Count off the days 'til Thursday... which will be a great day... and in the meantime, hope for decent picnic weather and decide to go to all your classes until vacation... and this is the week-end of big banquets at Beta, ATO, and Towne Club, and the Pi Phi Hayrack ride, weather permitting... and the Park and Turnpike brought lots of the kiddies out both Friday and Saturday nights, which makes that spring feeling pretty well cinched... and the pin-hanger of the week is that of Al Armbruster, Beta, on Delta Gamma Betty Schroeder... at the Turnpike Friday night were ATO Bun Nichols and Kappa Betty Ray, Pi Phi Marj Barnett dancing with Sigma Nu Bob Zoesch, which is a little new and different; and ZBT Bud Slosburg was with Jo Gold, Sig Alph Bill Beechley and Pat Swartz, a visitor on the campus... "also seems" were DU Joe Stephens and Theta Betty Lou Griffiths, and Sig Ep Bill Kovanda with Delphine Seely, Pi Phi... and along the more frequent frequenters lately are Alpha Chi Chronnie Westcott and Bob Morris, Sigma Nu... and a redress of grievances is sent to Don Hartman, and Alice Blackstone, Tri Delta, who are not going steady...

Alpha Chi Omega's new officers are Rachel Diller, president; Bette Turner, vice president; Eleanor Eisenhart, treasurer; Margaret Steburg, recording secretary; Mary Ellen Osborn, corresponding secretary; Nancy Mauch, historian.

Triple Test

Clothing values come—and go—but Triple Test Worsteds stays right up there at the top, year in and year out. There must be a reason. There is! Triple Test is aces for style—fit—wear. It keeps its shape long after ordinary suits are on their way to that wilted-lettuce look. This stamina is no accident, right. It's the result of a fabric with plenty of body, and fine tailoring that puts something into a suit that hangs on months after its original price is forgotten!
