

Western trip heads baseball slate

Arizona game April 5 at Tucson is opener

Iowa State opens home schedule April 17, 18

Announcement of Nebraska's 20 game baseball schedule, the best in history, was made yesterday, as the Cornhuskers took their second outdoor workout of the year.

The Huskers will open the season with an eight game training trip lasts through and after spring vacation as Nebraska travels to the west coast. First stopping point is Tucson, Ariz., where the Huskers will battle Arizona U. in a three game series beginning on April 5th. They travel westward to California, where on successive days they meet St. Mary's, San Jose State and California U. The Golden Bears played here last year and eked out a 4-2 extra inning verdict over the Huskers.

On the return trip the team stops off at Boulder on the 14th and 15th where they take on the Colorado Buffaloes.

First home games are with Iowa State on the 17th and 18th of April. All the home games will be on the new university field, which is not yet ready for use. The Huskers will close the season here as Oklahoma's Sooners travel to Lincoln for a two game series on the 18th and 19th of May. The preceding weekend was left open because of the high school diamond tournament which will be held at the university.

Altho the Huskers have been handicapped by bad weather until this week, and altho only five lettermen return, hopes for a winning season are high. Sixty-two aspirants, largest turnout in history, are reporting to Coach Wilbur Knight. Lettermen among them are pitchers Ruben Denning, Emerald, and Lloyd Schmadeke, Newman Grove; second baseman, Dow Wilson, Dow City, Ia.; Del Harris, Miller, and John McDermott, Grand Island, outfielders, McDermott, a minor letterman, was a member of the American Baseball Congress team which toured England this summer.

Position giving Knight most trouble is first base, where the graduation of Paul Amen left a troublesome gap. Leading contenders for Amen's old post are Orville Horak, Dodge, and Joe Laughlin, Grand Island, and Oscar Tegetmeier, Lewiston, who double as pitchers.

The catching position, which was the source of many of last year's worries, is well taken care of, what with Tom Moates, transfer from Iowa State Teachers college, Alvin Schmode, Winside star, and Bill Anderson, all first-class receivers seeking the position.

Wilson shifted.

Second base will be covered by Dow Wilson, Olympic team member, who was regular shortstop last year as a sophomore; shortstop will be Bernie LeMaster, sophomore from Elm Creek, while Frankie Rubino, Lincoln sophomore, will probably take care of third base. Harris and McDermott will probably fill two outfield posts while the other one is a tossup between Leonard Van Buskirk, Worland, Wyo., Bill Brune, Winside, and Lawrence Anderson, Wolbach, among others.

Denning and Schmadeke are best of the veteran pitchers, while Laughlin and Tegetmeier lead the newcomers.

Council to help coordinate education, extra activities

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (ACP). A new plan to coordinate extracurricular activities and education has been formed on the Williams college campus here to aid students who work in undergraduate organizations.

A newly formed committee of the undergraduate council will recommend or discourage lines of extracurricular endeavor in particular instances. It is expected that complete information on any student can be collected, on a basis of which advice can be given to him as to the direction and extent of his extracurricular affairs. The committee will be a purely advisory body.

Forty report for baseball at Ames

Six lettermen prepare opener next weekend

AMES, Ia.—Cutting short their spring vacation, 40 Iowa State college baseball candidates reported to Coach LeRoy Timm for what they hoped could be their first outdoor workout.

The untried Cyclone squad has been practicing inside for a month, with the pitchers and catchers working since January. Spring weather will meet with the whole hearted approval of Coach Timm because he must send almost an entire new team on the field against Simpson college a week from next Friday and Saturday.

Six Lettermen Back.

Six Cyclone squadmen, three of them pitchers, have won baseball letters. Capt. Othmar Pudenz, Auburn, first baseman who may be shifted to another infield position; Floyd Whitford, Volga, regular first baseman in 1938; Everett Kischer, Albert City, all Big Six quarterback and a slugging outfielder; Stan Swandahl, Huxley; Don Weber, Pomeroy, and Dean Drury, Early—the latter three hurlers—are the Iowa State veterans.

Squad members reporting today for two a day workouts include:

Catchers: John Thompson, Mason City; James Huff, Blakesburg; Arthur Kleespie, Zeoring; Lindsey Vinseel, Oak Park, Ill.; John Lieb, Atkins.

Pitchers: Weber, Swandahl, Drury, Lloyd and Gene Hally, Huxley; Leon Wilson, Kelley; Paul Hewitt, Des Moines; Bob Wunsh, Kenmore, N. Y.; Eugene Moon, Rock Rapids; Glen Black, Ames; Bill Donnan, New York, N. Y.; Lloyd Albers, Harlan; Don Gillam, Brandon.

First base: Whitford, Pudenz, Ed Jones, Conrad.

Second base: Ray Stone, Fort Dodge; Fred Gordon, St. Ansgar; Glenn Hein and Clyde Wilson, Kelley; Don Elliot, Des Moines; Richard DuBois, Plover.

Shortstop: Bob Harris, Sheldon; Donald Harrison, Ames; Henry Enebach, Manning; Wilbur Young, Randolph.

Third base: Francis Baidus, Story City; Merrill Filisch, Alburnett; Douglas Strubbe, Treynor.

Regler sees club women, sends in 'gypsy' alarm

The name of Sergeant Regler of the campus police is so often connected with oddities in the news that reporters began to expect it.

His name was in a news oddity again yesterday when he gave orders to cruiser police to pick up some gypsies he saw "making all the houses along R st.

From where he was standing by the Union, Reglar saw a group of people in gayly colored clothing further up the street going to the various houses on Greek row. Regler is under a permanent order to pick up any gypsies he sees around the campus, but he saw that some of them were standing close to a car, and he feared that the sight of a uniformed officer coming toward them would scare them into the car and away.

Calls cruiser car.

Being close to a phone, he called in the outrage to headquarters, where a cruiser car was dispatched to pick up the lot of them. But maybe Regler should have kept in closer touch with the university social calendar.

Detectives Schappaugh and Robbins were nonplussed when they arrived at the scene, for there were gobs and scads of gypsies, pouring out of the Temple auditorium covered with grease paint and shoe polish mustachios.

The gypsies were members of the cast of the Lincoln Woman's club musicale which was given in the Temple auditorium. Sergeant Regler still insists that "he really thought they were sure enough gypsies."

Lions to entertain NU tracksters

Huskers to demonstrate wares for club members

Tomorrow noon the Nebraska track team will be entertained at luncheon by the Lincoln Lions club at the stadium. Following this the tracksters will put on a demonstration for the club members.

Saturday afternoon the freshman dual color meet will be held starting at 3:00 o'clock in the east stadium, and perhaps if the weather remains favorable it will be held on the outdoor track.

The first outdoor dual meet for the varsity tracksters has been slated for April 8 at Lawrence, Kas., where the Huskers will try to repeat their indoor win over the Jayhawkers.

Japanese golfer 'fails'; now college dean in Shanghai

PRINCETON, N. J.—Princeton university's faculty and undergraduate Phi Beta Kappa members were astonished at news that Prince Fumitaka Konoye, son of former Premier of Japan, was installed as dean of Shanghai controlled college in Shanghai. The Prince, captain of the 1938 Princeton golf team, was a scholastic "flop" here and said upon departure for Japan, "I flunked all my majors most miserably."

When the prince's class left the campus last spring, Prince Konoye took away memories of undergraduate days but no diploma. But he was one of the finest Princeton golf players and often scored par on the local course.

It surprises the boys.

The announcement that he is now Dean of the Nipponese-sponsored Tungwen college in Shanghai's French concession caused mingled feelings of surprise and humiliation in circles to whom the value of diplomas and honor grades are still important in education.

"Think of it," said one faculty member, "I have been a member of the faculty here for 50 years and I am not a dean yet."

The prince led the Princeton golf team thru an undefeated season last spring and was only defeated in one match himself, losing to Willie Turnesa of Holy Cross, who became National Amateur champion last summer. The Japanese nobleman began his golfing career at Lawrenceville academy where he was No. 1 man. He was the Princeton university golf champion when he sailed from America, without a diploma, to become dean of Tungwen college.

pany. Mitchell received his master's degree here in January, 1938, and Pabst his bachelor's degree a year later.

Donald Cain, who will receive his master's degree at the end of the 1939 summer session, will join the DuPont laboratory staff at Cleveland. Irwin Shutt, who received his bachelor's degree last June in chemical engineering, has accepted a position with one of the large distilleries at Louisville, Ky.

Athletic girls top campus leg beauty

Women sport fans have, or develop, good form

TUCSON, Ariz. (IP). The preponderance of beautiful nether extremities we see strolling about the nation's colleges and universities belong to the athletic minded coeds.

So determines a survey made here by senior majors in physical education for women at the University of Arizona.

Women students in athletics either had better formed legs to start with or developed them in the course of their activity in the various sports, the survey told. Among the non-athletically inclined were found the majority of knock kneed and bowlegged.

The survey defined bad shoes as those with extreme heels, no arch, and a pinch toe. Four percent of the athletic girls wore non-sensible shoes as opposed to 40 percent of those not interested in athletics, it was found.

Ohio coeds willing to pay for escorts

Enterprising students profit with 'men for hire'

COLUMBUS, O. (ACP). Yes, believe it or not, today's coeds are in need of men to escort them to social and good time functions.

Proof of the fact is a brand new survey made by two Ohio State university students, J. W. Danner and Don Zeigler—proof that was so conclusive to them that they've announced the establishment of an escort service on the Buckeye campus.

Of the 213 girls questioned, 109 indicated they would "perhaps" patronize such a service, and 32 would definitely make use of it. More than three-fourths of them would use the service to get a date for a visiting friend, while half of them would patronize the service for themselves.

"Oddly enough, some of the most popular girls are among the most interested," Danner pointed out. "Part of the interest is created by the novelty of the idea, and part of it seems to arise from advantages we didn't see ourselves until they were pointed out by some of the girls."

"At present Danner and Ziegler have ten escorts engaged in the service. Prices are, in addition to the expenses of the date, 75 cents for afternoon, $1.50 evenings, $3 fornal. Photographs of "esquires" will be furnished upon request.
