LAWRENCE PLEADS FOR UPHOLDING OF OLD CONSTITUTION

Republican Leader Speaks At Founder's Day Dinner In Booth at Moon.

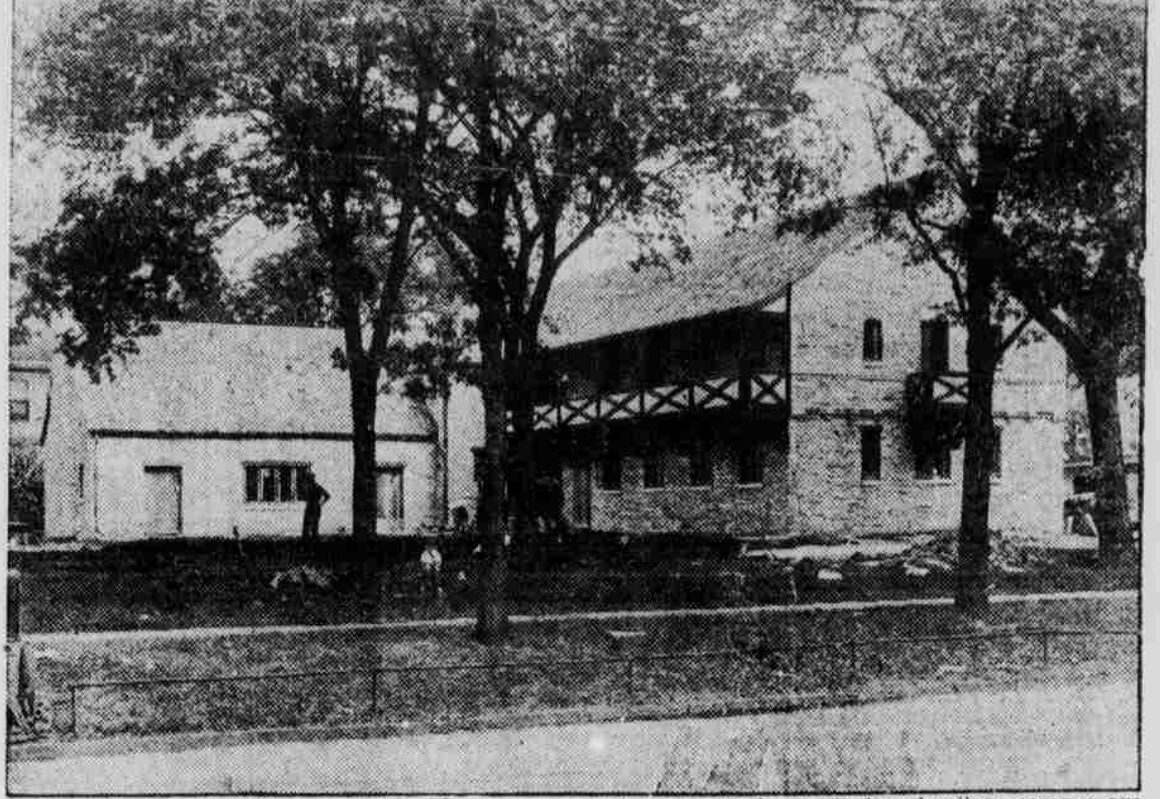

'Let's stick to that old constitution—it's good enough for Simons and it's good enough for me,' pleaded James E. Lawrence, die-hard Republican leader as he left the speakers stand at the founder's day banquet of the Republican party held in the rear booth of the Moon. Lawrence launched a scalding attack on all present administrative policies...

Stop Federal Relief. 'We must, my friends, put a cut in the throat of federal relief. It is absolutely against the principles of our great democratic nation and the sooner that our relief burden is relieved thru Republican forces this problem will be solved. The Democratic party is not dead, nor is Roosevelt a "wet blanket" in his small circle of Democratic friends...

H. SAM FRANCIS DONS BURNETT'S BOOTS AS PREXY (Continued from Page 1.) appointment as the highest executive of the university. "I don't know much about the workings of a university," he offered. "But in case they are ever in need of another coach I'll certainly shine there."

STROKE GETS THOMAS TO SPEAK AT TEMPLE (Continued from Page 1.) tions, since Harry Elmer Barnes and John T. Flynn could be classed as little more than lavender liberals. It is in the interests of this minority, whose interests, by the way, should be protected in a democracy, that we have secured Mr. Thomas."

SLAUGHTER REPORTER. For several days a staff man was assigned to spy out the activities of the department members and to report their doings. One whole day he spent in the office of the Chief Investigator, hiding behind a stack of papers and books. He found nothing unusually until accidentally rubbing his perspiring brow with an old newspaper, he discovered that he was holding a recent copy of 'The Daily Worker'...

FARMERS FAIR BOARD INVADERS HORSE BARN IN SIT-DOWN STRIKE (Continued from Page 1.) building, but none were admitted except Dean Burr's secretary, who carried a large brief case and seemed to be the go-between in the struggle for supremacy.

Gridiron Dinner Tonight. Down But Not Out. Marjorie Francis, waving a small red flag, denied any communistic leanings and led the assembled crowds in a number of the Farmer's Fair rally songs.

EASTERN CHORUS GIRLS TO MODEL IN COED FOLLIES (Continued from Page 1.) modeled by this striking quartet. Shoes and purses of onion skin will serve as accessories with the outfits.

Gridiron Dinner Tonight. BARBARISMS. By Joan & John Barb. The most epochal coup in all of Nebraska Barb history was staged by the Barb Interclub council at a special meeting held last night in U. hall when the Barbs, seeking by a surprise move to demoralize Greek forces, decided to bolt their faction and run independently in the election May 11, Council President Austin Moritz personally led the leftist movement which offered them the support of four fraternities. He declared that the Barbs had lately become so aroused against their lack of representation in campus offices that new ballot boxes of sufficient proportions to accommodate the anticipated 3,200 Barb votes were being ordered.

RECREATION

If we had a PICTURE, we would run it at the TOP of the page. It would be used to ILLUSTRATE this editorial. But we don't have a picture. So this will be an UNILLUSTRATED editorial. This is an editorial on ALL WORK AND NO PLAY MAKES JACK A DULL BOY. The SAGES of history have handed down that FAMOUS principle. The Romans, the Babylonians—ALL agreed with its context. Even CARLYLE said WORK IS OUR ONLY SALVATION, BUT IT'S MORE FUN TO PLAY. And Justice McReynolds says WE SHOULD ALL BE GOOD SPORTS. In the LABOR THEORY OF VALUE, Karl Marx makes provision for FUN as well as WORK. The NEBRASKAN likes to PLAY. The NEBRASKAN believes that one out of ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY editions and TWO TABLOIDS should be GOOD CLEAN FUN. The NEBRASKAN could find no better date for JOYOUS YOUTH to indulge in FESTIVITIES than APRIL FOOL'S DAY. We hope you ain't mad.

VIGILANTEISM

This is a MUST editorial. In newspaper parlance, a MUST editorial is one that the CHIEF says you MUST run. MR. HEARST did not send us a telegram from SAN SIMEON or NEW YORK telling us that we MUST run this one. Neither did the CHIEF in WASHINGTON, nor the COMRADE in Moscow who sends us our monthly allowance. We decided this one MUST run because of shimmering flannel will be modeled by Virginia Hyatt, Eleanor Kelly, Muriel Krasne, and Pat Peterson. The latest in "red undie" lingerie will be shown in the review by the famed trio of Deloris Bors, Dorothy Bose, and Virginia Crisp. Climaxing the review will be the appearance of Betty Widener, Ruth Rapalae, and Virginia Anderson in breakfast costumes of waffle cloth. Shades of eggshell and peach will be featured in these outfits. As for the rest of the costumes of the 979 models, Miss Cherny refused to comment, explaining, "With this galaxy of pulchritude going on review we feel that there is little need for further comment. We are sure that there will be a capacity crowd with the amount of information we have given already and we know it won't be possible to seat more than a thousand on the picket fence." Martha Morrow, skirt chairman, backed Miss Cherny in her statement by saying, "Tickets are on sale at 25c."

of the INTOLERABLE situation on our CAMPUS. SMOKING in the halls must STOP. All the GREAT MINDS have opposed SMOKING. SARAH LOUISE MEYER says "It makes a chimney of the nose." It also makes little MARKS in the LINOLEUM floors of our hallways. If it does not stop VOLUNTARILY, we shall have to resort to VIGILANTEISM. VIGILANTES are people who wear black robes and swear to blood oaths. No NICE PEOPLE like VIGILANTES. So you'd better stop SMOKING in the halls.

COMMUNISM

This is an editorial on COMMUNISM. COMMUNISM is a SUBVERSIVE force that threatens the CONSTITUTION we love. The CONSTITUTION stands as a mighty wall holding back the sea of FREE LOVE and threats to AMERICAN PROGRESS that come with COMMUNISM. Some people would rather live under a TYRANT like STALIN than a BENEVOLENT DICTATOR like MR. ROOSEVELT, whom we love.
