

As I See It

by June Bierbower

Following is an extemporaneous speech given by Corby Davis at a banquet in his home town honoring the high school's basketball and football teams according to the Indiana Daily Student:
(Applause)... "Er--er--this is a surprise, that is er--er kind of. You see I didn't know that, er--ah I was coming up here until about ah--ah two o'clock this morning when Ralph (Ralph Graham, Indiana assistant coach) called me up and told me so.--Er, that is, ah--haw--I was studying at the time. (profic boing as Corby blushes).
Ah--I don't really er--er know what to say. I ah--mm--ah sure am glad I came, ah--because the food was good, and ah--ah--haw, I sure like to eat--ha, ha. --Thank you."

Brother acts are again fairly prevalent on the Husker squad this spring. Bob and Royal Kahler are back, as halfback and tackle respectively. Then there are Ed and Sam Schwartzkopf, Ed is a freshman and Sam a two-year veteran at tackle. The younger of the brothers has been promoted to a first string guard berth on Biff's Harvard team. Then there are Ray and Jerome Prochaska, both ends. Although Ray is a sophomore and his brother is a freshman, Jerome is the older of the boys.

Three members of the squad are younger brothers of former Husker stars. Jack Ashburn, end, is a brother of ex-N. U. wingman Cliff Ashburn; Freddie Meyer, center, is a younger brother of Franklin, former ace pivotman, and Vike Francis is Sam's brother.

Stanford has probably the best two shot putters on any team in the country in Stan Anderson and Bill Wohle. Anderson did 52 feet 2 inches Saturday for the best performance in the nation to date, while he also did 51-10 at a Long Beach meet the week before. Wohle has done 51-8.

And it would be pretty hard to find a team with three better javelin tossers than Southern Cal. Bob Peoples, of course, is the leader, the Oklahoman having a mark of 234 feet 1 7-8 inches, while another sophomore, Hugo DeGroot, who has been throwing the spear for only two years, has a mark of 216 feet to his credit. Reed Trusel has bettered 207 feet, and placed in the NCAA championships last year.

Remember a fellow by the name of "Jumping Joe" Williams? A few years back Williams, a sophomore, made every sport page in the country by virtue of a hot-shot press agent and by virtue of some fancy ball carrying for Ohio State.

Williams, however, ran into scholastic difficulties, and dropped out of school. Now he is a freshman at Marshall college, which, although you probably haven't heard of it, turns out some pretty snappy football teams for a little school.

Dick Amerine, Kansas U. back, suffered a shoulder injury Saturday which will keep him out of scrimmage for the remainder of spring practice... Amerine, who was thought to have been lost to the team after a vertebra injury last fall, had run 53 yards for a touchdown on the third play of an intersquad game... Two Iowa State swimmers placed in the National Collegiate last weekend... sophomore Roger Adams was fifth in the 50-yard freestyle, and George Haldeman was fourth in the 200 yard breaststroke in which Princeton's Richard Hough set a new world's record... Jim Brock, big K-State blocking back, is about the only pitcher in sight down at Manhattan...

Phi Gams take League IV bowling title

Acacia, Sig Ep, Sigma Nu stand in three-way tie fo League III honors

Phi Gamma Delta captured undisputed championship of league four of the intramural bowling by defeating Beta Sigma Psi 1,524 to 1,438 in their final round last night. Prior to the match the two teams were tied for first place in their league.

Lloyd Hill led the Phi Gams with games of 162-159 for a total of 321, while topping the losers was Roscoe Heins with a 325 score.

Acacia bowed to Sigma Nu in the feature match of the evening 1,543 to 1,617 as Forrest Blood led the Sigma Nu's with a total of 355 closely followed by Marv Plock, Acacia, who totaled 350.

Led by Bob Dreibus, Sigma Phi Epsilon nosed out the S. A. E. team 1,612 to 1,580. Dreibus combined games of 197, individual tops for the night's performance, and 164 to get a score of 361. Bill Buchanan led the S. A. E.'s with 364 to grab top scoring honors for the evening.

With one round yet to go this throws league three into a three way tie for first place with the Acacias, Sigma Nus, and Sigma Phi Epsilon fighting for top honors. The tie will probably be played off in the final round of that league Wednesday.

NU rifles take second place

Iowa State wins first in Inter-Collegiate meet

Nebraska's rifle team placed second in the Inter-Collegiate National Rifle association matches fired at Kansas State yesterday. Iowa State copped first place with 1842 while the Huskers were a mere 37 points behind the winners with 1805.

Firing on the Nebraska team were Fred Bodie, John Folsom, George Galloway, Jay Forrester, and Clifford Thompson. Alternate member of the squad was Eugene Jorgenson.

Creighton university was third in the meet, Kansas State, fourth and Wichita university fifth. Both K-State and Wichita had the same total score but the Wildcats had the better score in the standing position and so were awarded the fourth position.

Chi O's, Bouton win cage games

Tourney matches set for today, Wednesday

Basketball winners in the intramural competition Friday were Chi Omega 1 over Delta Gamma 2 by a score of 18 to 6 and Bouton hall won by a default from Delta Gamma 3. Tri Delt 1 downed Delta Gamma 3 27 to 6 and Theta 1 defaulted to Delta Gamma 4 in yesterday's games.

Games for today are Kappa Delta 2 vs. Gamma Phi Beta and Tri Delt 2 vs. Delta Gamma 1. Wednesday's games include Pi Phi vs. Kappa Delt 1 and Western Nebraska vs. Chi Omega 2.

Huskers talk it over

The batting ability of Dell Harris and John McDermott will have a lot to do with the success of Nebraska's baseball team in their competition this spring. Strength at the batting posts will make or break Coach Wilbur Knight's squad.

Harris is one of the top hitters on the Scarlet and Cream nine, even though his last year's batting record made so little impression on him that he does not remember it. McDermott was a member of the Olympic baseball squad which toured England last summer, and won a letter last year as an infielder. Both are vying for regular outfield positions this spring.

'Biff' Jones suffers from flu siege

Assistants direct practice; scrimmage, set for tomorrow

Even the mighty are unable to escape the prevalent campus jinx which has been dogging the football team and campus alike, as Maj. Lawrence "Biff" Jones left his coaching duties to fight an attack of flu.

The Biffer send his gridders his regrets, however, and put them into the hands of able assistants for the afternoon drill. Unwilling to miss a single hour of the limited spring training period coaches and players alike braved the blustery March weather and got in almost a full afternoon's work.

Only one change in the lineups resulted from last week's play, as Ed Schwartzkopf replaced George Stearns in the first string guard position on the Harvard squad.

Two scrimmages have been scheduled for next week, one on Wednesday and the other on Saturday. These will not be open to the public, however.

Five continents, 32 foreign countries, two territories, 48 states and the District of Columbia are represented in the Cornell university student body.

Phys ed class season closes Monday, April 3

It was incorrectly announced in some of the gym classes that the present season classes ended today. Classes will meet as usual until Monday, April 3. Bowling classes will meet at the regular time at the bowling alleys.

Tanksterettes to meet today at 5 in Gym

A meeting of Tanksterettes has been called for today at 5 o'clock in Grant Memorial room 101.

Pris Wicks wins ping pong singles

Tess Casady, Betty Griffiths cop doubles

Pris Wicks, Tri Delt, and Tess Casady and Betty Lou Griffiths, Kappa Alpha Theta, emerged as the intramural ping pong champions of the singles and the doubles divisions respectively.

Pris was the winner of the first league competition, downing Kathryn Kellison. Elaine Linscott became the second league champion by beating Ann Soukup, Kappa Delta, before bowing to Pris in the finals.

In the first league doubles competition Virginia Cochrane and Alice Hensen, Raymond hall, defeated Sara Smeerin and Judith Levenson, Sigma Delta Tau. Tess and Betty Lou were victorious in the second league over Pat Prime and Marian Bremers, Alpha Phi, and the first league combination of Hensen and Cochrane.

Louisiana State university has received a gift of 5,000 French books from the French government.
