Silver loving cup goes to Delta Upsilon group as Beta singers upset

Upsetting the fraternity sing champions of two years standing the D.U.'s carried home the Kosmet Klub silver loving cup from the interfraternity Ivy Day sing at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. In spite of threatening clouds which finally spilled torrents of rain on the D.U. singers before they could complete their number, the six fraternal groups competing, sang to a crowded audience on the grass green mall north of Administration building.

Judges call back three groups. Unable to decide on the trophy winner when each group had sung its song, the three judges called back the A. T. O.'s, Betas and D.U.'s to perform for them again. Betas placed second and the A. T. O.'s third. Other fraternities entered were Acacia, Phi Gamma Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

With Ralph Tyler beating out the count as director and Morris Roettgers pitchman at the piano, the D.U. champs sang a eulogy to the founders of the fraternity in 134, entitled "A Toast to Delta U." Beta contestants sang "Loving Cup," with Kermit Hansen directing, and third place A. T. O.'s did "Chant Marchant" under the leadership of Francis Loetterle, recently elected president of the fraternity.

Judges chosen by Elizabeth Waugh, A. W. S. sponsor for the girls and Kosmet Klub, sponsors of the men's sing were Mr. Martin Bush of Omaha U., Mrs. Kathleen Miller of Council Bluffs, and Mr. Rupert Goodbrod of Midland college.

Rain fails to dampen spirits as crowds view Ivy Day celebrations

Though a thick overhanging screen of clouds offered an ever-present threat of rain, large crowds overflowed the bleachers and encircled the white picketed square to view the Ivy Day coronation of Virginia Nolte, May Queen of 1939. Helen Pascoe was revealed as maid of honor.

Preceded by the D.U. victory in the interfraternity sing, and the condemnation of campus affairs by the even toned Ivy Day speaker, Willard Wilson, the coronation ceremony opened about 10 o'clock with the parade of the Ivy day chain.

vined dais, and taking files along the board walk.

Trumpeters announce entry. As the black robed Mortar Boards filed up the walk driving all enthusiastic photographers to the sides, and throwing a solemn atmosphere over the day's celebrations, the trumpets announcing the entry of Miss Nolte sounded two blasts.

Trumpeters Mary Lou Daly and Betty Pierce, clothed in white, led the procession of attendants to the dais where they took up positions among the foliage at the side. Senior attendants were clothed in a dusty pink, juniors in periwinkle blue, sophomores in buttercup yellow, and freshmen in aqua blue.

Freshmen girls lead parade. Freshmen girls leading the parade of attendants were Shirley Russell and Elaine Jordan, sophomore girls were Charlotte Utt and Ellajo Marshall; junior girls, Virginia Wheeler, Dorothy Glenn, Mary Ellen Osborne, and Emma Marie Schuttloffel, and the senior pair, Helen Catherine Davis and Marjorie Schick.

Heralding the arrival of the queen and maid of honor children attendants sprinkled flowers along the walk and Tommy Becker carried the crown to the throne.

Applause greets queen. With a burst of applause, photographers, and enthusiastic students stormed the fences and crowded the green to greet the honored pair. Both carrying beautiful bouquets, Virginia Nolte and Helen Pascoe ascended the dais, where Miss Nolte received her crown. The queen of the day was dressed in a long white dress with a train of lace supported by children attendants following her.

Concluding the celebrations Francis Keefer, Ivy day poetess, paid tribute to the newly crowned queen with the presentation of an original poem, and the junior and senior class presidents, Bill Ko-vanda and Grant Thomas, transferred the ivy plant to its position at the base of the traditional Ivy tree.

Queen leads procession. Turning over her flowers to the attendants, the queen began the recessional ceremony which carried the Nebraska beauties out of the rectangle.

The new queen is prominent in campus affairs, belonging to the senior honorary, Mortar Boards; serving on the coed counsellor board, as a Vestal of the Lamp, and is a past president of Tassels. Miss Pascoe, likewise a Mortar Board, a former editor of the DAILY NEBRASKAN, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Theta Sigma Phi, Chi Delta Phi, and Vestals of the Lamp.

48 ornamental species set out for new project

Forty-eight species of ornamental trees and shrubs, the first in a new project announced recently by Dean W. Burr, have been set out on a new demonstration planting on the agricultural campus. Only species adapted to Nebraska conditions and not now in common use will be included.

Sorority winner takes first place for third year; D.G. takes second

Capturing the A. W. S. intersorority sing cup for the third consecutive year, Kappa Alpha Theta trounced a field of 12 other competitors in the contest yesterday afternoon.

Singing an original number composed last fall by the girls of the house, the Theta girls maintained their traditional song record. Second place went to Delta Gamma, and third place to Alpha Omicron Pi.

Recall three sororities. Likewise having difficulty in picking any one winner, the judges asked the three high sororities to sing their numbers the second time. The Thetas won on "Theta Stars," directed by Mary Rosborough, while consolation positions went to the Delta Gammas on "I Have Found My Dream Girl," led by Mary Elizabeth Stewart, and to the AO Pi's on "Girl of AOPI," under the direction of Mariellen Marko.

Other sororities entered in the meet were: Alpha Chi, Alpha Phi, Alpha Zeta Delta, Chi O, Tri Delt, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Mu and Pi Phi.

Elizabeth Waugh, A. W. S. sponsor of the contest made the award. Judges were the same as those who picked the fraternity winners.

Recordings of group singing in the inter-fraternity and intersorority sings will be made under the supervision of T. C. Dier, university radio director. Only organized houses which have made previous arrangements will be accommodated in this respect.
