After the brawls are over... and back to the proverbial grind... every party said to be a huge success... this Homecoming called Best Week-end of Year by many... capped by furor caused by Martian invasion program Sunday night... what did you do on hearing it?... five Alpha Chi's making out a black list for being stood up, as they say, at their Sat open house... Sigma Nu's Harold Atherton and John Mackay hunting for gals... interested parties call B-7858... Chi Phi and dates spending (?) a wonderful time in Omaha Friday night... Delt's doing the same Saturday... Jo Henn, Tri Delta, coking with Virginia Clemans, Pi Phi... Dorothy Kline, Theta, with Ace Anderson, Phi Delta, Saturday... Sig Ep Dwight Clemans, at the KD house party with Beth Douglas... and people getting sick on the punch at that party... Tassels ushering at the Symphony concert Sunday... Ted Bradley, Sigma Nu, back for a visit... Virginia Hunt, Delta Gamma, also a home-comer... Bette Silverblatt, SDT, now pinned to Stuart Cass, ZBT... Phi Psi Jim Baker with one Kappa Campbell... Mother Bentley, Sigma Chi house mother, nobly entertained at the Phi Psi house party... and a swell serenade Monday night by DU pledges... ATO's trying to locate their football player decorations... came Halloween eve, an end to the Homecoming decorations, another month, and this columnist till Thursday... tomorrow we have something new and different.

Bouquets to the Acacia freshmen for the wonderful house party they put on for the actives. It was a masquerade party and some of the costumes were really good. Harvey Minnick came dressed as a pirate and Fave Lambert, Chi O pledge, was garbed as a female buccaneer. Carl Royer and his date, Jean Beck, Phi Mu, were in Spanish costume, but that didn't stop Royer from doing his sob sister act to the tune of "Music Maestro, Please." You must ask him to cry for you some time. Bill Morton did some of his sleight of hand tricks which were really bits of fine fooling. Pumpkin pie, apple cider and apples composed the menu.

Homecoming and the end of the first six weeks of school found many initiations being held last week end.

Kappa Sigma initiated Roger Van Buskirk, Robert Turner, Joe Heizer, and Vernon Kreyck and pledged Bus Osborn. Sigma Nu pinned active pins on Curt Ralston; Gene Richardson, Howard Marshall, Kenneth Elsbury, Bud Peary and Bob Metz. Sigma Alpha Mu initiated Floyd Cohen. Delta Upsilon initiated Grant Mouck and Lloyd Grimm.

Paul Krasne, ZBT, goes in for special diets. We thought it was pretty bad when Max Lake ordered chili and buttermilk, but Paul ate French fried onions, malted milk and hamburgers.

Rosa Bouton hall, girl's cooperative house entertained the girls from both Wilson hall and Howard hall Sunday afternoon at a tea. Gertrude Michaels, president of the group, was in charge of the arrangements.

Music Groups Plan Concerts

Season Ticket Sales For Series End Nov. 13

Only a small part of the seating capacity of the Student Union ballroom remains to be sold for the Sunday afternoon concert series sponsored by Delta Omicron and Sigma Alpha Iota, music sororities, for the purpose of swelling their scholarship funds.

Season ticket sales will not close until November 13, when Emanuel Feuermann, famed cellist, will present the first concert of the series. No single admissions will be sold, except to out of town guests.

Yearbook Squad Head Breaks Arm in Rag Fray

Only casualty of Friday's Rag-Cornhusker grid mixup—the left arm of Yearbook Squad Captain Tooter Horn. It was broken.

After facing the vicious onslaughts of a powerful Nebraska team for two whole quarters, the Tooter ignominiously collided with Ox Aden, one of his own teammates, and did the job bless 'em!

To the

In football, the backfield gets the glory. Is it fair? What makes a great football team—the line or backfield? And which would you prefer: a great backfield and a mediocre line, or the other way around? Coach Jimmy Conzelman, who fears no man, says, "I'll take the backs!" and shows you why. Here's his story, and we hope he isn't stuck with it!
