YOUTH HOSTELS OFFER TEN WEEKS IN EUROPE

National Director Reports Plans for Prize Contest For Young Americans.

A free ten weeks trip in Europe with overnight hostel stops, a similar trip in America, and eight other prizes are being offered by the American Youth Hostels. Complete details of the contest can be got from the American Youth Hostels, Inc., Northfield, Mass.

Last year, 7,166 persons took advantage of the American hosting program, and it is hoped that this number will be increased to 15,000 this year with 50 new hostels. Hostels are inexpensive overnight lodges supervised by house parents where all those traveling by foot, bicycle, horseback, or canoe can stay for twenty-five cents a night. The only requirement for entrance is a hostel pass. Hostels furnish beds, bedding, cooking facilities, and a recreation room.

Monroe Smith, national director of American Youth Hostels, reports that the country has been divided into eight regions, with field workers in each region. If present plans are realized, many new hostel chains will be formed, as well as extending the existing ones.
