Cheer up, you summer schoolers. There are a few bright lights on the horizon. Activity seems to center at the Student U these days where people gather over breakfast just as they lingered over cokes. Bob and Chuck Pillsbury, Jan Daugherty, Doris Von Bergen, and just loads of others continue to haunt the place.

Then there's the Friday night get-together in the ballroom with a not bad orchestra, and the price (we blush to mention it) is only ten cents a person. Saturday will see the first matinee tea dance from 4:30 to 6:30 and Thursday the cafeteria opens. You might try dropping in on the reading room to thumb through the stack of new magazines or spend some of your leisure in the lounge listening to the radio in an air conditioned atmosphere.

Of course, the park continues its popularity. Tuesday night found Grant Thomas, Ed Steeves and Margaret McKay, Leonard Dunker with a little high school palsy walsy, Houghton Furr, the inevitable Pillsbury boys, Larry Lansing and Bill Herd and Lulubelle Emerson.

In fact, we're quite amazed at the number of people who are taking to the books this summer. At the Sigma Chi house are at least twelve of the boys, among them Carl Cleveland, whose presence may have something to do with Eunice Holms.

Bob Howe, A. T. O. is enduring the summer heat in Lincoln, we suspect, because Marjorie Dirks happens to be here. Wildon Sterner and Edie Philpot coincidentally registered for a few hours. Then there's Max Horne, whose summer school record last year looks mighty suspicious. 'Tis rumored there was some love lost for a visiting school teacher. Incidentally Zipper Zeis ought to be the answer to any school marm's prayer as he likes to take young ladies to dinner, he says.

No, things don't look quite as gloomy as they might be. And there are just lots and lots more things to tell you about people in the next edition of the rag.

PREP BOYS WILL FORM 49TH STATE SATURDAY

254 Take Practical Course
in Government Study on Ag Campus.

High school boys, 254 strong and representing 160 Nebraska towns, will take over the agricultural college campus Saturday to form the initial Cornhusker Boys' state sponsored by the Nebraska department of the American Legion. They will remain in Lincoln all of next week going thru the motions of modern state government and thereby learning its various functions in a way they are not likely to forget.

Upon their arrival in the city, the boys will attend a brief program of welcome in which Major L. McC. "Biff" Jones, Husker football coach, Mayor Oren S. Copeland, Col. C. J. Frankforter of the chemistry department, and Robert C. Simmons will summarize the week's purposes. They will then be divided into cities and counties governed according to the laws and procedure of Nebraska, and be assigned to political parties, the Nationals or Federals.

Kearney, chaplain of the Nebraska department of the American Legion, will conduct religious services. There will be filing for offices, campaigning, an address by Dr. George E. Condra, chairman of the department of conservation, and political speeches of the candidates to occupy the rest of the day.

Monday's program includes a lecture by Robert C. Simmons, and party conventions with their attendant caucuses and button-holing of voters and electors. In the evening the student governor of the boys' state will be inaugurated, and Gov. Roy Cochran will speak. The public is invited to attend this as well as all sessions of the week.

Other governmental procedure, legislative, judicial, and executive, will be followed during the rest of the week, with the program concluding on Saturday, June 18. At that time, Major Jones will award diplomas and trophies.

Judge E. F. Carter of the Nebraska supreme court is director of the educational program. General advisers are Roger V. Shumate, John E. Curtiss, Dean F. E. Henzlik of the teachers college, C. F. Dienst, and Homer V. Anderson of Omaha.

Discover AIRTONES

in the miracle cloth . . . Palm Beach

Airtones, as the name suggests, are breezy colors—distinctively different—unusually smart . . . But far more than that—they present a new Palm Beach—superbly light—with fit and form that will amaze you.

You've never seen such fresh and pleasing shades—Bamboo Tan, Cabana Blue, Ash Green, Brittany Brown and Gull Gray.

Shown in sport models, of course, and no more costly than our handsome Palm Beach Whites.
