STILL TRYING TO GIT EM

But they don't get on their knees now-a-days...they don't have to when they ask their girl friends to go to the Coffee Lounge at the Capital...espe-cially on a day like this when they expect something a little extra...(in case it might have slipped your overcrowded cerebrum in days like this, though it doesn't seem possible that you could have started studying yet)...this is the day, the day you do something special for the girl friend, or one of them if there are more in your little red book...you remem-ber, this is Valentine's Day... the day with the little red dart ...and you know your girl friends. .they expect you to do something about it...so you might as well avoid argument and take 'em out to dinner before they get a chance to put on their "neglected" act for your benefit so you'll feel little and mean for abusing them so .. of course, you don't feel a bit mean but you let her think so...so much for our theories about how to handle wimmen ... our advice is plain and simple and not expensive...take her to the Hotel Capital for dinner tonight and listen to Ken Nelson...it'll drown out anything she might say ... good
