DAILY NEBRASKAN

SEVEN

As I See It
by June Bierbower

Ed Waterbury, California U. alumnus, might have become a famous man last Saturday had it not been for Bob Peoples and the fact that Waterbury fouled by two inches on a javelin toss.

Waterbury, competing in the varsity-alumni track meet at Berkeley, got off a 232' 4" javelin throw, but he stepped a couple inches over the line, and necessarily the toss was declared foul. That's nearly a foot better than the 231-odd foot "native American" mark Larry Bell established last year.

Peoples of Southern Cal, however, got a legal 234' 17-8" mark the same day so about all Waterbury has to show for his effort is his winning toss of the meet—215' 1 1/2".

From Saturday's scrimmage: No. 1 block of the session was by Bus Knight, who has been shifted to the blocking back position this spring...he flattened an unidentified Harvard man who was attempting to tackle Harry Hopp on a punt return...Junior Hudkins, who scored the last touchdown after taking a lateral from Theos Thompson who had intercepted a Harvard pass, looked classy Saturday...Hudkins was picking his holes well, and driving hard for a comparatively little fellow...he's tough as tenpennies, and has the color that made his uncle, Ace Hudkins, world famous as a boxer...Young Hudkins won't be with the Huskers next fall...he's a first semester freshman...Bob Mehring, ex-Husker guard, watched Saturday's workout...George Porter loafed the last part of his 70 yard touchdown run...Arlo Klum was turning in some good guard play for the Yales...

Vike Francis looked good Saturday...the big fellow looks good for a starter's position in the backfield if he can keep it up...Vike's already at least as good a ball carrier as his big brother Sam, but he, at this stage, lacks the all around ability Sam had...he still has three years of college competition ahead, though...Bob Burruss, who nearly made a touchdown against Indiana last fall when he intercepted a pass, picked one out of the air yesterday...Edsel Wibbels, who is passing up football, was demonstrating his discus ability to Lincoln and Jackson high boys.

Paul Masoner, Kansas football star, is becoming quite a hurdler. The Jayhawk senior did 6.8 seconds on the 60 yard lows at the Butler relays in Indianapolis. That's but one-tenth second off the 6.7 world's record Heye Laribertus, ex-Husker, set at Indianapolis, so sez the University Daily Kansan.

42 Husker athletes get awards

Of 22 major letters, 9 go to basketball men; 6 'B' teamers honored

The university's athletic department yesterday announced its letter awards for the 1938-39 winter season as 42 Husker athletes were honored. Twenty-one men received major letters, 15 minor letters, and 6 won "B" team awards.

Nine of the major letters were in basketball, the awards going to seniors Robert Elliott, William Kovanda and Alton Werner; juniors Harry Pitcaithley, Robert Therien, Grant Thomas and Irvin Yaffee, and sophomores Don Fitz and Al Randall.

Minor lettermen are Lloyd Grimm, Jack Jackson and Frank Tallman, while "B" teamers to be honored are Frank Rubino, Don Schulz, Paul Soldan, Fred Uhlman, Leonard Van Buskirk and Fred Worthman.

Swimmers awarded. Major swimming awards went to Coach Pete Hagelin, Ted Legate, Fred Rodenbeck, William Van Horn, Ralph Worden and Evelle Younger. Robert Chatt, Max Lake and Robert F. Simmons won minor letters.

Wrestlers to get major awards are Leland Clare, Shelley Condan, James Knight, Milton Kuska, William Luke and George Seeman. Seeman is the only man at Nebraska who has won two major letters this year, the Omahan also having lettered at end in football.

Minor wrestling letters will go to Paul Fidler, Herbert Rosenthal, Raynold Tomes and Julius Wittmann. Five members of Nebraska's fine gymnastics team will receive minor awards, the men being Galus Cadwell, Jake Geier, Roy Proffitt, Don Seidel and Stanley Southwick.

'Wild Hoss' Cardy assistant track coach for Petz
Lloyd Cardwell, Wild Hoss of the Plains, and one of Nebraska's greatest athletes, has returned to the Husker campus, temporarily, at least, as an assistant coach.

The University of Chicago spends $2,500,000 annually for research.

Eli's trail 13-6 at end of four quarters; Hudkins makes winning points

Two touchdowns in the last period of an extended scrimmage session yesterday gave Nebraska's Yale squad another victory over the Harvards, 19-13.

The losers led 13-6 at the end of four periods by dint of Vike Francis' two touchdowns and his extra point, but with reserve lineups in the game, the Elis shoved over two spectacular touchdowns to win.

First score came when lanky George Porter, ran 75 yards on a cutback. The veteran back from Denver loafed the last few yards as he outran part of his pursuers and Yale blockers accounted for the remaining ones. Bus Knight made the extra point and the score was 13-13.

Hudkins goes over. Winning touchdown came when Theos Thompson intercepted a stray Harvard pass 40 yards out, and ran to about the 10 where he lateraled to Junior Hudkins who went over with the ball.

The first score came in the second period after Vike Francis ran from the Yale 35 yard line to the 10 and lateraled to Roy Petsch who got to the 4 before being stopped. On the next play Francis plowed thru center for the counter. He missed the extra point to make it 6 to 0. In the third quarter Harry Hopp put a punt out of bounds on the Harvard 1 yard marker and set the green shirts back on their heels. Jack Stubbs kicked out to the 45 and Hopp ran it back to the 25 before he was stopped. On the next play Hopp tossed a long one to Ashburn who grabbed it up on the 4 and ran unmolested across for the tying score. Hopp's kick was wide.

Francis scores. In the fourth quarter Harvard first string took up where it had left off at the end of the second and on a sustained drive with DeFruiter, Francis, Petsch and Vincent alternating, drove it down to the 1 yard marker where Francis drove off tackle for the counter. Vike's placekick for the extra point was good.

Not content to quit at the end of the regular game, Biff kept the boys hard at it. George Porter unlimbered his legs in the extra period to gallop 75 yards for one score while Theos Thompson and Junior Hudkins combined to intercept a stray Harvard pass and on a lateral run 40 yards for another marker.

The contest was played on the regular field for the first time this year, and the gridders slid around to their heart's contents in the soft sod.

Ping pongers end league competition

Betas, Sigma Nus, ATOS, DUs undefeated while league 3 is tied Intramural paddlers clashed in the final game of the five league round robin ping pong tournament Saturday afternoon, leaving the Betas, Sigma Nus, A. T. O.'s and DU's undefeated and champions of their respective leagues. Winning league teams vie among themselves this week for the title position in the tournament.

A Sig Ep victory over Delt hopefuls placed the Pi K A and the Sig Eps in a tie with three wins and one loss in league 3. These teams will be matched together early this week to pick a third league entry in the inter league finals.

Beta Theta Pi Paddlers include John Brownlee, Kermit Hansen, Ted Welton, Frank Tallman, John Cockle, and the boys who brought home the bacon to the Sigma Nu house were George Ainley, Jean Wolf, Robert Krause, Edwin Vail and Ed Schmid.

ATO, DU win. League 4 and 5 victories went to the ATO team of Ed Calhoun, Joe Laughlin, Sid White, Wendell Bayse and Francis Leik, and to the DU group composed of Leonard Dunker, Harry Ankeny, Robert Nye, John DePutron and Ed May.

Romping over the Sigma Chi's with a 5-0 tally, Beta paddlers topped the league 1 contestants, pushing the Sig Chi's to the number two position. In the same league Farm House edged a 3-2 victory over the Acacia team, giving the latter its fourth straight defeat.

Chi Phi goes down. Ending the Chi Phi-Sigma Nu undefeated competition, the Sigma Nu team jumped Chi Phi's 4 to 1 to take the initial position in the second bracket. The Kappa Sigs defaulted to the AGR paddle team to push them up to a fourth place position. Though as yet indecisive, due to the tie of Pi K A and Sig Ep teams for the championship, league 3 games of the day gave the Alpha Sig team a 3-2 tally against the Lambda Chi Alpha's and the Sig Eps a 4-1 decision over the Deltas.

A substitute ATO team held the lead recently established by their chapter in league 4 by edging over the Phi Deltas in a series of hair raising games with a score of 4-1 in their favor. Theta Xi relinquished the bottom position in the league to Delta Theta Phi, dazzling the latter with a 5-0 victory.

League 5 competition ended with the defeat of the promising Zeta Beta Tau team before a strong DU outfit.

Football foes' news KU holds first scrimmage; McMillan seeks wingmen

KANSAS—Gwinn Henry's best backfield combination so far has been Bill Bunsen, fullback; Dick Amerine and Milt Sullivan at halfbacks, and Ralph Miller, tailback. The Jayhawks held their first real scrimmage of the spring this week. First three weeks were spent mostly in getting into condition and in learning Gwinn Henry's plays, which, based mainly on deception, differ considerably from those former coach Ad Lindsey used.

KANSAS STATE—Stan Williamson, line coach, is building a forward wall around veterans Crumbaker, Weiner, and Beasley. Seven lettermen are returning in the backfield, and six of last fall's reserves. Gene Fair, Kent Duwe, Ray Rokey, Lyle Wilkins, Max Timmons, and Lawrence Stoland, are in the fight.

IOWA STATE—Sixty Cyclones opened spring drills last week, with lettermen Ed Bock, Everett Kischer, Chuck Heileman, Clyde Shugart, George Bazik and Joe Goldberg gone. Yeager is counting on Capt. Martin Boswell, Bill Bliss, Leo Quinn, Douglas Graves, Bob Hunt and Ronald Rogers, ends; Paul Morin, Kenneth Dyer, Edgar Pieper and Walter Stuenkel, tackles; Howard Buck, Ernest Mueller, Duncan Glab, and Jake Stong, guards; and centers Jack West, Ed Fuller and Bob Moody, also a tackle, in the line. Last year's varsity backs who are returning include Robert Darrow, Don Griswold, Merle Osborn, Tom Smith, Hugh Vickerstaff, Lindsay Vinsel, Ed Woodruff, Howard Medin, Milton Miletich, David Lee, Henry Wilder, the conference's leading ground gainer last fall, is out for track, and is not participating in spring drills.

INDIANA—Bo McMillan's main troubles come at end with the graduation of Frank Petrick and John Widaman. At left end Jim Ellenwood, letterman from last year, looks like a starter, while Ralph Huff and Ed Rucinski are other experienced men. At right end, Wideman's old position, Archie Harris, giant star from last fall and John Janzaruk, who will be a senior next year, are the leading candidates. Russ Higginbotham is also in the running.

IOWA U.—Eddie Anderson has three first year men in his favorite lineup to date, among whom is Al Couppee, former Council Bluffs star, who is at fullback. Other members of the backfield are quarterback Russell Busk, and halfback Ed McLain and Nile Kinnick of Omaha, all of whom will be playing their last year for the Hawkeyes next fall.
