

By Bruce Campbell

QUEER QUESTIONNAIRES

If somebody were to ask you quick-like, what date this is and what of it, could you answer without looking at a calendar? And without reflecting more than ten seconds? Congratulations if you can. Most of us live in a world of yesterday, today and tomorrow with little consciousness of actual dates. But if you don't realize that this is the end of the second six weeks, you darn soon will.

Now, where do you stand in school and what have you done with those resolutions made at the end of the first six weeks to study more? Just to help you in establishing your status quo we have resolved into a committee of the whole, commonly called a cona, and emerged with various questionnaires for various people.

- For the Socialist. 1. What is the latest song hit from the picture of the same name? 2. What are your class assignments for Thursday and Friday? 3. How many parties have you missed this semester? 4. How many classes have you cut this semester? 5. Describe the three ball rooms around Lincoln. 6. Describe the interior of the university library. 7. Give two definitions for coke. (The second definition would refer to coke as a fuel.) 8. Did the Big Apple have any connection with Newton's discovery of the law of gravitation? 9. Which does trucking threaten more, railroad transportation or the morals of youth? 10. Can you name ten important dates in history. (Not counting the one Mary Anthony had with Cleopatra.)

For the Athlete.

- 1. Which is better, to be in condition or to have a condition? 2. Which is the more embarrassing question: Are you in condition? or What do you have a condition in? 3. In order to guard against ineligibility a halfback decided to substitute regular studying habits for irregular ones and by tackling his daily assignments and centering his faculties on schoolwork thus put an end to his scholastic difficulties. What is wrong with that procedure? (Nothing, believe it or not.) 4. Since Dr. L. A. Pound advises constant study as the only sure way to cure bad grades, what term could be applied to her advice? (The answer is Dr. Pound's cure.) 5. And what is Dr. Pound's cure worth? (An ounce of prevention.) 6. And what is an ounce of prevention? (Two textbooks to be taken three hours a day, with or without a glass of water.)

For the Part-time Student.

- 1. How many times have you used the excuse of working for not getting your lessons? 2. Which is the worse of the two evils to have your studies interfere with your work or your work interfere with your studies? For the P. B. K.'s and Sigma Xi's. 1. How do you manage to get such good grades?

COBS SELECT INITIATES, DISCUSS DANCE TONIGHT

Members of Corn Cobs, men's pep club, will meet today at 5 p. m. in Social Science 107 B to discuss plans for their dinner dance, tentatively scheduled for May 21, and to select prospective initiates for the society.

Fight on Syphilis Aims 'at Clean Bill of Health'

New Legislature Requires Health Certificate From Teachers.

"Every opportunity for students to discover and correct in themselves any disease, contagious or otherwise, will be offered by the student health service, said Dean Rufus A. Lyman, in approving the plan proposed by a committee of students for the introduction of tests for venereal diseases into the student health examinations. "Particularly, the service will co-operate with teachers college students in helping them acquire a clean bill of health."

Tests Optional.

In Dean Lyman's opinion, tests must be entirely optional, with the entire responsibility for requiring the required health certificate placed upon students themselves. "It's not my headache if they go thru four years of school without taking advantage of the serv-

Men Vote 3 to 1 for Point System

Harold Gurske Wins in Ivy Day Orator Polling

Voters Name 25 Innocents Nominees for Next Year's Group.

Men of the campus overwhelmingly announced their approval of a pointed activities system in a ballot taken at the annual spring election yesterday. A three to one vote in favor of the new plan, Harold Gurske was elected Ivy Day orator at the same election, with 242 votes to his opponent, Jim Ivins, 169. In the same poll, the nominees for the Innocents society were chosen. The names of the 25 nominees with the most votes, each with 6 or more, will be taken by the faculty committee to be checked for eligibility and sent to the Innocents society, who will choose the future Innocents from the remaining list.

FRATERNITY DEBATERS COMPLETE ROUND TWO

S.A.M., Kappa Sigma, Beta, Delta Theta Pi Win Preliminary.

Sigma Alpha Mu, Kappa Sigma, Beta Theta Pi, and Delta Theta Pi were the winners in the second preliminary round of the interfraternity tournament held at the chapter house of the affirmative team at 7 o'clock last night. All four of the above decisions were in favor of the negative. Each speaker had a six minute constructive speech and a four minute rebuttal. The topic at issue was "resolved that the United States should greatly enlarge its navy."

COBS SELECT INITIATES, DISCUSS DANCE TONIGHT

Members of Corn Cobs, men's pep club, will meet today at 5 p. m. in Social Science 107 B to discuss plans for their dinner dance, tentatively scheduled for May 21, and to select prospective initiates for the society.

Fight on Syphilis Aims 'at Clean Bill of Health'

New Legislature Requires Health Certificate From Teachers.

"Every opportunity for students to discover and correct in themselves any disease, contagious or otherwise, will be offered by the student health service, said Dean Rufus A. Lyman, in approving the plan proposed by a committee of students for the introduction of tests for venereal diseases into the student health examinations. "Particularly, the service will co-operate with teachers college students in helping them acquire a clean bill of health."

Tests Optional.

In Dean Lyman's opinion, tests must be entirely optional, with the entire responsibility for requiring the required health certificate placed upon students themselves. "It's not my headache if they go thru four years of school without taking advantage of the serv-

APRIL BLUEPRINT ISSUE DISCUSSES STAINLESS STEEL

Engineering Publication Pictures World's Fair in New York 1939.

Appearing on the stands in the Applied Mechanics building today are copies of the April Nebraska Blue Print, monthly publication of the engineering college, featuring in conjunction with its lead article on stainless steel, eight pages of illustrations exemplifying the manufacture of the product. Verne Paulson, engineering sophomore, has written a short history of stainless steel, which he calls "A Youngster of Progress"; and he tells of the necessary precautions in its manufacture, its present uses, and its future possibilities.

WINIFRED NELSON GETS CHI O POLI SCI AWARD

Faculty Members Choose New Phi Beta Kappa For Scholarship.

Chi Omega sorority's scholarship award of $25 made annually to a senior woman student in one of the social sciences will be presented this year to Winifred Nelson, Lincoln, for her outstanding work in the political science department. Highest average in political science subject during the first seven semesters of her course and 12 hours completed work toward a major in the department were required of the winner, who is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

A. A. Olson to Address Commerce Fraternity on 'Electrical Power'

A. A. Olson, general superintendent of the Lincoln district of the Iowa-Nebraska Light and Power company, will speak on the "Development of Electrical Power" to members of Delta Sigma Pi, professional commerce fraternity, at a meeting this evening at 8:00 at the Theta Xi house.

'Sneaking' Seniors Visit High Spots of Campus

Have you ever heard university students reminiscing about their first introduction to Lincoln on their high school sneak day? You probably have, for the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with university authorities and business men of Lincoln, sponsor each year eight seeing trips for hundreds of high school seniors, each of whom are regarded as future students and residents of Lincoln. The results of this project, which has been carried on for a number of years, is difficult to tally. Probably the only indication in the number of present students who can remember a day spent in visiting Morrill hall, the coliseum, the stadium, the capital, and industries of Lincoln. Over 350 Seniors Sneaked. Last spring more than 350 groups of high school seniors from towns of Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri saw the Nebraska

MUSIC STUDENTS PRESENT ANNUAL CONCERT TONIGHT

400 Participate in Spring Festival in Coliseum at 8 This Evening.

Over 400 music students, representing every musical organization connected with the university will appear in the annual Spring Festival concert sponsored by the Lincoln chamber of commerce at 8 tonight in the coliseum. This concert, the most lavish of its kind to be staged here, will witness the first appearance this year of the freshman band, the a cappella choir, and the freshman glee club. Non-Profit Ticket Sale. The Lincoln junior chamber of commerce is conducting the ticket sale campaign on a non-profit basis, and any surplus funds left over after expenses and cost of the program have been paid will be donated to the various musical organizations.

ENGINEERING CONVO TO HEAR ARMSTRONG ON U.S. GOVERNMENT

State Unicameral Senator to Address Electrical Institute Meet.

Robert M. Armstrong, member of the Nebraska unicameral legislature, will speak on "The Drift in American Government" to members of the local chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and representatives from eight other universities at a banquet to be held during the two day convention, which starts on Friday evening at 6:30 at the Y. W. C. A.

Armstrong is particularly interested in the relationships of municipal government to state and federal governments, and the implications of the federal bill providing for the creation of nationwide conservation authorities, such as the TVA. Also at this banquet will be the awarding of the district branch prize of $20 by L. N. McClellan, vice president of the A. I. E. E. (Continued on Page 2.)

Deger, King of Hades

Presenting his subterranean highness, Satan, who, when not rehearsing for "Hades Ladies," 1938 Kosmet Klub spring musical, is usually known as Everett "Duke" Deger. Even Satan has his troubles, according to the show's action, what with radical devils stirring up revolutions and his wife, Persephone, harassing him. Deger has a solo number entitled "I'm Satan, (the King of Hell)" which promises to be one of the show's hit tunes. Opening Monday night at the Temple theater for a week's run, "Hades Ladies" features an all-male cast of over 40 including special dancing and singing choruses. Advance sale tickets may be purchased for 50 cents each from campus student salesmen or at Walt's, and seats for all performances may be reserved daily at the Temple boxoffice from 2 to 5 p. m. or at Magee's during store hours.

Convocation Honors 609 Students; Smith Asserts Politicians Are Essential

High Ranking Scholars Get Recognition at Tenth Annual Ceremony.

With Dean H. F. Foster of the law college acting as master of ceremonies, professors, students and friends of the University of Nebraska gathered yesterday morning in the tenth annual convocation to recognize the superior scholastic achievements of 609 members of the student body. Students ranking in the highest ten percent of their respective colleges had their names listed on the honors convocation program. Organizations which had a third of their membership on the list were also recognized. Present Formal Program. Held in the specially decorated coliseum at 10:15, the formal program began with two numbers by the university symphony orchestra under the baton of Don A. Lentz. (Continued on Page 3.)

DEAN H. F. FOSTER, Substitutes for Chancellor.

Seniors Must Submit Applications April 23

Students who are candidates for degrees in June or August file their applications in the registrar's office, room 9, by April 23 unless they have done so previously. Office hours are from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Candidates for the certificates in social work, the junior certificate, or the teachers certificate, issued by the state superintendent of public instruction, should file their applications also.

SORORITY SING FILMS END TOMORROW NOON

Irene Sellers, A.W.S. Board Member, to Supervise Ivy Day Feature.

All entries for the Intersorority sing of Ivy day must be filed by tomorrow noon with Mrs. Westover in Ellen Smith hall. Irene Sellers, A. W. S. board member in charge of this year's sing, has sent letters explaining the regulations to all organized women's houses. A fee of $1 must also be included, in order to help defray the expenses of out of town judges. Names of those who will direct (Continued on Page 2.)

OZ BLACK CHALK-TALKS BEFORE Y.M. MEMBERS

'Here in Lincoln' Cartoonist To Entertain Spring Meet Wednesday.

Oz Black, creator of the well known "Here in Lincoln" feature which appears in the Lincoln Journal, will be the speaker at the annual Spring Members meeting of the University Y. M. C. A. to be held Wednesday, April 20 at 8 p. m. in the "Y" rooms of the Temple theatre. Mr. Black will give one of the chalk-talks for which he is so justly famous. Refreshments of homemade ice cream and gingerbread will be served, free of charge, to those attending. Gerry Williams, president of the Y. M. states: "We expect this meeting to be one of the finest we have had. All men are welcome. The last meeting at which Oz spoke to the Y. M. was the most interesting and best attended of that year, and we are planning for an equally good time this year."

April Awgwan Satirizes R.O.T.C., Dictators, War

April issue of the Awgwan will appear on the stands at 10 o'clock this morning for its feature of the month satirical pieces of writing on war issues. The cover itself enters the international field and shows Donald Duck inflicting peace upon the Japanese. Hiller and Mussolini in an unusual picture "Duck-tator of Peace" drawn by Ed Steves. Norman Bolke writes a war poem with the dignified title "Metamorphosis" and a piece of prose which he calls "A Little Devil" which shows Uncle Sam's leafing through a Mars Incorporated mail order catalogue. "I love a Parade" written by Editor Campbell concerns R. O. T. C.'s and the annual Armistice Day parade. No Gore Page. "History of 1936," a sample test given to Japanese admirals, and "My Life in the Army" are other

AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL AT CURTIS GRADUATES 72 STUDENTS APRIL 21

C. V. Williams Delivers 25th Annual Commencement Address Thursday.

Seventy-two students will be graduated from the University of Nebraska school of agriculture at Curtis at commencement exercises in the student activities building there Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. H. K. Douthett is superintendent and will present the diplomas at the twenty-fifth annual exercises. Dr. C. V. Williams, who was the first superintendent of the Curtis school, will give the commencement address and the school orchestra, girl's octet and individual soloists will furnish music for the occasion. The traditional junior-senior banquet was held April 8, while the senior class play was presented last Friday. Dr. A. V. Hunter will give the baccalaureate sermon Easter Sunday evening at 8.

ROMANCE LANGUAGE CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

Phi Sigma Iota Program to Feature French Music, Dancing.

French music and French dancing will be featured at an open meeting of the Phi Sigma Iota. Romance language honorary, tonight at 7:30 in the studios of Flavia Waters Champe. All advanced students of French and Spanish, members of Le Cercle Francais, the club Espagnol, the Alliance Francaise of Lincoln, and anyone interested in this work is invited to attend the meeting.

Novelty, Human Interest Color Yearbook's Pages

Special Section Features Students Working Way at Novel Jobs.

The 1938 Cornhusker has more work involved in its editing, it has more features of human interest and novelty than any other Cornhusker preceding it. Editor Clayton stated in an interview yesterday: "Among the many features will be a double page section picturing a few of the odd jobs by which university students earn their way through school. There will also be a section devoted to the promotion of Nebraska university professors. About twenty of the many prominent professors have been photographed and interviewed, with the result that Nebraska professors will have their place in the sun."

April Awgwan Satirizes R.O.T.C., Dictators, War

April issue of the Awgwan will appear on the stands at 10 o'clock this morning for its feature of the month satirical pieces of writing on war issues. The cover itself enters the international field and shows Donald Duck inflicting peace upon the Japanese. Hiller and Mussolini in an unusual picture "Duck-tator of Peace" drawn by Ed Steves. Norman Bolke writes a war poem with the dignified title "Metamorphosis" and a piece of prose which he calls "A Little Devil" which shows Uncle Sam's leafing through a Mars Incorporated mail order catalogue. "I love a Parade" written by Editor Campbell concerns R. O. T. C.'s and the annual Armistice Day parade. No Gore Page. "History of 1936," a sample test given to Japanese admirals, and "My Life in the Army" are other

'Good People' May Destroy Civilization, Predicts Philosopher.

Reversing the time-tested recipe of most politicians, Dr. T. V. Smith of Chicago university spoke to the tenth annual honors convocation yesterday, first on the order of the sublime; a philosophical criticism of the labor ills of modern society; and then progressed to a whimsical ridiculousness; a droll first hand account of the foibles of politicians and the "good people" who misguidedly berate them.

In the brief interval between, the Chicago philosopher who has been a member of the Illinois legislature for four terms reserved a few minutes to deal with the subject of his speech, "The Promise of American Politics." The successful future of American politics, he declared, depends on the presence in it of the politician.

Critics Social Set-up.

"Despite the inbred antipathy of most people who regard politicians as a pack of dogs continually yapping at the taxpayer's heels," Smith said, "you must have politicians. American democracy depends on them." If you don't have a "pack" of politicians, the speaker asserted, "you'll have only one, and he will be a Hitler or a Mussolini."

Dr. Smith began his speech by criticizing the set-up of a society which permits a human being to spend an entire existence doing something which gives him a living but not a life. That, he declared, is the fundamental wrong of American labor. The individual must subjugate his own personality to his job.

IVY DAY POET FILINGS END FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Winner to Receive $5 Prize; to Read Poem at May 5 Ceremonies.

Aspirants for the honor of Ivy day poet must submit their manuscripts for consideration by 5 o'clock on Friday, April 29. Entries are to be submitted to Mrs. Westover in Ellen Smith hall, with no identification attached, the name to be placed in a sealed envelope accompanying the poem. A prize of $5 will be awarded to the winner as adjudged by Miss Louise Pound, Miss Margaret McPhee and Dr. L. C. Wimberly. In accordance with tradition, the victor will have the privilege of reading his poem at the Ivy day ceremonies.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.

Expectation of receiving many more entries was expressed by Winifred Nelson, Mortar Board member in charge of this year's contest. In order to eliminate any possible criticism of the judging, the judges will not know the names of the candidates until after the selection has been made.