

SIX DAILY NEBRASKAN

SIX

DAILY NEBRASKAN

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1939

N.U. grapplers fall before Iowa State

Knight, Kuska, Luke garner Nebraska's 9 points while Ames team piles up 19

Winning five out of the eight matches, two of them by falls, Coach Hugo Otopalik's Iowa State wrestling team defeated the Nebraska grapplers last night, 19 to 9 in the coliseum. Jim Knight, 128 pound Husker captain, notched up his ninth straight victory for the year, but was forced into overtime by Ray Stone.

Decisions by Milton Kuska, Knight, and Bill Luke in the first three matches gave the Huskers an early nine point lead which was soon wiped out as the Cyclones won the next five bouts. Kuska's victory was his third of the year, entitling him to a major letter.

Clare, Rosenthal Lose.

Gene Farrell, 145, pinned Lee Clare in :06.12 with a bar arm and body chancery. Out since the Lehigh meet with an injured shoulder, Herb Rosenthal lasted only :05.56 before Linn pinned him with a bar arm and head lock in the 165 pound division.

Julius Wittman, who decided conference 155 pound champ Van Fleet of K-State Wednesday night, lost to Royce Cox by a referee's decision. George Seeman, needing only one more victory for his major letter, lost by a decision to heavyweight Howard Buck.

121 pounds: Milton Kuska (N) defeated George Haynes.
125 pounds: Jim Knight (N) defeated Ray Stone in overtime.
136 pounds: Bill Luke (N) defeated Jack Larson in overtime.
145 pounds: Gene Farrell (IS) pinned Leland Clare in :06.12 with a bar arm and body chancery.
155 pounds: Royce Cox (IS) defeated Julius Wittman.
165 pounds: Sam Linn (IS) pinned Herbert Rosenthal in :05.56 with a bar arm and head lock.
175 pounds: Guy Henderson (IS) defeated Shelby Condon.
Heavyweight: Howard Buck (IS) defeated George Seeman.
Referee: John Kellogg, Nebraska.

Swim team loses to Ames, 47-37

Hogelin cops two wins; Worden takes diving

Nebraska's inexperienced swimming team dropped a close meet to Iowa State, 47 to 37, in its Big Six opener here at the coliseum Friday afternoon.

Pete Hagelin.

The Huskers managed to gain only three firsts, two by Student Coach Pete Hagelin in the 220 and 440 yard dashes, and Ralph Worden's diving victory.

Roger Adams and George Halderman swept thru the sprints to give the Cyclones the edge in the meet.

Summaries:

300 yard medley relay: Won by Iowa State (Gene Armstrong, George Halderman, Roger Adams). Time 3:21.2.
220 yard freestyle: Won by Richard Hagelin (N); second, Bob Chitt (N); third, John Gibbs (IS). Time 2:30.4.
50 yard freestyle: Won by Roger Adams (IS); second, George Halderman (IS); third, Ted Legate (N). Time 2:38.9.
Diving: Won by Ralph Worden (N), 282; second, Evellie Younger (N), 228.4; third, Leroy Carr (IS), 211.1.
100 yard freestyle: Won by Roger Adams (IS); second, Ted Legate (N); third, Bob Chitt (N). Time :56.5.
150 yard backstroke: Won by Gene Armstrong (IS); second, Richard Van Horn (N); third, Bill Holschlar (IS). Time 1:52.4.
200 yard breaststroke: Won by George Halderman (IS); second, Bill Heislar (IS); third, Fred Rodenbeck (N). Time 2:38.9.
440 yard freestyle: Won by Richard Hagelin (N); second, Hubert Egnes (IS); third, George Hargrove (IS). Time 5:37.4.
400 yard freestyle: Won by Iowa State (John Gibbs, Roger Adams, Fred Hargrove, George Halderman). Time 4:02.4.
Starter and referee: Cliff Cunningham, Nebraska.

Girls intramural ping pong play begins tomorrow

Girls intramural sports calendar will be occupied by ping pong for the next few weeks. Arrangements are being made by the W. A. A. office for the playing times and the teams will be called. Play will begin tomorrow.

Gophers drop NU gymnasts 38 1/2 to 6 1/2

Visitors get four firsts and tie for another; Cadwell paces Huskers

Faced by a pair of Big Ten champions and a National Collegiate runnerup in James Hafey, Sid Wolfenson and Curtis Lynam, the Minnesota gymnastic team collected four first places and a share of the fifth to rout the Husker gym team, 38 1/2 to 6 1/2, Saturday afternoon on the coliseum stage.

Only Nebraska performer to garner a place higher than third was Gay Cadwell, who tied for top honors in the side horse with James Ronning of Minnesota. The Gophers made a clean sweep of one event and won all but third position in the other three.

Second for Gophers.

Lynam, National Collegiate runnerup, walked off with high point honors, collecting first in both the flying rings and horizontal bars, the two events that won him national fame.

Hafey, Big Ten title holder in the parallel bars had an easy time in his specialty, while Wolfenson garnered first place in tumbling.

It was the second straight win for Coach Ralph Piper's Gophers. Charlie Miller's Scarlet team will meet Colorado and Iowa next Saturday on the coliseum stage for their next meet. It will be the initial triangle affair for the Huskers, and the first time for a meeting with either outfit. Summary:

Horizontal bars: Won by Curtis Lynam (M), 37.5; second, Delver Daly (M), 35.5; third, tie between James Ronning (M) and Don Seidel (N), 30.
Side horse: Tie for first between Gay Cadwell (N) and James Ronning (M), 34; third, Pete O'Heron (M), 33.5.
Flying rings: Won by Curtis Lynam (M), 41; second, Delver Daly (M), 35; third, James Ronning (M), 34.
Parallel bars: Won by James Hafey (M), 40; second, Bob Haning (M), 33; third, Ray Proffitt (N), 25.5.
Tumbling: Won by Sid Wolfenson (M), 38.5; second, Delver Daly (M), 35.5; third, Ray Proffitt (N), 32.

Barb basketballers finals Monday

Mac's Ramblers go into tomorrow's playoff

Mac's Ramblers basketball team won the championship of Barb league I by a 17-16 victory over Heming House Saturday afternoon, and will enter Monday evening's playoffs against the winners of three other leagues. Dark Horse club, victorious in league 2, Blue Heaven Barbs, who won league 3, and Gately's winners in league 4, are the other teams left in the running.

Semi-finals will begin at 7:30 in the coliseum, while at 8:30 the winners will take the floor to determine the championship of the barb division.

Dark Horse club won its championship by a 16-12 win over the Ag College Boarding club Thursday. Mac's Ramblers and Heming House won both their Thursday games, and had finished their regular season with a tie in league 1.

Badminton tournament finishes this week

The third round of the girls' intramural badminton tournament has been completed and the tournament should be finished by the end of this week.

Winners of the third round are Armstrong-Hanson, Alpha Chi over Erickson-Schick, Kappa Delta; Song-Stearns, independent, over Elias-Pierce, Kappa Delta; Schmidt-Mains, Boston, over Odo-Lehman, Sigma Kappa; Patterson, Tri Delta, over Eilers-Meyer, Kappa; Alford-Mickey, Tri Delta, over Schneider-Swoboda, Kappa Delta; and Clements-Schwartz, Kappa Delta, over Mac-Huber-Blum, Tri Delta.

As I See It by June Bierbower

Altho there's so much snow on the ground Kansas' track squad and Minnesota's gym team were delayed enroute to Lincoln, spring football practice is not so far away, so maybe it's time to start talking about football again.

Bill Bunsen, the "Bunsen Burner" of Kansas' grid squad, made the trip with the track team as a shot putter, and was putting out some dope on K. U.'s prospects. Nobody at Lawrence is quite sure about what kind of team the Kansans will have next year because of the shakeup in the coaching staff, altho Bunsen insists they're going to beat Nebraska.

Ralph Miller is probably lost to the football team, for Friday night he reinjured his bad knee in the Washburn basketball game in which he was high scorer. Miller injured his knee when he cut back on a slippery field at Iowa State, and since it won't stand up in a basketball game, they're very doubtful about his football future at Lawrence.

The Jayhawks will have a heavier backfield than last fall. Ed Hall, who was out with a broken bone in his leg most of last season, will be back, as will Bunsen and Milt Sullivant. Bunsen is no weakling, standing 6 foot 3 inches, and weighing over 200. He expects to tip the beam at around 215 next fall, so we'd like to see what happens when he and Elmer Hackney meet again. Last fall the two ran square into each other, and Bunsen said he felt pretty good about it, because "Hackney fell down and I didn't."

We wish someone could straighten this Bill Amelung case out for us poor mortals. Amelung, you know, was a sub halfback on Missouri's football team last fall as a junior, but tripped on midyear exams at Columbia.

First reports were that Amelung had enrolled at Parsons college in Fairfield, Ia., but the registrar's office at Columbia (Missouri) reports that Amelung has not had his credits sent to Parsons yet for registration.

The one definite thing is that Amelung is not in school at Missouri, Don Faurot, the university registrar, and every newspaper dispatch we've seen agree on that.

Missouri is having its eligibility troubles, it seems. Porter Robb, regular fullback last fall, has returned to his home after flunking at semester time, while Willard Hans, a B team guard, is out for scholastic reasons, too. Three fresh prospects just plain "flunked out" and can't make up their work to become eligible for next fall, but the varsity members have a chance to make up their deficiencies during the summer term.

That's just a sample of the Tigers' troubles, though. Elmont Dye, sophomore sprinter from Kansas City who burned up the boards as a frosh last year, quit school upon becoming ineligible. Ken Browne, basketball center-captain, and Big Six champion in the outdoor high jump, is both scholastically ineligible and out of school, while two other track prospects are ineligible and another has dropped out of school.

Notre Dame scored over 200 points in three straight games not so long ago. . . . They poured in over 70 apiece against Canisius and John Carroll, and ran up 55 on Minnesota. . . . Incidentally, the Irish have all nations on their basketball team. . . . Eddie Riska is a Lithuanian; Eddie Sadowski a Pole (not the telephone kind); Mark Eitel is Dutch-English; Paul DuCharme is French, and Captain Earl Brown is Scotch-Irish and Dutch.

Tracksters thump Kansas, 62-42

Bob Kahler paces Huskers with ten points; Simmons wins as NU sweeps 440

Phi Psi takes ATO in class A cage feature

Delts, Sig Alphas, Betas among other winners in Saturday's games

Class A intramural basketball teams resumed activities at the coliseum Saturday afternoon, in all four leagues.

The games in league I were won by lopsided scores, the Delts, Sig Eps, and Sig Alphas emerging victorious. The Delts paced by Dow Wilson, who scored 9 points, defeated Alpha Gamma Rho 24-10. Farsch was outstanding for the losers. The Sig Eps kept their slate clear of defeat when they squelched the Lambda Chi's 37-2. Searle scored 18 points to lead the Sig Eps attack. The Sig Alphas again displayed a strong offense in defeating the Beta Sigs 44-9, Duncan setting the pace for the winners by garnering 16 points.

Phi Psi's, ATO's Battle.

Outstanding game of league II was between the Phi Psi's and ATO's, the former quintet winning 30-25. Radtke scored 12 points to lead the Phi Psi's while Sid White's 10 points were best for the losers. The Kappa Sigs cut down another of their opponents by vanquishing the D.U.'s 34-13. Kelley scored 11 points to lead the Kappa Sigs while Nye scored 7 points to pace the losers. In the other scheduled game the Sigma Nu's won by forfeit from Delta Sigma Pi while the league III tilt between the Phi Sigs and Xi Psi Phi was postponed until Monday night. In the only league III game the Farm House quintet defeated the Sigma Chi's 26-11. Mayfield scored 10 points to lead the winners' attack.

In league IV the Phi Gams, Betas, and Pi K.A.'s won their games, the latter team winning over the Theta Chi's by forfeit. In the ragged Phi Gam-Alpha Sig tilt, Scherer and Spahn scored 6 points apiece to lead the Phi Gam attack while Dunn of the Alpha Sigs also garnered 6 points. Sid Heid again paced the Betas to a 31-13 victory over Zeta Beta Tau, Hub Monsky looking best for the losers.

Frankforter patents water treating method

U. S. patent No. 2,144,051; method of treating water, has recently been issued to Prof. C. J. Frankforter of the department of chemistry and chemical engineering. His patent has to do with a new and improved method of removing certain mineral contents of water.

Nebraska won six firsts, tied for another, and gathered in seven seconds and seven thirds to defeat Kansas university 62 to 42 and give Ed Weir a victory in his first meet as head coach.

The Huskers got off to a flying start by placing one, two, three, in the 440 yard dash with Bob Simmons, Big Six champ at that distance copping first place. Al Kuper put Nebraska out ahead with a one-two performance in the half mile, and from this time on the Huskers were never headed.

Mills Wins Shot Put.

In the field events Nebraska won the shotput on a heave of 49 feet 5 inches by Bob Mills, and tied for first with the Jayhawkers in the high jump; Kansas however garnered a first in both the pole vault and broad jump.

Kansas picked up the majority of their points in the dashes and the high hurdles with Lyle Foy getting firsts in both events. Bob Kahler pulled the surprise of the meet as he ran the 60 yard high hurdles in 7.9 to win this event from Gayle Foy of Kansas.

In the distance events the Huskers proved their superiority by winning the two mile event and placing second and third in the mile distance.

N. U. Wins Slow Relay.

In the final event, the mile relay, Nebraska, using the men who placed one, two and three in the quarter mile, easily outdistanced the visitors to cop it in the comparatively slow time of 3:39.5.

Bob Kahler picked up 10 points to lead the scoring, closely followed by Lyle Foy of Kansas who garnered 9 points. Bob Simmons was third in total points earned with 7 1/2 points.

In an exhibition run Eugene "Red" Littler, freshman speed flash from Mitchell, attempted to break his own track lap record of 27.1, but was unable to do so, running the distance in 27.6.

Summaries:

A new study of evolution is being made at Indiana university, where Prof. A. C. Kinsey is examining 100,000 specimens of the gall wasp.

HOTEL LINCOLN

—the finest ballroom and banquet facilities

E. L. WILBUR, Mgr.

RCA DELCO KADETTE
RADIOS
We Repair all Makes of Radios
HICKS RADIO CO.
1428 O St. B6118

Come to the Sunday Laugh Session
4:30

No Charge

Student Union