

Mingling with Marg

Dear Ruth Reader:
 After this big weekend I just had to write you to tell you about the big Prom and the Phi Delt party. Both were wonderful. Gene Krupa really built up a few thrills with those drums. He chewed gum constantly, so of course Ed Steeves, Sigma Nu and Beechnut man, was there on the job. Ed gave Mr. Krupa 80 sticks of gum, and it was all chewed before the evening was over—four sticks at a time. Another little item about Ed and his date Margie McKay. Theta, is that when Ed took her home, father McKay was waiting at the door with a shotgun. The thing is, he didn't realize his daughter was gone, and he was out to catch burglars.
 Delta Gamma Gerry Wallace was Prom girl, you know, and she had a date with Delt Dow Wilson. After the review line had broken and dancing got under way, I saw Alpha Chi Helen Jennings and Bob Mowbrey; Alpha Phi Marian Dobney and Joe Stephens, DU; Kappa Delta Ruth Adams and Don Goodman; Gamma Phi Peggy West and Harold Paulsen, Pi KA; Dixie Davis, Chi Omega, and Al Kjar, Delt; Billie Hegeberger, Theta, and Ed McKee, ATO; Delta Gamma Betty Reese and Will Simmons, PiKA; Kappa Betty Ray with SN Jack Scott, and sister Verna with Gene Walters, Sig Ep. Alpha Phi Pat Jensen was there with ATO Claude Wilson, which reminds me that I forgot to mention to you that she now has a collection of pins... Claude's, and the Phi Delt pin of Culver Brooks. Last night was the Phi Delt party—and a good one. It seemed terribly good not to be wearing a formal—and the fellows looked so relaxed in soft collars. Theta Ann Beard was there with Herb Stuart; Kappa Virginia Stuh with Horace Purtzer; Bill Fox with Joy Bernard from Omaha; Jane Austin, DG, with Dick Anwyll; Dale Burnham and Pi Phi Charlotte Stahl.

 The other day in the Crib a funny thing happened. Dick Ryan, Sigma Nu, was sitting with some Theta's and all at once there was a terrific commotion. Dick jumped up and poured a glassful of water in each girls hat, for they had just favored him with the same. This brings to mind that there is no longer any bridge playing in the Crib, and a few of the famous former foursomes are sadly forlorn.
 Kappa Delt pledge Doris Grabow is wearing a Nu Med pin now, which might be an indication that her affair with Jack Reilly is going smoothly again. But not so smoothly is the affair between Alpha Phi Marg Randall and DU John Adkins, for they have called the whole thing off for a while. Her sister Mep Wagner has also been having minor difficulties with ATO George Unthank, but after phone calls between 1 and 4 a. m. and the soothing element of time, the whole thing is patched up.
 Back in town this weekend were Theta Frances Goodwin and Kappa Ann Hoffman—both contenders for beauty queen in the last two years, and this reminds me that the pictures of this year's beauties are now in Miller's window.
 Guess this just about covers the latest happenings on the campus. Wish you could be here today for the buffet dinner in the Union, but I understand perfectly.
 Yours searchingly,
 Sarah Society.

Attending the district convention of Phi Mu at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., this week end are Jody Marshall, Mary Laura Beurs and Woodie Campbell.

THIS IS THE STORY OF ELMER

Elmer is what is commonly known as a "phoo"—that is, he let things take care of themselves... whichever way the wind blew, Elmer went.

Sometimes the wind blew Elmer into the right place, and sometimes, it blew him into the wrong place. Most of the time, the wind blew him and his girl into a place she didn't especially like. But Elmer was too lazy to think ahead and figure out what he wanted to do and where he wanted to go. All of which left his girl in a very unhappy state and a very uncertain state. Then one day, when Elmer was "blowing" around as he usually did, he had a terrible accident, because he didn't look where he was going and got into a place he didn't want to get in. He almost fainted when he saw how much it cost to have himself "patched" up. After that, Elmer vowed he'd know where he was going before he started out. So he begged his girl to forgive him and asked her to go down to the CAPITAL Coffee Lounge where she could eat all she wanted because it cost him less in the long run, since he wouldn't have any more accidents, now that he knew he would always go to the CAPITAL!

Greek women sponsor Fair essay contest

Writer of best paper to receive free trip to New York exposition

A trip to the New York World's Fair, including a week's expenses at the Beekman Tower hotel, will award the college student who writes the best essay on one of the "four freedoms" of the United States Bill of Rights. The Fraternity Women's committee for the Fair is sponsoring the contest.

One of 14 questions authored by some of America's leading political and intellectual figures must be chosen by the entrant as topic of his essay, which must not be longer than 1,000 words. Typical of the type of questions which may be chosen is that posed by Commentator Hans Kaltenborn: "Must we continue to grant free speech to those who use it in order to destroy it?" Gen. John J. Pershing asks "Do you think the American system of government under the Constitution as drawn up by George Washington and his associates the best form of government yet devised, and why?" Mayor Fiorello La Guardia's question is "What is the best way to avoid unemployment cycles?"

Eligibility rules.
 Any regularly enrolled student of a college or university in the United States may enter, and is entitled to submit one essay. The entries must be mailed to the Fraternity Women's Committee, Hotel Beekman Tower, 49th and First Avenue, New York City, before March 15, and will be judged on selection of relevant material, coherent thought and literary value. Second and third prizes of $25 and $15 and an all-expense stay of one week at the Beekman Tower are also offered. Detailed information and entry blanks may be secured in the DAILY NEBRASKAN office.

Architects' group hears contractors' discussion

The Student's Architectural society held its regular meeting in the departmental library last week. Roy Elfine, a heating and plumbing contractor, Art Whitmer, a wiring contractor, and George Rokahr, a general contractor, conducted a round table discussion on current building problems, and the relations between contractors and architects. The meeting was concluded with refreshments and an informal discussion.

Bankers give student loans

Association offers help to economics seniors

The American Bankers association foundation will thru a number of loan scholarships which they are offering this spring make it possible for students to get assistance in meeting the current expenses of their education.

Intended primarily for students majoring in banking or economics who are having to work their way thru school, the loans will be given to senior students or above who have shown qualities of integrity, intelligence, character, competency, and aptitude.

Maximum Loan $250.
 The purpose of the loans is to encourage students who have the ability to become leaders in professional or business life, but are wholly or in part dependent on the income they receive from outside employment.

Loans amounting to a maximum of $250 will be given to worthy applicants, the amount to be split into an initial payment of $150 at the opening of the fall term, and the remainder in the following January.

Administration of the loans is being directed on this campus by the university finance department. Those desiring loans for advanced study or for securing a degree in their senior year should apply at that office.

Vespers present song theme Tuesday at 5

"The Singing Vespers" is the theme of this week's vespers, to be held Tuesday at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. The program will consist of singing a responsive reading. The audience will join in the singing of hymns, and the Vesper choir, led by Virginia Charnock, will sing a special number. Devotions are in charge of Elizabeth Green and Gertrude Bergren.

Bradford talks in Fremont

Dr. Harry E. Bradford, chairman of the university department of vocational education, returned yesterday from Fremont where he delivered addresses before the students of Midland college and Fremont high school, and a meeting of the Fremont Kiwanis club. He spoke to the students on "Vocational and Educational Guidance" and to the club on "New Demands on a Modern Public School System."

Hamilton writes article

Dr. Cliff Hamilton of the department of chemistry has two articles published in the current issue of the Journal of the American Chemical Society. Dr. Hamilton has published one study entitled, "Arsenicals Derived from m-Aminophenol," with Albert Beguin, who received his Ph.D. here last spring. The other article, "Arsenic Derivatives of Phenylmethylcarbinol," is written jointly with C. Kenneth Banks, graduate student in the department.
