Helen Day of Lincoln, and Dr. A. Price Heuser of Boston, Mass., will be married Dec. 27 at 4 o'clock at the First-Plymouth Congregational church. Miss Day was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, Phi Beta Kappa, and Mortar Board. She is now a student in the graduate school of education at Harvard university.

Dr. Heuser is a former Rhodes scholar, a graduate of Swathmore where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Beta Kappa, and Sigma Xi. He was graduated with honors from the Harvard medical college where he was a member of Alpha Omega Alpha, medical honorary fraternity.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon is having a formal Friday evening at the Cornhusker hotel with Dave Haun's band furnishing the music. Quite noticeable will be the presence of Janet Lau, DG, with Web Mills, and Betty Ray, Kappa, with Len Jacobsen. New combinations will be Pat Prime, Phi, with Don Macey; Jean Humphrey, Kappa, with Jim DeWolf; and Betty O'Shea, Theta, and Joe Woods. Ray Smith is taking Ruth Changstrom from Omaha, and Joe Dye is taking Tri Delta Janie Allen.

Sigma Phi Epsilon is holding its annual dinner dance at the University club Friday evening. Crested favors will be presented the girls. Wayne King, who is a Sig Ep, will be guest of honor at the dinner. Several couples present will be: Verne Rawalt, with Pi Phi Ruth Holland; Julian Bors with Chi O Margie Munger; and Jimmy Taylor with DG Polly Perkins.

Sigma Chi dinner dance Friday evening will be held at the Lincoln hotel, starting at 6:30 and favors will be given to the dates. Francis Coufal taking Jerry Wallace, DG; Don Meyers, with Hope Drummond, Chi O; and Leonard East with Claire Husted, Pi Phi are some of the "not expected" couples who will be present.

Election of officers was held at the SAE house as follows: Bill Haney, president; Forrest Wilke, vice president; Web Mills, secretary-treasurer; Jim DeWolf, recorder; and Bill Buchanan, social chairman.

Orchesis, Chorus Present Recital

Program of Dancing, Music Set for Tonight

Christmas festivity in the form of a dance recital will be presented by the united forces of Orchesis, modern dancing organization, and the university chorus tonight at 7 o'clock in the dance studio of Morrill.

The dance movements are planned to represent the birth of Christ, and were composed by Miss Shirley Bennett, director of Orchesis. George Anna Theobald, who accompanies the group, has composed most of the music that will be used for them. No admission will be charged for the affair, which is open to the public.

The program includes:

- Processional: "For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord."
- Singers: "A Child is Born in Bethlehem."
- Dancers: The Nativity Theobald.
- Singers: "For behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy."
- Singers: Joy to the World, Handel
- Dancers: Bella, Theobald.
- "And when they saw the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."
- Singers and Dancers: Jesus Christ is Born, Traditional
- Singers: Carols

Farm House Receives Cup

Scholarship Award Goes To Group for Sixth Time

For the sixth time during the seven years that it has been presented, the Inter Fraternity scholarship cup was awarded to the Farm House, social fraternity, at the ag school honors convocation, yesterday morning. Presentation of the cup was made by Dwan Green, president of the Inter-Fraternity council.

Led by Harold Benn, president, the fraternity made a general average of almost 80. The Farm House is not given over entirely to members of the agricultural college. A number of the students have made outstanding grades in colleges on the city campus.

The presentation of the cup to the Farm House decided a controversy between that fraternity and the Chi Phi house as to who had the highest average for the preceding year. At one time, it was announced that the Chi Phi fraternity had won the award. A final checkup revealed the Farm House as winner by two-tenths of a point.

The only other fraternity to ever hold the cup was Sigma Alpha Mu, whose average for the '37-'38 school year topped that made by any other fraternity on the campus.

The cup is presented annually, and each year the name of the winner is engraved on the front.

German Students Give Xmas Play

Dr. Wagner Directs 'Nativity' Production

Presenting the spirit of Christmas to the campus in the German language, the annual German Christmas play, "Ein Deutsches Weihnachtsspiel aus dem 16. Jahrhundert," will be given tonight at 8 o'clock in Social Science auditorium.

With Dr. Lydia E. Wagner directing the production, which tell the story of The Nativity, students taking German will play the parts of the Holy Family and supporting cast. The role of Maria will be played by Olga Marek; that of Joseph by William Weierhaeuser.

Carl Stobbe will appear as "der Wirt," Beulah Hilblink as "die Wirtin," John Loos as Gabriel, Clyde Martz, Walter Rundin and Joseph Strnad as "die Hirten," and Otto Woener, Ronald Broderick and Herman Rohrig as "die Koenige."

Nine girls acting as "die Engel" are Magdalen Stricker, Alma Kriz, Elizabeth Ann Davis, Natalie Burn, Maxine Maxey, Mary Rokahr, Marian Niemann, Jean Simmons and Ruth Cook.

A men's vocal quartet, and flute and accordion soloists will contribute to the music for the occasion which also features group singing of German Christmas carols.

Miss Piazza Stars In Spanish Play

Club Espagnol Holds Annual Xmas Party

As a browbeating general's wife, Katherine Piazza provided the bulk of an hour's hilarious laughter in the Spanish play, "The Blonde Mustache," given last night for a meeting of El Club Espagnol.

Students and faculty of the romance languages department made up the cast of six, in which Jon Aston, Louise Wilke and William Albrecht also starred. Following the dramatic presentation, Harry Tourtelot led the entire group in singing Christmas carols in Spanish.
