

SOCIAL-LITES

by Margaret Krause and Dixie Davis

WELCOME HOME... to an atmosphere of exams... anticipation of Military ball... that loquacious "I ate too much" feeling... catchword of the day, "Did you have fun this vacation, tee-hee?"... and reportings that the tea dance Friday was a big success... Edie Knight, Theta, dancing with Bob Kerl, Kappa Sig playboy... Ann Husted, Kappa there, and so also Janet "Tessie" Harris... Sigma Nu's over running the Club dance Thanksgiving eve... Alpha Chi Margaret Steburg, reporting a wonderful time as had by all in Kearney... Pi Phi Peterson, up-reporting the station and porters at the loss of her suitcase... Zeta Beta Tau Bob Edelstein, getting the curtain call at the Paxton for his piano playing... ATO Ralph Worden, raving on the train home about Jane "Dream" Anderson, DG... Hermie Rohrig, writing his daily letter to a love fur, fur away... Delt Dow Wilson, confused with too many dates at the same time, like a Theta and Chi Omega... Velma Ekwall, tucked in a hook in the Knotty Pine room, studying... Jim Irvin, Kappa Sig, spending his cooking hour in the Moon... Sigma Delta Tau Harriet Salzman, point of a mixed date triangle involving Zeta's Wittenburg and Sam Davidson... Theta Xi Stan Michaels, still doing the rounds with the same gal... Pi Phi Margaret Dickerson, sprouting a White Cross of Sigma Chi over vacation...

tions were in order by wires. Also the Sigma Nu's will have either received cigars and the D.G.'s candy, or Harold Ledford and Natalie Rehlender will have received a tubbing by the time that this is read. And more along this line, we note that Pat Prime is wearing a Calver ring with the initials, J. W. R. on the top.

Quite a few dinner parties are scheduled before the Ball Friday night. At the Lincoln hotel will be in one party: Acacia's Bobby Gutru with Betty Jean Peterson, Theta; Max Bailey and Betty Jean Ferguson, Chi O; Jim Smith and Mary Bryan, Alpha Xi; Frank Johnson and Marjorie Manchester, Alpha Xi, and Butch Larson and Peggy Pascoe, Chi O.

At the University club will be Beta's John Winegarten with Mary Ella Bennett, Kappa; Paul Bradley with Mary Virginia Knowles, Kappa; Dick DeBrown with Mary Anna Cockle, Tri Delt; George Souders with Omaha's Sunny Conlin; Art Raber with Dot Kutcher, Kappa; Charles Rice with Natalie Johnson, A O Pi; Ted Welton with Marion Cramer, Kappa, and Tom Davis with a Chicago importation.

"Educational Trends in Some European Countries" is the title of an article by Dr. O. H. Werner of teachers college which was published in the Journal of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars. Dr. Werner delivered the same address before the last meeting of the Nebraska association.

We notice that Jane Cook is now wearing Fred Stiner's Phi Psi pin in the open. Congratulate

Redheads to Rule Ball

Blondes, Brunettes Also Shine

Queens of the Military Ball will be the redheads. Brunettes can appear sophisticated, blondes feminine, but it takes the red heads to add spice. Claudine Burt, Tri Delt, has chosen white moire to wear with her red locks. The skirt is full and gathered at the top and will be worn with gold accessories and her coronation blue slipper satin. For the chilly winter night she has a black velvet Queen Anne wrap. Black taffeta with a redingote bordered in aqua lace ruffles is the choice of blond A.O.Pi Helen Irene Eversman. Delta Gamma Betty Reese will dance in white net over taffeta splashed with silver stars.

Eleven yards of gold slipper satin were used to make Alpha Phi Pat Prime's self-designed formal. It is gored and fitted into a high shirred waist line with aqua velvet straps. Theta Mary Marshall will wear white corded silk trimmed with gold leaves and accessories, while another red head, Betty Lou Elliott of Kappa Kappa Gamma, has chosen powder blue velvet accented with gold leaves.

Softly draped aqua chiffon is to be worn by A.O. Pi Jean Humphrey. The chiffon criss crosses the bodice tying in the back and flowing to the floor. Mary Mungler of Chi Omega is wearing romantic black velvet with a galaxy of twinkling sequins. Before ending description of the gowns chosen by the favorite redheads, there is the mellow yellow taffeta of Alpha Chi Omega Catherine Bullock. The skirt is circular and is double swirled.

But many lovely blondes are going to cause angst and oohs; when they arrive at the ball. Theta Dorothy Chase will be darning in ligion and Life Week in their effect on the affiliated students at Nebraska. The groups will meet at 8 o'clock at Westminster Presbyterian church.

Besides considering the encouragement of church attendance of organized houses in groups, with blocks of seats reserved for Sunday morning services, the possibility of employing a campus "church bus" on Sundays may be considered.

Dr. Lugn Lauds Earth Science

Geologist Addresses Lutheran Conference
Dr. A. L. Lugn, of the geology department, told delegates to the annual Lutheran faculty conference at Fremont Saturday that geology is becoming increasingly more important as a science today.

The conference is a national meeting of Lutheran college educators which was held on the Midland campus Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Lugn said that "geology is all around us. It supplies the informed person with correct explanations of natural phenomena; it enriches our understanding of nature whether we travel or stay at home and it helps the human race to adapt itself to its environment. In fact, geology furnishes the foundation principles for all conservation and land use programs. Dr. Lugn is serving as president of the Nebraska academy of sciences this year."

Library Book Is Found in Alaska, Missing 31 Years

In the year 1907 the University librarian reported that the volume "Tennyson, Ruskin, Mill and Other Literary Estimates" by Frederic Harrison was missing from the stacks. Thirty-one years later, during the recent holidays, it was returned to surprised library officials thru the mails. The volume was sent back to the University as a "Thanksgiving gift" from Seattle, Wash., by C. Henry Schuize who briefly explained that he had found the book with the Nebraska Library seal on it in Chitina, Alaska. How or why this literary piece with the ponderous title arrived at this frost bitten part of the continent, library officials do not know.
