposing indefinite solution of income taxation and corporation control to rescue a genuine democratic order from the financial decay that awaits it.

In his two fold discussion of "Recovery or Delusion," the visiting economist, journalist and author reflected the industrial convalescence we are experiencing today, as viewed thru the revealing lens of the economist's microscope. Later he shifted fire to the "monstrous economic machine gun" that our legalized corporations have become, but was conveniently saved by the bell so far as any possible solution to matter was concerned.

"We Have Got Recovery." "We are supposed to have recovery, and we have got recovery," Flynn began in his distinctive east side accent. Once more we talk in terms of billions of dollars, and

- SALIENT POINTS OF FLYNN SPEECH
1. We have recovery but it is unwholesome.
2. Relief dollar becomes a spending dollar and eventually a non-circulating "saved" dollar.
3. English precedent dictates the taxing of the "saved" dollar.
4. The accumulated federal debt will never be paid.
5. Unscrupulous use of the corporation as an economic machine gun suggests need of federal regulation.
6. We must reform the democratic system rather than resort to communism or collectivism.

heap praise on the shoulders of a great president as the wheels of production gain momentum," he declared. As business men we recognize this recovery in the form of a more lucrative income, and rejoice at it, "but as citizens of a great republic, desirous of making it work, we want to be realistic about it."

If one studies the situation closely, he will find that one of the fundamental requisites of recovery is long time investments, the visitor informed. "When fresh funds flow into our system and continue to flow, we have recovery. Now we have recovery in this country, but singularly, we haven't got the long credit." We create new I. O. U.'s, he declared.

Must Make Economic Order Work to Remedy Ills of Democracy.

Uncle Sam Foots the Bill.

In answer to a self directed question as to where the recovery we are enjoying today is coming from, the gray haired economist raised himself to his feet with the assistance of a creaking stand, and replied: "It is coming from long term borrowing and spending. But the borrowing has been done by our good old Uncle Sam."

Within a short time this entire subject will have returned to the coffers of the capitalistic few from whom it was borrowed, and we will have nothing more than a corrupt national debt to show for present recovery. "That in my humble judgment, is not a wholesome recovery. The system itself is on the dole until we can function."

ENGINEERS APPOINT DEPARTMENT HEADS FOR MAY ACTIVITIES

P. Burns, General Chairman, Announces Leaders of Exhibitions.

In order that plans and every detail for Engineers Week which will be held the first week of May, appointments of those who will head various departments in arranging for the prominent affair were made yesterday. Pete Burns, general chairman for the week, made the appointments.

Those who will head their respective departments are as follows:

- Sledge - John Mercer
Banner - Charles Minkov
Field Day - Herbert Reischer
Program - Lowell Newmyer
Convention - John Parker
Publicity - Harry Langston
Window Displays - Kenneth Clark
Ticket Sales - Donald Kuska
Campus Structure - Dick Coleman
Ribbon Sales - Paul Gambillio
Control Manager - Elmer Clausen

Selected on a basis of their participation in activities both in their own departments and in Engineering college as a whole, these men will have entire charge of Engineers' Week. More specific arrangements will be announced at a later date.

Another trophy, with the trophy presented to the Engineering school winning the field day

JUDGE B. H. PAINE SPEAKS ON 'WASHINGTON, LINCOLN'

Ag Students Hear Speech by Justice of State Supreme Court.

Urging students to make the best possible use of their educational possibilities, Judge Bayard H. Paine, of the Nebraska State Supreme Court, reviewed briefly the lives of Lincoln and Washington at an All Agricultural college convocation Thursday afternoon in Ag hall.

Comparing and contrasting the lives of the two great American statesmen, Judge Paine, whose hobby is organizing and making speeches, challenged the students to apply their natural abilities as Abraham Lincoln did, in order to lead successful lives. "With the addition of higher education today," Judge Paine stated, "every man and woman has an equal chance to make a name for him or herself in the world."

Frances Schmidt introduced the speaker of the afternoon to the gathering of 150 Agricultural college students.

CHURCH TO PRESENT THREE ACT COMEDY

Methodist Students Stage 'Marrying Anne?' Play This Evening.

"Marrying Anne?" is the title for the three act play to be given by the student group of the Trinity Methodist church, 15th and A, Friday evening, February 26, at 7:45 o'clock.

The play which is being produced under the direction of Mrs. Robert B. Slaughter, is a comedy involving many humorous situations brought about by the attempt of an elderly gentleman to marry off his grand-daughter who insists on being too modern to let a grand-parent dictate her marriage. Proceeds from the performance are to be used for buying stage equipment.

DUPONT MEETS SENIORS Personnel Manager Comes Here for Interviews.

E. F. DuPont, personnel manager of the DuPont company in Wilmington, Delaware, spent the entire day Wednesday in Lincoln interviewing students of the university. Among the twenty or so individuals who Mr. DuPont met and talked with were graduate students who are candidates for Ph. D. degrees and Master degrees this year, seniors in chemical engineering, and seniors graduating with a major in chemistry.

HONORARY ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP LOANS

Pi Lambda Theta Offers Aid to Students With High Averages.

Pi Lambda Theta loans, ranging from $200 to $1,000, are now available to worthy students with high scholastic standing and limited financial resources.

According to information received from the national offices of the women's honorary educational sorority, both men and women may apply. Juniors, seniors and graduate students are eligible, but preference will be shown to women graduate students. Applicants must be studying in the general field of education, but not necessarily with a major in education or with teaching as their intended profession.

Applicants must be able to offer some security for the loan. Repayments on the loans are to begin Jan. 1, following the close of the school year for which the student received the final loan. Interest charges, less than 5 percent annum, will begin from the date of the loan and will be payable at half year intervals or monthly installments, corresponding to the plan accepted for repayment.

MARGIE DEE HEADS FEATURE LIST OF WEEKS' PROM BAND

Pretty Songstress Gives Up Stage for Career of Vocalizing.

Inheritance plays a great part in the lives of each and every one of us, and has applied itself with no uncertain force in the case of Margie Dee, featured vocalist with Anson Weeks and his orchestra which comes to Lincoln on March 6 for the Junior-Senior prom.

Margie Dee inherited from her forebearers on her mother's side a love for music which is at least beginning to assert itself, but it was not music with which Margie, however, wanted to win for herself a place in the entertainment world.

As a child, she had always wanted to be an actress and as she grew up this yearning became even stronger when she played leading roles in high school productions, which won her ranking as the best high school actress in the state of Oklahoma for two successive years. It was purely by chance that she went in for singing, and it was this chance alone that brought her to the attention of the portly Anson Weeks.

Shakespearean Actress. As it happened, Margie was appearing on the radio in a drama-

FEBRUARY SCHOONER FEATURES WORK OF THREE NEBRASKANS

Writings by Instructors Albrecht, Johnson to Appear in Issue.

The February issue of the Prairie Schooner, which is to make its appearance in a few days, contains outstanding articles by three Nebraska writers. Two of the three authors are instructors in the university.

One of the most unusual features is an article by Erich Albrecht, instructor in the German department, entitled "A Heart Without a Country." In his letter, Mr. Albrecht deprecates the lack of emotionalism in America in comparison with the open emotionalism one finds in the German people. He writes that Americans are emotionally starved.

Maurice Johnson, instructor in English, surveys the accomplishments of the Prairie Schooner for the past ten years. The paper is a general survey of the Prairie Schooner covering outstanding

TRACTOR COMPANY SENDS SUPERVISOR

Crowell of Peoria Firm To Interview M. E. Seniors.

J. P. Crowell, supervisor of plant training at the Caterpillar Tractor company in Peoria, Ill., will be at the university Tuesday, March 2, to interview mechanical engineering students who might be interested in obtaining work with this company.

The corporation is offering a two year graduate apprenticeship course covering assembly lines, laboratories, heat treatment, foundry, pattern shop, offices, and test forms. All students interested should make appointments at once in Prof. Haney's office in mechanical engineering hall, room 203.

MARGIE DEE Featured Vocalist With Anson Weeks and His Orchestra

JACK ELSON TO PLAY AT R. O. T. C. SPONSORS TEA DANCE SATURDAY

Cadet Officers to Attend Affair as Special Guests.

Music of Jack Elson and his orchestra will be featured on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 27, when members of the R. O. T. C. sponsors organization honor officers of the Nebraska cadet corps at a tea dance from 3 to 5:30 o'clock at the Cornhusker hotel.

According to plans revealed by Mary Yoder, honorary colonel and president of the sponsors' organization, presidents and social chairmen of organized women's houses and sponsors of last year's military units will also attend the affair as special guests. In addition to these, approximately 100 women recognized as leaders in campus activities will be present.

Expressing her hope that cadet officers and sponsors will make definite plans to attend the tea dance, Miss Yoder commented, "Plans for the dance are complete and from present indications we are hoping to make this year's affair unusually successful. Because of this we are anxious that those invited make a special effort to attend the event on Saturday afternoon."

Committees which have been working on arrangements for the affair include: General committee, Marian Rolland, chairman; Betty Van Horn, June Butler and Virginia Foster; room committee, Jean Doty, chairman; Betty Rowland and Muriel Krasme; food committee, Marjorie Bannister, chairman; Betty Widener and Pet Lahr; orchestra, Ruth Thygeson, chairman; Irene Sellers and Dorothy Chapelow; invitations, Virginia Anderson, chairman; Jane Brackett and Jane Walcott.

DR. LYMAN EDITS NEW PHARMACY JOURNAL

Nebraska Dean Publishes First Issue of Drug Quarterly.

Dr. Rufus A. Lyman, dean of the college of pharmacy, as editor of the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education, recently published the first issue of his magazine. It is a journal of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy and is published every three months by that organization.

At the last meeting held at Dallas Tex., the society decided to publish quarterly a journal of its activities and selected Doctor Lyman as the editor of it. Doctor Lyman is also a member of the executive committee of the association of which 55 institutions are members. Included in the first reports of the national convention, an article in memory of the late Dr. Theodore Bradley who was president of the association at the time of his death, as well as numerous other articles dealing with questions of current interest in the field of pharmaceutical education.

Students Interested in Theological Work May Meet With Leslie

Dr. Elmer A. Leslie, professor of Hebrew, and Old Testament at the Boston University School of Theology is to be on the Nebraska campus March 6 and 7 to confer with students that are planning for a ministerial career or for any other branch of full time church work.

Conferences with Dr. Leslie may be arranged with Rev. Robert E. Drey at any time during the coming week for the hours that the visiting ecclesiastic is not engaged in addressing young people's groups.

STUDENT BOARD STAMPS FAVOR ON CONSTITUTION

Faculty, Regents, Alumni Association to View New Document.

Coincident with the beginning of excavation for Nebraska's embryonic Student Union building this week, members of the special student council committee met yesterday afternoon to discuss the provisions of the first tentative draft of the building's constitution.

Before the document can be submitted to the student council for approval, it must be considered and accepted by representatives of the faculty, the Alumni association, and the Board of Regents. When it has received the recommendation of these three bodies, it will be returned to the committee and submitted to the council in a Liberal Document.

Altho provisions of the constitution have been withheld until it is in final form for submission to the council, Marylu Petersen, committee chairman, declared that it was a liberal document and should meet with the entire approval of the student body.

Miss Petersen and Arnold Le-

(Continued on Page 2.)

STATE ART SOCIETY OPENS 47TH EXHIBIT IN MORRILL SUNDAY

Show Paintings by Leading Prize Winning Artists of Country.

Following a custom that is in its 47th year, the Nebraska Art association will open its annual art exhibit Sunday afternoon in the galleries of Morrill hall with a program that is especially arranged for the members. Monday, however, will begin a period of four weeks during which the public will be privileged to view the exhibit, the most important art showing of the year in Lincoln.

Two galleries of paintings have been chosen by the association that represent the works of the leading and prize-winning artists of the country as well as many different schools of thought, kinds of views, and types of paintings.

Among the canvases that the association has secured by considerable effort to please its patrons are "My Mother and Father" by John Stuart Curry, which was reproduced in color in the first issue of "Life"; "Miners Resting," by Paul Sample, an artist who was greatly appreciated at last year's exhibit; and works of both Thomas Benton and Grand Wood. Other artists that will be represented in this collection will be Lauren Ford, by her "Little Boy Blue"; Maurice Pendergast, a

(Continued on Page 4.)

H. RIDER TO PLAY ON 'BONE-O-PHONE' FOR DELIAN UNION

Henry Rider, who earns his bread and butter putting together pieces of prehistoric animals in the basement of Morrill Hall, has constructed a unique musical instrument which he has dubbed a "bone-o-phone." This instrument, constructed out of odds and ends of bones left over from dinosaurs and armadillos, will accompany Mr. Rider on a jaunt up to Room 503, Temple building Friday night, Feb. 26, at 9 o'clock, where the pair will entertain members of the Delian Union Literary society with a novel recital.

An added feature will be an illustrated lecture on Carlsbad cavern, to be given by Assistant Professor Edwin A. Grone, of the department of electrical engineering. All unaffiliated students are cordially invited to attend.

Y. M. C. A. DISCUSSION GROUP TO MEET AT NOON

Topic, 'Qualifications for Discipleship,' Stresses Life of Christ.

All university men interested in a discussion of important features in the life of Jesus and the relation of these characteristics to problems of modern life will meet today at a luncheon to be held in room 6 of Grant Memorial hall. Secretary C. D. Hayes of the campus Y. M. C. A., who is in charge of the entire series of pre-Easter discussion meetings, states that the subject of the meeting this noon will be "Qualifications for Discipleship," with emphasis placed on a study of the absolute commitment required of those who follow Jesus. Elmer Horstman, junior in arts and sciences college, has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of the remaining meetings.