The DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXVII, No. 3.37 THE DAILY NEBRASKAN, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1937

Husker Rally Ties Jayhawks, 13-13

Revue Presents Margaret McKay 1937 Sweetheart

Zeta Beta Tau-Pi K.A., Alpha Klub Fall Show Reveals Phi Win Kosmet Skit Contest.

Alpha Phi's act, "Society Section," won the silver loving cup in the sorority competition at the Kosmet Klub's eleventh annual fall revue at the Stuart theater yesterday morning, while the Zeta Beta Tau-Pi Kappa Alpha combination production of "Acropolis No. 7" took top honors in the fraternity contest. For the best curtain act, Chi Omega sorority won the new cup award for the first time this year with their skit entitled "The Big Apple.

A huge crowd filled the theater to witness the show and by their applause judged the acts. Cups were presented by Winfield Elias, president of the klub, assisted by Web Mills, business manager, Ray Ramsay, who acted as master of the ceremonies for the revue, interpreted the audience's applause in selection the winning acts.

N. U. Queens Reviewed.

An elaborate backdrop painted to represent the front page of the society section of the Sunday Jour-nal and Star established the theme of the Alpha Phi act. A headline proclaimed the revelation of the "Queens of N. U.," and one by one four large pictures were given the spotlight, in each appearing a girl representing one of the honorary

(Continued on Page 3).

BARB WOMEN GATHER AT BREAKFAST TODAY

A.W. S. Division Entertains 75 Girls at Affair in Ellen Smith Hall.

Approximately 75 barb women attend the breakfast this morning in Ellen Smith from 8 to 9:30, sponsored by the barb A. W. board. Games, entertainment and group singing will make

Chairmen in charge of arrange-Marion tickets; Edith Filley, decorations; Ruth Green, entertainment; and Helen Severa, menu. Miss McAllister urged all unaffiliated women to attend the breakfast, commenting that "a breakfast on Sunday morning would provide an excellent opportunity for barb women to become better acquainted with old friends and also to make new friends, Tickets for the affair are 15

MISS ZABRISKIE TO GIVE RECITAL THIS AFTERNOON

Musical Honorary to Sponsor Presentation of 'Cello Instructor.

Delta Omicron, musical honorary sorority, will present Miss er's ticket, while those selling $16 Bettie Zabriskie, 'cello instructor worth will receive a bonus "good of the school of music, in a recital in uniform" ticket, both stamped Sunday afternoon, at the home of complimentary. Mrs. Arthur L. Smith, a patroness

'cellist, Alexanian.

Al Moseman as New Prince Kosmet.

Stepping forth from a large red atin heart to the strains of Sweet Nebraska Sweetheart" satin Margaret McKay was revealed as 1937 Nebraska Sweetheart to the audience at the annual fall Kosmet Klub revue yesterday morn-Miss McKay, a junior from Lincoln in the arts and science college, and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, was chosen by popular vote of the men on the campus at an election several weeks ago, but her identity was kept secret until the revue.

Margaret McKay.

On the stage the new Sweet-heart was met by Al Moseman. who, as Prince Kosmet, presented her with a bouquet of American Beauty roses. While the audience applauded, the two crossed the stage to the throne to pay their respects and receive congratula-tions from Winfield Elias, King Kosmet and president of the Klub,

(Continued on Page 2.)

ROTC STUDENTS TO SELL MILITARY BALL TICKETS

Cadets Get Complimentary Ducats as Bonuses for High Sales.

Ticket sale for the annual Mili-tary ball began Thursday, Nov. p. The campaign on the campus is being conducted by the R. O. T. C. students. Gold & Co., Magee's, and Latsch Brothers are also offering tickets for sale.

Only R. O. T. C, students are to be used this year as active salesmen and appropriate recognition will be given to the company selling the most tickets. Dancers' tickets will cost $2, tickets for basic students who wish to dance in their uniforms, $1.25, and spectator tickets will be 35c. tickets "good in uniform" can be obtained only at the military science office in Nebrasica hall. Cook Heads Drive.

Salesmen selling $20 worth of tickets will receive a bonus danc-

The sales campaign is directed of the sorority. Mr. Herbert by the Military ball ticket com-Schmidt, also a member of the mittee headed by Ben Cook, cadet school faculty, will accompany lieutenant colonel. Company rep-Miss Zabriskie at the piano.

Miss Zabriskie studied last year mittee will be in charge of the at the Paris Ecole Normal, where sale in their respective companies. The speaker was introduced by her instructor was the famous Company tactical officers will Mr. Charles Smrhs, of the state keep a weekly account of the sale. insurance department.

PLAYERS TO OPEN RUSSIAN COMEDY ON MONDAY NIGHT

'Squaring the Circle" Mocks Philosophy of the Soviet.

Curtains of the Temple theater stage will rise tomorrow night on the University Players' second production of the year, "Squaring the Circle," a hilarious Russian farce which will be shown by its cast of ten for seven perform-ances ending Saturday.

The four prominent roles in the show will be carried by Ruth Van Siyke, Max Gould, Shirley Potter and Smith Davis. Miss Van Siyke is Ludmilla, a Russian miss who is a bit too kittenish to enjoy the restrictions of communism; Gould portrays Vasya, an earnest young Russian whose heart and soul is in the party; Shirley Potter is the girl communist who has the soviet philosophy of life; and Smith Davis will be seen in the part of Abram, who has slightly bourge-

Other members of the cast are Waldemar Mueller, the poet; Robert Johnston, the chairman of the number of the Nebraska literary magazine is receiving considerable attention outside of the university with the majority of the sales being off the campus.

(Continued on Page 4.)

FALL SCHOONER ISSUE TO MAKE APPEARANCE ON STANDS THIS WEEK

Magazine Features Twenty Literary Works; Sale Ends Friday.

For the first time in Prairie Schooner history, the magazine is going to have an art director, Arlo mentions in the fraternity decora-monroe. This circulation manager tion contest. for the year is to be Marion Mc-Alister Norman Bolker business Alister, Norman Bo manager, announced Friday.

Fred Koch's Caricature.

Within the traditional orange covers of the little magazine are offered some 20 literary attempts. Fred Koch's caricature of "Plip-pit and the Dean's Son" is the only contribution from a student on the campus.

From the British Isles comes Ivy O. Eastwich's poem "Beans at Candelmas" based on an old English rhyme. Among other poots

CZECH CLUB HEARS BANKER

(Continued on Page 3).

Comenius Members Advised On Value of Work.

Mr. E. E. Placek of Wahoo, president of the rural bank-ers' convention, addressed the members of the Comenius Club Friday evening at their meeting in the Temple. His talk concerned the value of work and education in the day of economic unrest.

Mr. Placek advised the students: "Don't get the idea that when you graduate, the world will be at your feet. Work and more work is the only method which will put you on the road of suc-

A.W.S. Board Takes Report Of Women Monday

Girls who were appointed as point leaders for barb women are isked to meet tomorrow, Monday at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith, with Faith Mediar, and Marian Mc-Allister, co-activities points chairmen, and Helen Severa, freshman advisor of the barb A. W. S. board. At this time, all points earned by barb girls will be re-ported to the board.

All barb girls interested in receiving points for meetings tended and service rendered are urged to report to their point leader all points to which they are entitled.

KAPPA SIG, ALPHA PHI WIN '37 HOMECOMING DECORATION HONORS

Alpha Chi. S.A.E., Tri-Delt, Acacia Place in Annual Display Contest.

A page from Esquire and a pic-ture of Biff Jones shooting a can-non loaded with Husker grid stars won for Alpha Phi and Kappa Sigma respectively, first places in the sorority and fraternity divisions of the annual Homecoming decorations contest, it was announced at the Innocents' Homecoming ball last night.

The winning sorority decoration depicted a tall and luscious "Pet-ty" girl in the arms of a Husker football player while a very small and dejected Jayhawk player watches wistfully and says, "I wonder if Biff Jone, gives a correspondence course in football."

Jones Shoots Jayhawk.

In the Kappa Sigma group a beaverboard replica of Biff Jones aims a cannon loaded with Cornhuskers at a Jayhawk.

Judges of the decorations were Morris Gordon, university instruc-tor in fine arts, and Richard Ernesti, jr., display manager of a The Prairie Schooner will be on downtown store. Judging was sale Monday to Friday of this made at 8 o'clock Friday night, week in Andrews hall. This fall's but results were kept secret until the Innocents' ball Saturday.

Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Delta Delta won honorable mentions in the competition among sororities. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, last year's fraternity prize winner, and Acacia also received honorable

FROSH TRIUMPH AGAIN TO THROW 'TOPPERS' AWAY

The red caps are gone! Once again the freshmen emerged victorious in the annual freshmensophomore tug-of-war! Saturday's battle of brawn, surpassing even the Nebraska-Kansas game, saw a mere handful of freshmen (about 600) conquer a mighty horde of sophomores (I distinctly saw three). The mighty sophomores, intent on keeping the red caps on the campus for a while longer took a tight hold on the rope, gritted their teeth, dug their heels into the ground, pulled, and were pulled a fourth of the way around the track by the supposedly outclassed freshmen, who barely found enough space on the rope for all of them to get a hold

Rifle Club Members Get Trophies, Medals at Meeting Monday

The Rifle club will meet at Nebraska hall Monday at 5 p. m. to present trophies and medals won at club matches shot during the week ending tomorrow, according

BARB POINT LEADERS MEET SCARLET STAGES DESPERATE DRIVE IN LAST MINUTES

Howell, Callihan Buck Line For Nebraska Scores: Jays Surprise.

In a desperate drive during the closing minutes of the game, the Nebraska Cornhuskers managed to cross the Kansas Jayhawks' goal line for a second time and knot the score as a Homecom-Day crowd of about 35,000 people watched two teams fight to a 13-13

Going into the game as the Jayhawks succeeded in penetrating the famed Nebraska line for consistent gains during the en- BILL CALLIHAN tire game. Ne- From Lincoln Journal braska backs were held throughout the contest by the inspired Kansas forward wall and with the exception of a couple of extended thrusts failed to crush the lighter Kansas line:

First blood was drawn in the initial period when alert Jayhawks capitalized on a Nebraska fumble on the Nebraska 17 and converted the break into a score.

Andrews took a punt from (Continued on Page 4.)

DR. DOYLE ADDRESSES 175TH A. C. S. MEETING

Northwestern Professor in Speech to Chemists Monday Night.

When the Nebraska section of the American Chemical Society meets Monday evening at 7:30 in the auditorium of the chemistry building, it will mark the 175th gathering of the group since its ounding in 1895. Every consecu tive year since its establishment the organization here has held four or five meetings a year which have brought to Lincoln the most eminent chemists in the world. De, Malcolm Dole of Northwestern university has been invited to iddress the 175th meeting on the subject "The Glass Electrode"

According to Dr. E. R. Washburn of the chemistry department here, the Nebruska section was the first local chanter to be entablished west of the Mississippi river and was the sixth section to ever be organized.

Rockefeller Institute Research.

Dr. Doyle for several years was associated with Dr. D. A. Mac-Innes in research at the Rockefeller institute for medical re-search. Since 1932 he has been at Northwestern. he has worked with the glass electrode he has made several importent contributions to scientific knowledge concerning this important tool of biochemists, biologists, botanists, and industrial chemists.

The meeting Monday evening is open to the public. Officers of the Nebraska section this year are Dr. C. S. Hamilton, councilor; Dr. B. Hendricks, chairman; Prof. R. to Sgt. C. F. McGinsey, coach. At the same time a group picture will be taken for the Cornhusker, All tee; Dr. H. A. Pagel, executive members are especially urged to utive committee. C. Abbott, vice chairman; Dr. E. R. Washburn, secretary-treasurer;