

Bruce Campbell

ILL WILL VERSUS KILL WILL?

dents in an eastern university formed an organization known as the Veterans of Future Wars. The treasurer collected dues, the move-mean is that an organization similar to the Veterans of Future Wars has been founded at the University Japan.

of Georgia in Atlanta. It's An III Willi.

The Institute of International Illwill" is the name of the new society and its announced purpose is to be burlesque war and militarism.

lcinson, and other chapters will be getting his formal education here day by Winfield Elias, president formed in colleges all over the returned there in 1918.

Cablegram for Adolph.

The first constructive act of the I. I. I. was a cablegram to Adolph Hitler. The first draft advised Hitler to "quit stalling and fight Austria" but was refused by two telegraphic companies who said it might lead to international complications. "That's just what we wanted.

said Quartermastergeneral Telbert liamstown Institute of Politics, Chiof the I. L. I., referring to "intercago university, Northwestern national complications." That remark seems contradictory to the many other leading schools, purpose of the satirical group. Clark has spoken mu bullets start whizzing the whole affair loses the aspect of a burlesque upon war, Another message was drafted, however, and given a more subtle wording. The second one read: "We are all behind you and the eight ball. We recommend Austria for your growing This was accepted by one company and should make very good reading for the seventh assistant secretary under the vice-president in charge of cablegrams in Hitler's cabinet.

The Institute of International who do good work along the line of kibitzing, ridiculing, and the fostering of inharmony, Commander Atkinson announced that a beautifully painted plaque would Butler, U. S. Army, retired, for distinguished service. This plaque is to be the first in a series of awards for conspicuous servie.

The I. I. I. is just an infant organization and as such can stand a few suggestions as to the correct antagonizing procedure.

How to Antagonize.

They could send an Illwill messenger to write slanderous messages in the streets of Berlin and ruin Hitler's prestige. Signs on the sidewalk and fences such as "Hitler is a gooneypuss" or 'Yah, yah, Adolf's got a girl.' Or the Illwill messenger could start a whispering campaign bruiting it about that Hitler does not like pork-pie. You can see what a spot that would put him on. Then, too, if the I. I. I. could persuade a philanthropist to do a little philanthroping, they could take the money and bribe Hitler's barber to shave off his mustache. This would undoubtedly cause him to lose Then the Iliwill messenger in against Hitler, by writing insult. were Virginia Flectwood and Viring messages and signing Hitler's ginia Nolte. name. Such as: "The Duce 's a goose—Hitler," or "My wife can lick your wife, I betcha—Adolf." Little incidentals such as time clocks, bombs and the like would also tend to promote a healthy spirit of friction

If the members of the I, I, I are fraternity men, they un doubtedly know quite a few ways of making ill will. We are afraid, however, that one or two more cablegrams will make a pretty deep hole in the treasury of the I. I. I. and that publicity for members of the organization is about all that will be accom-

Candy Kid Tells Of Experiences And Competition

By John Stuart.

"I've been selling candy on this campus for four years, which is longer than anyone else," states Ray Span, one of the little candy

Competition is stiff in the candy bushiess. Besides having to get to the campus immediately after school is let out, the boys have to keep intruders out of their business. Each boy sells his candy in only one or two buildings. Ray is the scoate. limited to "U" hall and shares This question of an alliance with honors with his friend in selling to Great Britain recently brought limited to "U" hall and shares the R. O. T. C. soldiers.

during summer session he tried to "irreconcilables" who opposed out to be a fizzle.

THE DAILY WEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXVII, NO. 88.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1938

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Convo Lecturer Speaks Monday on Oriental War

Approximately a year ago, star Grover Clark, Noted Writer, Comes to Nebraska From Denver U.

ment collected attention, and now the organization files are collect-the few Americans who know the real problems underlying the far ing dust.

real problems underlying the far
But progress is constantly proeastern struggle, will appear Mongressing, the show must go on, day morning at 11 in the Temple youth must be served, and other theater. Clark will address the similar expressions. What we university convocation, which is open to the public, on the subject. "The Conflict Between China and

The speaker is widely recognized not only in this country but also abroad as one of the leading authorities in two fields of great international interest, particularly at the present-developments in the far east and the problems centering around the colonies in that One Buddy Atkinson is the com-mander and father of the idea.

Membership in his brain-child is for more than a century. He him-divisions this year, according to fast increasing, according to At- self was born in Japan and after "A Place in Two of his books, in 1935 and 1936. He has been another chairman of the round table on far eastern affairs at the University Virginia's Institute of Public Affairs and has given special courses in this field at the Wil-

Clark has spoken numerous since when a real war starts and times on the program of the foreign political associations in New York and elsewhere and before such organizations as the American Bankers association, National Credit Men's association, the National Council for Prevention of War and the League of Women university as professor of nomics in the fall of 1937.

ALPHA CHI O'S ANNEX WITH 'KISSES' BOOTH

Record - Breaking Casts Heavy Ballot For Winner.

Fortune-telling booths, . photo galleries, gambling concessions were east aside by the voting carnival-goers at the Coed Counselors Penny Carnival yesterday in favor of "Alpha Chi Kisses." sponsoring the most popular booth the members of Alpha Chi Omega Forensic Teams Meet Seven were presented with a silver loving cup bearing the engraved name of their sorority.

Receiving second piace in the concession competition was Kappa Alpha Theta for their shooting gallery and third place was awarded to last year's victor, Gamma Phi Bela, for their bowl-

The Penny Carnival, sponsored annually by the Coed Counselor group, was attended by a larger rowd than in former years. Over 500 students attended and at times the space in the Armory was Italy could antagonize Mussolini taxed. Co-chairmen for the event

THE WEATHER

Tomorrow's sun will thaw out the frozen ears and noses that have been taking a beating the past week. The forecast is mostly cloudy with rising temperature.

FRATERNITY SING CONTEST REVISED

Houses to Compete in Two Divisions for Ivy Day Awards.

Interfraternity sing competition, an announcement released vesters of such presentations.

the Sun" and "The Balance Sheets the basis of size of the competing of Imperialism," were published as the result of an exhaustive study large memberships competing in entation of which she is worthed which he made for the Carnegie one division, those with comparaendowment for international peace tively few members competing in attract more fraternities, and pur- sity, ticularly more small groups, into from the practical and the aesthetic entering the sing, stated Elias.

Beginning this year with the by a $25 production cost. sing to be held during Ivy day not offer the same song or songs this year that hey sang on last duce his idea, which the prom-comyear's Ivy day program. The Klub mittee promises will surpass their has instituted this rule in order all since "Noah built the ark." to abolish the custom of some He joined the staff at Denver fraternities of using the same songs year after year. Now at least one year must clapse before a song may be repeated. File Contest Entries.

Filings of entries in the 1938 ing are now being accepted by the Klub, and they may be made either with Elias or with William Tempei. Elias stated that the school of music has offered to assist, without obligation, any fraternity requesting aid in pre-paring and practicing for the sing. Fraternities, in filing, will not state which division they wish to Crowd enter. The Klub will divide the entries into the two groups according to size after the deadline for filing, as yet unannounced, has

HASTINGS DEBATERS GIVE HUSKERS BUSY WEEK-END

Times in Two - Day Period.

On Thursday and Friday two de sate teams of the University of Nebraska engaged in a series of seven discussions with students of Hastings college. Forrest Wilke and Leo Turkel upheld the affirmative of the "compulsory arbitraquestion, and Eugene H. Curtiss and Ernest Wintroub upheld the negative of the "unicam-Debates on the first subject were ner fore the debate class of the Aurora argued with Hustings before a general assembly of students of at Hastings college on Thursday evening, and before a general as sembly of the students of York high school Friday afternoon.

Prof. Hill Warns Against British Naval Alliances, Asks Rationalism in Far Eastern Diplomatic Policy

Political Scientist Says U. S. Has Nothing to Conserve by War in Orient.

"There have been rumors reing between the navies of Great Britain and the United States, in the nature of an executive agreement, made under the ultimate authority of the president," states Prof. Norman L. Hill, student of international affairs. "Whether such an agreement exists or not "Whether we hall no way of knowing as yet. But I am sure that there is no formal alliance with Great Britain in treaty form, Certainly no such treaty has been before William E. Borah Senators Ray sells candy throughout the Idaho and Hiram Johnson of Cali-nine months of school. One year fornia, two of the small band of sell ice cream but it was a poor declaration of war in 1917, on to business proposition and turned the floor of congress demanding of Secretary of State Hull whether or The candy boys who sell candy not we had an alliance. The anon the campus probably have the swer was "no." However, the quessame sentiments as Ray Span who tion of existence of such an al-remarked simply to the question of liance has made many wonder whether he liked to sell candy, "I about the wisdom that such an agreement would contain.

Norman L. Hill.

"I do not believe that an alli-(Continued on Page 4.)

OF CAROLL GAREY Group Selects Campbell's Presentation Plan co Alternate. For his clever impression of how card st., will be awarded the $10 prize offered by the Junior-Senior

CHOOSES SCHEME

prom committee for the best pres-entation plot. Bruce Campbell, jun-ior and Awgwan editor, composed prove impractical.

Worthy Presentation.

"Since we are attempting to glo-The divisions will be made upon rify the position of prom girl this ne basis of size of the competing year by a general student election. In other words, we have selected our presentation and we think we Steeves, co-chairman,

each idea was considered

Besides Garey and Campbell festivities on May 1, a new reguinces were also submitted by Arlo lation is to be observed by the Monroe, liah Mac Rengler, Doro-Riab whereby no fraternity may thy Sandfort. Francis Kochnic. They Call Me Dry, sing the same song two years in Eldon McIlravy and Marjorie a row. That is, organizations may Churchill.

Caroll will construct and pro-

Men's Pep Club Will Choose Members From Group of Workers.

Corn Cobs, men's reprimanded pep club, will take drastic steps in the near future to rectify the ull in activity of the club. It was lecided at a recent meeting that a plan should be attempted wherenew initiates will be accepted into the club only on a competitive

The significant red sweaters, which have been worn only spasmodically during the recent weeks, will now be worn on all days preceding athletic events, on days of the events, and on days of club meetings. If adopted, this mea-sure will be enforced by a fine chairman in last Wednesday's assembly.

The Corn Cobs also made arrangements for their annual dindance. tentatively scheduled held at Hastings college, before for May 15. The place of the event the Rotary club; at Holdroge, be- and the band have not yet been decided. The new proposal of comhigh school, and before a student peritive entrance into the club assembly at Seward. On the unimay be employed in preparation cameral subject, the negative team for this party, the pleages' interest in the organization being partially scertained by their work done Aurora high school, before a group. Other duties to be assigned to aspiring members will include ticket sales and general assignments made by active members. such a plan can be carried out Initiation will be postponed until Corn Cobs' next meeting will be Wednezday, February 23.

SCHILLING PRESENTS

Physicist Gives Illustrated Address on 'Waves' Monday Night.

Dr. H. K. Schilling, professor of physics at Union college, will address the University of Nebranks chapter of Sigma Xi Monday even ning at 7.30 in the lecture room of Brace physics laboratory, on the subject "The Properties of Waves." The address will be in the form of a demonstration lecture, illustical times of high pitch sound waves, including the fundation lecture. The address will be in the form of a demonstration lecture, illustically concessions, ambling thru the business messages, to anyone within the building.

Turtles raced for the A O Pi's sound waves, including the fundamentals of wave theory as applied the other. particularly to the phenomena of reflection, interference and diffrac-The meeting is open to the

Infantry Officers See

ance of any kind, formal or in-formal, with Great Britain and ning at 7:30 in room 110 of Ne-

of Extra-Curriculars U.S. Civilization of Today

Just Published in 1938 University Series.

PROM COMMITTEE Current Survey-Poll

"Twentieth century civilization stitious. he alternate winner, to be used in here in the United States is after the event Caroll's plan should all not so much different from that rove impractical. of the time of Plato." These are Twelve ideas were submitted in the words of the late Professor all, many of which were usable. Prusser Frye whose philosophy However, Caroll's plan smacked and wit has touched the lives of of impressiveness, originality and hundreds of Nebraska men and sophistication, declared the com- women and whose principal work,

The author points out the likebe hard to find in our literature, including Shakespeare itself, a clearer mirror of the times than the up before our own civilization. The people among whom he lived and have something there," stated Ed ings are not so dissimilar from great talkers, tremendous boasters. unconscionable politicians; quite standpoint and each was limited venal, dishonest; luxurious and by a $25 production cost. devoid of scruples, corruptible, ful capable of paying themselves with words to any extent, skeptical, ar-rogant, self-conceited, and super-stitious."

his activities of higher education?

These are the questions which the Deparement of Secondary Ed-

to Show Actual Value

Prof. Frye also bints at a simdarity between the Greek civiliza- university. The survey is being tion and that of today which bodes ill for us. "The I may be mistaken in thinking for my own part that the nemesis of the Athenians was to investigate the ments of the mittee. The winning author is a "Plato," left behind him at his politics, as it is like to prove our student in the university, having death in 1934 has just been pub- own, yet there can be little doubt formerly been enrolled in a Min- lished as the first number in the of the danger in both cases from jealousy of public life, a danger so much the greater in our society nesses of the modern Americans from the fact that even the women and the ancient Greeks: "It would are no longer exempt from its se- replies will be received. About five ductions."

that which this early Greek holds periors to people of today. In no trace extra-curricular activities up before our own civilization. The one is this clarity of mind displayed better than in Plato, writes findings will be used by Mr. Frye. The Greek had already student council in 1939 for abandoned the study of nature for study of the activities set-up. Two cups will be awarded, one The rules which govern the conto the winner of each division. It test were that an author of a plan thoroly democratic; they were preferred humanity and cities. He thoroly democratic; they were felt no fascination for obscurity felt no fascination for obscurity and he found profundity distaste-

Piato, writes Prof. Frye, has (Continued on Page 3.)

But Wet Am I-COED FOLLIES SKITS The Library Leaks By A. Library Book.

Here I sit so lonely and sad, frayed and worn and pretty darn bad, covered with dust so thick and black, gasping for breath on this buried old rack, Once I was happy, gay with youth, telling the story of some super-sleuth, demanded by all - best seller was I. good old times when stories were about her waist. that roaked me thru and made me pain. They put me in an oven slot to dry my belly an It dried me, yes, and boiled my guils, and made me stink, like Swingle's huts. And then one time a laughing gal checked me outas if a pal-and read me some but then the phone; she tossed me far and made me mean. My back was broke, the doctor said. I needed care but first a bed-hospital clean and pretty coed, the first I'd seen that had a head. But that was so long age when books were never known to know of rain and cold and all the rest that make our lives so much unblest. But now the buildings leak and sway and make us frightened books to pray for weather fair and warm and clear and students who don't drink beer. Yes, here I sit so lonely and sby, just an old book that looks amn dry," dirty and crippled, broken and sad that comes from an age that was "awful bad." A million tones have read me thru; over successes heights I flew. But age is here; they know me not, but leave me in this dust to rot And failing always is the dust buried under, so die I must; but where I go I can not tell; I only know in God I trust ..

Group to Award Trophy Cup to Act That Receives Most Applause.

Judging of Coed Follies skits is told only in rhymes, the days theater March 24. The when horses were still in good judging committee, composed of and a lady were things seven A. W. S. board members her waist. will visit the 13 seconity houses But some how things have and 4 barb houses that have enturned for the worst and wicked tered the contest and will review arships and fellowships in engipeople came in like Hearst. There their acts. In accordance with was one time that Hellish rain custom, five or six skits and several curtain acts will be picked to be presented during the follies, In former years, the skits have not been judged at the final showing, but this year the A. W. S. board will set a precedent and ward the winning skit with a trophy cup bearing the engraved name of the winning group. The cup is to be awarded on the basis of applause and upon the judgment of the board itself.

Heading the judging committee is Velma Ekwall. The committee itself is composed of Martha Morrow. Betty Cherny, Janet Lau, Pat Pope, Helen Pascoe, and Katherine Kilbuck judging is: Turaday, Febr. 22. Sine Alpha Unitron Pi 5:35 Kappa Alpha Theta, 5:36 Carrie Belle Raymond hall, 6:45 Alpha Xi Delta, 5:46 Alpha Xi Delta, 5:46 Alpha Chi Omega, 7:45 Signa Delta Tau, 7:45 Garman Phi Bela, 7:45 Delta glella Tekia, Wednesday, Fene E.

0:45 Pht No. 7:00 Alpha Pht 7:15 Pt Bets Pht 7:15 Pt Beward hall Thursday, Fig. 2

Pennies Buy Kisses, Dances, View of Charlie McCarthy, Telegrams, at Gala Coed Counselors' Carnival

Theta's, Gamma Phi's Runners-Up.

for a kiss, one-tenth of a dime for a vision of Charlie McCarthy, and 500 stude

Gamma Phi Beta. One 15 cent Movie on Gas Defense ticket, besides admitting the holder thy show and sweet. "hot" and "cold" con-fectionery wares. Kappa Alpha Feb. 22, beginning at 7:30. Each Theta's runners-up for the prize. man will have one speech of eight managed a shooting gallery, and minutes in length, except the first Gamma Phi Beta, who came out in affirmative who will have two One cent for a dance, one penny third place, had a prosperous business at their bowling alley.

scenes arranged inside of them. Delta Gamma fostered a fish pond, Sigma Delta Tau took and de-Taking advantage of the un-veloped photographs, Kappa Kappa heard of apportunities, more than Gamma ran a golf links, and Chi a arrived on the gala Omega undertook the task of descene and lested all of the sorori- livering telegrams, either love or and Merl Shoemaker; negative, Turtles raced for the A O Pi's who presented make-believe turtles The low prices for the priceless | to holders of minners' tickets of the goods of each concession raised derby, Pi Phi sponsored a Bingo competition for the most popular game. Alpha Xi Delta secresses booth to a high peak, and each told rutures from grains of sand, house vied with all others for the Sigma Kappa had a weight guess-silver loving cup, held last year by ing booth, and Phi Mi had a "beany" game. A Charlie McCar-Movie on Gas Defense ticket, besides admitting the holder thy show a presented by the "Gas Defense and Troop Ac- to 15 concessions, gave him one Tri-Dolta giris, Wilson hall gave tion," will be the title of the mov- vote for the booth he liked best. In the celebraters a chance to make ing picture lecture to be shown at consequence, each carnival-goer millions at their penny pitch control meeting of the Infantry (-il-beseiged the ticket table for more cession, Kappa Delta had a roucers' association. Wednesday eve- and more tickets. lette wheel, and the organized barb | fellowship award committee of the The winning booth, the Alpha group had a nightmare booth of Chi Omega's "Kisses," offered to contortionist mirrors

Educators Will Query Seniors to Determine Merits of Activities.

Likened to Era of Plato What happens to the campus the 1938 prom girl should be pre-sented, Caroll L. Garey, 3800 Or-Late Prof. Frye's Manuscript thirst for novelty and distraction. Have his university activities aideself-indulgent, materially minded, in forming his life's work? How did high achool activities affect ucation is asking more than 200 graduating seniors in an effort to examine the activity set-up of the conducted by this department in cooperation with the student council. It is the first real attempt extra-curriculars.

Findings Aid Student Council,

Questionnaires have been sent to 265 graduating seniors picked at random. It is hoped that 200 There are some who would call ords will be compared with those Athenians intellectual su- in the alumni office in an effort to

The last complete inventory of activities was taken about years ago, according to Prof. E. W. Lantz, At that time several extracurriculars were done away with the student council because their purpose and usefulness were questioned. The questionnaire is organized so that it will require little time for filling out. Students receiving blanks are asked to fill them out at their earliest convenience and drop them in the campus mail box located on the first floor of any building on the campus.

SELECTION TUESDAY CORNELL ANNOUNCES LISTS OF GRADUATE ENGINEER AWARDS

traveling so fast I that I should scheduled to begin Tuesday. Feb. fly. Those were the days, the good old times when stories were which will be held in the Temple Research Stipends Until Research Stipends Until March 1.

Applications for graduate scholneering at Cornell university for 1938-39 may be made at the office of the dean of the college of engineering or at the office of the dean of the graduate college before

March 1 These scholarships awarded by Cornell university consist of 12 John McMullen graduate scholar ships of an annual value of $1,000 for students interested in pursuing research and working for an advanced degree, as well as the Elon Huntington Hooker fellowship in hydraulics, with a stipend of $510 a year for research mental hydraulies in Europe

Tuition Fellowships.

The schedule for the preliminary ships offered by the school in engineering are, in civil engineering, the McGraw Fellowship, $400 year and free tuition, and a Un versity Graduate Scholars.dp. $200 a year and free tuition; in me chanical engineering, the Sibley Fellowship, $400 a year and free tuition, and the Edgar J. Meyer Memorial Fellowship, $400 a year and free tuition; and in electrical engineering, the Charles Bull Farle Memorial Fellowship of $100 a

EIGHT CANDIDATES SEEK DEBATE SQUAD POSITIONS

Prof. White to Choose Team Toesday After Hearing Trial Speeches.

LECTURE TO SIGMA XI Alpha Chi Omega Wins Prize; the purchaser a variety of "short the C. I O. will be held in 125 speeches, one of five, and a refutation of four minutes. Order of Carrie Belle Raymond hall en- speaking will be determined by lot one-hundredth of a dollar for a tered what they called a 'Peep on Tuesday evening. As usual the bowling line were the cut-throat Show," boxes with miniature judging, by former debaters, will judging, by former debaters, will be on the basis of material, treatment and speaking Drawings have placed the applicants in the following order as sides: Affirmative, Milton Gustafson. Don Nemetz, Otto Woetness Charles Spann, Philip Weaver, Harold Gurske and Leo Turkel.

Dr. Louise Pound Speaks to Kansas Organization

Dr. Louise Pound of the English department was a guest speaker Saturday at a luncheon in the Jayhawk hotel at Topeka Kas Speaking on "The AAUW. Past and Present." Dr. Pound talked to the local chapter of the American Association of University Women. She has been a member of the organization and is at present its national vice president.